Murphy & Vierkant Awarded Miss Amazing Iowa Titles

The Miss Amazing Pageant is a non-profit organization aimed towards raising self-confidence in girls/women with disabilities. The pageant was started in Nebraska and is expanding nationwide, currently established in over 20 states. This is the fifth time the pageant has been held in Iowa. The event took place at Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs on February 17-18. 100 lovely ladies, ages 5-60, from all over Iowa participated. This event gives girls with disabilities the opportunity to feel like the true beauties and super stars that they are!

Lynn Murphy

The participants participated in interview, personal introduction, evening gown, and optional talent. These are aspects of pageantry that allow the girls to gain poise, public speaking skills, and of course, friends. To help the girls throughout the day, each contestant was paired up with a buddy that will mentor her through the day and during the final show.

Megan Vierkant

There were six 2017 state queens who were selected by judges, one from each age division. Lynn Murphy was awarded the title of Sr. Miss Amazing Iowa Queen. This gives her the opportunity to go to nationals and to represent the state of Iowa in Chicago, Illinois, during the first week of August 2017.

There will be a fundraising event for Lynn on March 26, 2017, at 12:00pm - a taco feed for a free will offering, at the Calvary United Methodist Church in Arnolds Park. The funds collected will help her with her expenses to travel and attend the Miss Amazing Pageant in Chicago.

Megan Vierkant was crowned Iowa Miss Amazing Teen Queen. This honor now advances her to compete in the Miss Amazing National Competition in Chicago the first week of August. Megan graduated from Spirit Lake High School in 2016 and currently works at Echo Plus and Little Hands Daycare. Megan is the daughter of Jeff and Nancy Vierkant of Spirit Lake. To support Megan's trip to the National Pageant please visit online www.donate.missamazing.org/meganvierkant or contact Nancy at 712-330-4266 to make a tax deductible contribution.

Rotary Car Has Dropped

Official Time To Be Determined!
On February 23, 2017, at approximately 4:43 in the afternoon, The Iowa Great Lakes Rotary Club Fundraiser came to an end when the car sank below the icy waters of Smith's Bay. However, the official winner of $1,000 will be announced when the car is brought out of the lake to see when the clock stopped ticking. The warm temperatures and high winds the last few days accelerated the sinking to a record breaking day in February. Last year was early on an afternoon of March 9.

Thanks to all who sold tickets and the different media outlets who helped promote the fundraiser. A special thanks to the Dry Dock Lounge and The Hutt for also selling tickets. Proceeds for this fundraiser go directly back into the community.

REAL ESTATE ROUNDUP

Presented by RE/MAX Lakes Realty

I must have dreamt up all that warm weather because right now I'm staring outside at a blizzard. By the time this gets published next week, we will probably be boating. But I digress. ATTENTION all you sellers out there; immediately after the winter games, the online inquiries increased, showing requests increased, and calls increased. Buyers are asking, "where are the homes for sale?" We NEED your listings. Don't wait!! Buyers are ready NOW. Call one of our agents to get your FREE CMA analysis and let the #1 name in real estate, RE/MAX, get your home sold.

In our last feature, we shook it up and turned the table a bit. Because our industry often gets dinged for things agents do (or don't do) that frustrate buyers and sellers, I took the liberty to educate all of you about some things that "buyers" do that frustrate their agents. So, today, in part 2 of 2, I'd like to point out just a few things that "sellers" inadvertently do, that may frustrate their agent. Hopefully everybody sees these last 2 articles as educational and informative because that is their intent. I want to re-emphasize a very important point from our last feature. The real estate industry is filled with hard-working, caring, intelligent, and loyal agents. Don't let a few bad apples with questionable ethics or questionable ability define the industry. It is not who we are as a whole.

