Bar 3 Range opens in Jones County

By Ryan Griffin
 It all started in 2014 with three men laying in a pasture off Mullican Rd. in Jones County.
 "These three guys were training for a National Rifle Association sanctioned, long-range shooting competition they were attending in Southeast Louisiana," said Mike Bush, owner of the pasture. "I went out to talk with them, and started asking questions about these competitions."
 Bush learned the range in Louisiana, a four hour drive, was the closest Long Range Rifle range to Jones County. Bush met the men at the competition that Saturday, and when they returned home, they began making plans for Bar 3 Range.
 "I just saw a need, began doing the research and thought we could do this here," Bush said.
 He explained these guys were training for a 600 yard competition, but that 1,000 yard competitions are also very popular.

Mike and Cynthia Bush
 The closest one from here is over 500 miles away. Well, it was until Bush created Bar 3 Range.
 Bar 3 Range, located at 194 Mullican Rd., is the only NRA Certified Shooting Range in Mississippi. They hold NRA sanctioned events the second and fourth Saturday of every month. Bush said this is a great sport that folks can do for a long time. He said they have 25 or 30 competitors from six states, and of all ages, coming to Jones County to compete in these events. In fact, Bush said 95% of the competitors are from out of state.

 "It is a very popular sport," he said. "These guys come in an compete, their scores and points are all sent to the NRA and count toward the national title."

While Bar 3 Range is set up for these competitions, it is also a membership range and not open to single day only shooting. Annual memberships cost $300 for a single and $450 for a family. Memberships include gate access, targets and frames. Although Bar 3 Range already has several members, as well as competitions, Bush also saw a need for Jones County, and decided to offer the use of the range to the Jones County Sheriff's Department and Laurel Police Department for training purposes.

"They all have access to the property for live ammo training, SWAT training and long range training at no charge," Bush said. "We just saw a need and wanted to help."

Nick Messersmith, Bar 3 Range Master and NRA Certified Firearms Instructor, offers private lessons from introductory to advanced as well as enhanced conceal carry classes.

VFD canned food drive

By Caleb Worrell

It's that time of the year again when giving is as rewarding as receiving, and some of the Jones County Volunteer Fire Departments are reaching out to their local community to receive donations that will be given to those that need them most. Glade Volunteer Fire Department held their second annual canned food drive at the Dollar General on Highway 15 South Sunday afternoon, and the department plans to continue to do so every weekend until December 17. These donations will be collected and distributed to the elderly, particularly shut-ins that are unable to make it to the store on their own, and other individuals in need.

Glade fire department has teamed up with Tuckers Crossing Baptist Church to help make this wonderful time of giving a success. If you're in the area between now and December 17, stop by the Dollar General between 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. to help support this good cause by donating canned goods. Glade volunteers will be onsite with their fire truck to receive your donations!

Calhoun Volunteer Fire Department will also be hosting a canned food drive on December 10, 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Dollar General on Indian Springs Road near Highway 84 West. Help support this awesome cause!

Supervisors to appoint citizens to Courthouse Committee

Submitted

In the recent election, a majority of the citizens in Jones County voted against consolidating the two Judicial Districts. Although it was a non-binding referendum, the opinions of the constituents are valuable to the Board of Supervisors. To further involve the community and to respond effectively the community's needs, the Jones County Board of Supervisors has created the Courthouse Restoration Committee (Ellisville - Laurel). The mission of the committee is to recommend a comprehensive plan to the Jones County Board of Supervisors that addresses how to best restore and maintain two courthouses. There will be nine voting members and several advisory members. Each Supervisor will appoint a citizen from his district and mayors in Laurel, Ellisville, Soso and Sandersville will also appoint one citizen.

Those who will serve as advisory members are Circuit Clerk Concetta Brooks, Chancery Clerk Bart Gavin, Tax Collector Ramona Blackledge, Chief Administrative Officer Danielle Ashley, staff architect Ken Hester (Chas. N. Clark Associates, Ltd.), and David Henry, director of maintenance. The committee will begin meeting in January 2017.

Submitted

Blessings come in all forms: During the early days of November, the Laurel Housing Authority received a phone call from Kay Guy, former executive director of the Authority, wanting to assist a family of public housing. Through team work from St. Johns Day School K4 (Bridge Class), things happened. They collected items, decorated boxes, made place-mats and a Thanksgiving card, and presented it to the family. Once a month the 4-year-olds do a mission project teaching them to think of others and to share God's love with others by helping them out. Ms. Anika McGruder's family, residents of Brown Circle, was selected as the recipient. Overwhelmed with joy, Ms. McGruder expressed sincere thanks to the St. John's Group. In Photos: Melanie Holifield (assistant teacher), McGruder Family, Nikki and Emma Kate Watkins (participants), Ruby Jones and Charlie Turner (Housing Authority staff) and Cindy Scoper Folmar (teacher) and St. John's K4 Class.

Records key to successful outing

By James L. Cummins

During the past several weeks, we have witnessed the warmer temperatures of summer change to fall-like temperatures. Since fall is in full swing, wildlife enthusiasts throughout Mississippi will be engaged in new activities...hiking, fall fishing and squirrel and deer hunting!

Mississippi's hikers, anglers and hunters are spending many hours in the woods and on the water this time of year. If you are one of them, you may want to consider keeping a logbook of your time spent outdoors. Some of the most productive anglers and hunters I know keep accurate and detailed records of their trips. I firmly believe that this record keeping is a big part of what makes them so successful.

