Thank you!

Words cannot express the gratitude we have for all that has been done for us during this difficult time. The cards, calls, visits, food, donations, and prayers are overwhelming and we offer our heartfelt thanks. These acts of kindness have been such a comfort to us. There are so many who have shown love and support that we could not begin to name everyone but please know you are recognized and appreciated. To those who organized and participated in the benefit, the many churches, our friends, family, and acquaintances we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. The road to complete recovery may be a long one but improvements are made every day and are strengthened by the continued prayers and love from all of you. We have been truly blessed with the greatest support team of doctors and therapists and most importantly our family and friends. We love you all!
