How Long For A Hair Cut?

A guy stuck his head into a barbershop and asked, "How long before I can get a haircut?" The barber looked around the shop full of customers and said, "About 2 hours." The guy left. A few days later, the same guy stuck his head in the door and asked, "How long before I can get a haircut?" The barber looked around at the shop and said, "About 3 hours." the guy left.

A week later, the same guy stuck his head in the show and asked, "How long before I can get a haircut?" The barber looked around at the shop and said, "About an hour and a half." The guy left. The barber turned to his friend and said, "Hey, Bob, do me a favor and follow him to see where he goes. He keeps asking how long he has to wait for a haircut, but he never comes back."

A little while later, Bob returned to the shop, lauging hysterically. The barber asked, "So, where does he go when he leaves?" Bob looked up, wiped the tears from his eyes and said, "Your house!"

Salome's Stars

ARIES
(March 21 to April 19)
Keep those sharp Sheep eyes focused on a hazy situation. As things begin to clear up, you'll find a sharper picture emerging, showing something you will need to know.

SCORPIO
(October 23 to November 21)
A tense personal problem needs to be talked out before someone decides to walk out. Resist making decisions until full explanations are offered from both sides.

TAURUS
(April 20 to May 20)
Watch your expenses through the end of the month. Later, you'll be glad to have extra money to pay for something that will make an acquisitive Bovine's heart beat faster.

SAGITTARIUS
(November 22 to December 21)
A technological glitch that caused problems recently will soon be repaired, and life can return to normal. A colleague has a surprising message to deliver.

GEMINI
(May 21 to June 20)
You're now ready to make that oft-deferred commitment, if you still believe it's what you want. Don't be afraid to change your mind if you feel you should go in another direction.

CAPRICORN
(December 22 to January 19)
Your partner might feel that you haven't been as open with him or her as you should be. Deal with this now, before it turns into something more difficult to handle.

CANCER
(June 21 to July 22)
Now that you are moving on with your life after that recent disappointment, how about reactivating your travel plans and taking someone special along with you.

AQUARIUS
(January 20 to February 18)
Good news: Many of the stumbling blocks that affected the progress of some of your career projects are fading away. Things also start to look up on the home front.

LEO
(July 23 to August 22)
Many new friends come into your personal life, which suits all of you social Lions just fine. However, one new friend might make demands that you could find difficult to deal with.

PISCES
(February 19 to March 20)
You'll need that strong Piscean pluck to get through waters that will be turbulent for a while. A more positive aspect soon emerges, along with some welcome news.

VIRGO
(August 23 to September 22)
Communication doesn't exist unless it's two-way. So if you're getting no replies to the signals you're sending, it could be time to look for someone more receptive.

BORN THIS WEEK:
You are zealous in the pursuit of truth. You would make an excellent research scientist.

LIBRA
(September 23 to October 22)
A workplace complication that you thought was ironed out develops new wrinkles that need attention. Meanwhile, expect continuing improvement in your home life.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Sue Yoder Harris

Sue Yoder Harris, 73, of Berryville, VA, went home to be with the Lord on Friday, October 28th, 2016 in the Winchester Medical Center.

Ms. Harris was born on February 27th, 1943 in Danville, VA, daughter of the late Melvin and Beulah Mansfield Yoder.

She was a baker and a member of Marvin Chapel United Methodist Church.

Sue was a friend to many and never met a stranger. If she loved you, you surely knew it without question. Her love language was that of gifts, and she showered them on others with great joy. She put others' needs in front of her own and was always willing to give of what she had to love those around her. Her feisty, independent spirit and gift of gab endeared her not only to her friends, but also to all she met. She had a boisterous sense of humor and her hearty laughter was contagious. She adored her grandchildren and enjoyed engaging them in creative projects and activities. Her legacy will live on through the people she loved and into who she poured her life. She loved life and fought hard till the end to remain here with those she loved. She was, however, a lover of Jesus and looked forward to certainly exclaiming, as she always did, "Praise the Lord and Hallelujah!"

Surviving are her daughter, Amy Sowers (Joe) of Winchester, VA; son, Jimmy Harris (Trudi) of Richmond, VA; brother, John Yoder (JoAnne) of Danville, VA; and grandchildren, Joseph Sowers, Jr., Emily Borstad (Jacob), Daniel Sowers, Hannah Sowers, Julian Harris, Cooper Harris, and Ryder Harris.

