Message From James Vacca
NYC Councilman 13th District

ONLY A FEW LEFT: RESOURCE GUIDE FOR OLDER ADULTS

Last year I funded Age Friendly NYC through the New York City Council. One of the main accomplishments of Age Friendly NYC was putting together a comprehensive resource guide for older adults in my district. The guide is specific to our neighborhood and contains contact information for dozens of programs and organizations. There are 38 separate categories including recreation programs, benefit providers, arts groups, housing services, legal services, employment resources, etc. You can pick up your copy at my district office located at 3040 East Tremont Avenue Room 104. You can also call my office at 718-931-1721 and request a copy be mailed to you.

HEAP BENEFITS AVAILABLE NOW

The Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) is an important City benefit available to low-income homeowners and renters who pay their fuel and utilities. The program offers assistance to eligible New Yorkers to help defray energy costs, which we all know can be exorbitant. According to recently released eligibility guidelines, HEAP benefits are now available to homeowners and renters making less than $2,300 per month (for an individual) or $3,007 per month (for a couple). Income limits increase with household size. Applications are currently available. Funds are limited so you should apply as soon as possible. Call the HEAP Hotline at (800) 692-0557 or call the HRA Heat Line at (212) 331-3150. You can also visit www.nyc.gov/hra and select "Energy Assistance" under the "I Need Help" tab to get an application online. If you have any questions, or would like an application mailed to you, you may also call Laura at my office at (718) 931-1721.
