Treatment with testosterone improved sexual function and mood in older men with low testosterone levels, report Yale researchers. The results published by The New England Journal of Medicine were the first to convincingly show the benefits of testosterone for men over age 65, said the researchers. As men age, their testosterone levels tend to decline, leading to decreases in sexual function, mobility, and energy. While testosterone has been studied as a potential treatment, the results of previous trials has been inconsistent. The researchers found that men who received testosterone therapy for one year, versus those on placebo, saw significant improvements in sexual function, including sexual activity, sexual desire, and erectile function.

A new report in the journal Epilepsia suggests that use of topiramate in conjunction with other anti-epileptic drugs may enhance its propensity to cause fetal malformations.

During rehabilitation following an acute hospital stay, medications that block neurotransmitters may be over prescribed to older patients suffering from delirium superimposed on dementia, according to health researchers. Specifically, strong anticholinergic medications may be prescribed to older adults when there are other suitable options. An anticholinergic medication blocks the neurotransmitter acetylcholine in the nervous system. These drugs are prescribed for a variety of symptoms, including incontinence, depression and insomnia. While their use can be very beneficial to some, they are also known to have significant adverse effects. In a study published in the American Journal of Geriatric Psychiatry, people on anticholinergic medications had worse attention and physical function, and a longer stay at the rehab facility.

Are you a MEDICARE patient with a CPAP?

Do you feel like this poor guy looks? If you can't wear your CPAP because of its bulkiness or discomfort, it's definitely not helping your sleep apnea. Dr Timothy Smith offers a comfortable and convenient alternative: a custom designed oral appliance to move the jaw forward and open the airway. Many of our patients report feeling better and more rested than they have in years. Call us at (256) 287-1250 about a sleep apnea consultation today.

We would like to say a big

Thank You

to the members of the Fairview, Berlin and Baileyton Fire Departments for battling the fire at Tim and Bobbie Pinkard's farm on Oct. 30, 2016 from 11:00 am until dark. You will never know how grateful we are, and how much we appreciate you for all that you did. We would also like to thank the owners and employees of Fairview Quik Stop for supplying the food and the support you gave. We would like to thank our friends and neighbors for their heartfelt sorrow in our loss, and for the words of encouragement and offers to help in any way they could, but most of all for their prayers.

Most of all we want to thank the God that we trust and put our faith in. He is the one that spoke this land into existence and created mankind from the dust of the earth. He has carried us through other adversities and will take us through this one as well. We trust the promises of His word to never leave you nor forsake you. God is our refuge and strength; He is our ever present help in all of our troubles. HE IS OUR HOPE.

America puts their hope in one man; but we put our hope in the one God; the Great I Am. He gave America to the pilgrims as the new promised land. It was founded totally on His promises and words. It was a land flowing with milk and honey. He gave it wealth and power. We forsook Him and have gone our own way. Now He has begun to remove His hand of blessings from us. He is giving us one more chance to turn back to Him. We must repent and follow Him.

If you would like to hear more and get to know Him like we do; we would like to invite you to visit with us at Lonesome Dove Cowboy Church. The address is 97 County Road 1677, Cullman, AL (just off 278 between Berlin and Holly Pond.) Sunday's service begins at 8:00 a.m. or 10:30 a.m.

May God Bless You, Tim & Bobbie Pinkard

Why was Adam's sin of not obeying The Holy Word of Elohim written? Why was the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah written? (2Pet 2:6!) The serpent (Rev 12:9, 20:2) told Eve she would not die for eating the forbidden fruit (Gen 3:4). Most so called Christian churches cast out The Biblically commanded Holy Days and call it the Christian way, claim to be followers of Christ and have liberty to eat the forbidden and shall inherit eternal life in heaven. Why was Christ sent (Jn 3:17) to call sinners to repentance if He was to give liberty from the law? (Mt 5:17-19, 9:13, Mk 2:17, Lk 5:32, 1Jn 3:8-9!) So Be It!

Ethel L. Stanley

March 7, 1920 ~ October 8, 2016

The family of Ethel L. Stanley wishes to thank everyone for their prayers, kind words and thoughts. We greatly appreciate all the visits, food and flower from friends and neighbors that helped us during the passing of our Mother and Grandmother.

A special thanks to Alacare Hospice for their loving care. We also want to specially thank Hanceville Funeral Home, Mt. Joy Baptist Church, Brother Alton Baily and Bruce Harris, Andrew Baggett for the fine singing. Donald Weeks for the reading of the fond memories.
