HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

www.bettedavis.com
Bette Davis

eight-part series on FX, takes certain liberties with what actually happened, which sometimes makes for better drama. I got this straight from Bette Davis, who explained how her feud with Joan Crawford began. "MGM dropped Crawford's contract in 1944 because they were going younger with their contract people, and she slithered over to see Jack Warner, at my studio, Warner Brothers, under the guise of giving her services free for "Hollywood Canteen," the film John Garfield and I were making to benefit the Hollywood Canteen. She managed to talk Jack Warner into a four-picture deal. My people, in the script department, always tipped me off about books bought for filming, and when I asked Jack about "Mildred Pierce," he told me he'd promised it to Crawford. I wasn't thrilled and was less thrilled when she won an Oscar for it." We'll have more on their famous "Feud," next time. And you thought "Family Feud" was fun!

Asparagus and Gruyere Omelet

Fresh asparagus and nutty Gruyere cheese come together in this elegant omelet.

- 1/2 teaspoons olive oil
- 8 ounces asparagus, trimmed and cut diagonally into 1-inch pieces
- 2 tablespoons water
- 4 ounces Gruyere cheese
- 8 large eggs
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper
- 2 tablespoons margarine or butter
- Toasted country-style bread (optional)

1. In 2-quart saucepan, heat olive oil on medium. Add asparagus and 2 tablespoons water. Cook 5 minutes or until tender-crisp; remove from heat. Shred Gruyere cheese.

2. Heat oven to 200 F. Place 4 dinner plates in oven to warm. In medium bowl, place eggs, water, salt and black pepper. With fork, beat 25 to 30 quick strokes to blend mixture without making it fluffy. (Overbeating toughens the proteins in the whites.)

3. In 8-inch nonstick skillet, melt 1 1/2 teaspoons margarine on medium. When margarine stops sizzling, pour or ladle 1/2 cup egg mixture into skillet.

4. After egg mixture begins to set around edges, about 25 to 30 seconds, with heat-safe spatula, carefully push cooked egg from side of skillet toward center, so uncooked egg can reach bottom of hot skillet. Repeat 8 to 10 times around skillet, tilting as necessary, 1 to 1 1/2 minutes.

5. Cook until omelet is almost set but still creamy and moist on top. Place skillet handle facing you, and sprinkle one-fourth of asparagus and Gruyere on half of omelet.

6. With spatula, fold unfilled half over filling. Shake pan gently to loosen any egg or filling from edge, then slide omelet to edge of skillet. Holding skillet above warm plate, tip skillet so omelet slides onto plate. Keep warm in oven. Repeat with remaining margarine, egg mixture, asparagus and cheese to make 4 omelets in all. Serve with toast and tomato wedges if you like.

SEWING PROJECT TO HELP FOSTER KIDS IN RI
Organizers of The Sewing Project to Help Foster Kids are looking for volunteers to sew kid-friendly pillowcase bags for foster children. When a child is taken from a home that has been deemed unsafe by DCYF (Dept. of Children, Youth & Families), the child may take only a small amount of toys, clothes, and personal belongings. Many times, DCYF workers just don't have enough suitcases to use, so when a child arrives at a Crisis Center, Group Home or Foster Home, many times they arrive with literally 1 or 2 large black trash bags full of personal items. Let's change that! This is an ongoing project. Work at your own pace. For more information, contact Hollie at 385-9876 or holliegal@verizon.net

MOMS FOR MOMS

You can make a difference with just ONE HOUR a week! Moms for Moms/Families First RI helps pregnant women and new mothers deal with an enormous transition by matching them with trained volunteers who are mothers themselves. The program provides emotional and social support and strives to connect new moms to resources within their own communities. We will train you and provide supervisory support to all volunteers. OPEN FOR LUNCH 7 DAYS FROM 11:30... LAST CALL 12:45