- Sellers:
- 1. My home is worth way more than that!: In 9 out of 10 cases, sellers believe their home is worth more than it is, and buyers believe it's worth less than it is. This is the nature of the beast. Allow your agent to provide you with objective data, along with logical reasoning. I hear all the time, "we can always lower the price, but we can't go up." Though this may seem logical, other agents and the public will immediately take notice of an overpriced home and the stigma is difficult to overcome.
 - 2. We only had water in the basement once: We get the question all the time about what needs to be disclosed and what doesn't need to be disclosed on the "Sellers Property Disclosure Form." The answer is easy. Disclose, disclose, disclose. If you are questioning it, disclose it. Most homes have had some sort of problem that has had a negative affect on the owner or the property. Whether something has happened once, or whether it "wasn't that serious", always disclose. It will protect you from lawsuits in the long run, and it will make the buyer more comfortable knowing, he/she is dealing with an honest seller.
 - 3. I'm NOT paying for the buyer's closing costs!: Though you may believe the buyer is being greedy asking for you to pay their closing costs, this typically is not the case. Many times, available cash can be a constraint at closing for many buyers, especially after making the down payment, and they won't be able to finance without some assistance. Just pay attention to the NET offer price, and keep an open mind.
 - 4. Leaving the place a pig sty after closing: Not only are you legally required to remove all junk and debris from the home per your contractual agreement, it's just the right thing to do. Remember the golden rule from the last article.

Arts at St. Joseph Presents 'Together Again' Concert March 12

The 'Arts at St. Joseph' presents 'Together Again' Concert featuring Okobojians John Moore, Jessica Schable, Heath Huberg, Drew Duncan and Andrew Ryker on Sunday, March 12, 4:30pm at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Milford, Iowa. The five extraordinarily talented graduates of Okoboji High School will be presenting a program of sacred, classical, theater music and opera. The concert is free with doors opening at 4:00pm. A reception will follow in the Parish Center. A free will offering will be accepted.

John, Jessica, Heath, Drew and Andrew have been singing together since elementary school. Attending Okoboji High School, they participated in choir, show choir, musicals, jazz band and band performing together in Northwest Iowa. Moore, Schable, Huberg, and Duncan attended Simpson College singing together in operas, choir and other music venues. All have gone on to successful careers in music performance.

John Moore is a frequent performer in both Europe and the United States. Moore is garnering praise for his energetic performances and burnished baritone in both operatic and concert repertoire. In the upcoming season, the graduate of the Metropolitan Opera's Lindemann Young Artist Program will be singing the role of Jan in the world premiere of Missy Mazzoli's Breaking the Waves with Opera Philadelphia; Morales in Carmen at the Metropolitan Opera; Seattle Opera as Papageno in Die Zauberflote and as Figaro in Le Nozze di Figaro at the Hyogo Performing Arts Center. On the concert stage he appears at Carnegie Hall with the Oratorio Society of NY, and the Philadelphia Chamber Music Society.

Jessica Schable, graduate of Okoboji High School and Simpson College (B.A. in Music Education), owns a private voice and piano studio in the Iowa Great Lakes area. Jessica, a member of the Iowa Association of Teachers of Singing, serves as a judge for annual adjudications. She also serves as instructor and accompanist at the All State Music Camp at Buena Vista University and at Iowa Lakes Community College. In addition to her teaching responsibilities, Jessica Schable serves as the Music Director at First Lutheran Church, Milford.

American tenor Heath Huberg, praised for his "sweet-toned lyricism" (San Francisco Chronicle), is gaining ground with both concert and opera stages, enjoying engagements with some of the finest young artist training programs in the world. Heath has performed at the Merola Opera Program in San Francisco (Almaviva in Il barbiere di Siviglia), Des Moines Metro Opera, Sarasota Opera, Utah Symphony and Opera, and Santa Fe Opera, (singing in the world premiere performances of Life is a Dream.) In the upcoming 2016-2017 season, Heath will premiere as Argirio in productions of Rossini's Tancredi with Opera Southwest and Baltimore Concert Opera. Huberg graduated from Simpson College and received a Master of Music (with honors) from New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

Andrew Ryker, baritone, received (with honors) his master's degree in Vocal Performance from New England Conservatory. Andrew has been heard with the Boston Pops, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, La Musica Lirica and College Light Opera Company. Ryker joined the voice faculty at Drake University in 2009 and has a consistent track record for training excellent and versatile singers. Andrew is an accomplished stage director. His production of Benjamin Britten's Curlew River was named Boston's "Best Staged Opera of the Year" by the Boston Phoenix. Andrew is actively involved with the Des Moines Metro Opera where he has directed for their nationally recognized Apprentice Artistic Program.

