The students competing in the Timmy Horton High School Challenge fished from boats piloted by an adult who did not fish. Tucker's grandfather, Jim Garrie, was her boat captain.

Rounding out the top five in the senior division were Ross Napier also of Hartselle High with 12.32 pounds; Gabe Wallace of Russellville High with 6.49 pounds; Clayton Birdyshaw of Rogers High in Florence with 6.17 pounds and Brody Montgomery of Vinemont High with 4.45 pounds.

Luke Linley is an 8th grader at Deshler Middle School in Tuscumbia who won the junior division with a five-bass limit that weighed 5.27 pounds. He won a $3,000 scholarship. The junior division is for anglers in grades 7-9.

Linley's boat captain was his father, Kevin Linley.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q What does it mean when a lawyer says "no recovery, no fee"?

Brad, Tusculumbia, Alabama

A Your question addresses a contingency fee contract. This simply means the attorney gets paid only if he recovers money. Contingency fee contracts provide a percentage of the damages awarded to the injured party as compensation for the lawyer. A standard automobile accident contingency fee is 40%. More difficult cases such as product liability and medical malpractice cases are based on contingency fee of 50% of the damages awarded. This accounts for the risk associated with incurring costs by the lawyer.

One of the last cases I had, our firm incurred over $140,000.00 in expenses. That was a risk taken based on the facts of that case and in that case it paid off. Not all of them do.

Defense lawyers are paid by an insurance company and they are paid by the hour. Those lawyers are paid no matter what the outcome. The injured party's lawyer, under a contingency fee contract, is only paid if he wins.

They teach in law school all "tort" cases require a duty, a breach of that duty, and an injury as a direct result of that breach. What they don't teach in law school, but should, is that it requires a fourth element and that is someone with money to pay the damages in the event you win.

In a state like Alabama where you have mandatory automobile insurance laws you know as a juror that there is insurance on the other side or that lawyer representing the injured party wouldn't be there.

A contingency fee contract is truly the peoples' key to the courthouse. It doesn't require payment up front to hire a lawyer and that lawyer is only paid at the end of the case if there is a recovery.

Buckle up and drive safely.

Tips for Christmas and the Holiday Season

B. Grant McNutt
Managing Attorney

Statistics show that consumers spend more money during the 3 months before New Year's than any time of the year. It makes perfect sense as these 3 months include Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas. Costumes, parties and entertainment, presents and travel are at a yearly high. Unfortunately for many, much of that purchasing is done on credit. Credit, usually at high interest rates, leads to major financial difficulties in the future.

Here are a few tips to help you save during the Holidays, so next year doesn't have to be stressful.

1. Talk with your family and friends and agree to a limit on how much you are allowed to spend on each other.
2. Agree to a limited gift exchange, whereby each person is responsible for buying for only one person. Draw names to make it interesting.
3. Instead of exchanging gifts, find a time when you are all available and go on outing or trip to a special place together. I bet it will be more memorable later in life. I personally can't remember what I received last year for Christmas, but I remember every trip I have been on with my family in great detail.
4. Instead of exchanging gifts contribute to a charity.
5. Be creative and find alternatives to purchasing gifts, such as homemade treats or computer made coupons agreeing to do free yard work, house cleaning or babysitting. Again, be creative. You know your skills, provide them. Remember it is the thought that counts and "Time" is money.
6. Once you figured out who you are buying presents for and how much you are spending on each, determine your overall budget and stick to it. This will help you avoid the temptations of last minute impulse buying. Sticking to your Budget takes discipline and if you are lacking in that department, enlist help. Everyone knows someone who can be that voice of reason. Personally, I have a new niece who is to be born shortly after the New Year and my wife is having to hold me back from buying every Disney Princess dress I see. She is my voice of reason.
7. Next year start buying early. Don't wait to the last second. Take advantage of deals throughout the year that may not be available during the holiday season. This year's hot item will usually go on sale sometime next year and your little one can still have it, at a much cheaper price. Another plus to this strategy of buying a present or 2 here and there during the year means when it gets to the holiday season, you are already finished or very close and can just enjoy the season.
8. Avoid buying unnecessary extended warranties or service contracts. Extended warranties often duplicate the product's existing warranty and are usually not worth the extra cost. Also, within this tip, I want to add, watch out for overzealous commission based salespeople. Make sure that voice of reason person is with you. If it is something you did not plan to buy, don't.
9. Keep all receipts from your purchases and know the store's return policies in case you end up taking it back for some reason.
10. Lastly, pay with cash, check or debit card. Thus, you will not buy anything you don't have the money in the bank to buy. This will help you avoid finance charges that can be astronomical.

