“There is no reason to travel out of town for great heart care.”

— Jim Shields, Danville businessman

Keep Your Heart Close

When Jim Shields suffered a heart attack, the cardiac catheterization lab team at Danville Regional Medical Center, a Duke heart affiliate, was able to quickly diagnose a blockage in his heart – “the widow maker.”

Jim survived, thanks in part to the smooth and seamless care he received at Danville Regional. He participated in Danville Regional’s cardiac rehabilitation program and still runs his business full-time.

At Danville Regional, your heart is our priority. When the highest quality heart care is this close to home, the choice is easy.

You can keep your heart close. Just like Jim.

Typing Test

A soldier was asked to report to headquarters for assignment. The sergeant said: "We have a critical shortage of typists. I'll give you a little test. Type this," he ordered, giving him a pamphlet to copy and a sheet of paper, and pointing to a desk across the room that held a typewriter and an adding machine.

The man, quite reluctant to become a clerk typist, made a point of typing very slowly, and saw to it that his work contained as many errors as possible.

The sergeant gave the typed copy only a brief glance.

"That's fine," he said; "Report for work at 8 tomorrow."

"But aren't you going to check the test?" the prospective clerk asked.

The sergeant grinned. "You passed the test," he replied, "when you sat down at the typewriter instead of at the adding machine."

Centra to Celebrate Certified Nurses Day on March 19th

Centra is celebrating Certified Nurses Day, March 19th by honoring its board-certified nurses. These nurses are being recognized for their professionalism, leadership and commitment to excellence in patient care.

Board certification of nurses plays an increasingly important role in the assurance of high standards of care for patients and their loved ones. Nursing, like healthcare in general has become increasingly complex. While a registered nurse (RN) license provides entry to general nursing practice, the knowledge-intensive requirements of modern nursing require extensive education, as well as a strong personal commitment to excellence by the nurse.

Centra encourages national board certification for all its nurses. Patients are encouraged to inquire whether there are certified nurses on staff when they visit a hospital or their primary care provider. There are many nursing certification specialties such as medical-surgical, pediatric, pain management, cardiac, vascular, oncology, hospice, case management, emergency nursing, critical care and many others. Many nursing certification bodies exist to serve the full range of specialized nursing care offered in the contemporary health care system.

Please join Centra and the nation's national nursing certification organizations in honoring those hardworking, dedicated nurses for their professionalism.

SPRING, IS THAT YOU? THURSDAY

OH, OK... FRIDAY

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Put your restlessness to good use by indulging the Arian love of exploring new places and seeking new challenges. There also could be a new romance waiting to be "discovered."

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A surprise message from someone in your past could lead to a long-awaited reunion with a once-close friend. Also, look for a workplace problem to be resolved in your favor.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your self-confidence is rising, and that should be a significant factor in helping you adjust to a new social situation, as well as adjusting to a series of changes in the workplace.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Turnabout could be lots of fun when someone who previously accepted your tender, loving care without question now suggests that he or she wants to start taking care of you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Put the lessons you learned from past disappointments to work in planning your future. The way ahead opens to opportunities "purrfectly" suited to the adventurous Lion.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) This is a good time to renew contacts with family members and/or old friends who somehow slipped off your personal viewing screen in recent years. Travel also is favored.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Most problems surrounding that recent personal situation have been resolved, and that means you should move on to other things that are important to you.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Spend this weekend recharging your physical and spiritual energies. When you return to your workaday world, you'll be ready to take on that new project.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Be careful how you advise a troubled friend. Even your wise counsel could be misunderstood. Better to suggest that he or she seek professional help.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family problems once again dominate and, once again, everyone seeks your guidance in these matters. Later, you can indulge in some much-needed relaxation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Some mixed signals create confusion in the workplace. Best advice: Ask for explanations before you attempt to deal with any of these matters on your own.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A patch of roiling water in the workplace could be threatening, but stay the course and you'll soon be clear of it. Then go out and have a great time with loved ones.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your extraordinary leadership qualities mark you as someone people can turn to for guidance in difficult situations.

38th District Masons Attend Leadership Conference in Keysville

Masons from the 38th Masonic District, which includes Danville and Pittsylvania County, attended a Divisional Masonic Leadership Conference in Keysville.

The conference is a gathering of officers of the Grand Lodge of Virginia, the various District Officers and the local lodge officers and brethren for the purpose of education and interaction.

These conferences are held each year as an opportunity for Grand Lodge Officers to meet with Brethren from across Virginia to exchange thoughts and ideas and to discuss plans for the future.

