Prayer to St. Jude
To be said when problems arise or when one seems to be deprived of all visible help, or for cases almost despaired of.

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Attention all Electricians, Tel-Com Techs and Solar Electricians

Are you ready to earn a wage and benefit package that will provide you the opportunity to live a fruitful life and retire with dignity?

Did you know that over 40% of IBEW Members are organized into our Family? Every day great men and women leave their non-union jobs and join the union. Not only for obvious increase in wages and benefits that are commiserate with their commitment to the craft, but also so they may have a voice in their future that they for so long did not.

Every day in the IBEW, the best unrepresented workers stop into IBEW Union Halls all across this Nation in search of a better way of life.

Local 99 is constantly and actively recruiting workers with the best work ethics with the highest skills. If you have the work ethic but need additional training, we also offer the absolute best training in the industry!

In the IBEW, the mutually agreed upon contracts assure both the worker and the contractor work towards a common goal so everyone has the chance to live an amazing life. When was the last time you had a seat at your Boss's table?

What are you waiting for, we are interviewing the best workers in the industry every day for an opportunity to join our team. Our contractors are growing fast and we are signing new contractors all the time. Both demand the highest skilled, the highest motivated and the most ethical workers in the industry. Is that you?

Random Acts of Kindness...

I received a phone call from Benny's in Coventry Christmas week stating that someone had paid one of my Lay-a-ways and that I could come pick it up at my convenience. They didn't say who paid for it, only that it was an "Act of Kindness".

I was very curious about the news because this was the first year in a long time that I really enjoyed buying gifts for everyone and a lot of them had to be put on Lay-a-way. (I was incapacitated on and off for a while.) When I told someone about the good news, they said, "It was probably a joke" and I figured they were right. No one even knew I had any Lay-a-ways at Benny's and why would anyone I didn't know pay for it.

I did the next best thing and called Benny's. They confirmed the message I had received.

This wonderful "Christmas Surprise" made my Christmas a lot easier and more thankful for the season.

A very sincere Thank You and a prosperous New Year to my mystery benefactor or benefactors.

~M.M.

SEWING PROJECT TO HELP FOSTER KIDS IN RI
Organizers of The Sewing Project to Help Foster Kids are looking for volunteers to sew kid-friendly pillowcase bags for foster children. When a child is taken from a home that has been deemed unsafe by DCYF (Dept. of Children, Youth & Families), the child may take only a small amount of toys, clothes, and personal belongings. Many times, DCYF workers just don't have enough suitcases to use, so when a child arrives at a Crisis Center, Group Home or Foster Home, many times they arrive with literally 1 or 2 large black trash bags full of personal items. Let's change that! This is an ongoing project. Work at your own pace. For more information, contact Hollie at 385-9876 or holliegal@verizon.net

Thanksgiving Novena to ST. JUDE

O Holy St. Jude Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ. Faithful intercessor of all who invoke this special patronage in time of need. To you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg you, to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and three Glory Be's. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us and all who invoke your aid. Amen. This novena has never been known to fail. It helped me. Thank you St. Jude for answering my prayers.

JPD

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

COVENTRY CHILD OUTREACH PROGRAM
The Coventry Child Outreach Program is offering FREE screening for preschool age children living in the town of Coventry. Children will be screened in the following areas of development: hearing, vision, speech and language, social emotional and general development. Much like your well-child visit with the Pediatrician, children should participate in screening annually at 3, 4 and 5 years old. Because children learn rapidly during these early years, each screening offers an up-to-date check on your child's development. Screening is offered in a variety of locations. To make an appointment, please call Lisa Neill, Child Outreach Coordinator for the Coventry Public Schools at 822-9400, Ext. 249. Donna's Day Creative family fun

Warm Up With Baked Black Bean Dip

A good appetizer brings everyone together whether you've just come in out of the chill from an afternoon of sledding or you're gathering around the TV for a raucous Super Bowl party.

This Baked Black Bean dip definitely fits the bill. It's a crowd favorite every time I serve it at home or when I bring it with a bag of tortilla chips to a potluck. It's both chunky and creamy, with a yummy chipotle flavor that keeps you dipping for more.