Logbooks can be extremely helpful to you in the coming years. You will be able to look back through your book to examine successful trips to find out what made them so successful. When beginning your logbook, enter as much data as possible about each outing. Many years from now, you may not be able to remember a certain hike or certain hunting or fishing trip, but if you have taken the time to record detailed information about that trip as it took place, you will have everything you need in black and white.

When compiling data from an outing, you will need to record all pertinent information about that outing. Things such as date, time, weather conditions, river stages, areas where you saw wildlife and/or caught fish, areas where you did not see wildlife and/or catch fish, depths which were productive, baits and lures that were productive (including sizes, types and colors), species of fish which were caught and who you were fishing or hunting with. All of this information will be valuable in the future.

You should develop your own system of recording this data. A system that is personally tailored will serve you best. After all, if you cannot interpret what you have written, your records will be virtually useless to you.

Keep in mind that logbooks can be used for all sorts of outdoor activities. Squirrel and deer hunters would be well served by keeping a detailed log. We have all hunted certain areas that, during certain times of the season, are more productive than others. Some of these areas you may have hunted for the first time and you want to make sure you will be able to find the area again in the future. Keep a record of it and you will!

Keeping a logbook of all your outdoor activities will enable you to be a more successful hunter, angler or wildlife viewer whether you are in the field or on the water.

James L. Cummins is executive director of Wildlife Mississippi, a non-profit, conservation organization founded to conserve, restore and enhance fish, wildlife and plant resources throughout Mississippi. Their website is www.wildlifemiss.org.

Laurel, Bay Springs playing for state titles

By Zac Chamblee

Feels like the season started yesterday, yet here we are at the end. Only two of our area teams, Laurel and Bay Springs, remain standing, as we head into championship week at Mississippi State's Davis Wade Stadium. Here's how I see things going down in Starkville.

Class 5A Championship, Saturday at 7 p.m.: Laurel (13-1) vs. West Point (13-1) - The Golden Tornadoes are playing for 5A glory for the second time in three years. Their last came in 2014 when they defeated Oxford, which also happened to be at Davis Wade Stadium. Looking at this match-up, you would be hard-pressed to find two hotter teams than these. Both have won 12 straight, and both have completely dominated opponents this season. Laurel has outscored the opposition, 579-266, and West Point, 497-155. Those are not the only similarities, either. Both have been led by stellar quarterback play down the stretch. Laurel's TyQuan Ulmer has really stepped his game up with his passing and running, while Clayton Knight has led the charge for West Point. All in all, I think this game is a toss-up. I'll say that Todd Breland, who in my mind is one of the top five coaches in all of Mississippi, will be the tiebreaker for Laurel. He'll have his kids ready to play and win another state championship.

Laurel - 35
West Point - 27

Class 2A Championship, Friday at 3 p.m.: Bay Springs (12-3) vs. Calhoun City (14-1) - Year of the Bulldog? After Bay Springs' win at Bassfield last Friday night, it might be just that. Dan Brady has Bay Springs playing their best ball heading into their final game of the season against Calhoun City, who has won 13 games in a row. On the whole season, the Wildcats have held opponents to under ten points or fewer nine times. Bay Springs has done that seven times so not a huge difference there. There is a difference though when it comes to running backs in this game. Jaylin Jones, one of the most underrated backs in the state, has had an incredible year for Bay Springs. Jones broke off an 89-yard touchdown that proved to be the game-winner against Bassfield. In games like this when it's so evenly-matched, you need a player that can break the game wide-open with his play. Jones is that and a lot more. He will lead a Bulldog offense that will out-duel that of Calhoun City's. Be warned, defenses could be optional.

Bay Springs - 42
Calhoun City - 38

A Shepherd's Heart - Praise God with your life

Dr. Timothy L. Hubbard

"I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul will make its boast in the Lord; The humble will hear it and rejoice. O magnify the Lord with me, And let us exalt His name together." - Psalm 34:1-3 (NASB)

The psalmist, believed to be David, is giving to us in this particular psalm some important application points for those of us who are men and women after God's own heart. If we could just put into practice these simple actions, we would do well in our relationship with God and with the world to which we live. Praise and worship should be ceaseless. He stated in verse one that He blesses the Lord "At all times," and "Praise is continually in his mouth." Those two phrases emphasize a ceaseless activity for the believer. Because of the great gift that God has granted to us through His Son, we have reason to praise Him constantly. Not just with our words but also with our very lives. (See Romans 12:1-2)

We should boast in the Lord. This word "boast" is not to be interpreted as being braggadocios, but rather as "with boldness". We must boldly proclaim the greatness of our God to those who are in our circle of influence. I am reminded of the words of the Apostle Paul in Romans 1:16,

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek." The Psalmist is saying the same thing as Paul but he also reminds us that people will hear our testimony and rejoice.

Invite others to join you in this new life. David states here, "O magnify the Lord with me, let us exalt His name together." Did you notice the invitation? The words that invite us are, "With me," and "Together." Let's face it, as believers; we have entered into the greatest of relationship possible. Why would we not want to invite others to join in this relationship with the God who created us and loves us enough to save us through His Son, Jesus?

Later in Psalm 34, the Psalmist again invites others to join him in a relationship with the Lord when he says, "O taste and see that the Lord is good; How blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!" (Verse 8) As he invites us to experience God for ourselves, he also states a truth that should not be overlooked. He says if you find rest in Him, you will be blessed. May we as the children of God faithfully praise and worship our Lord continually; proclaim the greatness of our Lord boldly; and invite others to join us in living the new life in Christ together.