Masons take part in various break-out sessions with their relevant Grand Lodge Officers or Committee Chairman. For Brethren who are not a Lodge officer or committeeman, there was a breakout session with the Grand Junior Deacon specifically to share thoughts with you and get input.

"I Can See Clearly Now, The Vain Is Gone"

My dreams are usually vague, fuzzy, and incredibly disjointed. But the epic saga from last night as I write this was crystal clear, and left me somewhat shaken, and fearing for Gotham...

Batman (The Christian Bale Batman) was being forced to retire. Mind you, he seemed to be in perfectly good shape, still young and strong, and I have no idea why he had to go. He was, though, being allowed input on his replacement. Loyal Alfred (The Michael Caine Alfred, whom I will always see as Scrooge in "The Muppet Christmas Carol") had come up with the perfect replacement. Batman, though, was adamantly opposed to the idea. He was not even willing to give his replacement a chance.

The replacement Alfred had settled on was Greg from the Brady Bunch...

There he was, sitting nearby in a Lazy Boy recliner, wearing a checkered shirt, smiling that iconic smile, curly hair waving as he nodded his head. I cannot get over the contradistinction of the Dark Knight, brooding angrily, while Greg Brady grinned at him, ready to take his job. I can only imagine, had I been able to sleep longer, the hilarity that would have ensued in Gotham:

"Here's the story, of a guy name Joker, who was thinking up some really awful crimes, all of them were even worse than the others, he should be doing time.

"Here's the story, of the brand new Batman, who was planning how to stop the Joker cold, he would need help from his brothers and his sisters, who now are getting old."

I told my wife my dream. She sighed that deep sigh again that I hear so often. I don't think she knew what she was getting into when she said "I do."

It would be very hard to replace Batman. Hard, but not impossible. After all, Michael Keaton was replaced by Val Kilmer who was replaced by George Clooney who was replaced by Ben Affleck, etc. He can be replaced. Just not by Greg Brady.

But as my mind turns to more serious matters, I realize both in gratitude and awe that the one hero that can never be replaced is Jesus. For starters, he was and is actually real. As to the "was" part, the late Michael Grant, professor at Edinburgh, an atheist, wrote a book titled "An Historian's Review of the Gospels." In it, he approvingly cited a quote by Otto Betz, which said, "To sum up, modern critical methods fail to support the Christ-myth theory. It has again and again been annihilated by first rank scholars. In recent years, no serious scholar has ventured the non-historicity of Jesus, or at any rate very few, and they have not succeeded in disposing of the much stronger, indeed very abundant, evidence to the contrary."

Not only did Jesus and does Jesus exist, he has credentials that are unmatched, and cannot even be closely duplicated. The gap between his qualifications and any other would be savior is far greater than the gap between Batman and Greg Brady. Jesus was pre-existent. John 1:3 says "All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. Colossians 1:16-17 says, "For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist."

Jesus was also virgin born (Isaiah 7:14, Matthew 1:18) and lived a totally sinless life (Hebrews 4:15). Even his enemies testified of his character. Pontius Pilate said "I find no fault in him." Most importantly, many have laid down their lives for friends, or for good people, but Jesus died for all, including the worst of the worst (Romans 5:8). And then he rose from the dead under his own power, and was seen of more than five hundred witnesses (1 Corinthians 15:6).

Seeing all this, 1 John 2:2 says that he is "the propitiation (satisfactory sacrifice) for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." God the Father is only satisfied by one thing: Jesus dying for us.

There is no replacement at all for that.

Nurturing Selflessness in a Selfie Culture

How to develop character in young children

FAMILY FEATURES

In a typical day, it's possible for children to spend more time engaging with technology than interacting with their peers face-to-face. As a result, the "selfie culture" is on the minds of today's parents, who worry about how they can make sure their children grow into kind and selfless adults.

However, a national survey revealed that parents don't fully realize the power they have when it comes to developing good character in their children. The online survey, commissioned by national high-quality preschool provider Primrose Schools®, profiled hundreds of U.S. parents whose children attend, will attend or have previously attended an early education program between the ages of 3-5.

In today's social media-focused world, 92 percent of parents agree that nurturing positive character traits in children is more important than it used to be. Yet nearly 50 percent of parents are unaware of just how early they can and should start helping their children develop these traits.