Tenor Drew Duncan has sung with Lyric Opera of Chicago, Des Moines Metro Opera, Virginia Opera, Sarasota Opera, Chicago Opera Theater, Chamber Opera Chicago, Ash Lawn Opera, Virginia Consort and Dubuque Symphony Orchestra. In 2010, Mr. Duncan was a Central Region Finalist in the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions. Duncan resides in Lincoln Nebraska and regularly sings with Opera Omaha, Abendmusik, The Nebraska Wind Symphony, Creighton University and sings the National Anthem for the UNO Maverick Hockey team and the College World Series. Mr. Duncan is presently serving as Interim Music and Fine Arts Coordinator at First Plymouth Church as well as Interim Executive Director at Abendmusik.

The 'Arts at St. Joseph' is proud to host 'Together Again' Concert as part of their series of sacred art presentations. We are grateful to our corporate sponsors: The Patrice and Rita Leary Foundation and United Community Bank. Proceeds from the concert will be donated to the St. Joseph Youth Ministry Mission Trip to Africa.

Discovery House News

Director

Thanks to our friends and donors, we have had a positive response to our "Sponsor a Sanctuary" room renovation project at Discovery House. We have one room fully sponsored and the remaining four partially sponsored. If you would like to help us design and furnish a safe space for our guests who need a retreat and shelter in a time of transition in their lives, please contact me at 712-336-5340. We are partnering with retailers in the community to provide discounts on furnishings and supplies to make these rooms new again. Some of the ways to contribute are paint, window coverings, furniture, bedding, lights, and flooring to spruce up a space shared by two men or two women for up to six months, or longer, during their stay at Discovery House. All rooms are original, with the exception of a few updates, from 1993 when Phyllis Kempema opened the doors and welcomed guests into the house.

We are excited about another new project at the house – The Discovery House Alumni Association. We recognize the importance of the connections made while residents are living here. We are forming a group of former residents who would like to retain the friendships made and support gained, and, in turn, reach out and help the newcomers. The Association is in its infancy and needs members to form it and make it viable. If you resided at Discovery House from 1993 to the present, or just have a heart for the house, and are interested in sharing your experience with and encouraging new residents and helping plan outings, activities, or events, please stop by or contact me at 712-336-5340. What better way to give back!

This winter the population at the house has been as unusual as the weather. As of today, the house is full with 6 women and 4 men. This doesn't happen very often where the women outnumber the men. Normally the men outnumber the women 3 to 1. In time, those numbers will most likely change.

Bible verse of the day: "Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows." James 1:17 NIV. Until next time, may God bless you with His good and perfect gifts.

Obituaries

Doris Majorie (Wunder) Frazier went home to be with the Lord on January 28, 2017. Doris was born in Harris, on October 15, 1925, to Hans and Myrtle (Funk) Wunder. The family later moved to Milford, where Doris attended high school and was graduated from Okoboji Consolidated High School in 1943. She later attended Mankato Business School in Mankato, Minnesota. On October 19, 1945, she was united in marriage to her high school sweetheart, Max Frazier. They celebrated their 60th anniversary in October, 2005.

After the war, Max and Doris lived in Des Moines where Max attended Capital City Commercial College. They moved to Spencer, and later to Carlisle, before moving to Boone in 1955 when Max began his career with Archway Cookie Company. They later spent a year in Oregon in Bible study and a year in Iowa City working with a ministry team there. But Boone was near to their hearts, so it was back to Boone they moved.

Doris spent her entire life as a homemaker, a role that she truly enjoyed. She was an accomplished cook with an open door to any who wanted to come and share a meal. She enjoyed counted cross-stitch and quilting, making something for each grandchild. Doris was an avid gardener - her favorites were irises and daylilies. She took great pride in her gardens.

Doris was an active member of the First Evangelical Free Church of Boone, Iowa. She ministered as a Sunday school teacher and an AWANA leader for many years. She was an active choir member and sang in a ladies' trio. In addition she served as a deaconess and Circle leader. Doris had a passion to share her love of Jesus and the Word of God with boys and girls and her life touched many of theirs.

Doris had a heart focused on missions. The needs of others around the world strongly spoke to her heart and she responded financially and, more importantly, with fervent prayer. Her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren can all attest to the power of Doris' prayers.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents, Hans and Myrtle (Funk) Wunder; her husband, Max; her brother, Denton Wunder; her son, Michael Frazier; a son-in-law, Michael Harper; a grand daughter-in-law, Carol Frazier; and one grandchild, Allisa Frazier.

