Working at the post office, John was used to dealing with a moody public. So, when one irate customer stormed his desk, he responded in his calmest voice, "What's the trouble?"

"I went out this morning," the customer began, "and when I came home, I found a card saying the mailman tried to deliver a package, but no one was home. I'll have you know, my husband was in all morning! He never heard a thing!"

After apologizing, John got her parcel.

"Oh good!" she gushed. "We've been waiting for this for ages!"

"What is it?" John asked.

"My husband's new hearing aid."

Chatham First Town Banner Contest

Chatham First invites area artists to design new banners for the town's lampposts to commemorate Pittsylvania County's 250th anniversary. We are excited to see what creative minds in the area come up with!

We are looking for a series of four seasonal banners — Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter — plus one that celebrates Chatham's historical heritage. Artists must submit a total of five designs.

The winning artist will receive $250 in cash, and the pride of having their designs grace the lampposts along Main Street in Chatham, Va.

Elements that may be considered for inclusion, but are not required:

- *Buildings that represent Chatham, in silhouette or line drawing form.
- *Color: Keep in mind, banners will be displayed adjacent to the flower baskets, which are planted with a similar color scheme each year. (See photo.)

Eligibility:
Any artist may submit designs.

Fee:
There is no fee to enter.

Submission Due Date:
Designs must be submitted via email to adavis@reidstreetgallery.com by May 1, 2017.

Specifications:
Finished dimensions for designs must be 18" w x 30" h, in portrait orientation, using vector graphics.

Winning artist will be notified by May 15. Winning designs will be revealed at a special reception on Thursday, June 15, 2017, at Reid Street Gallery, and will later be hung along Main Street in Chatham, as appropriate to season and design.

For more information, contact Alisa Davis at 434-203-8062 or adavis@reidstreetgallery.com.
Chatham First will make all decisions in the judging of entries. We reserve the right to request revisions or accept partial entries. Judges' decisions are final.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Be careful about doing someone a favor when you don't know the full story behind the request. Don't rely on someone's unsubstantiated assurances. Insist on all the facts before you act.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) That workplace problem still needs your attention before you finally can close the book on it. Meanwhile, a long-anticipated reunion gets closer to becoming a happy reality.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might be demanding more from others than they can give. Best advice: Have a long and frank talk to determine what the facts are. Tensions should abate as the week winds down.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Aspects are favorable throughout this week for making contacts that could be important to your career plans. Meanwhile, an old friend offers the advice you're seeking.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's time to stop licking your wounds from past mistakes. Get up and get going toward your future. Loyal friends will be there to help the Lion get back into rip-roaring shape.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Take time out to go over what's expected of you before you begin your new project. Otherwise, you run the risk of pushing yourself harder than you need to.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) An unusual request could put you in an awkward position. Best advice: Deal with it immediately. The longer you delay, the more difficult it will be to get out of it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You should feel recharged and ready for whatever your workaday world holds for you. The same positive energy spills over into your personal relationships.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A prospect might be less than it appears to be. Like the Archer in your sign, you always aim for the truth. And this is no time to settle for less than full disclosure.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Start doing some serious thinking about a career move that could entail more than just changing job sites. Some lifestyle changes also might be involved.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) With tensions easing at the workplace, a more positive environment once again encourages the free flow of ideas so typical of the always-innovative Aquarian.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Show some of that usually hidden steel-strong Piscean backbone, and stand up for yourself if you hope to make a case for that promotion you know you deserve.

BORN THIS WEEK: You enjoy doing new things and staying ahead of the crowd. You would make a fine sports coach or military leader.

Heritage Academy Announces Modern Woodmen Speech Winners

Dry Fork, Virginia - Heritage Academy hosted its 2017 Modern Woodmen of America Speech Contest at the Academy on Thursday, March 16, 2017. Gary Harris, local agent for Modern Woodmen was instrumental in helping to sponsor the contest. The topic for this year, "What does it mean to be a hero?" was answered by eleven Heritage students. Each contestant needed to describe characteristics of a hero and provide examples of their own heroes.

Awards were provided for first to third place, with two honorable mentions for students in grades 5, 6, and 7. The top three winners will have their names engraved on a school plaque. The winners were: Madison Oakes - First Place; Matthew Searce - Second Place; and MacKenzie Harris - Third Place. Honorable mention recognition was awarded to Sam Hurt and Madison Laughorn.

"I'm very proud of the hard work and communication skills that all my students exhibited," Karen Brown, the 2017 Speech Contest coordinator, said. Judging was provided by retired public school teacher, Nina Giles, retired Hargrave Military Academy instructor, Dianna Lavoie, and Rev. Ed Pope of White Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

The contest encourages public speaking and effective communication of thoughts and ideas by providing a formal and competitive platform. Each speech is 3-5 minutes long. No props or visual aids are allowed. Points are awarded on the material presentation, delivery/presentation and overall effectiveness. All participants received certificates of participation for their hard work.