When Character-Building Should Begin

The foundational skills for good character start emerging in the first year of life. Children as young as 6 months old can demonstrate outward signs of budding empathy skills. Character and emotional intelligence continue to develop throughout the early years and are significantly influenced by young children's interactions with their parents and caregivers. Yet almost 50 percent of parents believe preschool is too early for children to start learning social-emotional skills, and could be missing critical opportunities to support their child's development.

Why Nurturing Good Character Early is Important

Intentionally nurturing social-emotional skills starting at birth is an important and often overlooked opportunity as these skills have been shown to be key predictors of future health, academic and life success. Early brain and child development research now shows more clearly that the first five years of life are critical for building the foundation for traits such as honesty, generosity, compassion and kindness, which will impact children for a lifetime.

"We now know that IQ no longer represents an accurate predictor of school readiness, much less future life success," said Dr. Laura Jana, a pediatrician and nationally acclaimed parenting and children's book author. "It's not just about learning the '3 Rs' of reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic anymore. It's the addition of a fourth 'R' that represents relationships and the importance of reading other people, which sets children up for success in today's world."

Finding Child Care that Nurtures Good Character

In addition to parents, child care providers play a key role in helping children develop a strong foundation. However, more than half of parents surveyed feel their child did not or will not acquire honesty, generosity and compassion (54, 54 and 62 percent, respectively) during their early education experience.

Parents seeking early education and care for their children should look for providers that emphasize character development. In these nurturing environments, children have opportunities to learn and practice social-emotional skills every day through games, puppet play, books, music, art projects and more. At Primrose Schools, their Balanced Learning® approach also includes hands-on experiences to help children apply concepts like generosity in real-life situations.

For example, each year thousands of children at more than 325 Primrose schools across the country take part in the annual Caring and Giving Food Drive. The preschoolers earn money to purchase canned goods through chores at home. They practice perspective taking, learning about the importance of giving through stories, songs, art projects and more. They even take field trips to grocery stores to shop for food items, which are then donated to local charities. At the end of the experience, the children feel a sense of accomplishment and have practiced skills like empathy, generosity and compassion.

"We believe who children become is as important as what they know," said Gloria Julius, Ed.D., vice president of education and professional development for Primrose Schools. "That's why nurturing children's social-emotional development and building character has been an integral part of our approach for more than 30 years."

DEVELOPING CHARACTER AT HOME

Take an active approach to helping children develop a solid foundation in good character with these tips:

- Help children recognize their feelings. Help little ones recognize and understand their feelings by giving them vocabulary words to express themselves.
- Lead by example. Children learn a lot by watching the interactions of adults. Model social-emotional skills by listening to others, apologizing when you hurt someone's feelings, being respectful of others, etc.
- Help children identify other perspectives. Point out differences in other people's thoughts and feelings. When reading with children, ask what they think the characters are feeling or narrate the emotions and exaggerate facial expressions for young children.
- Talk about your own decisions in terms of right and wrong. As children's abilities and understanding grows, discuss your values and take advantage of everyday situations to describe and demonstrate good citizenship and desirable behavior.
- Let kindness and respect rule the day. Set household guidelines grounded in showing kindness and respect, and help children learn to follow them. When they break the rules, calmly explain how or why their behavior was unkind and how they could have better handled the situation.

Historical Events Throughout The Month Of March

March may be most synonymous with the start of spring and St. Patrick's Day, but there's much more to the third month of the calendar year. The following are notable events that occurred between March 1 and March 31 throughout history.