If you have already spent too much during the past year, or end up spending too much during the holiday season, don't let it ruin your New Year. Please call us if you have any questions regarding Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, stopping a foreclosure or wage garnishment, avoiding liens, stopping law suits, discharging debt, etc. We can help you!

Make the most of your insurance deductibles.

Want to Know How You Can Outsmart YOUR DEDUCTIBLE?

HERE'S A WAY TO FEEL SMART when it comes to medical insurance. If you've been putting off a minor surgery or an important test your doctor has recommended, the end of the year is a good time to take care of those overdue medical needs. Here's why. Deductibles under most health insurance plans will reset to the full amount beginning in January. So if you've met your deductible payments for the current year and are able to complete additional procedures before year-end, your out-of-pocket medical expenses could be minimal or even zero.

If you know you need a screening or surgery, call us today.

Waiting Patiently

Psalms 37:7 "Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass." 2 Thessalonians 3:5 "And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ." The saved folks of today are encouraged in both testaments to be patient and should be excited and looking for the next appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ. It will be wonderful to finally see the One who died for our sins and suffered our death and hell so we could spend eternity with him. Yes we (the saved) have a great Redeemer and Saviour. Christ has promised in John chapter 14 & 1 Thessalonians 4 & 1 Thessalonians 1:10, that He is coming to get us and deliver us from the wrath to come. In 2 Timothy 4:8 we are promised a crown for just loving his appearing. Are you not excited and looking for the glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ?

Two old songs come to mind when I think of Christ coming again. One is "What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see, when I look upon His face, the one who saved me by His grace, when he takes me by the hand and leads me through the promised land, what a day, glorious day that will be." The other one is "It will be worth it all when we see Jesus, life's trials will seem so small when we see Christ; one glimpse of His dear face, all sorrows will erase, so bravely run the race, till we see Christ." To my saved brothers and sisters in Christ, these old songs should have been and probably still are a blessing to your hearts and souls and should bring tears of joy to your eyes. Just to think that the creator of the universe thought enough of us to give us physical life, and then because He has life in Himself, came and suffered and bled and died for our sins that separated us from God, so we could be saved and spend eternity with Him. Ephesians 2:4 "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us." Truly, we should thank Christ every day for saving our soul. Patiently wait, He's coming again for us real soon.

To my friends and supporters in Lauderdale County:

Life takes us down many paths and trails, some we choose and some are given to us. Over the past nine months I have been on a trail that has taken me over hills, around curves, and past many cotton fields.

I have met so many wonderful folks along the way, learned so much, shared laughs and stories and meals. I never really knew how the trail was going to end but I had my hopes. I was encouraged by friends and strangers alike, so many times I was sincerely asked "How can I help?" And everyone did help, put up signs, knocked on doors, talked to their friends about me, and much more.

This trail ended last Tuesday and I am so grateful to everyone I met along the way... the journey is the destination. I can never thank everyone enough for your advice, your support and your friendship. Another trail awaits and whatever and where ever it takes me I am a better person because of your friendship and support. I wish you all the very best.

Happy trails!

