LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
Julie and I have been teaching instrumental music at Okobojo for many years. Julie started teaching at Arnolds Park in 1981 and I joined the staff at Okobojo in 1989. We both taught in the old Arnolds Park building before the additions were made to the high school and middle school in 1994. The current middle school facility was a huge improvement and has served us well for over 20 years, but we've outgrown the building and space available. Julie and I ask you to please consider supporting the building of a new middle school adjacent to the high school in Milford. The number of students is a factor, but we also need to look at the changing requirements in education. Today's society and world economy require us to offer more classes so we can do our best to prepare all of our students.

Julie and I are both fairly conservative in our beliefs and we certainly don't approve of wasteful or extravagant spending. We honestly feel construction of a new middle school is a necessary investment that will benefit our entire community. Building the middle school adjacent to the high school will solve our current space problems, will provide the option of expansion if necessary in the future, will allow space for practice fields and playground areas, and will make sharing teachers and classes between middle and high school much more efficient. Currently some middle school students are bused back and forth for classes at the high school, bused to Milford for sports practice after school, and a number of teachers lose valuable teaching time traveling back and forth between buildings. The proposed plans call for a new middle school being its own separate building, yet connected to the high school for ease in sharing teachers and classes. Think of the time and resources now spent shuttling kids back and forth between Milford and Arnolds Park every day.

Many people feel nostalgic about this issue and question why we can't do things like we did 25 years ago. Julie and I understand and respect those feelings, but we must realize that times do change and we must meet the challenges and requirements of today's world. Before our 1994 expansion many people questioned why we needed to build an auditorium and music rooms. Some people were convinced those large rooms would sit empty most days and would only be used a few times a year. Most of the year these facilities are used nonstop by many different groups and it takes extremely careful planning to schedule all the concerts and events. Most students and parents now find it hard to believe how we ever got by without our auditorium or current music rooms. Think of how many students have benefited from the investment in our current facilities. Please support the new building project to help us give the next generation of students the opportunities they deserve.

Thank you,
Greg & Julie Forney, Middle School and High School Instrumental Music Instructors

Oak Hill Marina "Ownership Transition"

After owning and operating Oak Hill Marina in Arnolds Park, Iowa, for the past 23 years, Phil and Teresa Miklo are excited to announce that as they continue with their succession plan, have sold their business to Jake Jostand and Tim Sather. Phil Miklo states, "The biggest reward for me is that I've been able to take this business, basically from scratch, with hard work, dedicated employees and great customers, to the level it is today. I am very proud that Jake and Tim, employees of ours, are able to purchase our business and continue with the same passion and dedication that we have. I will continue as General Manager and look forward to a great 2015!" The Miklos also added, "We would like to thank all who have supported us in our journey and congratulate Jake and Tim, two of the best individuals in the boating industry!"

Jostand and Sather plan to keep the marina operating as is and the transition will be seamless to customers, employees, and vendors. Jostand commented, "I'm very grateful to have worked for such caring individuals for the last 22 years. Phil and Teresa are like family to me and I'm honored to have this opportunity to carry on the business that they've built. The idea of being an owner of this business has been a long time dream of mine. I'm excited about the opportunities ahead and look forward to carrying on the Oak Hill Marina tradition of family and fun." Sather added, "I feel very fortunate to be a partner with such an incredible team. Growing up in the lakes area, and working in the boating industry all of my life, I can honestly say this opportunity has been a goal of mine for as long as I can remember. Being a part of bringing family and friends together in such a great recreational past time is very fulfilling."

Boating Industry magazine has selected Oak Hill Marina as a Top 100 boat dealer in North America for nine consecutive years. This past November, Oak Hill Marina was awarded the number 20 dealer in North America for the second year in a row. Awards were handed out in Orlando at a black-tie affair and celebration. Being recognized as a Top 100 Boat Dealer distinguishes Oak Hill Marina as one of the best in the marine industry. Oak Hill Marina is a family, friendly business in the Iowa Great Lakes. "Laugh. Share. Reconnect" while boating with Oak Hill Marina.

