HERE TO HELP YOU!

Deep in November, it's nice to remember...these lyrics bring to mind that mellow feel of life as the year rapidly reaches "old age"! Imagine, less than 6 weeks til Christmas...and one week later, a brand new year will be born. So, now the time is ripe to get mellow and call the best of 2015 to mind. I hope yours has been stellar!

Have I ever told you that I love chili? Happiness is Chili, and so is getting an invitation to a chili supper by a friend and excellent chili cook! Mike Rushin's annual Chili get together at his place in the Mt. Sterling Community is a tradition. When Mike and I were in the Sheriff's Posse together, I got invited and now I wouldn't miss it! It's casual and friendly, held in his backyard under the pecan trees, with 2 big cast iron pots of meaty, homemade chili, a couple of serve-yourself table of sides and homemade desserts plus interesting people, loyal friends, and Rushin family. As a habit, Mike insists to serve each person in the Chili line himself. It goes "One dip or two? Do you want more meat, or need some extra juice for the crackers? Back for seconds?" I've never gotten his recipe, but I find that Mike starts with good coarsely ground Cost Saver chili meat, adds sliced Oilfield sausage, and he does add BEANS. He says his mama always added beans, and so he adds 'em too, with pride. Speaking of pride, Mike takes it... in good friends, precious family and too many blessings to count.

Mt. Sterling Chili Makers Johnny Hopper, Mike Rushin, John "Jay" Rushin and Donald Hopper Jr. (kneeling)

He's truly thankful for each guest who attends his event, and lets them know with a personal thank you call a few days later. Now, he says this year is his last, and he's turning the chili event over to his sons Jay and Cody, and the Hopper boys from down the road. Mike plans to stay on simply as a chili consultant, and to oversee the making of the traditional family recipe. I hope you're lucky enough to be there, too!

Some great Western entertainment in on it's way during Rodeo Week! The Sawyer Family Band along with Miss Devon and The Outlaw will be in Sulphur Springs on November 21 and 22. You may know Devon Dawson as the singing voice of Jessi the Yodelin Cowgirl in Toy Story 2. Both musical groups are regulars in Ft Worth's Cowboy music scene whose touring schedules take them far beyond Cowtown and even Texas. So, Sulphur Springs is fortunate to "lasso" them! Here's what they're going to do! Upon arrival in town on Saturday November 21, they'll conduct a Children's Music Workshop from 1:00- 2:30pm at Wesley United Methodist Church Family Center, 614 Texas Street. Children and youth who sign up will receive 90 minutes of musical instruction...meaning guitar and/or singing along with performance skills...then will perform the song as a group on the stage of the Reilly Springs Jamboree that night. Cost for the Workshop is $25 per student, and $20 for additional sibling. Bring your musical instrument if you have one! On Saturday night November 21 at 7pm, the Reilly Springs Jamboree will showcase the music of both family bands, including champion fiddlers Leah (age 12) and David Sawyer (age 10). This is fun and exciting family entertainment you won't want to miss! Admission to the show is $10 person, ages 10 and under free. Come to the Jamboree on Nov 21 at the Reilly Springs Community Center, 109 CR 1439 in the southeastern part of Hopkins County. Oh, and bring one or more canned goods for a local Thanksgiving charity!

Miss Devon and Outlaw

The Sawyer Family

May all your days be happy and all your trails be blessed. Til next week, I'll watch for you at the Corral Gate.

A LITTLE BOOK OF CARTOONS

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Roger Moore of Merkel does a weekly cartoon for several Texas newspapers and magazines. He has just published his first book.

"They say it's a book, but it doesn't look like one," he says. "It's a little gift store book with a hundred of my favorite cartoons. We hope to do a series of these books with a hundred in each one. That would make eight of them. I've done 800 cartoons."

The title of the book is TEXAS, MY TEXAS. It's four inches wide and five inches tall with eighty pages.

"I sent the publisher my whole load of cartoons and he picked out a hundred. He went through all eight hundred to pick the ones to use in the book. That's a lot of work."

