THE IDLE AMERICAN

Majestic Moments of Silence...

Commentary by Dr. Don Newbury

The years are many since we've been able to count the number of wars worldwide on the fingers of one hand. In the 1950s, a keen observer questioned whether we'd know what to do with ourselves "if peace ever breaks out."

Today, we are flummoxed by this query, since meaningful peace seems unlikely, far over the rainbow. We are a restless, short-fused culture, warring at all levels.

Christians pray for peace, whether or not the "breaking out" variety. A few dozen of us were of such mind the other day when a wonderful friend was laid to rest. H. Bryan

Poff wanted to live to his colorful, committed life. We agreed coming close to his goal by about three months. Many shoes, hand grenades were shared about and close-to-the-pin in golf—Mr. Poff's ted life. We agreed coming close to his age goal counted greatly....

Horseshoe tournaments in the Horse Pavilion? It's a light-bulb idea that worked out great for the Ty Funderburk Fundraiser on August 29. Ty is in his third round of cancer since 2006. In addition to an initial diagnosis of testicular cancer, he is now battling leukemia. Ty and his wife Jamie live in Sulphur Springs and have two school-age children. His parents are Dave and Sheila Funderburk.

Ty's friends Richard and Angela Allen, tournament directors, had 14 teams that started tossing at 3pm. Finals were held at 7pm that evening.

Winners were:

- First place, Aaron Graham and Jimmy Cochran
- Second Place, C W Morris and Matt Ball
- Third, James Allen and Kohl Whiteman

Jamie and Ty

Ty's fishing friends put catfish in the freezer all spring and summer to be cooked for the crowds. A great number of people lined up for fish and fixings. The bleachers in the Equine Pavilion were perfect for sharing the meal, visiting with friends and watching the horseshoe wars.

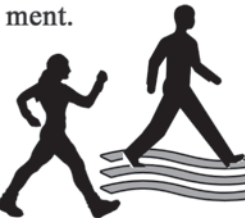

Fish Cooks: Truman Ragan, Alvin Hillis, Chris Wilburn, Harold Bell. Others hands not pictured were Kevin Gibson, David Ragan, Andy Endsley and Braddox Rawson.

An auction of over 30 items from local businesses wrapped up the event. When asked what friends could do next, Ty's wife Jamie said "Pray, please". We will look for good news!

Another fundraiser is on the horizon in Celebration City...the Mothers Against Drunk Driving's "Walk Like MADD" event on September 26 in Buford Park. To provide some fun, Event Director Kelli Martinez informed Deputy Corley Weatherford of the Hopkins County Sheriff's Department that "losers will wear tutu's" at the Walk. Her fundraising incentive is part of a friendly competition between area law enforcement agencies. Kelli says she can make as many tutu's as needed!

If you would like to sign up to "Walk like Madd", go to madd.org/easttexas. If you want to contribute to the fundraiser, contact a member of local law enforcement.

"Corley and Kelli, say 'Losers will wear tutu's!'"

Guess who is 39 again? Country musician Gale Hague and his band Lone Star Express make birthday celebrations more fun and memorable with great country music! Friends honored Gale at the Arbala Community Center with an "August Birthdays" dance party. Gale stays busy most of the time running the family farm and dairy in the Yantis area, but he's also been playing music for parties and dances for over 30 years.

HAPPY AUGUST BIRTHDAY'S Dance Party!!!!

Gale Hague and Garland Edelhauser

Remember the 1966 song "See You in September" by the Happenings (or the 1959 version by The Tempos)? Well, by the time you read this it will be September and an all-new season. Get ready for football games, campfires and Hopkins County Stew! Til then I'll watch for you at the corral gate!

SERVICE STATION ETIQUETTE

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

I am writing this in Carlsbad, California enjoying a family reunion. Although oil is down to its lowest price per barrel in a decade, gas here is $4.29 a gallon. We passed by a Costco store yesterday and noticed about 100 cars in line to get gas for $3.39. I know the further west you go, the more you pay for gas, but this is crazy. I must say the people waiting in their cars were most patient and content to wait an hour or so to fill up.

A couple of weeks ago I pulled into a Loves Travel Center near Weatherford where gas was $2.29 about a quarter per gallon less than the price in most service stations I passed. The place had lots of business, but I felt lucky to pull in behind a car that was at a stand-alone pump. I waited for a few minutes before I noticed the car was empty. Nobody was in it. Then a man came out of the store carrying a big bag full of merchandise and a huge drink. He was followed by a boy and a girl about 8 or 9 years old. They piled into the car and I thought they would be leaving. Boy, was I wrong.

Apparently the man just wanted to put his purchases in the car. He got out, put his credit card in the slot, punched in his zip code and started to put gas in the tank. He just parked by a pump and went shopping before getting gas. Rather than get frustrated, I decided to just sit back and watch what happened next. I didn't know what was in store for me.

He didn't just put the nozzle back in its holder when it clicked off. He filled the tank to the brim. He slowly finished and got back in the car. I saw the tail lights come on, indicating the car had started. I felt that I was finally going to be able to get gas for my car. Wrong again.

Just about the time I thought I would see the car move out of the way, a back door opened and the girl got out and ran into the store. She came back in a few minutes, probably a bathroom break. Again I waited for the car to move. It didn't. The boy got out of the door on the other side and ran into the store, I guess for the same reason.

By his time, other pumps had become available, but I decided to stay there and observe this exciting saga to its end. I figured that was better than just sitting there fuming. It was a test of my patience and I wanted to pass it with flying colors.

Finally the boy came back and the car finally got out of the way. But it didn't leave the parking lot. The driver pulled into an empty parking space and everybody piled out of the car and went back into the store. That group may never get to where they were going. Or maybe Loves was their destination.