Knockout the Banker Winners

Farmers Savings Bank sponsored their third annual "Knockout the Banker" competition during halftime of the Okobojo vs. Sioux Center varsity basketball games on February 10, 2015. There were 5 participants in the knockout competition in each half of the varsity basketball games. The object of the game is to make your shot before the person behind you makes their shot. If you don't make it first you are out until there is only one person left. Each person in the competition represented a different organization or group from Okobojo School. The winner of the competition won $50 for their respective organization.

During halftime of the girls' game, Mari Stein won the competition sending $50 to the Okobojo Band. During halftime of the boys' game, Megan Peschong won the competition, knocking her father Tony Peschong out of the competition early, which sent $50 to the Okobojo Girls' Basketball fund. Another $100 was also donated to the Okobojo Booster Club for the support of the athletics programs at Okobojo Community School.

"We are proud of the Okobojo School District and greatly enjoy supporting and being involved in their activities," said Brad Simington, Vice President of Farmers Savings Bank. Brad went on to say, "We are proud of our community and the students at Okobojo, and look forward to supporting them for years to come."

Since 1916 Farmers Savings Bank has benefited its customers and community by providing solid, simple financial solutions.

New IRRMA Director

Iowa Rock 'n Roll Music Association welcomes Andrea Wiesenmeyer as the new Director of Operations and Marketing. Wiesenmeyer brings more than 15 years experience in marketing and design to her new role at IRRMA.

Prior to joining IRRMA, she was Executive Director of the Lanai Art Center in Lanai City, Hawaii. Andrea is no stranger to the Lakes Area. Growing up in Northwest Iowa, she has been spending summer months at the Lakes for many years. Wiesenmeyer and her husband returned from Hawaii this fall to become permanent residents back in Iowa; residing in Evely.

IRRMA President John Senn said, "We are so glad to have a person with Andrea's vast experience in marketing in the non-profit sector. She is enthusiastic about music which is a bonus for us!"

Wiesenmeyer began her duties in the IRRMA office on Monday, February 9. She can be reached by phone at 712-330-0889 or stop by the office to greet her. The office is located in the East Oaks Mall in Okoboji. For more information about IRRMA, log onto the website at iowarocknroll.com. The Iowa Rock 'n Roll Music Association Museum is located in Arnolds Park.

Corporate Sponsorship For Relay For Life Event

KUOO has signed up as a Corporate Sponsor benefiting the Relay For Life of Dickinson County. The Relay will be held on Friday, July 10th at Arnolds Park Queen's Court. Pictured are Scott Tenkley, Becky Thoreson, Nick Brinks, Marty Spies, Trevor Johnson, Steve Schwaller, Holli Geary, Katy Roberts, Leah Wallin, and Abby Kohlhaas.

At the Dickinson County Relay For Life event teams will take turns walking or running around the Arnolds Park Queen's Court to raise funds for the fight against cancer. Events are up to 24 hours long, and because cancer never sleeps, each team is asked to have at least one participant on the track at all times. The event is an opportunity for communities to honor cancer survivors, remember loved ones lost, and fight back against a disease that has already taken too much. Relay volunteers help with registration, logistics, participant support, and other unique opportunities based on the event's location. Or you can be a Relay For Life team member or team leader and volunteer your time toward participating in the event and fundraising. Relay For Life's volunteer-driven model help make it the most successful fundraising event in the world. Even if you aren't a night owl, there's a place for you at a Relay For Life event.

If you'd like to learn how to start a team or become involved, please contact Dana at 712-330-3368.

Stepping Back In Time

Stepping Back in Time by Jerry and Irene Clark of the Clark Museum of Okoboji and Iowa History

The following article, circa late 1800s or early 1900s, was written in the Britt, Iowa Tribune.