- March 1: The Articles of Confederation are established in 1791. Nine years later, Congress would authorize the first United States Census on this date.
- March 2: Fans are treated to a sci-fi masterpiece when images of a giant gorilla first appear in the film "King Kong," which premiered in New York in 1933.
- March 3: Telephone inventor Alexander Graham Bell is born in Edinburgh, Scotland. In March of 1876, he electronically transmitted sounds.
- March 4: In 1681, King Charles II of England grants a large parcel of land in the New World to William Penn to settle an outstanding debt. That area would later become Pennsylvania.
- March 5: The Boston Massacre occurs in 1770.
- March 6: Fort Alamo falls to Mexican troops led by General Santa Anna in 1836.
- March 7: The Beatles release the album "Past Masters, Volumes 1 & 2" in 1988.
- March 8: The New York Stock Exchange is founded in 1817.
- March 9: In 1864, Ulysses S. Grant is commissioned as a lieutenant general and becomes commander of the Union armies.
- March 10: Daniel Boone begins his expedition of Kentucky in 1775.
- March 11: The Lend-Lease program begins in 1941, enabling Britain to receive American supplies.
- March 12: The island of Bermuda is colonized by the British in 1609.
- March 13: Sir William Herschel discovers Uranus in 1781.
- March 14: Albert Einstein is born in Germany in 1879.
- March 15: Julius Caesar is assassinated, fulfilling the prediction of "Beware the Ides of March."
- March 16: Nathaniel Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter" is published in 1850.
- March 17: Golda Meir becomes the prime minister of Israel in 1969.
- March 18: In 1974, the five-month Arab oil embargo against the United States is lifted.
- March 19: In 1965, teenage diver E. Lee Spence discovers the wreck of the Confederate cruiser the S.S. Georgiana, which is valued at more than $50 million.
- March 20: In 1852, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is first published.
- March 21: Johann Sebastian Bach is born in Germany in 1685.
- March 22: In 1765 the Stamp Act was approved.
- March 23: Patrick Henry utters "Give me liberty, or give me death" in 1775.
- March 24: In 1988, the Exxon Valdez spills 11 million gallons of oil.
- March 25: RCA first produces color TVs in 1954.
- March 26: Playwright Tennessee Williams is born in 1911.
- March 27: Juan Ponce de Leon sees Florida in 1513.
- March 28: In 1979, a nuclear power plant on Three Mile Island overheats.
- March 29: Future U.S. president John Tyler is born in 1790.
- March 30: Vincent Van Gogh is born in Holland in 1853.
- March 31: "Oklahoma!" opens on Broadway in 1943.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

Semper Fi Fund: A Worthy Charity

Since 2004, the Semper Fi Fund has awarded more than $143 million in assistance to 18,000 service members and veterans.

Wow.

Too often we hear about scams that collect money allegedly for veterans, and later it turns out they were using the donations to support their own lavish lifestyles. Not this one: Semper Fi is the real deal.

Additionally, for the sixth year in a row, Semper Fi paired up with The Bob and Renee Parsons Foundation, which pledged to match all donations up to $10 million. The "Double Down for Veterans" campaign netted $20 million, kickstarted by GoDaddy with a $50,000 donation. (If you have a website, that name might be familiar if you registered your domain name with them. What you might not know is that GoDaddy founder Bob Parsons is himself a Vietnam-era veteran.)

Again, wow.

Semper Fi, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, provides immediate financial help to post-9/11 wounded, critically ill or injured service members and veterans. Semper Fi was started in 2004 by a group of military wives, and they still run the program. Help is provided in many forms: adaptive housing, education and career transitioning, family support, adaptive transportation, sports programs, service-dog training, caregiver support and more. Charity Watch rates Semper Fi an A-plus, and Charity Navigator ranks it at 98/100. To learn more, check out its website at www.semperfund.org.

You know what to do now, right? If you can, pull out your checkbook and send a few dollars to this very worthy organization. Donate at the Semper Fi website or send a check to:
Semper Fi Fund
825 College Blvd, Suite 102

Be sure to include a Semper Fi Fund's Check Donation Form from its website. For questions, send email to info@semperfund.org.

Now here's a tip! by Jo Ann Derson

* Hang brooms and mops to preserve their useful life. The bristles of a tightly packed broom are better at sweeping than loose bristles.

* Clean the stainless steel surface of your kitchen appliances with Pledge or similar furniture polish. Fingerprints are banished, and just watch them shine!

* "For those of us who use a lot of hairspray when styling, we end up with a thin layer on our hairbrushes. After removing any hair from the brush, I spray mine with laundry spot remover, then toss it in the dishwasher. It comes out clean and free of buildup." -- T.D. in Georgia

* High five if you're using refillable water bottles instead of plastic disposable ones. To keep them fresh, rinse weekly with a 10 percent bleach and water solution. Let them air dry completely, then simply fill with water and stash in the fridge for easy access!