Modern Woodmen's School Speech Contest is one of many free Youth Educational Programs Modern Woodmen offers to schools nationwide. More than 100,000 students compete in the contest each year. As a tax-exempt fraternal benefit society, Modern Woodmen sells life insurance, annuity and investment products not to benefit stockholders but to improve the quality of life of its stakeholders - members, their families and their communities. This is accomplished through social, charitable and volunteer activities. Heritage Academy is among Pittsylvania County's foremost Christian day schools. Heritage provides students a traditional curriculum, strong Christian educational environment focused on character development, service to others, and good citizenship. The Academy serves students in preschool, Kindergarten and 1st - 8th grades.

Winners for the Heritage Academy 2017 Modern Woodmen of America Speech Contest include (l-r): Madison Laughorn, Honorable Mention; Madison Oakes, 1st Place; MacKenzie Harris, 3rd Place; Matthew Searce, 2nd Place; and Sam Hurt, Honorable Mention.

One of the greatest joys of her life was her grandchildren, Sarah and Jenny Troxler, and Freddie and Logan Wingate. Spending time with these children, watching them grow, preparing holiday meals for them and sharing some of her treasures collected over the years brought her true happiness.

Everyone who met Hazel loved her. Whether it was at one of the banks where she worked through the years or the garden center where she made beautiful creations in Eastern North Carolina. Everyone who knew her felt special and loved, like an extension of her family. The nursing team at Carolinas Medical Center who cared for her through her last days with us, all loved her like a mother.

Hazel loved with her whole heart, and with a love and devotion that is rare. She was incredibly talented and could do just about anything with her hands. She loved gardening, working puzzles, painting, caring for her family and simply making the world around her more beautiful...which she did every day.

The family will receive friends Saturday, March 18, 2017 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Norris Mt. Hermon Chapel.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, March 19, 2017 at Norris Mt. Hermon Chapel with Rev. Lewis Harris officiating. Interment will follow at Highland Burial Park, Danville.

She loved flowers and we welcome their beauty at her service. Should you choose to make a donation instead, please make them to the Logan Jett Research Foundation, Inc. (www.loganjresearch.org) in honor of her grandson Logan. More than anything she wanted freedom from suffering for him. And as you go about the days to come, instead of mourning that she's gone, let's celebrate how wonderful it was to each and every one of us that she lived. She taught each of us many lessons, now it's our turn to share her life as we live ours.

Lelia Adams Findley

Lelia Adams Findley was born August 29, 1936 to the late Elder Lemon Adams and Lucy Smith Adams. She departed this life on Tuesday, March 14, 2017 at the Bethesda Health and Rehabilitation Center in Bethesda, Maryland.

Lelia was a graduate of Southside high school and continued her education in technical institutes. Lelia married the late Robert Findley in 1964 and from this union, one son, Kevin Findley was born. She was employed by the Federal Government in the Department of Health and Human Services under the Social Security Administration where she later retired.

Lelia was a free spirit who enjoyed life. She loved fashion and dining at fine restaurants. She was happy relaxing with a good book and she did so often. Leila also enjoyed traveling. She would often make quick visits to Danville to visit her family or to New York to visit her sister. She was especially close to her sister, Virginia Turner, who also lives in Washington and assumed the role of caregiver when her health failed.

Lelia accepted Christ and was baptized at Mt. Sinai Primitive Baptist Church in 1972 in Washington, DC and later moved her membership to Isle of Patmos Baptist Church in Washington, DC where she was a faithful member until her health failed. She always relied on her faith to get her through the difficult times in her life. We believe she continued to do so until her death.

Besides her parents, Lelia was preceded in death by three brothers, Sam Henry Adams, Robert Lee Adams and Clarence Wavely Adams and two sisters, Ella Mae Wilson and Frances Adams. She leaves to cherish her memory one son, Kevin Findley of Washington, DC and two loving sisters, Doretha Adams Hairston of Cascade, VA and Virginia Adams Turner of Washington, DC; one sister-in-law, Gladys Adams of Eden, NC; and a host of nieces, neph-

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

Drug Thieves At The VA

The Government Accountability Office has found serious problems with the way the Department of Veterans Affairs handles controlled substances and guards against having those drugs stolen by VA employees.

Out of four facilities the GAO was asked to review, one had missed its required monthly inspection of patient-care areas and the pharmacy 43 percent of the time.

Three facilities failed follow three of the nine requirements for handling controlled substances, including verifying that shipments were complete and doing a physical inventory two or three times per week.