A memorial service will be held at 11am, Wednesday, November 2nd, 2016 at the Enders & Shirley Funeral Home Chapel in Berryville, with Rev. Mark Carey officiating. Burial will be private. The family will receive friends from 7-9pm, Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Marvin Chapel United Methodist Church, 1955 Shepherds Mill Rd., Berryville, BA 22611. VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

A Physical Cause Found For PTSD

It might well be that post-traumatic stress disorder has a physical cause after all. Specifically, for those who've been within 5 feet of a blast, a unique scarring is left on the brain -- the body's attempt to repair itself. Even more specifically, that scarring is found in a certain spot in the brain, between the grey and white matter, the same area of the brain that correlates to symptoms showing up in traumatic brain injury. It happens rather quickly, within days. The results of a study, commissioned by the Department of Defense, was reported in the Lancet Neurology journal. The researchers' main task was to determine whether different types of blasts produce the same damage patterns in the brain that are seen with impact injuries. They compared the brains of both nearby and remote blast-injured veterans, civilians with no blast exposure, athletes, car-wreck victims and those with chronic exposure to opiates. Those who'd had blast exposure were the only ones that showed the unique interface astroglial scarring. Unfortunately, it doesn't show up on neuroimaging as an abnormality. For all the veterans who've been told that their symptoms are their imagination or emotional in nature, this research goes a long way to show there's a physical reason for what is happening to them. Sleeplessness, memory loss, anxiety, lack of concentration and depression may have been pinned on the wrong things in cases where there has been blast exposure. Consider: This has been going on a very long time, beginning in World War I when soldiers were accused of malingering and cowardice or were given the diagnosis of "shell shock" when they suffered effects after a blast. Common treatments included electro-shock therapy, milk diets or walks in the countryside.

1. Name Al Green's 1972 album. (Hint: The first song also is the album's title.)
2. Which group released "Love Machine" parts 1 and 2?
3. Name the group that created "Stormy" and "Traces," and also released "Spooky."
4. Which duo wrote and released "Old Hippie," and when?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Precious memories keep a lingering on, Every time I hear our favorite song, Now you're gone."

Answers

1. "Let's Stay Together." The song was covered by Tina Turner in 1983.
2. The Miracles, in 1975. (They were Smokey Robinson and the Miracles from 1965 to 1972.) The song shot to No. 1 on the Billboard chart.
3. The Classics IV, in 1968 and 1969.
4. The Bellamy Brothers, in 1985. The song is about an old hippie who just isn't adjusting to the changes around him.
5. "It's the Same Old Song," by the Four Tops in 1965. Under orders to crank out a song within a day, the songwriters took the chords from a previous hit ("I Can't Help Myself -- Sugar Pie Honey Bunch") and wrote "Same Old Song." Within 24 hours, the song was conceived, created, recorded and sent out to DJs.

If you are already seeing a nurse practitioner, please take a moment this week to say thanks. At one point or another in our lives we all find ourselves in need of health care assistance. In a population that is aging, with baby boomers becoming seniors in growing numbers over the next ten years, having choices about health care providers will become even more important for access to health care. A FAMOUS PROVERB is hidden in the above frame. Find it by reading every other letter as you go around it clockwise. The trick is finding the right first letter.

Answer: Starting with the "P" in the center of the left rail. "You cannot have your cake and eat it."

DON'T "TRAIL" BEHIND! To solve this AlphaMath problem, you must replace the letters on the backpack with the digits 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 so that you will have a correct addition problem. The same letters get the same digits. Try to get the highest possible total.

Our Answer: B=1, A=6, P=5, C=4, K=9, P=5, H=7, I=2, E=8 (1649 + 5649 = 7298).

LINK-UPS! Here's a list of 12 short words, divided into two columns. Turn them into six longer words by linking them together. To do this, draw a line from one word in the left column to one word in the right.

Answers: Drubbed, notion, earshot, menaces, lacerate, kindred.

