MARIA STRUKELJ

Maria Strukelj, 95, of Crosby formerly of Emily died on November 10, 2016 at the Cuyuna Regional Care Center in Crosby. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, November 15, 2016 at St. Emily's Catholic Church in Emily. Burial was in the Resurrection Cemetery in Justice, IL.

She was born on November 5, 1921 in Novo Mesto, Slovenia to Joseph and Marie (Berus) Zelko. The first part of Maria's life was spent in Slovenia of the former Yougoslavia. She lived a happy youth in the small village of Novo Mesto with her parents and two younger sisters, Frances and Josephine.

Maria having a love of cooking, planned to attend a chef school in Austria. That plan was changed with the onset of the communist invasion. Being a member of the anti-communist movement, she was forced to flee with her two sisters and hundreds of other countrymen. At the age of 24, Maria arrived in the U.S., where she embraced her new country, learned the language and proudly became a citizen. She married Anton "Tony" Strukelj in 1959 in Lamont, IL. She owned and operated the Emily Grocery Store for 35 years. She was a member of St. Emily's Catholic Church in Emily.

She is survived by her sisters, Frances Zelko and Josephine (Frank) Vavpotic; two nephews: Frank (Kathy) Vavopic and Nicholas (Laura) Vavopic and five great nieces.

She was preceded in death by her parents and husband Tony.

Arrangements were with the Koop Funeral Home in Crosby.

DOROTHY CARLBERG

Dorothy Carlberg, 90, died Sunday, November 6, 2016 at her home in rural Aitkin with Hospice support.

Funeral service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, November 22, 2016 at the 40 Club Restaurant in Aitkin. Burial will be at a later date. Memorials are preferred to: Aitkin County Historical Society Depot Museum, 20 Pacific St. NW, Aitkin, MN. 56431. The family may be contacted through: Gloria Gunderson, 603 Maple St. Rolfe, IA. 50581.

She was born August 6, 1926 in Nottingham, England, to Arthur John and Ethel Maud Catton Gee. She attended an all-girls school. World War II greatly impacted her life. She was 12 years old when she began serving the war effort. She worked delivering messages in a war office after school. When she was old enough, she joined the Royal Air Force in the Women's Air Corps, where she worked three miles underground delivering messages to keep the Yanks in the air. In 1945, she married her own Yank, John Pauluk. To this union five children were born, three survived. At an early age, she began working at Boots Pharmaceutical. Through her life she was employed in retail. Powers Dept. Store in St. Louis Park was where she met her second husband Gordon Carlberg. After moving to Aitkin in 1979, she joined the Green Thumb Program. She worked in the Aitkin High School and the Depot Museum.

She is survived by her daughters and sonsin-law: Cynthia and Dave Ebeltoft, West St. Paul; and Gloria and Charles Gunderson, Rolfe, IA; son, Dave Pauluk, Modesto, CA; step-daughters: Lynn (John) Ashby, The Villages, FL; Candy (Mark) Kisley of Yolga, SD; nine grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; sister, Kate Ruth Cole, Nottingham, England; and dog, Mugsley.

Minnesota mom sues for usurpation of parental rights over gender change

On November 16, a Minnesota mother filed suit against St. Louis County and other agencies for usurping her parental rights over her minor son, who has been receiving transgender services and narcotic drugs without her parental consent. Anmarie Calgaro's child has been handled by the defendants as an emancipated minor despite no court action to that effect. According to her suit, Minnesota law provides Calgaro no recourse to challenge the emancipation status, which is a violation of her rights as guaranteed under the United State Constitution. She is being represented by attorneys from the not-for-profit public interest law firm, along with Mohrman, Kaardal & Erickson, P.A. Named as defendants in Calgaro's lawsuit are St. Louis County, St. Louis County Public Health and Human Services Director, Fairview Health Services, Park Nicollet Health Services, St. Louis County School District, Principal of the Cherry School, and her minor son.

Calgaro's parental involvement has been repeatedly circumvented as it concerns her 17-year old son. This interference is despite Minnesota's strong legal tradition of protecting parental rights. In June of 2015, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid Clinic advised the boy that he was emancipatthe Thomas More Society, ed without a court order; however no legal action has been taken to terminate his mother's parental rights.

> With the same disregard for parental consent, two medical service providers Park Nicollet Minneapolis Gender Services and Fairview provided the minor child medical treatment for a sex change from male to female and for prescribed narcotics, respectively. The medical services and were paid for through St. Louis County Public Health and Human Services.

> The St. Louis County Schools, Independent School District 2142, is also treating the child as an emancipated minor, something he is not.

The school district is classify- abuse of power by multiple ing the boy as an adult with exclusive rights to information and decision-making. They are denying Calgaro access to his educational records or any legal authority to affect his educational decision-making.

Ironically, the boy's application for a name change was denied by the St. Louis County District Court because of the "lack of any adjudication relative to emancipation."

"This is an outrageous agencies," stated Tom Brejcha, President and Chief Counsel of the Thomas More Society. "To treat a minor child without either parental consent or a court order of emancipation is a violation of the trust placed upon the human service sector and its governmental oversight agencies. To give a parent no recourse to intervene in this situation is an egregious violation of Constitutional rights."

About the Thomas More Society

Thomas More Society is a national not-for-profit public interest law firm dedicated to restoring respect in law for life, family, and religious liberty. Headquartered in Chicago and Omaha, the Society fosters support for these causes by providing high quality pro bono legal services from local trial courts all the way up to the United States Supreme Court. and Shawn Hamdorf and Rick Bandy are also the musicians that make up the band "Gawker Slowdown". Clark serves as the group's audio engineer, Rick is the acoustical engineer, and Shawn the business manager. Kraig joined them in 2014 as Lighting/Technical Director as well as Webcast and Video engineer.

This concert should appeal to music lovers and techie lovers alike. Experience classical music in a 21st century setting- In Living Color! The cost is $10 for adults, $8 for seniors and $5 for students.

The program includes music by Liszt, Sibelius, Scriabin, and Rimsky-Korsakov. Each of these composers experienced "synesthesia" throughout their life. Synesthesia is a neurological phenomenon in which stimulation of one sense leads to automatic, involuntary experiences in a second sense. These composers literally heard and saw colors in the music they created and performed.
