At The Corral Gate

By Enola Gay

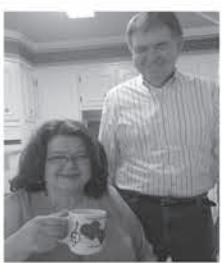

"I picked up the pen and began to list the names of guests at my original Reunion party. Or all those that I could remember! Thinking back 20 years to April 1995, a few names began to slowly come to mind... Francelle, Bob, Dan "the Drifter", Pat, Darrell, Guy, Pam, Connie, the brothers Don and Charles. But so many more were there! That night, the music was good, even award-winning, and everyone was strong, healthy and beautiful. In my mind's eye, the memories replayed rich and sharp on that stage. Sighing, I placed the pen and pad on the corner of the desk, putting the list aside for awhile. Amused, I recall the wisdom of the elderly gentleman who stated, "You don't necessarily have to remember somebody's name to know you love them."

Here's a lady you should know if you like to read or to write. Mrs. Hope Cain landed the Librarian job a few years ago, and she loves her job! She is a wife, mom and formerly a teacher who realizes the importance of reading in everyday life. Her realm is pretty far-reaching as she oversees all aspects of the library including development of programs to serve all ages. For the Summer Reading Program 2015, she has doubled the number of kid's sessions. Hope's library houses an extensive research archive, a good large print section, separate teen and children's sections, a couple dozen computer stations for adults, and the "new" home of the Hopkins County Genealogical Library. Now with late-Thursday and early-Saturday hours, "your" library is truly a place for every body!

Hope Cain of Sulphur Springs Public Library.

"Proud parents Richard and Nancy Kirby"

These guys haven't been home very much this Spring. Nancy and Richard Kirby have been in Los Angeles A LOT with daughter Hannah, as she continues to compete on The Voice television program. Hannah's already a Season 8 Artist and a finalist. Will she be voted America's Voice? It wouldn't surprise her parents or any of her N E Texas fans! Watch for people you may know when "Hannah's Hometown Video" is aired, and please keep "voting" as Hannah advances on the weekly program, usually seen on Monday nights at 7pm on NBC Channel 5. Oh, and keep downloading her music from I-Tunes as a way to vote!

I've got some wonderful new memories to share with you from the April Reilly Springs Jamboree! "Enola Gay's 20th Anniversary Show" was celebrated right with good friends and music, high energy and a couple of surprises! Despite rain in the forecast, 50 people were in the audience. Sisters Hanah and Hailee brought strong country performances with the Hard Times Band, and Jarret Elmore and Hanah challenged each other to a Song Duel with "I've Been Everywhere" and "The Auctioneer". Then, Josh Davis and Christopher Hollis doubled up on "Hounddog", making it the first-ever appearance of these two Elvises together, anywhere!. History was made on our stage again! And with Fiddlin Jack Phillips' solo on "I'll Fly Away", promises by everyone to Vote for Hannah, and the beautiful anniversary bouquet the kids presented me with, it's a Jamboree that's on my Top 10 of All Time!

April is as April always is, only more so this year! Wet, green, stormy, surprising. A staging area for Summer. Do you remember weathering an April disappointment? I do...I had to sit out a horseback ride I'd looked forward to for 2 weeks, due to an afternoon thunderstorm. My friend and I lay inside across her bed looking out the open window, waiting, watching the corral turn to mud. Imprinted on my memory from that day is the aroma of warm, wet horses. We finally got to ride, but that hour seemed an anxious eternity!

"Every Spring is the ONLY Spring - a perpetual astonishment!" I'd like to discover more about the writer, Ellis Peters, a British novelist and poet who was actually Edith Mary Pargeter. Let's read more about her next week.

Til then, I'll watch for you from under the tree by the corral gate.

FAMOUS TEXANS

Haylie Duff

Haylie Katherine Duff (born February 19, 1985) is an American actress, television presenter, author, singer, songwriter, film producer, businesswoman and food blogger. She is the older sister of actress and singer-songwriter Hilary Duff. She is best known on her role as Sandy Jameson in the television series 7th Heaven (2005–07), as Summer Wheatley in Napoleon Dynamite (2004), and as Annie Nelson in the made-for-television films Love Takes Wing and its sequel Love Finds a Home (2009).

Duff was born in Houston, Texas. She is two and a half years older than her sister, Hilary. Duff's mother, Susan Colleen is a homemaker and film producer, co-executive producer of A Cinderella Story (2004) and producer of The Perfect Man (2005) and Material Girls (2006), as well as the manager of her sister Hilary. Her father, Robert Erhard "Bob" Duff, is a partner and owner in a chain of convenience stores with his father John B. Duff and who resides at the family home in Houston to maintain the family's business. She began her acting career as an offshoot of her early dance training. Growing up in Texas, Duff began ballet at an early age. By the age of eight, Duff landed a role in the Houston Metropolitan Dance Company's production of The Nutcracker Suite.

