Sulphur Springs is truly Celebration City! On Monday March 9, the whole town turned out to scream and whistle for a girl making her dream come true. Hannah Kirby sure made us proud with her "blind audition" on The Voice television program. Her raw-edged and urgent delivery of "The Letter" was followed by her acceptance onto Blake Shelton's "team". But she wasn't done...another challenge stood between Hannah and her goal, and that was the Song Battle with Sarah, another member of Team Blake. The preview of that performance had me sure that she would come out on top again! But I'm glad I watched on Night Two, because a surprise opened another door! After a powerhouse performance of "Gimme Shelter", she was NOT chosen by Blake, but was "stolen" by Team Pharrell...sooo...Hannah is now a Season 8 Artist on The Voice! We will keep track of her progress as she advances.

Hannah fiddling at the Reilly Springs Jamboree.

Hannah Kirby at the Voice!

Hannah Kirby is a 21-year-old native of Sulphur Springs, a sophomore at Texas A and M Commerce, a singer, songwriter and fiddler. I met Hannah 8 or 9 years ago, and I know she dreamed of singing to an audience from an early age. She practiced singing in front of the mirror all the time! Then she picked up the fiddle and as children can, she made that second nature too. While in high school, she was a staff fiddler on the Reilly Springs Jamboree with The Sunshine Band. No matter how far she goes, she will always be an LMT (local music talent). Good luck in your future endeavors, Hannah! Never forget, music can change the world!

Another LMT Story! Meet another Hanah...this young lady is Hanah Breck of Winnsboro. She and her sister Hailee Kristee have the Scattered Pieces Band, and they've got some exciting news too! They are one of the bands who will entertain at Lake Fork's Toyota Texas Bass Classic on May 23-25. Scattered Pieces will take the stage at 10am on Saturday May 23. Other entertainers will be Billy Currington, Lee Brice, Rodney Atkins and Joe Nichols. Hope you can be there!

Another big thrill for the girls will be singing on the OpryMania Singer Showcase in Branson on April 26-30. The first name of this sister duo was Two Hearts. They sang and danced at nursing homes and school events. Their first public appearance with a band was on May 15, 2010 on the Reilly Springs Jamboree stage. They were such little girls then! Later their brother Christopher joined them, and they became Two Hearts Plus. Now, Christopher Hollis has his own act as an Elvis Tribute Artist. But when they are on the same show, he and Hailee will sometimes perform a duo like "Steamroller Blues"!! These kids are going places! They are good students in school and disciplined musicians. They have a full family life at home, and they still get to "be kids" while keeping a growing connection to music events.

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP NOW BEGINNING AT HUNT REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER

As you find yourself in this difficult time of loss, you are not alone. Join us as we walk together and find new strength.

In a world that seeks to tell you how to hurry through grief, we offer a safe space to discover the correct path and timing for your own healing. While you yourself can expect to find courage from others on this journey, others may also find their way through their difficulties as a result of your presence. Together the burden we carry will be lightened when shared.

Please join us for a grief support group on the third Sunday of each month at 3 p.m. in Conference Room 1 on the second floor (near the atrium). For more information, call 903.408.5720.

THE LITTLE CREAMERY IN BRENHAM

Tumbleweed Smith

Joe Robertson has been with Blue Bell Creameries in Brenham twenty-nine years. He started out as a driver-salesman in Dallas. "I drove a Blue Bell truck for seven years and just moved on up," he says. Joe now manages the company's advertising and public relations. He knows Blue Bell.

"We have between fifty and sixty flavors out at any given time and every year we put out five to six new flavors. We get those ideas from all kinds of places. Our consumers of course have ideas for us and they send those to us. They catch our drivers in the stores and say, 'I've got an idea for you.' Employees of course have ideas. Then you have a research and development department. So we'll get two of three hundred ideas and give them to R & D. They work thru it and get about fifteen to twenty samples that we pass out internally, decide on five or six and those are the ones that will be out next year."

I asked Joe if there are any volunteer testers. He said most of them are employees. "But everyone who visits ask for an application to be a tester."

Joe's assistant, Jenny Van Dorf, likes the newest Blue Bell flavors that came out last year for the holidays. "We actually have five of them," she says. "Returning from years past are Peppermint, Christmas Cookies, Spiced Pumpkin Pecan and Fudge Divinity. The new one is Peppermint Bark. Our Peppermint has peppermint candies in it and has more of the candy mint taste. The Peppermint Bark has dark and white chocolate chunks with crushed peppermint in it. I really like it. I can't stop eating that one."

They have a saying around Blue Bell: "We eat all we can and sell the rest." The lunchroom has a freezer box filled with ice cream. "We're welcome to eat out of that from the time we arrive until the time we leave."

Of all Blue Bell's sixty flavors, the best seller is Homemade Vanilla. "That was created in 1969," says Jenny. "We wanted to capture that homemade, hand-cranked taste."

Blue Bell gets nearly a quarter of a million visitors every year from all over the world. "A lot of people will be in Houston wanting to know what to see, where to go and they'll send them to Brenham," says Joe. "They can see how we make the ice cream and enjoy some in our parlor where we keep more than thirty flavors on hand for visitors." The parlor is next to the gift shop.

Blue Bell is the third largest ice cream maker in the US and uses milk from sixty thousand cows every day. Blue Bell holds a sixty percent share of ice cream sales in Texas supermarkets. The Brenham Creamery Company opened in 1907 to make butter. The first ice cream was produced in 1911. The name was changed to Blue Bell Creameries in 1930. Blue Bell is a native Texas wildflower that grows around Brenham. The Kruse family has managed the business since 1919.

Hannah Kirby Loses to Sarah Potenza in The Voice Battle Rounds.

Sulphur Springs Girl Still Battling!

Blake Shelton had chosen Hannah as the last member of his team.

What do you get when you pit two rocker chicks against each other in The Voice Battle Rounds? A "straight up duel" took on in a power battle of The Rolling Stones "Gimme Shelter" in The Voice and it was nothing short of amazing. It was not an easy match, and that's what made it so intense to watch. Let's just say that both artists won tonight - Potenza won the battle, but Kirby got stolen by Coach Pharrell and will continue on in this competition. Potenza was a tough performer to beat. She has a stronger voice and stage presence, and much more experience than 21-year-old Kirby. And though the coaches were ready to witness a slaughter, they were pleasantly disappointed because Kirby BROUGHT it in the battle. She figured out exactly how to be noticed over Potenza - Kirby used her wide range to cut through Potenza's power notes and channeled her inner rockstar to battle Potenza's incredible stage presence. This alone should have earned Kirby the win, but Coach Blake was smart to choose Potenza. She was his first team member, and the two could definitely make it all the way to the finale together. But they better watch out, because Kirby proved she will do whatever she can to get in the way of them making it to the end. Kirby deserved to be stolen, and her and Pharrell will make an amazing team. The Texan will benefit from Pharrell's expertise - she is a versatile performer and he's a versatile producer. They'll work together to find Kirby's niche and will use this to defeat any performer that gets in their path. Her new coach said it best, Hannah "came in here swinging her purse like a Southern Church Lady." This "strategy" is evident in her shocking Blind Audition performance and her out-for-blood Battle Round performance. She may not win, but she's definitely going to put up a fight. Watch next Monday night or come to the watch party at 7 p.m. on the downtown square in Sulphur Springs.