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Avoid having someone else take credit for the project you started by finishing it yourself. Then it will be you lovely Lambs who will be wearing those well-deserved laurels.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The facts about a new opportunity are still emerging. Wait until they're all out in the open, and then use your keen business sense to help make the right decision.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might feel confused, even hurt by a friend who suddenly puts distance between you. If she or he won't discuss it, don't push it. An explanation should come in time.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your willingness to be part of the team opens doors that had been shut to you. Keep them open by keeping your promises even when your commitment seems to be wavering.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Congratulations. You're really getting things done to purr-fection. And don't forget to take a catnap now and again to keep those energy levels up and bristling for action.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your "plain-talking" honesty is admirable. But sometimes sharp words can leave painful scars. Be careful that what you say doesn't come back to hurt you.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A stress-filled period takes a positive turn as you deal with the underlying problem. Act now to avoid a recurrence by changing some basic rules in your relationship.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your rising energy levels make it easier for you to achieve some important objectives. This could lead to a big boost in how you're perceived, both at home and on the job.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A changing picture begins to emerge as you learn more about an offer that seemed so right but could be so wrong. Look to a trusted adviser for guidance.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Spiritual aspects are strong. Take time to reflect on the path you're on and where you hope it will lead you. It's also a good time to reach out to loved ones.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You could be assuming far too many responsibilities, whether it's at work or in personal matters. Be careful that you're not weighed down by them.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You're getting closer to your goals. And since nothing succeeds like success (or the promise thereof), don't be surprised to find new supporters swimming alongside you.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are always the first to try new ventures and confront new challenges. You inspire others with your courage to follow your bold example.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On April 14, 1865, John Wilkes Booth, an actor and Confederate sympathizer, fatally shoots President Abraham Lincoln during a play at Ford's Theater in Washington, D.C. The attack came only five days after Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered, effectively ending the Civil War.
- On April 12, 1888, Cecil Kimber, founder of the British sports car company MG, is born in England. Following World War II, returning American soldiers who had become fans of MGs while serving in Europe helped popularize the brand in the U.S.
- On April 16, 1917, Vladimir Lenin, leader of the revolutionary Bolshevik Party, returns to Petrograd after a decade of exile to take the reins of the Russian Revolution. Lenin was drawn to the revolutionary cause after his brother was executed in 1887 for plotting to assassinate Czar Alexander II.
- On April 15, 1947, Jackie Robinson, age 28, becomes the first black player in Major League Baseball when he steps onto Ebbets Field in Brooklyn to compete for the Dodgers. Robinson broke the color barrier in a sport that had been segregated for more than 50 years.
- On April 11, 1968, rescue workers pick up the last survivors of the Wahine ferry disaster off the coast of Wellington, New Zealand. The ferry had capsized the previous day after hitting sharp rocks, leaving 53 people dead.
- On April 10, 1972, British film pioneer Charlie Chaplin accepts an honorary Academy Award for his "incalculable" contribution to the art of filmmaking. Chaplin had left the U.S. in 1952 for failure to pay taxes and McCarthy-era accusations. He came back long enough to accept the award.
- On April 13, 1997, 21-year-old Tiger Woods wins the prestigious Masters Tournament by a record 12 strokes in Augusta, Georgia, in the greatest performance by a professional golfer in more than a century.

Take the High Road to Protect Cat

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: Before moving out about five months ago we found a good home for our cat, "Figaro." I supplied everything the new owner would need, like his litter box and litter, food, etc. A week later, the new owner called and said Fig's eye was weeping. He did suffer from that a year ago, so I bought the same over-the-counter medicine and delivered it to her. Four months later, she called again and accused me of knowing Fig had a pre-existing condition. She demanded I come retrieve him, and that I also take him to the vet. I was shocked. What should I have done? — Sorry for the Cat Problems

DEAR SORRY: I believe the new owner just didn't want to take care of a cat. And instead of taking Fig to the vet to treat his eye problem with a stronger medication, she waited four months and then dumped him back on you.