Whiners & Wimps: A Telling Depiction

Last Tuesday night was truly entertaining television. We arrived home about 9pm and the television went on. I was cautiously optimistic about Trump's opportunity. Even though all the popular network polling data leading up to election day had Clinton with a 3-5% lead, there was still hope. The national media often has its own agenda, and this election season was a prime example. The objective: To get Clinton elected. Therefore, very little favorable data for Trump would surface even if it were evident.

In A Few Words

TOM MAGAZZU

Push polls can purposely skew results which are used to discourage opposition from voting. In addition, many of the middle age conservatives are actually working or winding down from busy days during the times when pollsters often call, and they don't want to be bothered when they are home. Only a few polls, including Investors Business Daily, had the election rated as a toss-up.

And at worse, the GOP would hopefully retain one or both houses making things more challenging for a Marxist Clinton agenda.

I had that TV remote scrolling from channel to channel. MSNBC, CNN, CNBC, Fox Business, OAN, etc. The pained facial expressions of some like Chris Matthews, Scott Pelley, Juan Williams, and Rachel Maddow were priceless. These seasoned professionals were adjusting glasses,

Wisdom is Imbedded

Dear Sir:

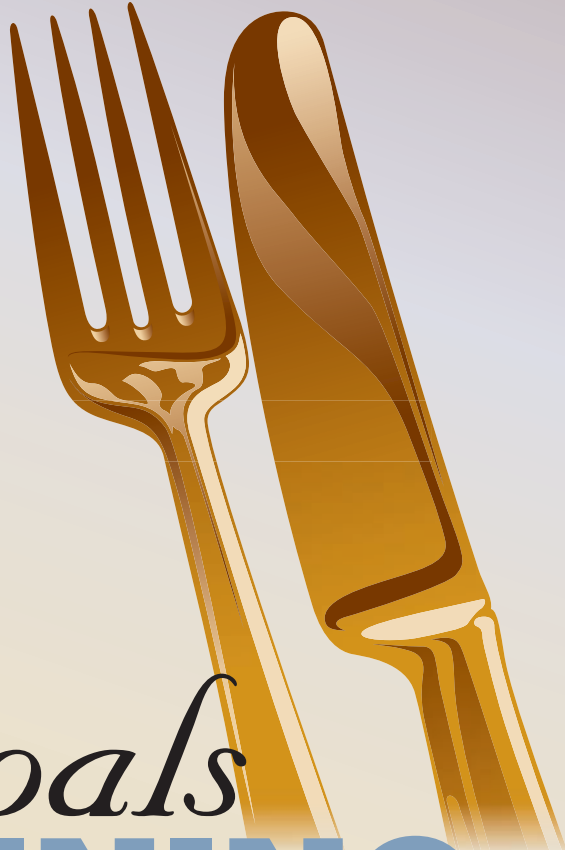

The election is over and the liberal Democrats are in shock and trying to figure out what happened. I heard an interesting explanation which I wish to share.

The source is former Rep. Michele Bachman who was part of an organized prayer group which asked God to save our country. At the almost exact time of the prayer the course of the election changed and Trump pulled off the impossible, winning in states that had not voted Republican in decades. The proof of Divine intervention is circumstance-dependent. However, something happened, and it is for the good of the country.

A FEW WEEKS AGO I WROTE about where 300 million Yahoo accounts were hacked. That means the accounts were taken over by criminals that can scour the victims emails looking for banking information, associated friends, and other goodies they can take advantage of.

Since that time I've received a couple of calls from clients inquiring about the legitimacy of some emails they've received from Yahoo members.

So, here is an updated version of an old article that I hope will serve as a reminder to be skeptical of anything out of the normal when it comes to computers.