Duff's early career started by making guest appearances on made-for-television films such as True Women and on TV series such as The Amanda Show. In addition to guest-starring roles on Chicago Hope, Boston Public, and Third Watch, Duff became a familiar face starting in late 2002 as Amy Saunders/Sanders on the children's television series, Lizzie McGuire, which her sister Hilary starred in as the title role. In 2004, Duff made a guest appearances on That's So Raven as Katina Jones. After making guest appearances on television, she got a starring roles on Chicago Hope, Boston Public, and Third Watch, Duff became a familiar face starting in late 2002 as Amy Saunders/Sanders on the children's television series, Lizzie McGuire, which her sister Hilary starred in as the title role. In 2004, Duff made a guest appearances on That's So Raven as Katina Jones. After making guest appearances on television, Duff received her first role in a feature film when she was cast as Summer Wheatley in Napoleon Dynamite. The film earned her first Teen Choice Award win. She continued making guest appearances, which include Joan of Arcadia and American Dreams. She also lent her voice talent to the Christmas animation film In Search of Santa which again, featured sister Hilary. In 2005, Duff joined the cast of the television series 7th Heaven, playing Sandy Jameson, best friend to Simon's girlfriend Rose.

In June 2006, Duff joined the Broadway cast of Hairspray, portraying mean girl Amber Von Tussle, and left the role in early October, 2006.

Duff has also starred in Material Girls with sister Hilary, where she is credited as co-producer, with her mother and sister credited as producers. Following Material Girls, Duff appeared in various made-for-television or straight-to-DVD films including Nightmare, My Sexiest Year, Legacy, Backwoods, Love Takes Wing, Love Finds a Home and My Nanny's Secret.

Between 2008-2015, Duff appeared in various films and TV roles, including; Fear Island, Tug and Slightly Single in L.A.. She lent her voice in the animated film Foodfight!, but due to distribution issues, the film is yet to be released. Duff hosted the reality show Legally Blonde The Musical: The Search for Elle Woods, which searched for an actress to take over the lead role in Legally Blonde: The Musical where she had been in the chorus. She was also listed as an executive producer of the series.

Duff's most recent project was the poorly received film, Badge Of Honor in 2015.

Duff has said she is a Christian. "I am a Christian, but I also don't really see myself as a religious person. I see myself as more of a spiritual person. There are things that I do agree with in Christianity and things that I don't agree with. I'm not a regular churchgoer, but I do think that I have my own beliefs that I feel strongly about."

In April 2014, Duff announced her engagement to Matt Rosenberg after one and a half years of dating. On December 3, 2014, the couple announced they are expecting their first child together.

Duff has recorded numerous singles for various soundtracks with her sister, with most of them appearing on the Disneymania discs. Notable sound tracks include: In Search of Santa, The Lizzie McGuire Movie, A Cinderella Story, and Material Girls. She was featured on rapper Kool G Rap's album Half a Klip, providing the background vocals on the track "On the Rise Again" produced by DJ Premier. Duff also sang "A Whatever Life" for the Stuck in the Suburbs sound track and "Sweetest Pain" for the Raising Helen sound track. She is also featured on song "Babysitting Is a Bum Deal" on the album Family Guy: Live in Las Vegas, singing a duet with Seth MacFarlane as his character Stewie. In addition to singing, Duff has also written and co-written several songs for her sister Hilary's first two studio albums, Metamorphosis'

In 2012 she started her own blog called "Real Girl's Kitchen".

THE MEMORY LANE CLASSIC CAR MUSEUM IN PECOS

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

If you like antique and classic cars and haven't been to Weldon Brookshire's car museum in downtown Pecos, you should rush right over there. You will be amazed. It's like something you'd find in Las Vegas or Phoenix or other classic car centers. When you walk in it's like stepping right back into the 1950's. The lobby is a replica of a small café and soda shop with a menu that reflects prices of the era. Then you go into the museum area that is full of cars and other items, like perhaps the largest collection of Banner Dairy products in the nation. Weldon used to deliver Banner milk when he was a boy growing up in Ballinger and decided to start collecting the bottles and related items. He says some of the tiny cream bottles are quite pricey now, selling for fifty dollars or more.

His impressive collection of advertising signs lines the walls. We're not talking here about your everyday museum in a small town. We're talking about a first class, well-lit museum that is under constant maintenance. He even has manikins displaying some of the clothes of long ago. Weldon says some visitors stay all day and wear out their cameras taking pictures.