BAKED BLACK BEAN DIP
Serves 12

- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 1 large onion, diced
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/8 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 2 chipotle chilies in adobo sauce, plus 3 tablespoons of sauce (find canned in the Latin/Mexican food section of your grocery store)
- 2 (15½ ounce) cans black beans, rinsed and drained

- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tablespoon cider vinegar
- 3 medium tomatoes, chopped
- 1 1/2 cups thawed frozen corn kernels or drained canned corn
- 2 cups grated four-cheese blend, Mexican-style
- 1 cup grated Monterey Jack cheese
- Fresh cilantro, chopped (optional)

1. Heat oven to 400 F. Grease a 1-1/2 quart baking dish. (I use a souffle-style baking dish.)

2. Heat oil in a 12-inch skillet over medium high heat. Add onion, reduce heat to medium and season with salt. Cook, stirring occasionally, until the onions are soft, about 4 minutes.

3. Add garlic, chili powder and pepper; stir and cook one minute.

4. Loosely chop the chipotle chilies in adobo. Add to the skillet along with 3 tablespoons adobo sauce, one can of black beans and the water. Bring to a boil and simmer four minutes, stirring occasionally.

5. Transfer to a mixing bowl. Add vinegar. Use an immersion blender to process mixture until smooth. (Or, use a food processor and transfer to mixing bowl.)

6. Add the second can of drained beans, tomatoes, corn and grated Mexican style cheese. Stir well. Transfer to baking dish. Sprinkle grated Monterey Jack cheese on top.

7. Bake 15-20 minutes or until bubbly and cheese melts.

8. Top with cilantro. Serve warm with tortilla chips for scooping.

Tip: Freeze leftovers. Thaw and reheat with a fresh sprinkling of cheese on top.

Prayer for the BLESSED MOTHER

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help and sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother, to thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions; but in thy clemency hear and answer me. Amen.
My prayers have been answered.

- 1 can (14 to 14 1/2 ounces) vegetable broth
- Corn tortillas, sour cream, and lime wedges for garnish

1. In 5-quart Dutch oven, heat oil over medium-high heat. Add pepper, onion and celery, and cook 5 to 8 minutes or just until vegetables are tender, stirring occasionally. Stir in garlic and chili powder and cook 30 seconds or until fragrant, stirring.

2. Meanwhile, in small bowl, coarsely mash 1/2 cup beans. Stir all beans, squash, tomatoes and broth into mixture in Dutch oven; cover and heat to boiling. Reduce heat to low; simmer, covered, 15 minutes or until squash is tender. Serve chili with tortillas, sour cream and lime if you like. Makes about 8 cups or 4 main-dish servings.

• Each serving: About 315 calories, 5g total fat (1g saturated), 15g protein, 67g carbohydrate, 18g fiber, 0mg cholesterol, 1,200mg sodium.

TIP: As an accompaniment, toss 1 pound green beans or Brussels sprouts with 1 tablespoon olive oil and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Spread in 15 1/2-by-10 1/2-inch jelly-roll pan and roast at 450 F. for 15 to 20 minutes or until tender.

Eight Hot Tips For Battery Care

(NAPSA)—More automobile batteries fail in the heat than in the extreme cold, and hot-weather conditions can cause more stress on a battery than frigid temperatures. With temperatures at their annual highs, motorists can protect and care for that part of the vehicle a driver depends on most every day.

Battery temperatures under the hood of an automobile can reach 175 to 200 degrees in extreme conditions, affecting the corrosion factor within the battery. The extreme heat can make the acid and the fluid inside the battery expand, which can cause it to start leaking, and that leads to battery failure in the long run. It's important for motorists to take the necessary precaution of getting their vehicle battery checked on a regular basis, especially before taking off on family trips.

As engineering and technical services manager for Interstate Batteries for more than 25 years, Gale Kimbrough is the hot-weather expert with some helpful guidelines to follow when caring for the automobile battery:

1. Wear protective eyewear, remove all jewelry and wear long sleeves to protect skin from a battery acid explosion.
2. Inspect the battery case for signs of extreme bulging, cracking or leaking. If signs are present, it's time to replace the case.
3. Clean the connections by removing any corrosion, lead oxidation, paint or rust from the top of the battery with a scouring pad or brass brush. Make sure to brush the corrosion away from the body.