Fisher

STRANDED

by "The Computer Skeptic"

I received a call from a friend. Let's call her "Mabel" just because I think that name is funny. She excitedly explained that her email account had been hacked. Someone using her name sent the following email to all her friends in her Contacts list telling them that she, Mabel, was stranded in London and needed money. The misspellings and punctuation errors are not mine (this time):

The message from Mabel read, "I'm stuck in London, England right now, I came down here for a short vacation then i was robbed, worse of it is that bags, cash and cards and my cell phone were stolen at GUN POINT, it's such a crazy experience for me, Please i need you to loan me some money, will refund you as soon as i'm back home, i promise. All i need is ($900 USD) but dont know how much you would be able to spare..we will be waiting to hear back from you on how you can get the fund to me please."

The recipient of this email is usually asked to go to a CVS pharmacy or convenience store and wire a Moneygram to the hapless "victim." If you ever get scammed by anyone, you can usually call your credit card company and get the charges reversed. However, that is not the case with this kind of scam. By purchasing a money card, you are essentially withdrawing cash from your credit card account and putting it on a different kind of card to give to someone. If you call your credit card company to report this after you've been scammed, they will probably rudely snicker at you.

So, I'm sure you already know what to do if you happen to receive an email like this: Just ignore it. And maybe call your friend to give them a heads up. However, if you find yourself locked out of your own email account--especially a Yahoo account--you may be a victim of this scam and your friends may be receiving these kinds of messages as we speak. There is not much you can do besides contact your email provider and beg them to let you back into your account. Otherwise, y'all are just going to have to be skeptical of anyone asking for money over the internet. Besides me, of course.

INTEREST-ONLY TRIPLEX?

Dear Dave,
I've been out of college for a few years, and I have no debt. I'd like to start investing, so I'm thinking about buying a triplex, living in one of the apartments, and renting the other two. Should I get an interest-only loan for this?
Chad

Dear Chad,
Never, ever get an interest-only loan! If you can't make this idea happen on a 15-year, fixed-rate mortgage that takes no more than 25 percent of your take-home pay, then you can't afford this project.

Think about this too. If you buy a complex and live on the property, you'll have to set down and enforce some strict renter's guidelines. Living with renters can be tricky, because they'll have access to you 24 hours a day, and some of them will abuse the privilege. Then again, you'll have that kind of access to them as well. Not exactly a bad thing when you have people living in a complex you own.

Here's an option. What if you just bought a nice, inexpensive single family home for yourself? You wouldn't have the cash flow, but you will have the appreciation and a better chance of reselling down the road. Plus, if you want to invest further, there are always mutual funds.

Real estate plans work out just like you want them to only about half the time. Don't discount the risk and expense either!
— Dave

TAKING THE TRIP

Dear Dave,
I have to make a four-day business trip to Hawaii soon, and my wife would like to go along. It's okay with my boss, as long as we pay her way, and I would love to have her along. It will cost about $1,500 for her to join me, and I make a little over $100,000 a year. We're also debt-free, except for our home, and we're working hard to pay that off as soon as possible. What do you think?
Michael

Dear Michael,
If I were in your situation, and I told my wife I didn't think it was a good idea or we couldn't afford it, there's a good chance I'd be sleeping on the couch for a month. Take your lady with you!

You guys have a six-figure income, and you've got no debt but your home. So, a four-day trip to Hawaii for $1,500? Yeah, I'm definitely doing that. It sounds to me like you two have done a great job with your money. That being the case, you deserve a little fun — like a trip for two to Hawaii for $1,500. Even if you have to work, you'll still have lots of time together, and she'll be able to relax on the beach, swim and sightsee while you're taking care of business.

Have a great time, you two!

Grief Awareness Day is an opportunity to make sure that grieving children receive the support they need.

The Healing Place has been the only nonprofit in Northwest Alabama that provides grief education, counseling, and support groups to children who have experienced the death of a loved one. The nonprofit currently serves over 500 children and teens in northwest Alabama.

The event at Singin' River Brewery will be a fun event for the community to attend to learn more about the Healing Place, the importance of supporting grieving children, and to raise funds for the Healing Place.

