ALKENBURG, CAROLYN LINCOLN - 80, Fayetteville, TN. Memorial service, 1 p.m., Friday, December 16, 2016 at Higgins Funeral Home with Rev. Ann Hatcher officiating. Burial in Higgins Cedar Hills Memorial Gardens. Mrs. Alkenburg passed away December 11, 2016. A native of Canandaigua, NY, she was the daughter of the late Henry Douglass and Beulah Jacobs Lincoln, a retired teacher with Fayetteville City School System, and member of Fayetteville First Baptist Church. In addition to her parents, Mrs. Alkenburg was preceded in death by son, Donald Leslie Alkenburg; and brother, John Lincoln. Survivors include her husband, Leslie Alkenburg; daughter, Susan (Pat) Miller of Huntsville, AL; sons, John Charles (Debbie Milz) Alkenburg and James Henry (Tereigh Thorp) Alkenburg; grandchildren, Rebecca Alkenburg (Matt) Cofer, Hanna Alkenburg (Matt) Gossett and Jessica Alkenburg (Michael) Cates; six great grandchildren; and sisters, Nancy (Richard) Hughes and Mary Yon. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Fayetteville Lincoln County Senior Center, 908 Washington Street W, Fayetteville, TN 37334. Visitation, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m., Friday, December 16, 2016 at HIGGINS FUNERAL HOME, Fayetteville, TN. (931)433-2544. HIGGINS

Rowe. Her family owned and operated a farm in the Blanche Community, and put in long hours working on the farm as a major source of income and subsistence. Her father was employed as the principal and teacher at the Blanche School, a "separate but equal" first through eighth grade facility, where she received her formal elementary education. Her mother was a homemaker, who had little formal education, but spent countless hours alongside her husband teaching Ann and her siblings there was no "free lunch," so life skills and ideals of hard work were practiced and developed to enable them to function as good citizens and contributing members of the community. Both church and school were attended regularly, and there were no excuses good enough to miss a day of either. Attending high school presented additional challenges as the nearest high school for person of color was in Fayetteville, and a different lifestyle would be required. Ann was fortunate to be able to "board" in Fayetteville with a very loving but firm lady, Mrs. Ida Riggs, and it was in this supportive environment that she not only completed high school at the age of 17, but was the Salutatorian of her graduating class. With the support and encouragement of her family, and teacher, Ann went on to attend Tennessee A & I in Nashville, TN and majored in Home Economics and Education. By the time she earned her Bachelor of Science Degree, Tennessee A & I had become Tennessee State University. Equipped with certifications in several subject areas which included all elementary subjects, and secondary subjects including General Science, Chemistry, Biology, English, and Home Economics, Ann returned to Lincoln County and began teaching in the school system here. Early in her career, she returned to college and received endorsements in administration and leadership and served for 5 years as principal of Blanche School, and 1 year as principal of Petersburg School. She was able to return to her chosen field, teaching Home Economics at West End High School until the school systems were merged through integration and she was placed at Central High School. While at Central, she wrote Lincoln County's original curriculum for Occupational Home Economics which included food preparation, clothing, and child care. She was granted an annex at the West End High building with a state of the art lab in which to teach. Students were bused in from all county high schools to take part in her program. This program was eventually moved to the Central High School campus, and instead of continuing as a classroom teacher, Mrs. Eady was promoted to administration as Dean of Women and Guidance Counselor. Over the years, as she continued her education, she earned a Master's Degree in Education plus 45 additional credit hours, and attended Alabama A&M University, Normal, AL; University of Tennessee in Knoxville, TN; Middle Continued On Next Column

Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, TN; and Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, TN. She earned the coveted Career Ladder Level 3 teacher classification which placed her in an elite group of educators-the best of the best. She completed her 43 year teaching career as a Guidance Counselor at Lincoln County High School. Although Ann was very busy with her career and furthering her education, she did find time for a family. She met and married Robert M. Eady, who had launched a career in the US Army. Robert was dedicated, driven, and was very successful in the Army, attaining the highest non-commissioned officer rank of Command Sergeant Major. They worked well together and built a good life. They had two children, Frederick and Stephanie, whom they raised stressing the importance of education, life skills, hard work, and excellence. Regrettably, CSM Robert M. Eady passed away in 2007. Presently, Frederick is a retired IBM Engineer who resides in Florida with his wife, Cindy, their children and grandchildren. Stephanie is a Registered Dietitian employed as the School Nutrition Program Supervisor for Lincoln County Schools. She lives here in Fayetteville with husband, Thuston, children and grandchildren. Mrs. Eady felt it was very important to be active in the activities of her children, so she served as a den mother when Frederick was involved in Boy Scouts, and as an officer for the local PTA when Stephanie was in elementary school. She was a much soughtafter member and served on numerous committees and task forces over the years. She has been active in professional organizations, holding memberships in national, state, and local education associations, and serving a term as treasurer of the Middle TN Home Economics Association. She was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, a professional women's organization. As a member of the Lincoln County Fair Association, she served many years as Secretary/Treasurer. its She also served on the Fayetteville/Lincoln County Fair Recreation Board for several years. She was also a charter member of Alabama A&M University's graduate chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Mrs. Eady was always active in church activities, and chaired many committees and held many leadership positions including Superintendent of Sunday School, Church Treasurer, and Church Trustee. Mrs. Eady was a person who enjoyed being a part of this community and working with others toward improvement and continuous growth. Survivors include her son, Frederick (Cindy) Eady of Merritt Island, FL; daughter, Stephanie Eady (Thuston) Britt of Fayetteville, TN; grandchildren, Aaron R. Eady, Michael Erin Eady, Melissa A. Eady of Cocoa Beach, FL and Kimberly N. Eady of Melbourne, FL, AnToney F. Mastin and Lauren C. Mastin, both of Fayetteville, TN and Jeremy Continued On Next Column

Hope Sartain Sales Representative

"Eight years ago I started a life changing career that allows me the freedom to create my own schedule, provides professional and personal growth and is now furthering my education in marketing. My job gives me the opportunity to work with small business owners to create an effective and affordable advertising campaign customized for each business. Exchange Media Group encourages community involvement and supports my roles in the Highland Rim Kiwanis Club and the Tullahoma Area Chamber of Commerce, which are two groups I am very passionate to serve."

Development

Mary Ann Marsh Sales Representative

"Bill Thomas, founder of the Exchange, brought me on board 25 years ago. We had 1 edition at that time and now have grown to 6 editions. Our weekly Exchange reaches over 83,000 homes and thousands of people visit our website. I love seeing my customers connect to their customers and watching their businesses grow. Many of my customers over the years have become very good friends, which has been rewarding. I have been a member of the Fayetteville Kiwanis Club for 24 years and have loved working and helping serve children in our community. I feel very fortunate to have been a member of Team Exchange Media Group for so many years."

Job Description

Our business development team members help local businesses connect their products and services with people in our community. You will be responsible for developing meaningful relationships with your customers. You will work with them to see if their needs align with our products. You will have a 121 meeting each week with your coach. Tuesday thru Friday will be spent in the field working with customers and prospects. You set your own schedule based on your customer's needs. We have two sales meetings each month which focus on training and continuing education. Your compensation will be based on your sales and ad count. You will be in total control of your bonus which is based on your performance.