* "I had a rather large piece of fabric that I didn't need anymore. I cut it up into large rectangles, and made a small hole in the center of each. I slipped them over the few hanging jackets we have in our hall closet. They don't get much use except during our 'winter,' so this keeps the dust off of them until next year!" -- F.L. in Florida

* "Use a large planter to store your garden hose coiled up rather than in a messy pile. As you coil, be sure to go with the hose's natural curve. This will lessen the chance of kinks, too." -- W.A. in Kansas

BANANA OAT BREAKFAST BARS

- 2 large, very ripe bananas
- 1 tablespoon agave syrup or sugar substitute
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg or cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups rolled oats
- 1/4 cup pitted, chopped dried dates, raisins or craisins
- 1/4 cup chopped nuts -- such as walnuts, almonds or pecans, plus 2 tablespoons for sprinkling

1. Heat oven to 350 F, and lightly grease a 9- by 9-inch-square baking dish with butter or butter-flavored cooking spray.
2. Peel bananas and blend in a blender or food processor until liquid and no large chunks remain. You will have between 1 cup and 1 1/4 cup. Pour mixture into a medium-sized bowl.
3. Mix in the agave syrup or sugar substitute, vanilla, nutmeg or cinnamon, and salt. Add the oats and stir until well-combined. Stir in dates, raisins or craisins, and 1/4 cup of the nuts.
4. Pat the thick mixture evenly into prepared baking pan. Sprinkle with the remaining 2 tablespoons nuts. Bake for 30 minutes or until the edges just begin to crisp up and turn a golden brown.
5. Place baking pan on a rack to cool. When the pan is mostly cool, cut into 9 squares.
6. Cover and store leftover bars at room temperature. They will keep for about 5 days.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Meryl Streep will follow her Oscar-nominated performance as "Florence Foster Jenkins" with the role of Topsy in "Mary Poppins Returns," which stars Emily Blunt (as Mary) and Lin-Manuel Miranda (as Jack, a Dick Van Dyke-type character). Dick Van Dyke will play Mr. Dawes, Jr., the bank director's son, a member of the board, and Angela Lansbury will be a Balloon Lady. The film arrives Christmas Day 2018.

Is Netflix expanding into theatrical releases? Netflix acquired the rights to Martin Scorsese's upcoming film "The Irishman," with Robert DeNiro, Al Pacino, Joe Pesci, Harvey Keitel and Bobby Cannavale. It's about the disappearance of Jimmy Hoffa, who vanished July 30, 1975. With a budget of $100 million, it seems unlikely that Netflix would pony up that kind of cash without releasing it to theaters first.

George Clooney revealed, while accepting a special Caesar Award (the French Oscar), that he believes, "Donald Trump is a Hollywood elitist who has amassed 22 acting credits with The Screen Actors Guild and receives $120,000 a year from its pension fund." He further asserts that Steve Bannon, Trump's top adviser, also is a Hollywood elitist "because he made millions from his investment in the 'Seinfeld' series." Yet, Trump has cut funding to the NEA (The National Endowments for the Arts) because allegedly he's angry that so many Hollywood actors are speaking out against him.

***

Sorry to hear that David Cassidy has been diagnosed with dementia. In 1970, when he was the hottest teen actor in the world because of "The Partridge Family," I was granted an interview and photo session with him at his house in the Hollywood Hills. However, his publicist insisted on blindfolding me before she took me to there. I

www.davidcassidy.com

memorized the route along the way, deliberately left something behind and then showed up a few hours later to retrieve it. I told Cassidy that all he had to do was ask me to keep his house address a secret, and I did. Blindfolded, indeed!

***

Did you know that as of 1951, if you've won an Oscar you can't sell it, you have to offer it first to The Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences for $10. Still, in 1999, the best-picture Oscar, presented to David O. Selznick for "Gone with the Wind" was bought for $1.54 million. How was it done? They couldn't advertise it anywhere, so the owners pawned the award with the intention to repay the loan. When they failed to retrieve it, it became the property of the pawn shop, which in turn sold it to a private collector ... Michael Jackson. You might say "Oscar" was worth a lot more than his weight in gold!

1. How long was the longest pop song ever recorded?
2. What band released "Love Me Two Times"?
3. Who sang "The 'In' Crowd" in 1965 and "Drift Away" in 1973?
4. Which group had "Belfast" on their "Love for Sale" album?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Make it your reason for living, Give all the love you can give him, All the love you can."

Answers
1. 69 minutes. According to the Guinness Book of World Records, "The Devil Glitch," by Chris Butler in 1997, had 500 verses.
2. The Doors, in 1967. The song was banned in at least one location for being controversial.
3. Dobbie Gray. Multi-talented Gray was at home with pop, country, adult, R&B and gospel.
4. Boney M, in 1977.
5. "For the Love of Him," by Bobbi Martin, in 1969. Facing the wall of the women's movement, this song was released ... and vanished in two months. A Philadelphia DJ, however, wasn't ready to let it go. He made calls and got Martin club bookings, including a stint on "Dick Clark's American Bandstand." The song became popular and soared all the way to No. 1.