She is survived by four children: Max Jr. (Marlys Rowe), Mary (Jack Smith), Diane Harper, Douglas (Debra Noack), and daughter-in-law Lucretia (Childs) Frazier. Her legacy also includes 14 grandchildren who loved her very much and 23 great-grandchildren to whom she was a most special Great Grandma. Doris is also survived by her sister, DeEtte Graettinger of Graettinger, Iowa; sister-in-law, Marie Wunder of Milford; many friends and her church family.

Services were held Friday, February 3, 2017, at 11:00 am at the First Evangelical Free Church in Boone with Pastor Kevin Sorenson and Pastor Tom Mason officiating. Interment was in Squire Boone Cemetery south of Boone.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to Gideon's International, International Missions Board or Central Missionary Clearing House, ministries that were very dear to Doris.

The Family of Pam Stinogel

would like to thank all her friends and the entire community for the kindness and generosity shown to Pam during her recent illness.

A special Thank You to the Class of 1969 for your continued relationships which you have continued over the years.

We are forever grateful.

Obituaries

William Chase Powers
October 11, 1982 to February 14, 2017

There will be a celebration of life for Chase Powers, 34, on March 10, 2017, at The Pavilion at Historic Arnolds Park on the shore of West Okoboji from 5:00pm to 8:00pm. Chase died on February 14, 2017, in Incline Village, Nevada.

Chase was born in Pocahontas, Iowa, to Tom Powers and Peggy Noonan Powers. Chase attended and graduated from Pocahontas Area Community Schools. Chase later attended Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Chase excelled in football and basketball while attending PAC.

Chase's true love though was summertime in Okoboji. Chase made friends with people from all over the U.S. while spending the summers working and playing at the lake. Okoboji was the meeting place for his many family members including his grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and nieces.

Chase and his siblings, Casey and Nealey, were involved in the "University of Okoboji Water Ski Club." From a young age, he was the top member of the skiing pyramid as they performed ski shows near the state pier. He loved to do tricks and barefoot for the spectators. Later he took up wakeboarding and inspired others to try it out. He taught lessons to young beginners and was known for high flying maneuvers and jumping anything on the lake.

Chase followed some dear friends to Lake Tahoe in the winters to work at The Village Ski Loft as a ski technician. For many years, he returned to Okoboji in the summer to work and play. He always said, "I share the two most beautiful lakes all year." These past few years he remained in Lake Tahoe during the summer to sell, build, and repair bikes at The Ski Loft. He loved to ride with his friends and visitors to the area. He always found time to return to Okoboji and see family and friends.

Chase is survived by his father, Tom and Leann Powers of Pocahontas; his mother, Peggy Noonan Powers and Dan Sanders of Okoboji; brother, Casey Powers and wife Jenny Forsberg of Arnolds Park; sister Nealey Powers and daughters, Madison and Alexia of West Des Moines; and his extended family and friends.

Chase was a kind and gentle soul who touched many people's lives. He will be greatly missed by all, but never forgotten by any.

East Side of Main Street, Milford, Iowa • Early 1900

Stepping Back in Time by Jerry and Irene Clark of the Clark Museum of Okoboji area and Iowa history - Milford, Iowa.

A request was made to share this photo this week. The photo shows the Woods & Woods store that is now the Mill Creek Cafe. Buildings to the north were the variety store, post office, cafe, hotel, general store, barber shop, drug store, bank, garage and hospital.

The firm of Woods & Woods was one of the important businesses of the town. Ernest Woods was mayor from 1914-1924. George was the first manager of the standard oil station located south of the past

Carr Garage. I remember riding my bicycle past the Ernie Woods home. P.T. Burk sold Ford cars in 1922 as follows: a Touring Car for $489.00 - without starter $423.00; a Coupe for $466.00; a Sedan for $734.00; a Truck for $509.00; a Ford Tractor for $442.00. P.T. Burk had one of the garages north of the bank.

Please thank The Lakes News Shopper for being the sponsors of these stories. I will write a new one each week featuring a former Milford business.

IJC, IVJC next on the horizon

While Professor A. Good Outlook wasn't able to do anything to hold back what we hope is the final major snowfall of the season, last week, the good news is that with the Iowa Jazz Championships and the Iowa Vocal Jazz Championships in the offing, Spring can't be too far ahead.

At least that's PAGO's story. And he's sticking to it! The April 4th IJC will include Okoboji High School's jazz band in Class 2A, along with Storm Lake and Spencer in Class 3A - where Spirit Lake has a Wild Card opportunity along with eight other bands competing for the remaining seven seats. The decisions there are expected to be posted by next week at this time. Stay tuned.