The Midnighters will be performing, free food will be catered by 306 BBQ, and door prizes including a $2,500 grand prize will be awarded. Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at the Healing Place, Counts Brothers Music, Sidelines, 306 BBQ or online at <https://brewinghope.eventbrite.com>.

Whiners...

wiping brows, fidgeting with clothing, and at a loss for words. It was amazing.

In spite of everything that was stacked against him, Trump still managed to pull out an election night victory.

It only took a few minutes for the whining, hate, and real ignorance to surface in full force on social media. Facebook and Twitter were aflutter with stupidity. Nightly riots have ensued in many major cities. These people are livid because one of the most wicked, self-serving, vindictive, criminally-associated politicians in generations didn't win the election. And they are responsible enough to vote?

Class resurfaced for acceptance and concession speeches. President Obama may be the biggest loser in this election because much of his legacy will be undone. However, his words the day after the election were timely, on point, sounded sincere, and were anything but divisive. The speech was brief, but it may have been one of his best.

Trump has to settle the country down with some knowledgeable and capable cabinet appointments. He has to resist what many would view as appropriately terse responses to the prevailing vitriolic lunacy.

Some Americans are almost euphoric while others are despondent, frustrated, and angry. They absolutely cannot believe that Donald Trump is President-elect. The same can be said for most of the hosts on TV and radio. Once again, not surprising with that group.

Leftist instructors at several universities across the country including Stanford, Iowa State, and Connecticut either cancelled or didn't check the role for Wednesday classes. The reasoning was that students needed a personal day so they could emotionally and mentally deal with Donald Trump being elected president.

Seriously, legal adults who can't cope with election results enough to go to class the next day? Or are the socialist instructors the ones who really couldn't cope so they used the students as an alibi?

Well, at least that gave the students some free time to join the protests on campus.

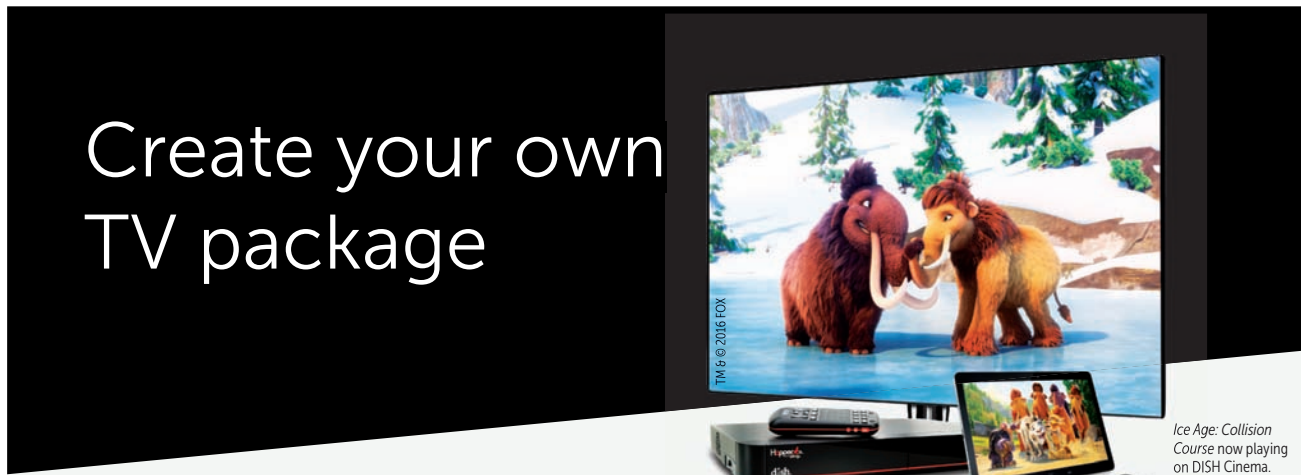

We can't even remotely compare these wet noodles to the generation that got us through WWI and WWII.

Let's hope they are not asked for much in life.

