Trump Thank You Tour bus stops in Laurel

By Linda Cranford

Trump Mississippi campaign officials traveling throughout Mississippi with the Trump Thank You Tour bus stopped at the Jones County Republican Women's monthly meeting, Wednesday, January 11, to thank all for their participation in the campaign.

Mitch Tyner (Mississippi chairman), Jamie Peavy (Mississippi deputy director) and Michael Herrmann handed out "Thank You" plaques to several of the Trump campaign county chairmen and

Courthouse Restoration Committee hold first meeting

Submitted

The Courthouse Restoration Committee held its first meeting on January 10. The meeting was held at the Ellisville Courthouse. Members of the committee were welcomed by Jones County Chief Administrative Officer Danielle Ashley. Lance Chancellor, grants/statistical administrator, gave a tour of the Ellisville Courthouse to the committee members. Several issues, including finance and maintenance, were discussed after the tour was given. The mission of the committee is to recommend a comprehensive plan to the Jones County Board of Supervisors that addresses how to best restore and maintain two courthouses.

Ashley expressed that the meeting was a “Great foundation for the work the committee must do. We have a great group of individuals who all bring something different to the table. Very knowledgeable and valuable.” Members of the Courthouse Restoration Committee are Charlotte Grayson, Petey Barnett, James Ray Bush, Grant Hedgepeth, Linda Walton and Roy Boutwell. Advisory members are Circuit Clerk Concetta Brooks; Chancery Clerk Bart Gavin; Tax Collector Ramona Blackledge; staff architect Ken Hester (CAS. N. Clark Associates, LTD); Director of Maintenance David Henry; former Mayor of Laurel Susan Boone Vincent, Sherriff Alex Hodge, and Major Jamie Tedford.

A Shepherd’s Heart – The Great Exchange

Dr. Timothy L. Hubbard

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.” – Romans 6:23 (HCSB)

Exchange is a word that we hear often. It’s also a word that we use in many different situations. For example: we sometimes exchange an item purchased at local store; we may exchange vehicles with our spouse or child for the day; we may exchange ideas with our co-workers, friends or others concerning a project or an idea; and certainly each of us have exchanged gifts with someone at Christmas.

A few years ago we held our annual D’NOW for our student ministry. I had the honor to preach/teach during the large group worship rallies during this event. The study chosen this particular year was entitled, “Exchange: Gaining through Giving Up.” During the course of the weekend, we talked about exchanging death for life; exchanging self for Christ; exchanging hate for love; and exchanging comfort for calling. As we discussed various Scripture passages concerning each of these exchanges, this truth became evident rather quickly: The life that we are called to live as Christ followers is indeed a life that is only gained through giving up. A life received only through surrender. A life of exchanging our sin debt, for the pardon offered by our Savior.

I mentioned earlier that we often exchange gifts with others at Christmas. When I think back over all the Christmases in my life (and I have experienced 57 of them now), I can never remember refusing to accept a gift that was given to me. What about you? The sad reality is that not everyone can say that concerning the gift that God has given to all who would receive. You know the gift I’m talking about, don’t you? The gift of eternal life through His only-begotten Son whose name is Jesus. (John 3:16; Romans 6:23) In order to experience the exchange, you must accept the gift that God gives to you freely. Do you know Christ personally? Have you made the exchange? You can exchange death for life; self for Christ; hate for love; and comfort for calling today by receiving the gift of God.

co-chairmen from throughout Mississippi attending the meeting Tuesday.

“We are here today to say ‘Thank You’ and to celebrate the President Elect of the United States,” exclaimed Tyner. “What an incredible journey. It’s hard to believe we started on this in 2015.” Before handing out the “Thank You” plaques, Tyner commented that the Jones County Republican Women, with its more than 200 members, is Mississippi Republican’s secret weapon because of the hard work they do.

Tyner spoke of how the Mississippi delegation helped to develop the “ground game” that was eventually utilized throughout the country. “The Mississippi delegation had already turned in (to the Trump campaign) a written ground game plan,” said Tyner. “And, because of the strong support here (Mississippi) we were able to work in approximately 20 different states.”

The January meeting also included the installation of new officers. After serving four years as president of the organization, Jane McArthur passed the gavel to Nancy Bell. District Director Sandra McKiernon from Clarksdale was on hand to install the 2017 – 2018 slate of officers, which include Bell, president; Kathy Hinton, 1st vice-president; Tiffany Parrish, co-1st vice-president; Emily White, 2nd vice-president; Danielle Ashley, recording secretary; Julie Harper, corresponding secretary; Debbie Phillips, treasurer; and Suzanne Boyd, co-treasurer.

The Jones County Republican Women meet on the second Wednesday of each month at noon at The Gables.