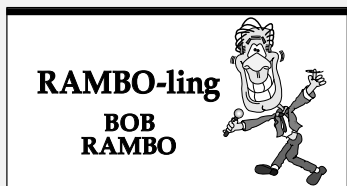

And, following recorded auditions, Emmetsburg's Vocal Jazz Experiment, Okoboji's Boji Voices, and the Sibley-Ocheyedan Night Sounds will represent the area in the Iowa Vocal Jazz Championships' Class 2A division. Spirit Lake's Vocal Jazz will be one of the top eight schools in the state competing in Class 3A. Class 4A, which has only the Sioux City schools in this area, will see only three schools represented in the state-wide contest. Cedar Rapids has two of the eight slots, Pleasant Valley takes another two. And West Des Moines' Valley High School has garnered the remaining four.

That makes us wonder how it is that cities like Music Mason City, Waterloo, Des Moines, Iowa City, and Davenport don't even show up on the list...

Just for the record, Spirit Lake band director Tyler Pedersen tells us that the SLHS Jazz Band, which earned a 5th place last week at the Northwest Iowa District Jazz Festival in Le Mars, is sure to be a part of the Spirit Lake High School Jazz Show at the SAMI Center on Monday, March 13th...

This Wednesday night, and for the four following Wednesday nights as well, John Senn & Friends will be entertaining at Table 316 in Arnolds Park, from 6 - 8:00. Count 'em. That's five weeks in a row!

And, The South 71 Trio will be returning to the Little Swan Lake Winery, Sunday afternoon, from 4 - 6:00. Stage Rat Stan says the three merry makers even have some new tunes worked up for the first weekend of the month!

Peeking at the March calendar we find that the Jackson Center for the Arts will be hosting a Jam Session for musicians of all skill levels on Thursday night, March 9, starting at 6:30. The following night we see Jonathan Byrd and the Pick Up Cowboys at the same downtown Jackson venue, starting at 7:30...

Research director RD was able to come up with only one song with which we can celebrate this last day of the month being "Chocolate Souffle Day!"

We're betting you've not heard the song Meet the Sun Halfway, that mentions the sweet concoction. The song was composed by James Monaco and Johnny Burke (whose natal day we missed last week) for the 1940 production of If I Had My Way, and recorded then by Bing Crosby, and years later, by Tiny Tim. You'll find both fun versions on YouTube...

Even though February 29th doesn't appear on any 2017 calendar that we have seen, we can make note of Jimmy Dorsey's February 29th birth in 1904. JD was one of the last big band leaders to have a hit recording. The song was So Rare, recorded in 1956 - during the first decade of the Rock 'n' Roll era...

We should also celebrate Dinah Shore's February 29th birth - in 1917. In addition to her chart-topping recordings, the singer and actress, led us to "See the USA in a Chevrolet," as a part of her television program...

Born on March 1, 1810, composer Frederic Chopin is best remembered not for Rock 'n' Roll, but for his classical works, although he was the genius behind the melody for Could It Be Magic, which was made popular by Barry Manilow in 1975 - 165 years after Chopin's birth. The Manilow hit was based on Chopin's Prelude in C Minor, and was revisited by The Puppini Sisters on their 2007 compact disc...

A more recent March 1st and 1904 birthday came in Clarinda, Iowa, when Glenn Miller was born there. Miller's all-too-brief musical career saw dozens of big band hits, and spawned the annual Glenn Miller Birthplace Festival that draws thousands of fans from all over the world to his hometown each summer. This year's festival is set for June 8 - 11...

While he is probably lesser-known in the commercial world of music, we need to note that internationally acclaimed Iowa-born opera singer Simon Estes turns 79 on Wednesday and is still active in the business while raising funds for several charitable causes. Estes has not only performed on the Campus of the UofO more times than we can recall, but has been something of an inspiration to many area music students.

That means we should probably remind you that five of those students, John Moore, Jessica Schable, Heath Huberg, Drew Duncan, and Andrew Ryker - all turn-of-the-century Okoboji High School grads - will be performing as a part of the Arts of St. Joseph concert series at the church in Milford, on Sunday, March 12th...

One of the earliest sex symbols of the motion picture business, Jean Harlow, was born on March 3, 1911. Her bio-pic, Harlow, featured a score by Neal Hefti that launched the hit song Girl Talk. Two of the top-selling versions of the number can be found on Julie London's 1965 LP, Feeling Good, and Tony Bennett's 1966 album of movie songs...