The Way It Was In The Good Old Days

The state of Iowa gave $1,000.00 toward building a dam between Big and Little Spirit Lake. The owners of the mill at Milford said dam it they couldn't. The state said dam it they could and the case went to the court, the mill men getting out a dam injunction. The people around Spirit Lake said they wouldn't be dammed and the state said be dammed they would. And those who didn't want to fight by a dam site had to fight just the same. Some said the fish couldn't get up by a dam site, and others said that a dam sight could be built with a fish way that would let the dammed fish go up so that some of them would be dammed above the dam and others below the dam. The mill owners said the dammed outlet by the mill site was dam enough and they didn't want any more dam by the dam site. Then the case came before Judge Quarton, of Algonia. Quarton knew a dam site from a mill site and mill. Dam site more about lots of other things than some folks have got hay, and he dissolved the injunction in soft water. The dam site will now be above the mill site and the fish can go where they please for all Quarton cares. After the dam fish-way is put in, it is hoped that the dammed lake will fill up so that the dammed mud turtles can get a drink and let the Spirit Lakes run their dammed boats and stop a dam site controversy.

Some of the truly good may imagine this sounds like swearing, but there isn't a swear word in it.

County students all earn top ratings

It isn't often that we can applaud all of the Dickinson County schools at the same time. But last week the jazz choirs from Harris - Lake Park, Okoboji and Spirit Lake high schools all earned Division One (Superior) ratings at the Iowa High School Music Association State Jazz Choir Festival.

Thirteen choirs from 11 schools were involved in the festival. The other eight schools included Akron - Westfield, Alta - Aurelia, Central Lyon, Hartley - Melvin - Sanborn, Sibley - Ochevedan, Sheldon, South O'Brien, and Spencer.

Congratulations should actually be made to all the members and directors of all the 13 choirs, as all of them received either Division One (Superior), or Division Two (Excellent) ratings!

The IHSMA Jazz Choir Festival was held at the SAMI Center, where the South Dakota State University Symphonic Band & Jazz Ensemble will perform in concert tonight (Tuesday), at 7 p.m. Yes, it's late notice. But it's also a free concert. Hope to see you at the SAMI Center for a good show...

The contest that decides the berths for the Iowa Jazz Championships was taking place in Le Mars as this edition of The Lakes News Shopper was being printed. So it will be next week before we can relate how all that worked out.

But we can relate a story from Stager Stan and what he saw and heard(!) at last week's Sioux Center vs. Okoboji basketball game. (Did you see Stan lurking beneath the bleachers?) To hear him explain it, retiring OHS band director Greg Forney took to the skins in the pep band to add some extra oomph to its final song of the year. Stan also said the act drew a well-deserved standing ovation from both sides of the court...

Next Tuesday, the OHS Jazz Band will trek to Western Iowa Tech for the Lewis and Clark Jazz Festival, before its Friday night, February 27, Evening of Jazz...

Andrea Wiesenmeyer has been named as the new Director of Operations and Marketing for the Iowa Rock 'n' Roll Music Association. Wiesenmeyer brings more than 15 years of marketing experience to her new role.

While she grew up in northwest Iowa, Wiesenmeyer and her husband recently moved here from Lanai City, Hawaii. If you want to ask Andrea why anyone would move from Hawaii to the Hawkeye State — especially in the middle of a very cold winter — you might find her in the IRRMA office in the East Oaks Mall in Okoboji...

Monday night marked the first of the rehearsals for the Northwest Iowa Concert and Jazz Band's spring concert — tentatively set for Monday, April 20, as the snow/cold/fog/whatever postponement date is the next night. But with the first day of spring officially arriving a month earlier, there'll be no need for postponement — right?!

Stager Stan sez we can expect some sort of commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the end of the U. S. Civil War in that concert (Confederate General Robert E. Lee surrendered to Union forces at his home on April 9, 1865), along with one or two vocal selections from Anne Sexton. Stan has heard something about The Girl in 14G, and the Naughty Lady of Shady Lane...

Jessie James & the Outlaws will be appearing at the Boji Bay Fun House Pavilion, Thursday night, from 7 - 9 p.m. as a part of Boji Bay's Thursday night live music concerts. Again, we rely on Stager Stan to let us know that the James mob will probably be playing at the Spencer YMCA one Friday night in March...