I'm pretty upset at this, and I know you are, too, because the victim here is Fig. He lost one home already, and now he's losing a second home, and he's sick. He may wind up in a shelter. I'm not sure how this might play out legally, but we're dealing with a living being here, and Fig's welfare is at stake. So, take the high road and be Fig's hero.

If there is any way you can take him in for a few weeks while you rehome him, please try. Or, ask the new owner for time while you find someone else to care for him.

Also, find out if the new owner has taken Fig to the vet. If not, and if you have the resources, offer to pay for the visit and medicine.

Send your questions, comments or tips to ask@pawscorner.com.

A. The original Hulu drama, which stars Jeffrey Donovan ("Burn Notice"), has been renewed for a 10-episode second season. The series centers on Charlie Haverford (played by Jeffrey), a scammer with a small chain of fortune-telling storefronts who also contracts building tricks for a family that controls business in most of Los Angeles. A blow to Charlie's head from a client's angry boyfriend intersects with a hypnosis session while auditioning a new "clairvoyant," and suddenly a man whose entire life has been based on fraud begins to see and feel some very real and fundamental truths. The series also stars KaDee
Strickland, Emmanuelle Chriqui,
David Zayas, Angus Sampson, Susan Misner and Isabella Rossellini.

Q. I haven't seen a lot from Will Ferrell lately. Can you tell me what he's up to? — Ben D., Hartford, Connecticut

A. While Will is keeping busy starring in the half-dozen movies he's got in the pipeline — "The House," "Zeroville," "Daddy's Home
2" and "Holmes and Watson," to name a few — he and Adam McKay have been given the green light by HBO to executive-produce a new political drama, "Succession." The series, which has been given a 10-episode order, centers on the Roys, a fictional American global-media family that is not only rich and powerful, but also powerfully dysfunctional. The series stars Brian Cox, Jeremy Strong, Kieran Culkin and Sarah Snook. As of this writing, HBO had not released a premiere date.

Q. I was so happy to read in your column that Sean Astin would be on the next season of "Stranger Things." What else has he been doing lately? — Dre F., via email

A. The "Lord of the Rings" and "Rudy" alumnus has joined

Will Ferrell

the cast of TNT's "The Alienist." The series also stars Daniel Brühl, Luke Evans, Dakota Fanning, Robert Wisdom, Q'orianka Kilcher, Matt Lintz, Matthew Shear and Douglas Smith.
Based on the 1994 best-seller of the same name by Caleb Carr, "The Alien-ist" is a psychological thriller set in the Gilded Age of New York City in 1896, a city of vast wealth, extreme poverty and technological innovation.

When a series of haunting, gruesome murders of boy prostitutes grips the city, newly appointed police commissioner Theodore Roosevelt (played by Sean) calls upon criminal psychologist (aka alienist) Dr. Laszlo Kreizler (Daniel) and newspaper illustrator John Moore (Luke) to conduct the investigation in secret. They are aided by a makeshift crew of singular characters, among them the intrepid Sara Howard (Dakota), a young secretary on Roosevelt's staff who is determined to become the first female police detective in New York City. Using the emerging disciplines of psychology and forensic science, this band of social outsiders tracks down one of New York City's first serial killers.

Eggshell China

Q. I have inherited some china and am curious if it has any value. The pattern is Eggshell Georgian and manufactured by Homer Laughlin. — Barbara, Sonoma, California

A. During the late 1930s, Homer Laughlin China Company produced Eggshell lines of dinnerware. The Eggshell wares were different from all of the previous designs in that the pieces were much lighter in weight due to the new precision machines and tools that had been installed by the company at its main plant in Ohio. The Eggshell Georgian is the second pattern issued in this series. Advertisements in trade journals promoting the new china were published as early as October of 1935.