Great Texas Line, Inc. published the book, which sells for $5.95. He has a book tour.

"It's kind of intimidating because I sometimes go to places where there are some real authors and here I am with this little bitty book with funny stuff in it." Roger has been cartooning seventeen years.

"I wasn't a very good artist so I thought I'd just be a cartoonist. Cartoonists can get by with things that artists can't get by with. I draw something and let the words carry it. Cartoonists can do that. No question about it I do it for the words. I just use the cartoons to illustrate the words. I love words. I'm an ex English teacher."

He covers a lot of subjects.

"I'm a Texas History nut, so I do Texas history and events, unique things about the state. The hard part about cartooning or any art form is thinking about what you're going to do. I can draw a cartoon in an hour. But it takes me sometimes two or three days to come up with a line that will work and is cartoonable. It is challenging to come up with one a week for seventeen years, I'll tell you that."

Roger lived in Austin for 38 years and had a career in advertising before moving back to Merkel where he grew up. He is best known for his cartoon calendars that always begin with March second, Texas Independence Day.

"The calendar is seventeen years old and has been growing steadily all those years. I really enjoy doing it and I do the cartoons anyway, so all I have to do is pick out some good dates within the calendar and select a cartoon to fit it." Several people collect his calendars.

"Most of them aren't Texans. They were, but now live out of state or out of the country. I send calendars every year to Germany, the Netherlands, Afghanistan, Brazil and Canada."

Tumbleweed Smith thinks Texas is a great place to live. Contact him at ts@tumbleweedsmith.com

Texas Ranger: John Vance, Hopkins County Chief Investigator: Lewis Tatum, Special Ranger: Toney Hurley

Toney Hurley's personal endorsement of Lewis Tatum's candidacy for sheriff of Hopkins County:

I would like to take this opportunity to address the citizens of Hopkins County about the upcoming Sheriffs election.

I began my law enforcement career at the Hopkins County Sheriff's Office in 1991. I started as a jailer and worked my way up to the chief investigators position. In 1999 Sheriff Adams hired Lewis Tatum as a patrol deputy. As the chief investigator, I had the opportunity to see all of the work that the patrol deputies were turning in. I realized very quickly that Lewis Tatum was a very energetic and dedicated law enforcement officer. Many times the cases that Lewis worked were finished by the time the report made it to my desk. Lewis later was promoted to patrol sergeant over the midnight shift.

During that time, I observed Lewis leading the deputies by example. He never asked the deputies to do anything that he wouldn't do. He was definitely a working supervisor. (And I believe he will be a working Sheriff!)

In 2012 I had the opportunity to go to work for the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association as a special ranger for the Northeastern corner of Texas. I cover 11 counties that include Hopkins County. I still work closely with the Hopkins County Sheriff's Office and the investigation division.

Lewis took over my position as the Hopkins County Chief Investigator upon my departure. I believe he has done an outstanding job as a leader of the HCSO CID.

For the last several years I've been honored by numerous people asking me to run for sheriff of this great county. I would like to thank those individuals for having faith in my ability to lead as the sheriff.

At this point in my life, I believe I am working in the position I should be in.

Now I'm asking those same individuals and the entire County of Hopkins to have faith in my decision and join me in supporting LEWIS TATUM as the next SHERIFF of Hopkins County!

Thank you for supporting who I personally believe is the most qualified candidate for the office of Sheriff of Hopkins County.

Sincerely,
Toney Hurley

THANKS!!!!

I would like to thank everyone for their support, I can't believe all of the great friends I have in Hopkins County. I hope to continue to serve Hopkins County in the future as I have for the past 18 years.

I know every citizen's time is valuable to them, and I do not want to bother people during their time with family and friends. However, if anyone would like to hear more about my campaign I would like to speak with you.

I have been with Hopkins County Sheriff's Office for 18 years and have served in all capacities from patrol to investigations. I have worked crime from class C misdemeanors to capital murder successfully. I believe protecting family is the most important thing, and everyone in Hopkins County is a part of our family.

Lewis Tatum