One facility only completed one of the nine steps, that of verifying that a substance was dispensed. Two of them could not even verify that controlled substances actually made it from the pharmacy to patient-care areas. If there's one dangerous hole in the system, this is it.

Consider what happens when an addict pharmacy worker either takes or changes the drugs he or she is to deliver to a hospital ward or surgical unit. There was a case where an employee had been confiscating fentanyl (an anesthetic) destined for surgery patients and was using it for himself -- while refilling the vials with saline solution. He apparently was on staff at numerous hospitals in the area, doing the same thing. Not only that, but he was infected with hepatitis C, which he passed on to at least one patient. Another junkie, an emergency-room nurse, gave herself injections of painkillers and then noted on the records that that they had been given to patients.

The GAO report concluded in part that the VA's "ability to detect diversion and protect its veterans from harm -- such as depriving them of needed pain medications -- is limited."

I cringe to think about the patients who didn't get their pain medication or anesthetic -- especially the one about to have surgery.

How Giving Back Can Be So Good

Charitable endeavors made by celebrities and other prominent people often make the news. However, millions of regular people across the country and out of the limelight also do their share to help the various groups fighting for good causes.

People have various reasons for getting involved in philanthropic efforts. A Gallup survey on volunteering in the United States found that more than half of volunteers do it because they like helping others. Just about 40 percent said they volunteer to feel good about themselves.

As many volunteers already know, people who give get something in return. Here are just a few ways why giving back can be good for you.

- Volunteer work broadens your skills. Volunteer work allows many people to learn entirely new sets of skills. New opportunities may present problem-solving challenges, and you can discover new ways to think about issues and causes that are dear to you. Volunteering may feel good, but it also can boost your résumé. The experience you gain working with a charity can help you in future professional endeavors.
- Philanthropy produces a “helper’s high.” Volunteer work produces a natural feeling of euphoria that’s measurable and can produce some positive side effects. Boston College researchers discovered that the joy from helping others can be seen on MRI scans. This euphoria can help decrease chronic pain, depression and disability.
- Giving back boosts longevity. A 1999 study out of University of California, Berkeley, found that elderly people who volunteered for two or more organizations were 44 percent less likely to die over a five-year period than those who did not volunteer, even after adjusting for a person’s age, exercise habits, general health, and negative habits like smoking. More recent studies have uncovered similar results. People who give help rather than just receiving it can prolong their lives.

- Charity work can keep you connected. Volunteering is a great way to get out and meet new people who share similar goals and interests. People who are new to an area or are recent retirees may find that volunteering helps them make new friends, alleviating feelings of isolation. Volunteer work also provides a great way to network for business contacts or to find out what’s newsworthy in the community.
- Volunteerism boosts self-esteem. Working with a nonprofit or charitable group often provides immediate results. In turn, this immediate gratification can show you that you have a purpose and are assisting others who need a helping hand. Volunteer work can help you become more confident and assertive and provide you with a greater sense of self-worth.
- Giving can inspire others. Many researchers have determined that giving can be contagious. For example, a study by James Fowler of the University of California, San Diego, and Nicholas Christakis of Harvard that was published in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Science found that giving can have a trickle-down effect. Much like the “pay it forward” movement, those who observe charitable efforts are more likely to give to or help different people down the road.

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann Derson

* "Here's my tip: Fasten all buttons, snaps, fasteners and zippers on your clothes before washing and drying. It will help them keep their shape. Turn socks insides out, too. It will help prevent them from getting fuzzballs." -- M.W. in Saskatchewan, Canada

* "If you are training a puppy or your fur baby has an accident on the carpet, here's how to prevent a reoccurrence in the same spot: Blot up urine, then saturate the spot with club soda. Allow it to sit for five minutes, then blot with paper towels." -- S.S. in Arkansas

* "In this day of recycling and reusing, before I discard an item, I look to see if any part of it can be reused. I removed wire from a broom that can now be used to hang a picture on the wall. I also remove any reusable screws or nails from items I toss. I put them in plastic jars." -- B.B. in Maine

* Here's one for hamster owners out there, from C.H. in Utah: "If your dwarf hamster makes much noise when running in its wheel (especially metal wheels), just lube it with a little olive oil. Just a drop or two will make the wheel turn smoothly and silently, without posing any harm to the little ones in case they lick it.

* "Put battery-operated lights on each wall in the main rooms for when there are power outages." -- M.W. in Iowa

* W.T. from "The Road" (he's an RV traveler) is looking for suggestions to remove the smell from the lid of glass jars to make them reusable -- say, salsa jars or peanut butter jars. If you have a solution for W.T., send it to me at Now Here's A Tip, c/o King Features Weekly Service, 628 Virginia Dr., Orlando, FL 32803.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On April 5, 1792, George Washington exercises the first presidential veto of a Congressional bill, which proposed a new plan for dividing seats in the House of Representatives. Washington decided that the bill would have resulted in a higher number of representatives than that proscribed by the Constitution.