That group broke every rule about service station courtesy. The rule states you are supposed to pull to the most distant pump, fill your gas tank, and if you need to clean the windshield, do it while gas is passing through the hose. Don't bother topping it off. Get in your car and drive off. If you need to go inside the facility, find a parking spot and get in it. Don't be a pump hog.

FAMOUS TEXANS Cal Farley Founder of Boy's Ranch

Cal Farley (December 25, 1895 – February 19, 1967) was an American professional wrestler and businessman. He has been called "America's Greatest Foster Father".

Farley was born in Saxton, Iowa and grew up in Elmore, Minnesota. He started playing semi-professional baseball as a teenager and served in the United States Army during World War I. While in the army he competed as a wrestler and after the war became a professional wrestler.

He moved to Amarillo, Texas in 1923 and took over a tire shop. In 1934, he started the Maverick Club, an athletic club for boys, and in 1939 founded the residential childcare facility known as Boys Ranch, located near Old Tascosa, a largely otherwise abandoned community in Oldham County north of Amarillo in the Texas Panhandle.

In 1945, Mr. Farley also founded Kids, Incorporated, an Amarillo, Texas youth sports organization. He asked his friend, C.C. "Bus" Dugger to help him begin this program and Mr. Dugger became the organization's first coach when he picked up 11 boys at Glenwood Elementary School on the first Monday of 1945 and took them to the Maverick Club to play basketball. Today, the organization serves over 15,000 participants annually in 20-plus sports programs.

Girlstown, U.S.A., founded by Amelia Anthony in 1949 near Whiteface some forty-five miles west of Lubbock was absorbed into the Cal Farley's organization in 1987.

In 1944, Farley launched the annual Boys Ranch rodeo held over the Labor Day weekend. The facilities have a strong spiritual program, with nondenominational Sunday morning chapel services and weekly Bible studies offered. The children are encouraged to participate in music ministry, read scripture, offer prayers, and serve as ushers. Education is provided by Boys Ranch Independent School District. In 1989, the City of Amarillo renamed the Amarillo Civic Center coliseum for him. In 1996, Farley was honored by the United States Postal Service with a Great Americans series 32¢ postage stamp.

Providing a safe environment for each child and building trusting relationships to develop their individual potential is our first goal. Those relationships begin with the staff in closest contact with the boys and girls. House parent couples are the primary caregivers of the children in the home. Case-workers also build positive relationships with the children in care. Teachers, coaches, administrators, work mentors and other staff complete the group of adults who may impact the life of a child in our care and help them become productive members of society upon graduation.

There are many ways children are able to feel safe, to make connections with peers and adults, to feel a sense of belonging and empowerment, and to find for themselves a sense of purpose. We do everything possible to understand what is happening in their lives and reinforce to them that they are valuable and worthy of our time and efforts.

Stephen Longino Bonner

A service to celebrate the life of Stephen Longino Bonner, 63, was held at 2:00 p.m. Wed. at First Baptist Church, with the Reverend Dr. David Hardage officiating. The family received visitors from 6 – 8 p.m. Tues. at West Oaks Funeral Home.

“Bubba” was born in Sulphur Springs, Texas, to Lou Jane Longino Bonner and Daniel Edwin Bonner. He was the grandson of D. R. and Naomi Addams Bonner and Dr. S. Byrd and Una Lou Carothers Longino. He married Catherine Cobb Brandon on March 18, 1978.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, and his two children and their spouses: Catherine Carroll Bonner Crowson and her husband, Grady Jack Crowson, of Woodway, Texas; Edwin Benning Longino Bonner and his wife, Megan Leah Vogt Bonner, of Lincoln, Nebraska; three grandchildren: Mac Edwin Holt Bonner and Brooks Edwin Vogt Bonner, of Lincoln, Nebraska; and Grady Jack Crowson, Jr., of Woodway, Texas; two brothers: Dr. Daniel Edwin Bonner, Jr., and his wife, Sue Smith Bonner; Byrd Lowry Bonner and his wife, Patty Riggle Bonner; six nieces and nephews and their families; three cousins and their families.

Pallbearers are Perry Altenbaumer, Tim Glenn, Dr. James B. Longino, Joseph B. Longino, Stephen B. Longino, Travis H. Longino, Dr. William S. Longino, Garry McClung, Dr. Dan Roper, and Joel Sheffield. Honorary pallbearers are Mac Bonner, Brooks Bonner, Jack Crowson, and members of the D. R. Bonner Sunday School Class.

Stephen graduated from Sulphur Springs High School in 1970. He served as president of the National Honor Society and was a three-year letterman of the Wildcat football team. He also attained the rank of Eagle Scout. In 1974 he graduated from Vanderbilt University, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi national fraternity. He began his business career as a wholesale hardware salesman, following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather. As he traveled the roads of East Texas, he developed lasting friendships with his customers. Upon completion of his hardware career, he followed his first love of teaching as a special education teacher in the Cooper ISD.

Stephen enjoyed a lifelong love of sports and had a wealth of trivia readily available for discussion with his many friends. He served on the selection committee for the Wildcat Hall of Honor.

He loved his community and served as a city council member beginning in 1981, including time as mayor. Following his time in city government, he served on the board of directors of Hopkins County Memorial Hospital. He was a member of the Rotary Club and a Paul Harris Fellow.

Stephen was a member and ordained deacon of First Baptist Church, where he taught a men’s Sunday school class for thirty years. His special ministry was to children, and he was a beloved fixture in the Preschool department of First Baptist Church, where he shared his love of Jesus Christ with many.