Cab Calloway sang about Minnie the Moocher in a March 3, 1931 recording. Minnie was apparently quite a gal. The song was the first jazz recording to become a million-seller...

We start the weekend on Saturday knowing that whoever wrote I Got It Bad, and That Ain't Good, ain't got no good grammar. The credit - or perhaps a failing grade in high school - would go to famed songwriter Paul Francis Webster, who put his grammatically incorrect words to the music of Duke Ellington.

Hey. A hit is a hit is a hit. And soon enough we'll be playing baseball!

All the news that fits we print.

Please send your music-related announcements and comments to RAMBOLing@mindspring.com or P. O. Box 676, Okoboji, Iowa 51355-0676

Alice's Tea Party at AOG

Arts On Grand (408 Grand Avenue, Spencer) is hosting a come and go event, Alice's Tea Party, on March 12, from 1:30 to 4:00. Enjoy your favorite teas using Alice Schar's tea cup collection with a visit from the Mad Hatter!

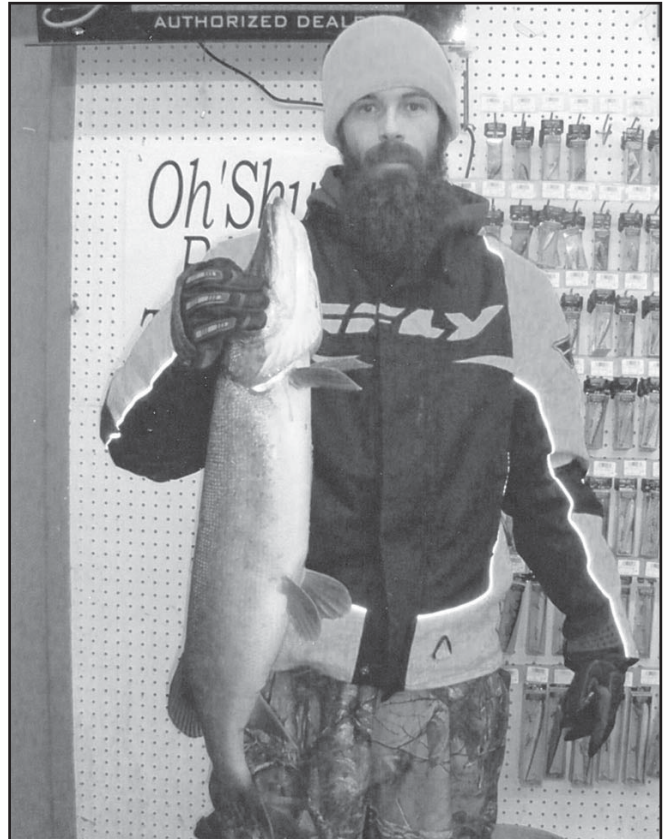

Alice Schar was born 1923 and raised on a farm outside of Forest City, Iowa. She began teaching in Lakota, Iowa, and later moved to Spencer with her husband Art, where they raised two sons. She was active with Business & Professional Women's Club, Parker Historical Society, and Spencer Federated Women's Club. Alice taught middle school science at Clay Central Everyly until 1981.

Throughout her teaching career, she received cups and saucers as gifts from her family members and from her students. After her death in 2009, her daughter-in-law organized a tea party at Arts on Grand using the collector cups and saucers. This year's tea party will be the third time for the public to come and enjoy the beautiful gallery exhibit with friends.

Everyone is cordially invited to stop by Arts on Grand for a cup of tea and a variety of cookies.

Summer Camp Registration Opens

Sunshine and summertime --- admit it; it's what's on your mind.

Plan ahead for how much fun your kids can have this summer at the Dickinson County Nature Center in Okoboji as registration for summer camps opens March 1 online.

Ages four-eighteen have the opportunity to get outside with a variety of summer camps offered this year.

Kayaking Adventures will kick off the season with two sessions, 9:00-11:00am June 20-21, for ages ten-twelve and 9:00am-12:00 noon June 27-28, for ages thirteen-eighteen. Join our naturalists and certified instructor for lessons on safety and paddling techniques and put your new-found knowledge to use on the water.