They need to hope that their job is not downsized, shipped to Mexico, or their job specialty completely scrapped under the guise of addressing sustainability or climate change.

In all frankness, the students mirror their candidate of choice. Her next day concession aside, Hillary Clinton did not

Medicare Minute

"Prescription Drug Plans"

October 15th through December 7th is a period of time that Medicare has set aside to make changes to your Prescription Drug Plan (PDP) or Medicare Advantage Plan (MA) if you want. Whether you have a Medicare supplement and a stand-alone drug plan or a Medicare Advantage Plan with prescription drug coverage now is the time to review your drug plan for 2017. Like MA plans, drug plans have certain things you want to look at when considering which PDP is best for you. Those things are premium, deductibles, copays, coinsurance and the plan's provider network.

Although the things listed above are most important so are the tiers that drugs are placed into. So before we discuss the cost of the plans let's look at drug plan tiers. Normally there are five tiers to a drug plan. Tier 1 and Tier 2 drugs are usually your most common generic drugs. Tier 3 drugs are preferred brand, Tier 4 drugs are non-preferred brand and Tier 5 drugs are specialty drugs. One of the most misunderstood parts of a drug plan is the tier a person's drug is in.

Many people we meet with think that if their drug is listed in a certain tier under their current PDP it's the same on all plans. This is not always true. Sometimes, for example, a drug may be listed a Tier 2 under one plan but may be a Tier 3 under another plan. Why is this important? Because in most drug plans the copays are higher for Tier 3 than Tier 2.

You can check the tiers of your drugs by looking at the plan's formulary. The formulary is a list of the drugs that are covered by the plan. You can get the formulary of the plan you are considering by going to the plan's website, going online to Medicare.gov or you can visit our office and we can help.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-284-7249), stop by our office at 879 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com. MEOOW! My name is "TORI", do you like my silly face? I am a super soft fluffy Tortoiseshell, they say I am a doll! I came to the Colbert shelter with my kittens, they have all been adopted and now its my turn to find a forever loving home! Will you come adopt me? I am friendly to all, I have good manners, and I am litter trained! THE PET OF THE WEEK SPECIAL ADOPTION FEE IS $15, which includes spay or neuter & rabies! To learn more, call the Colbert Shelter at 256-381-4073

Hi, I am NALA!! I am a beautiful lab/retriever mix with a golden coat and heart to match! I am playful, sweet, energetic and loving -- the whole package! I am super friendly with other dogs, crate trained and housebroken. I walk well on a leash and sit like a lady for car rides. I am just about a year old so have lots of puppy energy to share with you! If you're interested in being my forever family, please call PAWS at 256-383-0690!

LIL BIT is friendly, playful, active, loving and independent. She's a black/grey Tabby female cat born December 2014. As most cats, one of Lil Bit's favorite pastime is to hunt. Oh, and she absolutely loves cheese. She's an indoor cat, house trained, gets along with cats, dogs and adults. UTD on vaccinations and spayed. ADOPTION FEE $50. To adopt or to meet Lil Bit, please call/text REAL at 256-366-3791

If you're looking for a wonderful companion, meet ROSIE. She is a 2 year old yellow lab with big brown eyes and heart of gold. She is very easy going, understands basic commands, and is eager to please. She loves belly rubs, a good game of fetch, and riding in the car. She is equally happy playing in the backyard as she is snuggling up on the couch with her human. Rosie is a medium sized dog, spayed, up to date on shots, and heart worm negative. She is also house broken. To learn more, email CASA Canine at collie.barker@gmail.com

Christianity and freedom of religion are under attack and it is not difficult for those of faith to believe that God would hear their pleas. There are many other theories about why the polls were wrong, including what the Trump campaign called a hidden majority. This was discounted by the experts, but it may have happened for an unexpected reason.

The distrust of the Clintons and the government may have caused many people contacted by telephone to fear that the call was monitored and they would suffer if identified as a Trump supporter. This is a grim thought, but is a concern for many.