United Way $100K Payday raffle tickets now available

Submitted

January 16 marked the kick-off of ticket sales for United Way’s $100K Payday raffle. The United Way of Southeast Mississippi will start selling $100 raffle tickets for a chance to win $100,000 (pre-taxes). Tickets can be purchased online, in-person at the United Way office located at 210 West Front St. Suite 400, local area banks and grocery stores and by mailing in a brochure. Brochures will be mailed to the community and available at local businesses once tickets are being sold.

Tickets will be sold on January 16 until March 12. Drawing for the grand winner will take place at Chesterfield’s on March 20 at 6 p.m. Ticket holders do not have to be present to win. The community is invited to attend the drawing along with United Way staff, volunteers and service partner members. On the evening of the drawing, Chesterfield’s will donate 10 percent of food sales to United Way of Southeast Mississippi.

Tickets can be purchased online using a credit card until 5 p.m. on Sunday, March 12. Mailed in order forms and money must be postmarked by Friday, March 10. The community can purchase tickets in person at the following locations until 5 p.m. on Friday, March 10:

*www.unitedwaypayday.org United Way office, 210 W. Front St. Hattiesburg; phone: 601.545.7141.

*Owens Business Machines, 2108 Hardy St. Hattiesburg.

*Corner Market - Petal, Hattiesburg Midtown, Oak Grove, Bellevue Sunflower.

*Select branches of Citizens Bank, Community Bank, Grand Bank, Hancock, Magnolia State Bank and Regions.

United Way of Southeast Mississippi is a local non-profit organization that strives to make a positive impact in Forrest, Lamar and Perry counties. By providing funds to partnering agencies, United Way addresses community issues in the impact areas of education, financial stability, health, and support services. Thank You – Wayne County 4-H and Wayne County MHV would like to express appreciation to all of the agencies, civic groups, school groups, church groups, and individuals who participated in Project Christmas Smiles by providing food items and toys for this service project. With your generosity and support we were able to provide very nice food boxes for 17 local families and toys for their children. This annual project has been going on over 20 years and continues to be an important part of our annual program at the Wayne County Extension Office. A special thank you to Wayne County High School JROTC cadets, Wayne County MHV members, and local individuals who were instrumental in packing food boxes, sorting and bagging toys and helping load them for delivery.

Are you interested in learning to sew, or learning to crochet? If we have enough interested individuals I plan to schedule a basics series of four classes here at the Extension Office. Call Lanette Crocker 601-735-2243 or email me l.crocker@msstate.edu if you are interested in either of these series of hands on workshops.

We are considering forming a Clover Club for those Cloverbuds and Cloverleaf members ages 5-9. This group would meet once a month at our office for a fun activity. Please give us a call or drop by our office to find out more details and to let us know that you are interested in the monthly meetings. Call Lanette Crocker 601-735-2243, email l.crocker@msstate.edu, or drop a message on our Facebook page "Wayne County Extension Office" if you are interested.

Mason Elementary students gives to Batson Children's Hospital

Mason Elementary School's Jr. Beta Club recently visited the Blair E. Batson Children's Hospital where students delivered a host of items collected during the club's holiday drive. Collected items included toys, movies, restaurant gift cards, art supplies, and health/beauty products to be used by patients and their families. The trip to Jackson, Miss. included a tour of the facility and a presentation on the hospital's purpose and procedures. The Jr. Beta Club would like to thank the community for all of the help collecting these items for the Children's Hospital. Photo/submitted

Green Bay outlasts Cowboys in playoffs

By Dale McKee

Dak Prescott did his best, but in the end Aaron Rodgers proved he might be the best quarterback in the National Football League. In a classic game, the Green Bay Packers nailed the Dallas Cowboys with no time on the clock, 34-31. Prescott did his part as he threw for 302 yards and three TD's. Prescott led Dallas (13-4) on an 11-game winning streak during the regular season that sent former Cowboy quarterback Tony Romo to the bench. Prescott, the fourth-round pick of the Cowboys, was supposed to be the No. 3 quarterback at the start of the season, but Romo, who sustained a back injury in the preseason, never could take back his position.

Rebels picked high in baseball

Ole Miss baseball won 43 games last season and is ranked in the Top 20 in several preseason baseball magazines, and Perfect Game has the Rebels No. 8 overall. Ole Miss has five returning starters, and Coach Mike Bianco hauled in the nation's best recruiting class to go with the likes of Colby Bortles, Tate Blackman and Will Stokes. Mississippi State, which won the SEC regular season title in 2016, is picked fifth in the SEC West. USM won the Conference USA title in 2016 and is a third overall pick in C-USA play.

MSU still unbeaten

The women's Division 1 basketball teams have taken over the headlines. As the week began, Mississippi State (18-0), Ole Miss (13-4) and USM (11-6) are all having much better success than their male counterparts. State is ranked fourth in the nation entering the week while Ole Miss, for the first time in 21 years, beat Tennessee. The Lady Rebels scored a hard earned 67-62 win after trailing by 13 points in the third period.

