Stay One Step Ahead Of Scammers

It's the Holiday season and we are quickly approaching the end of the year. Protect yourself against scams. Here are a few tips to follow.

- Do not provide personal information to anyone claiming to be tech support unless you initiated the call to a reputable party.
- Be aware of tax scams that increase during the tax season, the IRS will ٠ never call demanding payment over the phone.
- If you are uncomfortable with a phone call, simply hang up. Scammers have the ability to spoof Caller ID so it appears that the call is coming from a legitimate company.

Call us immediately if you feel threatened by a potential scam!
