At The Corral Gate

How long has it been since you enjoyed an old-fashioned Christmas celebration? Well, let me invite you to a collection of photos from Reilly Springs' Christmas Jamboree, where the atmosphere is family-friendly year round, the music is gospel and classic country, and the decor is proudly old-fashioned!

Merry CHRISTMAS

The old Reilly Springs school auditorium seats about 200 people and the stage is the same one that brought Johnny Cash, George Jones and June Carter to local audiences way back when!

For the third Christmas in a row, the Haystacks Youth Choir directed by Kevin Wooley entertained with carols and moving music of praise.

Shelby Glenn of Como brought his band Texas Thunder, and instructs youngsters on singing "Jesus Loves Me"

Garland Hays set up to cook stew for supper during the balmy afternoon, then bundled up when a blue norther hit. Of course, the stew was great...always best cooked over a campfire!

Everyone who attended the Jamboree went home brimming with Christmas spirit and at least one door prize...an envelope of authentic Lamb's Chili Mix, compliments of Coy Johnson Law Office, Roger Reed and myself. I am looking forward to more local talent and great music at the Reilly Springs Jamborees on third-Saturdays next year, starting with Saturday January 21, 2017. Til then, let's remember whose birth we are about to celebrate, and that it was humble farmers who were invited to behold Him first.

May your Christmas be blessed!

If you can imagine it...
then we can print it!

Merry Christmas!

Christmas, as we know it today, is the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, which happened over 2000 years ago. Many of the traditions that we observe during the Christmas holiday season began way before the birth of Christ. Exchanging gifts, decorating trees, and the burning of the Yule log were all winter traditions that began before Christ was born, but were incorporated into the holiday that became known as Christmas and became part of Christmas history.

THE IDLE AMERICAN

Memories at Christmas Time...

Commentary by Dr. Don Newbury

'Tis the season to re-claim memories. Thanks be to God for treasured recollections, and for His giving us the discernment to call pleasant ones into play from days gone by. And why not? To dwell on unpleasant ones is a gain for no one. The ones we value greatest are as welcome chestnuts roasting on an open fire, or rides across fields in a one-horse open sleigh. (That said, I think I could be equally happy in a sleigh drawn by two horses, or even four.)

Today's memories center on two "Baylor brothers"--Drs. BO and Dick Baker, giants by any measure of ministry. They come to mind at a time in history when the university's name has been smudged by a football program scandal that won't seem to go away. BO was a well-known minister/evangelist/writer. Dick was a music minister/vocalist/composer. They brought much good to the world....

Neither of them ever truly retired. Even in their 80s, they were in demand, responding to requests as long as they were physically able. BO died at age 86 in 2010; Dick died a year later at 84. Their Christian witness continues to wash against the shores of eternity.

BO wrote a heart-

Christmas story for the Standard. His annual piece appeared annually for 34 years. It was as fresh-cut Christmas trees, or the sounds of reindeer hooves touching house-tops of the world as Santa made his Christmas Eve rounds.

Perhaps no brothers ever worked together more closely in Christian ministry than the Bakers. BO preached worldwide, and Dick was at his side during most of the years. (With more than 300 musical pieces to his credit, Dick published songs for 64 years.)...

A Christmas Memory

Today is Justin Ervin and his twin sister, Alisa's, birthday. Several years ago Justin had his mother, Linda Johnson, write his Christmas Memories for a DayHab project. She loves this story and hopes everyone will enjoy it, too!

A Justin Christmas

by Justin Ervin

A Christmas that I remember best when I close my eyes will always be one outlined in blue lights. These blue lights outline my Papa and Granny's house and garage. Papa loved Christmas and he loved giving a beautiful Christmas to his children and grandchildren.

We always went to Papa and Granny's house on Christmas Eve for a big dinner of ham and turkey and dressing and all the fixings. We always had lots of desserts and candies.

The living room was a fairy land of decorations, tree with glowing lights and a bright star on top. The room was filled with presents and toys. Papa couldn't wait for all of the grandkids to begin opening the presents. It was a very happy time for me and my family.

Papa didn't think it was Christmas unless you had fire works on Christmas Eve. He always bought a large box of rockets, sparklers, and strings of firecrackers that we could enjoy after dinner. One Christmas when I was very small, my older cousin Jeff could not stay away from that box of fireworks that Papa had put on the dining room table. When everyone had left the room Jeff used a lighted candle to look down into the big box. Well the next thing he knew the candle flame had lighted one of the rockets and the explosions began. Jeff hid under the table, Papa came running and all the family were running around in circles and hiding under the furniture. The fire department was called. Papa got the fire extinguisher and finally the last rocket flew out of the box. No one was hurt, except Jeff who got a spanking.

Lots of Granny's beautiful dining room had to be fixed and painted. There was a burnt spot on the dining room table that could not be fixed. Every time we ate at that table we remembered the Christmas Eve when fireworks were done inside instead of out in the field. It was funny then!

I love Christmas now just as much, the lights, the parties, the beautiful music at church, the Christmas parade and Christmas plays. Spending Christmas with my friends at Our Place and in Miss Linda's Sunday School Class is a favorite time. Christmas is a family time and we are all family.

Thank you Lord for Christmas.
Your Child

AN INTERNATIONAL COLLECTION OF NATIVITY SCENES

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Iris Bradley of Sonora loves to show her collection of nativity scenes.

"I've had the pleasure of collecting them and making memories of where I bought them or the friends who gave them to me. So it's a treat for me to be able to share it with other people."

She has nativity scenes from forty-five countries.

"All of them are catalogued and numbered on the bottoms. I have pictures of them in the catalog so I can keep a good record of where I bought them or where a friend bought one and gave it to me. One from Argentina was hand-carried on a plane. Another one was carried on a flight from France. The one new one I bought this year is from Nepal."

They're all sizes. Some are tiny enough to fit into a small matchbox. The nativities are made of all types of material, from rocks to animal fur. She enjoys the unusual ones.

"This one is from Hawaii and the person who made it used a coconut shell. This is from Alaska and has Jesus in an igloo and the three kings brought him fish. All of these on this shelf are from different countries in Africa. I appreciate that they can take something everyday and make something lovely with it. This one used banana bark. This one used cornhusks. This nativity has a zebra and a giraffe for the animals."

When you enter her spacious home, you see nativity scenes placed with museum care on tables and shelves. They are everywhere.

"I have 315 in my total collection. I don't have the flat space to put them all out, so some come out this year and maybe some others come out next year. It's always changing a little bit. It takes a couple of weeks to put them out."

When her husband was stationed in Germany in 1980, she went with him. That's when she got serious about her collecting.

"One of the first things I bought was this one from Spain, which I thought was so cute. We were in Germany for three years and I continued to purchase different ones while we were over there. I thought it was interesting that even though we were there at the height of the cold war, with the Berlin wall and all, countries behind the wall were Communist and not supposed to have any religion, but there were some artisans that were going against their government and making nativities. I appreciate that. I have several made beyond the old iron curtain."

Her collection has items from Viet Nam, Sri Lanka, India and Russia, just to name a few of the countries represented. One shelf has 42 nativities on it, most of them from foreign countries. Her favorite is one she and her parents made when she was younger. It's one of only two nativities she had when she went to Germany.