It was a real treat to get to meet Weldon and his wife Jeannie, who seem to still be on their honeymoon. I asked Weldon how many cars are in the Memory Lane Car Museum. "I've got 33 in this room and 15 more we're going to put in a second building we've bought just south of this one." He has his favorites. "That '58 Corvette. And that '55 Nomad station wagon. And then the '53 Olds represents the first car me and my wife had. It was exactly like that one except it was black and white and this one is maroon."

The first vehicle he bought and restored was a 1912 Republic Truck. His second was a Durant car. "I bought that Durant down in Fort Davis for $75 and had to pay it out over several months. It was in bad shape and had to have everything done to it."

I asked him why he started collecting cars. "Well, I started out with an old car and never could improve myself, just had to keep driving them." That car was a Model A roadster convertible pickup.

Weldon has had a wrecker service since he was a teenager. He's 81 now and still works every day. And he's still buying cars. He is a good mechanic. "I do everything except the upholstery and paint work on these cars. There's a few in here we bought restored."

One of the most popular items is a 1927 Reo fire truck with a working siren. That belongs to Weldon's son Jack who was about six years old when his daddy started collecting cars more than 50 years ago. The oldest vehicle in the collection, which used to be housed in Ballinger, is a 1903 Oldsmobile. Weldon has had a car in every Pecos rodeo parade since 1959. He recently surprised his wife with a 1940 Ford convertible as a 57th anniversary present.

When Tumbleweed Smith is not out chasing Texas stories he's at home in Big Spring with his wife Susan. Contact him at ts@tumbleweedsmith.com

OBITUARIES

Roger Lee Mabe

Obit On Pg. 7

James Ross

James Ewin Ross, age 77 of Sulphur Springs, TX passed away at Baylor Hospital in Dallas, TX on Tuesday, April 14, 2015 after a lengthy illness. He was born to Kenneth Ewin and Lillie Mae Reed Ross on November 8, 1937 in Sulphur Springs, TX. He married Linda Coker on Friday, October 13, 1967 which he always considered his lucky day. She survives.

He also leaves behind one son, Jimmy Ross of Sulphur Springs and a daughter, Angie Ross of Rowlett. Survivors also include his mother and three brothers, Casey Ross and wife Pat, Larry Ross and wife Cathey, and Phil Ross and wife Glenda all of Sulphur Springs.

Also surviving James are his wife's family who held a special place in his heart, Bobby and Connie Wood of Como, Garland and Rose Smith of Arlington, Art and Liz Trepanier of Sulphur Springs, Frankie and Karen Coker of Como and Charlotte Sanders of Los Angeles, CA. He was preceded in death by his father and one brother Jerry Ross.

Visitation was held at Murray Orwosky Funeral Home 6:00pm-8:00pm Thursday, April 16, 2015.

Services were held Friday, April 17, 2015 at 2:00pm in the chapel at Murray Orwosky Funeral Home with burial following at Greenpond Cemetery. Music was provided by Larry and Tammy Wood and Kim Bullock. Rev. Doyle Hayes officiated the service. Serving as pallbearers were nephews Bruce Bullock, Tyler Bullock, Donnie Coker, Russell Coker, Shane Landers, Clint Parker, Tony Ross and George Ray. Serving as honorary pallbearer will be James' close friend David Green who he referred to as "Big Un".

As a child James and his family lived in South Miami and later in California before returning to Texas. He attended Sulphur Springs High School and left at mid-term of his senior year to join the U.S. Navy where he served aboard the USS Brimington. He grew up in the Church of Christ and later attended the Baptist church.

He was self employed as James E. Ross, Contractor since 1968. He worked up until 2 years ago even though he had to have help getting on and off the bulldozer. To say that James was a dirt contractor is an understatement. He was often referred to as a Dirt Artist. He changed the landscape of much of Hopkins County and the surrounding areas with his ability to transform a vision of a lake into reality. If he wasn't out there on a bulldozer he most likely could be found fishing or hunting. He loved having fish fries for family and friends. He was a fan of the Dallas Cowboys and the Dallas Mavericks. James also had a liking for trips to Las Vegas and playing the 'one armed bandits'. He seemed to always find the right machine

We all will miss James' smile and laugh.

Memorials may be made to the Greenpond Cemetery Association or Old Tarrant Cemetery Association.

Please come help us plan a group that will serve men and their special needs when it comes to grieving a lost loved one.

Mr. Jeff Quan is inviting men to come to a special meeting at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 19, in the 6th floor conference room at Hunt Regional Medical Center. For instance, would you enjoy a monthly dominoes or card game so you can fellowship and share if you want to, but not feel forced to? This is your opportunity to help create a new avenue for us to help one another during a time of loss in a way that is most comfortable and useful to us guys. There is no time limit on when the loss occurred: one month, one year, five years Grief does not conform to calendars.

Please RSVP to Chaplain Judy Quan at 903.408.5720. (She will not attend the group, but she is the one who will order the burgers.)