The Blackstad Brothers will present a tribute to Iowa's very-own Everly Brothers, Saturday night at the Fairmont Opera House. The show starts at 7:30.

The FOH also has the Bee Gees tribute group Night Fever scheduled for Saturday night, March 7, and the Whitesidewalls' Rock 'n' Roll Revue on March 21...

A really special show will feature Black Violin on Saturday, April 18. The duo puts Brandenburg and "breakdown" together for some very unique music. Look 'em up on YouTube.com or other similar sites...

Also in Fairmont, but at the Redrock Center, Warren Nelson and his son Rowan Nelson-Ferris will be performing for a 3:00 matinee on Saturday, March 14. You may recall hearing the elder Nelson at the Pearson Lakes Art Center several years ago. Fairmont is where he got his start some 45 years and 500 songs ago...

And if you haven't already done so, mark June 7 - 11 on your calendar as the week of the Iowa Lakes Community College Reggie Schive Jazz Camp. You'll find details at IowaLakes.Edu/Music/Jazz_Camp

You are invited to join the Old Professor for Ballads, Blues and Big Bands, too, at Class 105, The LIVE Broadcast from the College of Musical Knowledge at the University of Okoboji. Class 105... airs Sunday mornings from eight 'til noon, on 105.7, KRAQ-FM.

All the news that fits, we print. Please send your music-related announcements or comments to: class105@connect.com or P. O. Box 676, Okoboji, Iowa 51355-0676

A Special THANK YOU
 goes out to the committee that organized our benefit that was held at the Corner Lanes Bowling Alley, on Feb. 7th. The support we received was overwhelming. It goes to show you what a great community we live in and how everyone comes together in a time of need. We would also like to thank our family and friends for all of the love, prayers and support during our hard fought battle with cancer. Rick passed away in our home on Feb. 6th surrounded by his family and friends. The days, weeks and months ahead will be our most difficult. However, your outpouring of love and support has provided us with enormous comfort and strength.
 With our love and heartfelt thanks,
 Kaylene Jackson,

Making an Ordinary Life Extraordinary

Tips for transforming a normal life into a remarkable one are set to be discussed and shared at Lifetree Café on Sunday, February 22, 2015, at 6:30pm.

Harbor Music Ministry Expanding

Harbor of Joy Lutheran Church has announced plans for the expansion of the Church's Music Ministry under the leadership of Bob Floss, Minister of Music. The "Services in Song" is a monthly ministry outreach to area health care facilities and is scheduled to begin in March.

Consisting of gospel songs and hymns, as well as scripture and brief devotion, these mid-week monthly services are approximately thirty minutes in length. Floss stated, "It is a time for us to praise and worship God through word and song giving thanks for His many blessings!"
 There will be seven care facilities participating in the program. They include: Hill Top Care Center (Spirit Lake), Keelson Harbour Assisted Living Community (Spirit Lake), Lake Park Care Center (Lake Park), Longhouse/Northshire Care Center (Spencer), Milford Care Center (Milford), St. Lukes Lutheran Home campus (Highlands building) (Spencer) and Wel-Life (Spirit Lake).
 Floss began the "Services in Song" outreach program in 1982 while serving as Minister of Music at Morningside Lutheran Church in Sioux City. In recognition of this program, Floss was awarded the Iowa Health Care Association Outstanding Service Award in 1990. He has continued this ministry through the years at Morningside Lutheran, First Lutheran Church in West Okoboji and now at Harbor of Joy Lutheran Church in Milford.
 Harbor of Joy Lutheran Church is located at 1204 L Avenue in Milford. Harbor is affiliated with LCMC (Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ). For more information about Harbor, you may go to: www.harborofjoy.com. Guests are always welcome at their Sunday morning worship at 9:30am.