It's a good idea to have your car's battery and electrical system professionally tested every three to six months.

4. If the battery has removable filler caps, open the caps and check the water level in each cell.
5. Make sure the plates are at least half covered. This prevents sulfation and reduces the possibility of an internal battery explosion.
6. If the water level is low, add distilled water (avoid tap water) until the plates are covered.
7. Avoid overfilling, especially in hot weather, because the heat can cause the solution inside to expand and overflow.
8. Have the battery and electrical system professionally tested every three to six months, especially before heading out on a trip.

In just 30 seconds, Interstate All Battery Center locations provide motorists with a free printout analysis of the vehicle battery condition. To find information and a nearby Interstate Batteries dealer or Interstate All Battery Center, visit www.interstatebatteries.com.

 THE HISTORY CHANNEL

I am seeking, I am striving, I am in it with all my heart.
 —Vincent van Gogh

• On Feb. 12, 1793, Congress passes the first fugitive slave law, requiring all states, including those that forbid slavery, to forcibly return slaves who have escaped from other states to their original owners.

• On Feb. 7, 1812, the most violent of a series of earthquakes near Missouri causes a so-called fluvial tsunami in the Mississippi River, actually making the river run backward for several hours. Large lakes, such as Reelfoot Lake and Big Lake, were created by the earthquake.

• On Feb. 11, 1916, Emma Goldman, a crusader for women's rights and social justice, is arrested in New York City for lecturing and distributing materials about birth control in violation of the Comstock Act of 1873.

• On Feb. 6, 1937, John Steinbeck's novella "Of Mice and Men," the story of the bond between two migrant workers, is published. In 1925, he had moved to New York City, where he worked as a manual laborer and a journalist. In 1939, Steinbeck won the Pulitzer Prize for "The Grapes of Wrath."

• On Feb. 9, 1950, U.S. Sen. Joseph McCarthy claims he has a list with the names of more than 200 members of the Department of State who are "known communists." McCarthy never produced any evidence that there was even one.

• On Feb. 10, 1966, Ralph Nader, author of the groundbreaking book "Unsafe at Any Speed," first testifies before Congress about unsafe practices in the auto industry. Nader would go on to advocate for other consumer causes, including food and drug safety.

• On Feb. 8, 1978, a classic Nor'easter that brought a severe blizzard to New England finally subsides. In the end, 56 deaths were attributed to the storm, which dumped up to 55 inches of snow in some areas of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Hints For Homeowners

Simplify Your Life, Starting At Home

(NAPSA)—If your home is like many, there's one room that just doesn't work with the rest of the house. To help you fix that, HGTV designer Lisa LaPorta and Pfister offer four simple solutions that you can execute in a weekend or less.

How To Have A New Home At The Old Address

1. Remove the clutter and organize your chaos. Too many pieces of furniture, accessories and small appliances create conflicting styles. That doesn't mean you have to throw stuff out, however. You can still keep everything you own. Just don't have everything you own out at once. Rotate your art and furniture with the seasons. Maximize your cabinet space with organizers and stackers. Put away appliances and utensils in your kitchen. Decorate with bowls of fruit and flowers.

2. Work with what you have. When picking colors and accessories, consider what you currently own and highlight the pieces you love. You can transform just about any room simply by rearranging the furniture and applying a fresh coat of paint.

3. Create your own design journal. Look through design books and magazines and tear out pictures of rooms you love and rooms you dislike. You should start to notice reoccurring preferences that can inspire you.

4. It's time for new jewelry. Just like adding a new piece of jewelry to your wardrobe, accessorizing the bathroom or kitchen with a new faucet and hardware can make the room feel new. The old rules about having to match all your metals—faucets, drawer pulls, hinges, light fixtures—are gone, so get what fits your design personality.

Changing out old fixtures can be a simple, quick and affordable weekend project (there's no need to pull old piping out of the wall) with Pfister's new Universal Tub and Shower upgrade kit. It is compatible with eight different valves from leading plumbing manufacturers, comes in multiple style and finish options, and includes a five-function showerhead and an all-metal tub spout.