Chargers move to L.A.

San Diego Chargers fans are upset that their team is leaving their home of 55 years. The Chargers moved to San Diego in 1961 from L.A. after only season after the American Football League was formed in 1960. Locally, one former Charger, Laurel's George Blair was keenly interested in the happenings. Blair played defensive back and was the kicker for the Chargers from 1961-64. He led the AFL in field goal percentage in both 1962 and 1963. The former Ole Miss Rebel scored 272 points and intercepted five passes in his career. He played on three teams that played for the AFL Championships and was a member of the 1963 AFL Champs. Blair was sad about the Chargers' move to L.A. "As you know, the team came to San Diego in 1961 because of the attendance in L.A. I was very fortunate to be a member of the first San Diego team. The fans were great then and now. I hate the move. It's all about money."

Others even in L.A. are not sure why the Chargers moved. Los Angeles Times sports reporter Bill Plaschke wrote, "Every relationship is built on honesty, so the San Diego Chargers should hear this as their moving vans are chugging up Interstate 5 on their noble mission of greed. We. Don't. Want. You."

My son Brett, who lives in San Diego and is a Chargers season ticket holder, shared his view that a lot of Southern Californians have on the move. "I will miss Sundays at the Q and the sight of Chargers flags around town. The Chargers did not make San Diego a world-class city though. The brilliant and talented people make San Diego a world-class city. At the end of the day, we did not lose a whole lot. The mayor and the city council can now focus on more ways to attract new businesses and enhance our tourism industry."

Baltimore Colts

I personally look back to March of 1984 when my boyhood favorites the Baltimore Colts moved to Indianapolis. I was stunned that the NFL would even let an owner of a proud franchise like the Colts move. Did they not remember the "greatest game ever played" in 1958 when the Colts beat the New York Giants? That day America was introduced to the greatest quarterback in pro football in Johnny Unitas. To me, all franchises that have ever moved in the NFL have one thing in common – a sloppily run organization that started at the top.

AEE Students of the Month for December

Submitted

Each month the Association for Excellence in Education would like to recognize students from the area high schools. These students must be a senior and a MS Scholar or Tech Master Scholar. Here are AEE Students of the Month for December.

Northeast Jones

Savannah Smith is the daughter of Clint and Stephanie Smith of Myrick and a senior at Northeast Jones High School. Savannah is involved in TARS, Teens Getting Involved for the Future, Serteens, Beta Club, Key Club, Mu Alpha Theta, and Freedom Baptist Church Youth and Children's Ministry and Missions. Savannah is a Mississippi Scholar and currently co-captain of the Academic Quiz Bowl. She won the Wendy's High School Heisman Award for Northeast Jones High School. Savannah has won the Principal's List and multiple Academic and Advanced Placement Awards over her high school years. She won the Jones County Distinguished Young Woman Highest Scholastic Award in 2016. Savannah has been a NEJ varsity cheerleader for three years, NEJ Marching Band and Symphonic Band member for four years, and this year was section leader over flutes. She is currently set to graduate top of the class.

Savannah Smith

South Jones

South Jones senior Cierra Strickland is the daughter of Robert and Teresa Strickland and a Mississippi Scholar. At South, Cierra is captain of the Lady Braves basketball team and varsity cheerleaders. She is also a member of the newly formed chapter of Serteens and was elected as one of the football maids for Homecoming this year. Outside of school, Cierra is an active member of Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church and loves to volunteer in her community. Cierra plans to attend Alcorn State University in the fall, majoring in associate sciences with hopes to cheer for the university.

Laurel High School

Laurel High School Mississippi Scholar Shykeria Watson is an active community volunteer. She is a member of the Tornado Beta Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Student Council. She is a Principal's List Scholar and serves as a cheer captain. This past summer she served as the Federalist Party Whip at Magnolia Girls State and received a $1,000 scholarship to Mississippi State University and a $1,000 scholarship to the University of Southern Mississippi. Following graduation, she plans to attend Pearl River Community College and major in nursing. She plans to become a traveling register nurse.

Shykeria Watson

South Jones Fire Warriors take first place in first annual VFD Bowling Champions Tournament

By Linda Cranford

When volunteer firefighters come together in one place, it's usually to save someone's life or property. On Saturday, January 14, approximately 60 firefighters plus family and friends came together for a bit of fun as they gathered at the new Country Lanes Bowling Alley in the Shady Grove Community of Laurel/Jones County for the first annual VFD Bowling Champions Tournament.

The fifteen teams of four battled one another for several hours with the teams bowling three games each. The team with the highest combined score of all three games was declared the tournament winner and received the title of 2017 VFD Bowling Champions.