"Summer in Okoboji means time on the water, and we had such a great time introducing kids to kayaking last summer that we wanted to bring the camp back this year," said Kiley Roth, community relations coordinator. "Kayaking Adventures is the perfect camp for teens and pre-teens because it is really active and teaches them skills they can use the rest of their lives."

Campers may use their own kayak and life preserver or may borrow ours. Kayaking Adventures camp costs $40 for Conservation Foundation of Dickinson County members or $50 for non-members, including a free T-shirt.

July will feature the Outdoor Discoveries camp, with one session 8:00am-4:00pm July 18, for ages four-five and the next session 8:00am-4:00pm July 19, for ages six-seven. Kids will spend a day with naturalists meeting our animal ambassadors, hiking outside, playing games and making crafts to take home. They are sure to make memories and learn about nature without even realizing it.

"These ages are so much fun to have at camp, because they are just so open to the world around them and are so excited to learn and spend time outside," Roth said. "We had a request from working parents to move the camp to one day so they can drop their children off in the morning and pick up in the afternoon, so we're hoping people will like this day-long format."

The final camp of the summer will be Science Quest, 8:00am-4:00pm August 1, for ages eight-nine. Youth will get to explore the world through experiments and scientific endeavors.

Outdoor Discoveries and Science Quest camps are $50 for Conservation Foundation of Dickinson County members and $60 for non-members, including a free T-shirt. Campers should plan to bring a sack lunch.

Registration opens at www.dickinsoncountynaturecenter.com/event-registration on March 1, and the deadline for each camp is two weeks before the camp start date. Make sure to sign up early as spots fill quickly.

In addition to summer camps, the Dickinson County Nature Center also offers free kids programs each week of the summer. To find out more, call 712-336-6352 or visit www.dickinson-countynaturecenter.com. You can also keep up with the latest happenings on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

The Milford Memorial Library will hold an after school program on Thursday, March 9, for St. Patrick's Day activities. Pre-school through 4th grade children are invited. Bring your friends for snacks and fun. There is no charge and registration is not required.

Aventure Staffing & Professional Services Wins Award

Aventure Staffing & Professional Services, a leading staffing agency Healthcare, Office/Clerical, Light Industrial and Professional industries announced today they have won Inavero's Best of Staffing@ Client Award for providing superior service to their clients. Presented in partnership with CareerBuilder, Inavero's Best of Staffing Client winners have proven to be industry leaders in service quality based completely on the ratings given to them by their clients. On average, clients of winning agencies are 2.5 times more likely to be completely satisfied with services provided compared to those working with non-winning agencies.

Focused on helping companies in the Midwest find the right people for their job openings, Aventure Staffing received satisfaction scores of 9 or 10 out of 10 from 75.9% of their clients, significantly higher than the industry's average of 29%. Award winners make up less than 2% of all staffing agencies in the U.S. and Canada who earned the Best of Staffing Award for service excellence.

"As a staffing company, customer service is always an important part of how Aventure Staffing does business," Aventure Staffing's COO, Stacia Lenz said. "It is an honor to receive Inavero's Best of Staffing Client Award for the second consecutive year. We are extremely humbled by the positive feedback that our clients have given us yet again."

"Staffing firms are giving top companies a competitive advantage as they search for talent in North America," said Inavero's CEO Eric Gregg. "The 2017 Best of Staffing winners have achieved exceptionally high levels of satisfaction and I'm proud to feature them on BestofStaffing.com."

Major Upgrade Coming Soon to Pioneer Theatre

Lights, Camera, Recline: Milford Pioneer Theatre is revealing details on the much-anticipated renovation and reopening of the balcony. Over the past several weeks, crews have been working late at night and early in the morning to spruce up the space. The renovations will be capped off by installing 18 luxury recliner chairs over the next several days. The exact opening date will be announced via the theater email newsletter (sign up at milfordpioneertheatre.com) or on the theater Facebook page, but it will be in the next 1-2 weeks as the seats have shipped out and are on the way from the factory in Mississippi. American manufacturer VIP Seating was chosen for their high-quality seats, which are installed in high-end movie complexes in the big cities. For the first couple of weeks, the seats will be available on a first-come basis so customers can try them out. After that, guests will be able to reserve specific seats in the balcony before showtime by visiting the popular movie ticket site Fandango.com (or by using the mobile app). For questions about the project, or about the theater in general, please contact Rob at 515-207-2306.