Piedmont Shopper FAVORITE RECIPES

Spicy Turkey Enchiladas

- 3 cups cooked turkey, shredded
- 2 cups sour cream
- 3 cups shredded cheddar cheese, one cup reserved for topping
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cumin
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 12 (10-inch) tortillas, corn or flour

Enchilada Sauce

- 2 cans (4 ounces each) chopped mild green chile peppers
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 2 cups chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cumin
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/2 teaspoon brown sugar
- 1 1/2 pounds stewed tomatoes
- 1/2 cup water

TO MAKE THE TURKEY ENCHILADAS:

1. Using a large bowl, combine cooked turkey with sour cream, 2 cups cheese, salt, cumin, chili powder and cayenne pepper. Wrap tortillas in a clean dishcloth or food-safe paper towels and sprinkle both sides with a little water. Microwave for 10-15 seconds to warm and soften.
2. Place a tortilla on a flat surface. Spoon 2 to 3 tablespoons of turkey mixture on the end of the tortilla closest to you. Lightly oil a shallow, 13-by-9-inch baking pan so that the enchiladas won't stick. Roll up the tortilla. Arrange it, seam side down in the baking pan, placing each stuffed tortilla side by side until the pan is full.
3. Pour the enchilada sauce over the enchiladas and bake, uncovered at 350 F, for about 25 minutes, or until hot and bubbly. Sprinkle with the remaining cup of cheese. Bake another 5 minutes. Remove pan from the oven; let set for 5-10 minutes before serving. Serves 4 to 6.

TO PREPARE THE ENCHILADA SAUCE:

- Quick Tip: A good-quality, commercially made chili sauce mixed with a teaspoon each of cumin and chili powder and 1/2 teaspoon of brown sugar makes a canned enchilada sauce taste like homemade!
1. Using a medium-sized pan, saute chili peppers and onions in oil until onions are soft, about 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic, salt, cumin and chili powder, and saute for another minute. Add the stewed tomatoes and brown sugar, and saute for 3 to 4 minutes. Stir in the water.
 2. Turn heat to high and bring mixture to a rolling boil. Then turn the heat to low and simmer, uncovered, until thick, about 15 to 20 minutes.

Harley Quinn Smith & Lily-Rose Depp in "Yoga Hosers"

PICKS OF THE WEEK
"Kubo and the Two Strings" (PG) -- A one-eyed boy with a supernatural heritage and a magic musical instrument embarks on a gorgeously animated adventure through ancient Japan. Kubo (voiced by Art Parkinson) lost his eye to the Moon King, his evil grandfather who also can become a terrifying dragon. While adventuring, Kubo has a protective white monkey (Charlize Theron), a dopey warrior made from a transformed beetle (Matthew McConaughey) and his magic music that can make origami come to life. Laika Studios ("Coraline," "The Boxtrolls") has a great track record of adapting stories with enchanting stop-motion animation. It goes off the beaten trail, and makes offerings that can be genuinely scary ("Coraline" got pretty creepy, and "Kubo" has some spooky monsters) or sad, while still remaining engaging and appropriate for the little ones.

"War Dogs" (R) -- Back in the heady days of 2008, David Packouz (Miles Teller) gets recruited away from his dead-end massage gig into the sleazy world of semi-legal arms dealing, as introduced to him by old pal Efraim (Jonah Hill). Efraim rolls up in a nice car, cackling maniacally, shooting guns in the air and throwing cash around, and we're supposed to sympathize with David, who views this as a stable option for supporting his pregnant girlfriend. Their moral descent sees them supplying arms to shady characters in Afghanistan.

It's sort of trying to be "The Wolf of Wall Street" but with guns instead of bonds, but neither lead ever really takes it there. Hill is playing it big and sleazy, but the movie just isn't as smart as it thinks it is.

"Hell or High Water" (R) -- When the bank threatens to take their mother's Texas home unless they can come up with the cash, two brothers decide the best place to get the money is from that same bank. Tobey (Chris Pine) and Tanner (Ben Foster) have checkered pasts and a lot of baggage, but not enough to stop them from robbin' banks for dear ol' momma. Marcus the Texas Ranger (Jeff Bridges) is archetypally getting too old for this, but he's quick to catch on to the Tanners' plan, setting the stage for some modern-day Wild West shootouts.

"Yoga Hosers" (PG-13) -- Kevin Smith's latest project features a pair of sardonic Canadian convenience-store clerks facing off against Nazi sausages. Our heroes, both named Colleen (Lily Rose Depp and Harley Quinn Smith), are teenage best friends who really only care about their phones and their private yoga lessons (taught by a bushy Justin Long). They get roped into a scheme involving an undying Nazi and a peculiar Nazi-hunter (Johnny Depp). The girls are dogged by walking, talking bratwursts that have been indoctrinated with fascism. There are very few laughs, but the two leads perform well together, and it should not be held against them that their fathers are Smith and Depp.