The South Jones Fire Warriors, with only three members – Ernest Chandler, Gregory McGilberry and Kenneth Grayson – took the first place trophy and the title with a combined score of 1549, only 13 pins more than second place Pleasant Ridge Yellow Jackets, who finished with 1536.

The comradery as well as the competition among firefighters is always visible any time the dedicated men and women that make up our volunteer firefighters come together, and the bowling tournament was no exception. There is a tremendous need for more men and women to step up and become a part of our volunteer fire departments, not only here in Jones County but across the nation. If you would be interested in joining, contact your community's VFD fire chief or call Jones County Fire Coordinator Dan McKenna at 601-649-3535.

Nathan Jack, a member of the Sandersville Turkeys team, has a pretty good form.

Tony Kantz with the Pleasant Ridge Yellow Jackets team averaged over 200 per game.

Fifteen teams of four participated in the first annual VFD Championship Bowling Tournament.

2017 Jr. Livestock Show and Sale results

By Linda Cranford

How many of you reading this would pay $350 for a cake? Granted, a strawberry cake with cream cheese icing made by Sugar Bakers of Laurel would more than likely melt in your mouth with every bite. But, it's the folks who support the Jones County 4-H/FFA Jr. Livestock program that will fork out that much money for a cake.

The local show and sale of the Jones County 4-H/FFA members livestock project was held Friday and Saturday, January 13 and 14. Compared to last year's sale, this year's sale appears to be a reflection of the local economy and sale prices were down. However, as mentioned above a few local businesses and individuals stepped up to provide additional support for the kids which will help them with next year's project and help the Jones County 4-H/FFA Jr. Livestock Association's scholarship funds. In addition to cake's selling for over $300, there were several other items purchased at ridiculous amounts to help support the kids as well as extra cash was given with each livestock sale.

Several of the kids will now take their livestock projects to the Dixie National Livestock Show and Rodeo in Jackson.

Former MLB great Ben McDonald set to speak at the 14th Annual Southern Miss Dugout Club banquet

Submitted

Former Major League Baseball standout pitcher Ben McDonald has been announced as the keynote speaker at the 14th Annual Southern Miss Dugout Club Banquet in the Thad Cochran Center, Saturday, Feb. 11. The event begins at 6 p.m. and consists of a dinner, a silent auction, as well as the opportunity to meet the 2017 baseball team. It also gives Dugout Club members the opportunity to gather and fellowship with other members.

McDonald played nine seasons in the big leagues and saw action for both the Baltimore Orioles (seven seasons) and the Milwaukee Brewers (two seasons) in which he produced a 78-70 record and a 3.91 earned run average. He fanned 894 over 1291 1/3 innings. The Denham Springs, La., native was a standout in both basketball and baseball in college at LSU. During his three-year career collegiate baseball career, he helped the Tigers to two College World Series appearances and was a member of the 1988 US Olympic Gold Medal squad in the Seoul games. After finishing with a 14-4 record for the Tigers in 1989 that included a 3.49 ERA and a SEC record 202 strikeouts, McDonald was the No. 1 selection in the MLB First-Year Player Draft that summer. Also that season, McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player and was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. McDonald, a College Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2008, currently provides analysis for college baseball on ESPN and the SEC Network as well as an occasional guest analyst for Baltimore Orioles broadcasts.

"We are incredibly excited and honored to have Ben join us for our banquet this season," said Southern Miss baseball coach Scott Berry. "We look forward to him sharing some great baseball stories that evening as well as give our team a positive message heading into our upcoming season. This will be a great night for Golden Eagle baseball fans to get ready for our season in an exciting way."

All fans are invited to this event and the individual tickets are $25 for the banquet. Seating is limited, so please make your reservations by calling 601-266-6542 or emailing him at bryan.vollmuth@usm.edu. Those interested in joining or renewing the Dugout Club membership dues can be done by mailing in the registration form, coming by the baseball office, or by paying the night of the banquet.

Carbohydrates are seen as the enemy by many people looking to lose weight, but that reputation is ill-deserved for certain types of carbs. Carbohydrates referred to as "smart carbs" can boost energy and mood and help people, even dieters, maintain healthy weights. Smart carbs, which can be found in fruits, vegetables, minimally processed whole grain products such as brown rice and quinoa, and whole wheat bread among other foods, contain vital nutrients and fiber. The body takes longer to absorb whole grains than it does processed carbohydrates, stabilizing blood sugar and energy levels as a result. Because the body takes longer to absorb whole grains, feelings of satiety and fullness are extended. That reduces the likelihood of being hungry again shortly after eating, thereby helping people maintain healthy weights. Those who want to avoid carbohydrates should avoid products made with white flour, such as white bread, non-whole grain pastas, potato chips, and breakfast cereals with high amounts of sugar.
