SPEAK OUT!!!

The Mount Morris Shopper feels that everyone has a right to be heard (or read, in this case) so we are offering this page each week (space permitting) for our readers to share their ideas, views, feelings or whatever. Realizing that everyone cannot AFFORD to pay for this privilege, the Mount Morris Shopper is offering this page as a FREE Public Service for articles or letters sent in for publication. All letters submitted must be signed with the name, address and phone number of the author. Please make letters as brief as possible.

Dear "Speak Out",

My daughter, Erika Forbes, and I have been building the Mount Morris Recreations's Cheerleading Program for the past several years. Last year we had 25 girls join and were given used cheerleading skirts. We altered the skirts to have the Little Devil embroidered on them at a cost of $13 per girl. Our plan for this year was to look into ordering the cheerleading shells to match the skirts we already own. However this year we have 40 girls registered and we don't have 40 skirts in storage.

I have been searching the internet for a good deal on full uniforms for these girls and have located what I feel is a good deal. For $75, each girl would receive a shell, a skirt, bloomers, socks, sneakers and pompoms. We feel asking each parent to pay $75 would be a hardship for most and we do not want to discourage any parent or child from participating due to cost. Which leads me to the reason for my letter. On behalf of the Little Devils Cheerleaders, we would like to ask for a donation/sponsor(s) to help offset the cost of new uniforms. Any amount would be greatly appreciated. Donations could be made to the Village Office in care of The Recreation Cheerleading Program. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Amy Callaro

Dear "Speak Out",

While a few people may have watched the election returns with excitement, many of us were horrified.

Tuesday night was rough. When I looked out the window Wednesday morning the sky was grey and stuffed with clouds, rain drizzling down as though the universe knew my palpable anguish, trepidation and fear, and it too was crying.

But Wednesday morning did come. And since then I have been in awe of the expressions of love and support--from family, friends, colleagues and complete strangers, reaching out in ways big and small to show how much they care about their fellow Americans, and how valued they are.

There have been moments in our nation's history where people thought it was the end. The Civil War, the racial and social and military tumult that was the 1960s and 1970s, the Great Depression and WWII.... There have been moments of much greater crisis before. And they were overcome.

The women and LGBTQ people and immigrants who came before us scratched and clawed their way to basic human rights and fought every step of the way to keep them. And there are many ( many ) people and groups who are prepared to continue this fight. We can't give up just because it got much harder--on the contrary, it's more important now than ever before.

We can grieve. It's important. But we also maintain for our children and others who look to us for an example of strength through adversity. And they will see leaders with their heads high and their backs straight, ready for the fight.

We can do this. We have demonstrated the grit and resilience that it'll take. And we have love. A lot of it.

Lauren Berger
Mount Morris, NY

Dear "Speak Out",

In a few days Thanksgiving Day will be observed. Thanksgiving is a uniquely American holiday characterized by many as a time of remembering. Years ago in the schools of many communities children were taught to do a lot of remembering. We were taught to remember Valley Forge, the Alamo, we remembered the Maine and multiplication tables as well as the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. But that was before radios, television, computers and calculators. Today many of us hardly remember Pearl Harbor and 9/11!

So there was a time when the deeds of great people and of God were kept alive in memory. Often a reminder was set up on a heroic statue or carved rock, Thanksgiving observance is more important than just a turkey dinner or a football game on television. It is much more important for all of us to take time to give thanks.

Thanksgiving is a time for Americans to accept and to give thanks for all of our blessings both personal and national. Human history shows us that being thankful to God, even for challenges in life, can move people to courageous response and vibrant, glowing and successful living.

Rev. Donald Vogel

Positively! Dansville

Ann and Carl Myers
Cancer Center

Community Giving Continues Support

As the Ann and Carl Myers Cancer Center on the campus of Noyes Memorial Hospital in Dansville nears completion, area residents continue to give generously to support the project.

UR Medicine / Noyes Health staff member Ashley Derrenbacher organized the second annual Rib Fest at Jack's Place in Dansville earlier this month. She and Jack's Place owner and chef Jason Howard raised $700 for the Ann and Carl Myers Cancer Center!

For the third year in a row, Wayland Cohocton High School freshman Blake Zastawny sold cancer awareness bracelets to raise money for the Cancer Center. He toured the nearly completed project with his mother Sherill and presented a check for $486.

The Dansville Lady Mustangs soccer team and the Wayland Cohocton Lady Eagles soccer team raised $700 in a goal-scoring challenge and donated the proceeds to the Cancer Center. Not to be outdone, the Mustangs Boys' soccer team raised $1400 for the Cancer Center as well.

The Dansville School GETT (Girls Empowered Through Technology)

produced and sold t-shirts at a two week entrepreneurial summer camp, raising a total of $2,373.09!

"We are so grateful for the on-going support of this project," says UR Medicine /

Noyes Health CEO Amy Pollard. "So many members of our community and those they love are impacted by cancer and the community has responded by helping us make high quality cancer treatment more accessible. We can't wait to get the new cancer center open!"

Jon Shay, chair of the Foundation for Noyes Health, also expressed his gratitude. "It's Thanksgiving," Shay said, "and we are so thankful for the effort put forth each and every day in support of this hospital and the entire organization. This is truly a community hospital system."

ABOUT THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and counsels victims of disasters; provides nearly half of the nation's blood supply; teaches lifesaving skills; and supports military members and their families. The Red Cross is a charitable organization - not a government agency - and depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to perform its humanitarian mission.