* On April 3, 1860, the first Pony Express mail, traveling by horse and rider relay teams, simultaneously leaves St. Joseph, Missouri, and Sacramento, California. Ten days later, the westbound rider arrived in Sacramento, beating the eastbound mail packet by two days.

* On April 8, 1916, at the Boulevard Race in Corona, California, an early racing car careens through a barrier and into a crowd after a wheel breaks, killing the driver and two others. "Wild Bob" Burman had previously set a world speed record for hitting 129 mph.

* On April 7, 1920, Indian sitar legend Ravi Shankar is born in India. Shankar's "discovery" by the Beatles' George Harrison in 1965 made him a household name around the world and changed the music sound of the '60s.

* On April 4, 1933, a dirigible crashes in New Jersey, killing 73 people in one of the first air disasters in history. The Akron was the largest airship built in the United States.

* On April 6, 1970, Sam Sheppard, a doctor convicted of murdering his pregnant wife in a trial that caused a media frenzy in the 1950s, dies of liver failure. After a decade in prison, Sheppard was freed following a retrial. His story is rumored to have inspired the television series "The Fugitive."

* On April 9, 1987, U.S. Secretary of State George Shultz states that he is "damned angry" about possible Soviet spy activity in the American embassy in the Soviet Union. Soviet officials called the espionage charges "dirty fabrications."

HERBIE FINALLY SOLOS! Can you guess on which flight Herbie successfully landed his new remote-controlled plane?

Answer: He solved the first time and then ran into trouble.

AN INTERESTING ADDITION! In this AlphaMath problem, each number is used only once. To solve, replace each letter with one of the numbers 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, in such a manner that you will have a correct addition problem. Try to get the highest possible total.

Our Answer: A=8, B=5, C=9, D=7, E=4, F=3, G=1, H=6, I=0, J=2 (859 + 743 = 1602)

IT'S MAGIC! Use the numbers 9 and 11, and 16 through 23 to fill in this Magic Square. The numbers in each horizontal row and vertical column should total 62. We've filled in six of the squares. The rest is up to you.

Our answer: First row: 15, 18, 19, 11, 17, 12, 11, 22. Second row: 20, 9, 14, 19, 19, 19, 19, 19. Third row: 10, 23, 16, 13, Fourth row: 17, 12, 11, 22.

SPRING IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER!

It's time to get outside and spruce up the old homestead. In our puzzle grid, there is room for eight words associated with spring maintenance. Below are hints to get you started.

There is a dark frame around one of the columns in the grid. If you correctly find all of our springtime words, the letters in this frame, top to bottom, will spell out the name of a store that you always visit in the spring.

1. A window treatment.
2. Needed to start the garden.
3. A must if you have a porch.
4. Lawn repair.
5. Needed before lawn repair.
6. What the house and garage often need.
7. Needed before chores 4 and 5.
8. Needed after chores 4, 5 and 7.

Answers: 1. Washing 2. Spading 3. Screens 4. Seeding 5. Mowing 6. Paint 7. Raking 8. Edging. The name of the store that you always visit in the spring is "Hardware."

Piedmont Shopper FAVORITE RECIPES

ASIAN-STYLE PEANUT NOODLES

- 1 pound whole wheat spaghetti
- 2 teaspoons olive oil
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tablespoon grated fresh ginger (or 1 teaspoon ground ginger)
- 1/4 cup smooth peanut butter
- 3/4 cup milk (whole, 2 percent, skim or soy are all fine), divided
- 1 (12 ounce) package broccoli slaw
- 1 cup frozen green peas
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- Chopped roasted peanuts, for garnish (optional)

1. Cook spaghetti according to package directions. Be sure to reserve at least 1/2 cup of the cooking liquid when you drain it.
2. Meanwhile, heat a large saute pan over medium heat and add olive oil. Add garlic and fresh ginger, and saute for 30 seconds.
3. Add peanut butter and 1/2 cup of the milk; stir well to combine and melt the peanut butter.
4. Add broccoli slaw and stir to get it well-coated. Reduce the heat to low and let simmer for 3-4 minutes, until broccoli slaw is softened.
5. Add frozen peas and soy sauce, salt, pepper, cayenne and the remaining 1/4 cup milk. Stir well to combine. Let simmer for another 2 to 3 minutes.
6. Add the spaghetti to the pan once it's cooked, along with 1/4 cup of reserved cooking water to loosen the mixture and help the sauce adhere to the noodles, more as needed. Serve warm or cold with a wedge of lime.