Girl Scouts Learn the Ancient Art of Falconry

Local veterinarian, Ross Dirks, showcased his Peregrine Falcon named Bogey at a recent meeting of Girl Scouts, Troop 10204. "Falconry is one of the most ancient hunting sports," Dr. Dirks explained to the group. Dr. Dirks has been hunting with falcons for over 20 years and is the owner of the Dickinson County Animal Clinic.

Heinrichs Wins 12 Newspaper Awards
Matt Heinrichs, an adjunct instructor in the Digital, Social and Broadcast Productions program at Iowa Lakes Community College, won 12 awards at an awards banquet held Friday, February 3, at the 2017 Iowa Newspaper Association Convention and Trade Show in Des Moines.

In addition to teaching at Iowa Lakes, Heinrichs is also the Sports Editor of the Dickinson County News in Spirit Lake. His 12 Iowa Better Newspaper Contest awards were the most won by any writer in the state.

Heinrichs brought home four first-place awards, including: Best Sports Story, Best Sports Feature Story, Best Personality Feature Story and Best News Feature Photo.

His two-part series titled 'The Power to Stand' about former Luther College football player Chris Norton's journey back from an injury that left him paralyzed from the neck down to walking across the graduation stage won for Best Sports Feature Story and Best Personality Feature Story, and finished third for Best Series.

Judges were impressed with Heinrichs' storytelling. "Great writer recounting a powerful story," one judge said. "Gripping lead followed by well-researched detail, further enhanced by excellent storytelling. Having a young man's personality, shaped by conviction, come through so strongly is a beautiful thing to read."

Heinrichs' coverage of the 2016-17 Okoboji girls basketball team's state semifinal loss to Western Christian this past March earned him the Best Sports Story award.

Judges said the story was the "Best of the bunch. Hands down. The lead was terrific. The writer painted a picture with his words and descriptions."

Judges loved that both the girl and her furry companion were smiling while racing across the snow and ice. "This is every single thing a feature photo should be," a judge said. "I don't know whether the dog or the kid has a bigger smile, and that's what makes this photo so much fun."

The former Iowa Lakes and Estherville Lincoln Central student also won second place awards for Best News Feature Photo, Best Blog, Best Slideshow, Best Sports Feature Photo and Best Video. He brought home additional third place awards for Best Sports Feature Story and Best Sports Story.

Impeach Trump

To The Editor:
 The Old Testament prophet Jeremiah was placed in solitary by the king for predicting the defeat of the country. He was like John the Baptist who denounced the immorality of the king. Both challenged the self righteous.

Who of today's clergy have the courage to speak out against the government's propaganda decrees. Those who had a crusade about abortion lost their mission of mercy and compassion. A few of the nuns have challenged the church and government for not speaking up for the needs of the poor. The Pope spoke and was told to mind his own business by the rich and powerful.

Bishop Oscar Romero, who was recently made a saint, was killed when he pleaded with the U.S. president to stop sending arms to El Salvador. The government's propaganda machine lead us into the Vietnam war. Two million civilians died, thousands were Catholic mothers. The same killing in Iraq because of our embargo before the war (U.N. number). Taking away Planned Parenthood was a clergy led battle that will kill many women as it did before Rowe and Wade.

Trump has his own propaganda machine. Trump's advisor, Eric Prince, leads Blackwater - a mercenary army that could take over this country. Prince's sister was nominated to take over our schools to privatize them. He picked generals to control every aspect of our government and launch his war on women, the climate and water protectors and to enforce news blackouts. It is a coup. We are at war in our own country.

Where are the brave religious leaders who speak for God? Bless the First Nation women who are speaking out. Bless the civil rights leaders who are still fighting the war on injustice. Bless the women who marched for dignity and on Wall Street. Are there charismatic women leaders who can lead the fight in this war for women's dignity and the right to make decisions about their own bodies? Bless the sanctuary cities, churches, campuses and "hiding places". Will some of us wear armbands to protect the persecuted? (give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breath free...) There is a war on drinking water and health care for all. Who has God chosen as righteous leaders? The waters are rising. The image of Noah's Ark stares us in the face. Are we so wicked that God has to cleanse the earth and start all over again? Who of us is righteous enough to lead the rebellion and be jailed for it like Jeremiah? Where are Joan of Ark's descendents? You are called to be saints like Bishop Romero and Mother Theresa. The war is world wide. We are poor... money is power, but righteous women are more powerful.