The real reason for the unexpected election outcome may never be known. My theory is that the wisdom and love of country embedded in loyal Americans came to the surface.

Jimmy Wayne Cosby
 Rogersville

Both Races Voted Trump

Editor:

A day after the election Whoopi Goldberg told millions of Americans that Trump won because millions of white racist voters were against Obama because he's black and this was revenge. One of the white women on her panel on the TV show said that she and millions of white people helped to vote Obama into his Presidency, but they do not agree with his policies over the past eight years and do not want those policies to continue through Hillary Clinton.

Whoopi would not even let her finish and continued her racist, bigoted, divisive rant.

I am a white man who also voted for Obama in his first term because I was hoping for changes I thought he would bring. When I saw he took America in the wrong direction, I voted against him for a second term. That had nothing to do with his color.

Sorry Whoopi, but millions of people both white and black voted for Trump and against Hillary this time because they did not like the direction America has gone in the last eight years. I guess that makes his black supporters racist, too.

I do not understand why ABC television would keep a racist divider who can mislead millions of Americans and give her that bigoted racist platform to divide Americans and possibly create riots.

Horse Liniment Eases Arthritis Pain

OCALA, FL -- An ingredient derived from hot peppers that decreases inflammation in racehorse's legs, is now recognized as safe and effective for human use.

The ingredient has been formulated into a product called ARTH-Rx® and is a breakthrough in the treatment of painful disorders ranging from minor aches and pains to more serious conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism and tendonitis. Some have also reported incredible relief from the pain associated with fibromyalgia.

Although the mechanism by which ARTH-Rx works to relieve pain is not totally clear, scientists suggest that pain is Relieved because the active ingredient in ARTH-Rx intercepts the messenger substance that sends pain signals to the brain.

Available in a convenient roll-on applicator without a prescription. Supplies are sometimes limited. © 2016 HCD have the composure to come out and face America and her supporters when she knew all hope was lost. Unofficial reports had her as inconsolable.

She can only blame her proclivity for dishonesty and her own poor choices for the loss.

Trump was a seriously-flawed candidate and everyone knew about his womanizing nature before he even entered the fray, so she should have been a shoe-in. However, by all rights she should also be in jail.

Trump is a braggart, self-indulgent and hyperbolic.

However, it is unfair to label him a racist or a bigot, just as it is unfair to label his white supporters as bigots.

It's tired, worn, and an easy way out for liberals to shut off dialog.

Trump wants to put America and Americans first again. That drive is what made America great at one time. If someone earns the right to become a legal American, that is awesome. Jumping the fence or wading the river illegally doesn't make anyone an American or afford them any rights. Immigration should benefit us rather than burden us.

In other points, Alabama will likely lose the primary focus of Jeff Sessions in the coming months. His unwavering allegiance to Trump should earn him a prime position in the Trump administration.

Hopefully, a Supreme Court will take shape that uses the fixed words and freedoms in the Constitution as its guide for individual liberties and will not proliferate the continued national splintering by race, religion, irreligion, gender, sexual preference, choice, and hyphenated-allegiances to which socialism aspires.

Hopefully, President Obama will not sign the Trans-Pacific Partnership that so many in crucial swing states apparently rejected.

And last but not least, we have the entertainment group that often lets their mouth overload their backsides. These are among the left's top skeptics. Many said that global warming would have our coastal cities underwater by 2010.

These folks specifically said they would move out of this country if Donald Trump were elected President:

- Shakira
- Cher
- Amy Shumer
- Chelsea Handler
- Whoopi Goldberg
- Barbara Steisand
- Rappers Drake and Ne Yo
- Samuel L. Jackson
- Miley Cyrus
- Jon Stewart
- Al Sharpton

Lock and close the door on the way out. We don't want you or any undocumented immigrants slipping back in.