In addition, Pfister's attractive new line of water-conserving faucets helps reduce water consumption, saving you money and making the house more attractive to eventual buyers.

Is Your Pet Ready for Air Travel?

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I just read the letter from a reader who's been asked to return a cat to its original owner. I hope that if they send the cat back, they don't send it by air! Animals are put in the airplane's baggage compartment, which is not heated. I recently was on a plane with a seat display showing the outside temperature as 70 below zero. — Sarah S., via email

DEAR SARAH: I'll probably hear otherwise from a few readers, but transporting pets on aircraft is fairly safe, and they are not exposed to sub-zero temperatures while in the cargo hold. Of course, we've all heard about pets that were injured or died while being transported, so I looked into this claim.

According to Pets Express, one of several companies that specialize in transporting animals via commercial aircraft, "Air travel is as safe for pets as it is for people. Your pet will travel in a special cargo compartment [which is] both climate controlled and pressurized for your pet's safety and comfort. It is on the same air circulation system as the cabin."

That said, traveling as cargo is not for every dog and cat. Pets that are elderly, easily stressed or have existing medical conditions can be at risk of developing health problems or even dying during transport. Many airlines prohibit certain breeds — particularly brachycephalic animals that have restricted breathing such as Bulldogs or Chow Chows, and even Burmese cats.

Over the past decade, many if not all U.S. airlines have allowed smaller pets and service animals to travel in the cabin with their owners. There's usually a $100-$200 fee, and pets must be transported in a sturdy carrier that fits under the seat.

Send your questions or tips to ask@pawscorner.com.

Birding BITS BY Cindy Brook

American Robins

If you live in Connecticut, Michigan or Wisconsin, this is your state bird. Robins spend much of the winter digging for worms and eating fruit. Attract them to your yard by putting raisins, berries or chopped apples on ground feeders. Let's help robins during the winter so they can bring us spring.

COOKING IDEAS

(NAPSA)—It's a smart idea to keep a jar or two of maraschino cherries on hand because these tasty fruits are an easy way to add color, flavor and fun to many desserts, snacks and appetizers. For recipes, tips and more information, visit www.nationalcherries.com.

The first written mention of ice cream in this country can be found in a letter from the 1700s, which admiringly describes the ice cream and strawberry dessert a Maryland governor served at a dinner party.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Lots of mixed signals can create an unreliable situation in which to make decisions. Best advice: Hold off on making any commitments until you're sure you know what's going on.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) An apparently friendly offer comes with some strings attached. Be careful not to get tied into something you don't really want. Thoroughly examine all your options before making a choice.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) If you're not careful, distractions can interrupt your best efforts. Continue to focus on what you need to do. You'll soon have lots of time to enjoy the rewards of your dedication.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Knowledge replaces suspicion as you begin to learn more about that "act of betrayal." On a lighter note, someone close to you might be planning a pleasant surprise.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Control your sometimes-overactive jealousy gene before you find yourself saying or doing something that you could later regret. Best advice: Stop obsessing and move on.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) It's a good time to loosen up and do something wonderful and exciting before your more reserved nature resurfaces. A message brings news of imminent change.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Cheer up. Things begin to improve significantly by mid-February. However, you might still need help to get through the rest of this sometimes-difficult period.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Something you learned last week takes on new meaning as you begin to relate it to another situation in your life. It's best to keep this matter to yourself for now.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your energy level is climbing, and so is your self-confidence. Good for you, because you'll need a good dollop of both to tackle an exciting challenge on the way.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A family issue might interrupt a career-linked project. Try to give the matter the attention it needs, but be careful not to jeopardize your workplace situation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Some self-doubt shows up this week, causing you to question your ability to handle a new challenge. But you know you can do it, and this is your chance to prove it.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A personal matter requires you to be as clear and forthcoming as possible in order to avoid misunderstandings. A career move is eased with the emergence of new facts.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a way of reaching people that makes them feel good about themselves. You would be an excellent motivational speaker.

It seems as though I had not drunk from the cup of wisdom, but had fallen into it.
—Soren Kierkegaard

The first ice cream parlor in this country opened in New York City in 1776. In 1845, the hand-cranked freezer was invented. This allowed Americans to make ice cream more easily at home.
