MINIMUM WAGE

Tax Alert!

Minimum Wage has increased this year.
Make sure you and your kids are being paid correctly.

Gov. Andrew Cuomo signed a law in April to gradually raise the state's minimum wage to $15 an hour. Employees earning minimum wage will see a pay bump that will continue each year until it reaches the goal amount. New York City workers part of a business with at least 11 employees will be paid $11 an hour. And for every year after, that hourly rate will rise $2 until it hits $15.

Employees in smaller businesses will see a minimum wage increase to $10.50, then $1.50 each year after.

In Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester counties, minimum wage will rise to $10. It will increase $1 each year after.

For the rest of New York state, workers will see their minimum wage increase to $9.70 and another 70 cents every year after until it reaches $12.50. Then it will increase base on an index until it hits $15.

10 Steps 2017 To A Better You

1. WAKE UP AN HOUR EARLY

Many successful people like Bill Gates, Oprah, Mark Zuckerberg and many others live by. Waking up an hour earlier gives you that Me-Time that we all need from time to time. Some people use it to meditate while others use it to prepare themselves for the hectic day. Whatever you do with your extra hour is up to you but one thing I know is that you'll thank yourself for it.

2. PLAN OUT YOUR DAY & KEEP A TO-DO LIST

Planning out your day provides you with a roadmap for the day ahead and provides a little more structure in an otherwise crazy world. Your to-do list is essential as well as long as you prioritize your list. Your action plan and to-do list will be there as a GPS to help you find your way through all the calamity and waste to help you save your most valuable resource: your time.

3. ANALYZE & EVALUATE YOUR PAST

Taking out time to really get yourself together is one of the most important things you could do throughout your day. When doing this you should self reflect and you should really be honest with yourself. Look to see what you have done to create the most pleasurable effects as well as the ones most unpleasurable effects. This will help you spot where you are sabotaging yourself and your day. This shouldn't take more than 15-30 minutes, well unless you have done a lot of sabotaging.

4. SURROUND YOURSELF WITH SUCCESSFUL PEOPLE

Turns out that if you begin to hang out with people more successful than you then you will too begin to become more successful. This isn't magic or some scientific fact its from mere human contact and conversation. If you and your successful friends are talking and they are telling you about their latest power moves and you don't have any to talk about, the conversation will be short lived with you. So have something to bring to the conversation and it will make you a better person.

5. TALK ABOUT IDEAS INSTEAD OF PEOPLE

This is another one that most successful people live by. If you think about it all businesses, products, and inventions were created from the exchange of ideas between two or more successful people. Talking about your ideas will refine and strengthen them. This is essential on your path to becoming a better you.

6. READ SOMETHING!

Whether its the bi-weekly and monthly magazines that you receive, the daily newspaper, or just surfing the web you should take time to read up on the latest happenings in your chosen field. The world is changing at a very fast pace and once you're behind it will be hard to get back in the know. So impress your peers and higher ups with the knowledge you have on the recent changes in your field.

7. SMILE

Smiling actually acts as an all natural stress reliever and it may help with your quest for a longer life. Smiling will also boost your mood. Smiling is contagious and your smile will brighten other people's day. Next time you're feeling down smile because it will help in creating a better environment and a

8. VOLUNTEER

Giving some of your spare time for something better is a rewarding experience. Whether its donating food to your local food bank or helping around your local businesses it will be much appreciated I guarantee it.

9. FIND A MENTOR

Having someone who has already gone through what you are trying to do is a great way to get inside information.

10. SET A GOAL & WORK IT!

Last but not least on your journey to becoming a better you, make sure to set some short and long term goals. Nothing is more important than having goals and dreams in life but actually working towards them.

HEAP BENEFITS AVAILABLE
 The Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) is an important City benefit available to low-income homeowners and renters who pay their fuel and utilities. The program offers assistance to eligible New Yorkers to help defray energy costs, which we all know can be exorbitant. According to recently released eligibility guidelines, HEAP benefits are now available to homeowners and renters making less than $2,300 per month (for an individual) or $3,007 per month (for a couple). Income limits increase with household size. Applications are currently available. Funds are limited so you should apply as soon as possible. Call the HEAP Hotline at (800) 692-0557 or call the HRA Heat Line at (212) 331-3150. You can also visit www.nyc.gov/hra and select "Energy Assistance" under the "I Need Help" tab to get an application online. If you have any questions, or would like an application mailed to you, you may also call my office at (718) 931-1721.

NYPD POLICE OFFICER WRITTEN EXAM

The test is designed to measure cognitive ability, observational skills, and mental acuity. You must be between the ages of 17 ½ and 35 to take the exam. The exam is administered through DCAS. To apply for and take a self-scheduled exam at the DCAS Computer-based Testing and Applications Centers (CTACs), you must first, create an online account to complete an application. For more information, including test dates, you can visit <http://www.nypdrecruit.com>.

NYC FINANCIAL JUSTICE HOTLINE
 Learn how you can fight back against unfair financial practices. The New Economy Project runs a financial justice hotline in order to help New Yorkers who have been victims of unfair financial practices and scams. The service is geared towards low-income individuals and community groups. They can help you with the following: Problems opening or maintaining a bank account; unfair bank fees or other unfair bank practices; unethical payday loans, check cashers, pawn shops; abusive debt collection practices; problems related to your credit report; auto financing scams; and credit checks by employers. The hotline number is 212-925-4929 and is available on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 12 P.M. to 2 P.M.