Indians Tradition

The Colbert County Indians have added another notch to their rich football history. This year's team qualified for the football playoffs, giving them their 40th appearance in the post season. No other team in the state of Alabama in any classification, has made as many appearances. No one. What an amazing record.

There is a correlation of sorts between this year's team and one from years past. Flashback 35 years to the 1981 team. The Indians roared out of the gate and posted 10 straight wins before being eliminated in the first round of the playoffs. That year's team was quarterbacked by Dale Jeffreys, who just happens to be the Indians current head coach.

The only scare during the regular season came when the Indians and their number one rival at that time—the Hazelwood Golden Bears—locked up in a rain storm to provide the fans some thrilling moments. Hazelwood kicked a field goal just before the half to go ahead 3-0. Just when it looked like the Indians perfect season would come to an end—quarterback Dale Jeffreys threw a touchdown pass to Greg Bretherick with just 34 seconds to play to give the Indians a 7-3 win.

Colbert County's other fierce rival—the Russellville Golden Tigers would meet twice that year. The Indians easily won the regular season matchup, 26-6 but it would be the Golden Tigers who would get revenge by eliminating the Indians in the first round of the playoffs 48-21.

In addition to the school's tradition, there's a family tradition to this story. Coach Jeffreys's son, Tyler, was the Indians starting quarterback from 2013-2015. When the Indians entered this year's playoffs, they were seeking the school's seventh football state championship. Regardless of the outcome, Colbert County High School has one of the state's richest football traditions.

Soap Opera Preview

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL When Eric learned that Katie was interested in buying a house in the neighborhood, he encouraged her to do so. Despite having left her at the altar, Bill assured Brooke that he still wanted to marry her. Quinn confessed to Wyatt her concerns regarding Katie and Eric. Brooke came up with an idea to help Bill and RJ get to know each other better. Zende told Sasha to keep her distance from Nicole. Brooke probed Ridge about why, after all their years apart, he was putting so much effort into winning her back again. Wyatt and Rick debated why there was a surge of orders following the fashion show. Bill brought Brooke to a place that was significant to their past. Wait to See: A desperate attempt is made to save a relationship.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Friends and family rallied around Hope as she awaited the judge's decision regarding her fate. Eduardo surprised Kate and asked her out. Chad and Andre had their say during Hope's sentencing. Justin laid out his case for leniency to the court, insisting that Hope was suffering from mental distress. The judge pronounced Hope's sentence.

Dario and Eduardo privately discussed their new business venture. Brady was horrified when he found Theresa, who pulled out all the stops to alienate Brady for good. Philip considered confiding the truth about Chloe's pregnancy to Nicole. Wait to See: Adrienne and Lucas's wedding comes to a halt.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Someone offered to buy Alexis a drink. Nelle made her intentions clear to Michael. Liz was called upon to help Hayden. Lucy made it clear to Scott that he couldn't fool her. Jax and Alexis came to a mutual understanding. Bobbie had reason to be suspicious of Nelle. Alexis had a glimmer of hope. Franco and Liz planned a special night together. Anna and Griffin faced off against a cool and calculating adversary. Liz stood her ground. Franco attempted to make amends with Sam. Josslyn cooked up a plan. Sam and Jason followed up on a critical lead. Griffin lost his cool. Wait to See: The Quartermaines face another catastrophic Thanksgiving dinner.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Travis was floored to see his ex in Genoa City. Ashley reminded Phyllis that she would do whatever it took to get her out of Jack's life. Later, Jack met with Phyllis and told her that she was being transferred to the New York office. Noah confronted Sharon and demanded to know how she could keep the Sully/Christian secret from Nick for so long. Mariah disliked Hilary's management style and threatened to quit until Devon privately asked Mariah to stay and keep tabs on Hilary. Jill told Billy that Travis would eventually break Victoria's heart. Victor accused Dylan of playing a part in Sharon's deception. Wait to See: Sharon confronts Chelsea about her feelings for Nick.