For a complete history of this pattern and others manufactured by Homer Laughlin, I highly recommend The Collector's Encyclopedia of Homer Laughlin by Joanne Jasper (Collector Books). I found several copies available at amazon.com for $18.96, used copies $12.50. Typical prices listed in this excellent guide are for an Eggshell Georgian 10-inch plate, $9-$12; tea cup, $3-$6; teapot, $45-$65; and salad bowl, $15-$30.

Q. I have a collection of books and would like to know how much they are worth. I am enclosing a list. — Matthew, Hudson, New York

A. I get dozens of book questions each month, and my answer is generally the same. If you've written me recently about books, this answer is for you. For those who have access to a computer, one of the easiest ways to find out current prices is to visit www.abe.com. Type in the title and author of each book, and in most cases other copies being offered for sale will soon appear on your screen. Copyright dates and condition are both extremely important when making comparisons.

Q. I have a high-fidelity tape recording of President John Kennedy's funeral. Also on the tape is a dance recital and "Santa, 1962." How much do you think the tape is worth? — Lee, Lancaster, New York

A. Your tape probably is a home recording, and as such its value would be minimal. I do not think it would be of interest to collectors. For a second opinion, contact antique dealers in your area.

Write to Larry Cox in care of KFWS, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803, or send e-mail to questionsforcox@aol.com. Due to the large volume of mail he receives, Mr. Cox cannot personally answer all reader questions, nor does he do appraisals. Do not send any materials requiring return mail.

billion-dollar payday, the largest in history. It has that irresistible hook: Who would win in a fight between the two fighting styles?

Mayweather, even at 40, still has considerable speed and is the best defensive boxer and cheap-shot artist in history, period. Though McGregor has a 2-inch reach advantage, Mayweather's speed and footwork renders that to nothing. McGregor likes to slip big overhand lefts after sliding off an opponent's jab, but it's hard to see him doing that much. Mayweather will work the angles, move in and out, and should easily win in a decision after dismantling McGregor in every single round, barring a stoppage due to a cut. But, hey ... as long as McGregor is in there, he still has a puncher's chance.

McGregor-Mayweather

Prediction: It's gonna happen. Bonus prediction: Floyd Mayweather will beat Conor McGregor.

Suggestion: Bet on McGregor because I may have the worst track record in history when it comes to predicting anything.

I was thinking about this the other night when I saw one of the most absurd things ever flash across my news ticker. No way, I thought to myself. This cannot be true, I said aloud. But enough about our president's tweets ... Xavier beats Maryland? Duke loses? Villanova's gone? Looking at my bracket in stunned silence — kind of like the dead air on Mike Francesa's show — the hits kept coming, courtesy of Dana White and the UFC lightweight champion.

The arena has been reserved in Las Vegas for a September match.

Could it possibly be true that a retired champion at age 40 can take on a brash 28-year-old? Would he put his undefeated record on the line? "Yep," Mayweather said.

Well, there ya have it.

It would be the biggest fight in history in terms of money and audience, and would rival Louis-Schmeling, Ali-Frazier and the rematch of Rocky Balboa against Clubber Lang in terms of significance. It will net a McGregor has a lease lined up for a training facility and has a California State boxing license. A former amateur Irish boxing champ, he trained with two Freddie Roach proteges. Expect to see Roach in his corner.

Also, expect to hear a lot — and I mean a lot — of trash talking from McGregor.

"Watch me take over boxing," McGregor said. "No one in this boxing game knows what is coming. Look me in the eyes: 28 years old, confident as a [expletive], long range [and] dangerous with every hand ... trust me, I will stop Floyd. The whole world will eat their words."

Both fighters have been around the block a few times. In September, we'll get to see if it was a good idea to cross the street.

Birding BITS BY Cindy Brook

To Birds, With Love
 After 10 years, I am retiring my column. I have enjoyed all of your emails over the years. One last thought, birding starts with a healthy environment. Please do what you can to reduce the use of pesticides and other harmful things that can hurt the earth and thus, the birds. Thank you all from the bottom of my heart.