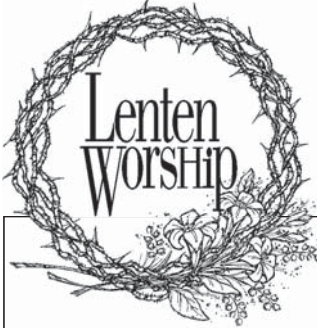

SLES Minds in Motion

Minds in Motion, a program designed to allow students' inquisitive minds and creative energies to shine, will be held on March 5th in the Spirit Lake Elementary School.
 This non-juried event allows 3rd and 4th graders to present science experiments, inventions and innovations to the student body, during school hours, and to the public from 6-7 p.m. This high-energy event is enthusiastically attended by participants and viewers alike.
 The SLES PIE organization sponsors this annual event. Participation awards, given to encourage further experimentation and learning, have been graciously contributed to by Strawbees, Spirit Lake Subway and SLES PIE. Dave Petrick Photographic Artist will, once again, generously provide the wonderful event photography, helping students remember their wonderful experiences for years to come.
 A video from a previous year's event can be viewed at http://www.spirit-lake.k12.ia.us/elementary_school/resources/list/?category_id=16

February Community Table

Brighten long, winter evenings in the warm surroundings of the lakes-area Community Table. A service of the Dickinson County Ministerial Association, the increasingly popular complimentary meal is served twice monthly on the second and fourth Thursdays from 5:30pm to 7:00pm. The consistent location is the Okoboji Bible Conference Community Center, 45 South Highway 71 in Arnolds Park. Dickinson County churches provide and serve the meal, adding belonging and friendship to good food.
 The first gathering this month will be held Thursday, February 12, provided by Downtown Church in Arnolds Park followed by the second get-together Thursday, February 26 served by STEP in Faith Missional Community in Okoboji.
 All are welcome to enjoy food and fellowship. Cancellations are rare but in the event of inclement weather you'll learn of cancellations on local radio. If your church or charitable group would like to become part of the Community Table serving team, please contact the Okoboji Bible Conference Ministries office at 712-332-2883.

Knights of Columbus Awards Spelling Bee Champions

Spirit Lake, Okoboji and Lake Park boys and girls in grades 4, 5, 6 and 7 were honored as Council Champions of the 2015 Knights of Columbus Spelling Bee. The Iowa Great Lakes Council 5043 sponsored the competition Tuesday, February 10, in the Spirit Lake Middle School music room.

Ashley Dean won first place in the 4th Grade Division, with Sam Skinner and Dayton Hicks filling out the second and third places. Trever Brittain took the honors in the 5th Grade Bracket. Brianna Brands occupied second place, and Vance Katzfey took the third spot. In the 6th Grade competition the winner was Anna Fuelberth. Jaden Rueter won first place in the 7th Grade Bracket while Jonah Eldridge came in second.

Each participant could study a list of words beforehand. First and second place winners compete in the regional competition later this month.

The Knights of Columbus is an international Catholic family fraternal service organization with 1.8 million members in more than 14,000 local councils. Iowa Great Lakes Council 5043 sponsors other events including the Free Throw Championship in January at Spirit Lake High School, and monthly omelet breakfasts at St. Mary's Parish Community Hall. They also run the Soup and Pie Supper in November, and the Tootsie Roll Drive for Persons with Intellectual Disabilities, benefiting local organizations.

Iowa Great Lakes Rotary Club Car Drop Fundraiser

You may have finally noticed a lone automobile parked on West Lake Okoboji in Smith's Bay. The annual fundraiser got a bit of a late start this year with unpredictable ice conditions earlier on. The Iowa Great Lakes Rotary Club is selling tickets as to when the car will go through the ice. Tickets are numbered by the minute $10 each which gets you both a.m. and p.m. time. The winner receives $1,000 cash. Keep your eye on the prize and contact any Iowa Great Lakes Rotary Member for your ticket or stop by the Dry Dock Lounge. You can also call Peggy Gustafson at 712-320-0192 or Rachele Fratze at 712-330-5990. Proceeds go to help fund community projects throughout the Iowa Great Lakes.

Obituaries

Richard "Rick" Gary Jackson, the son of Gary and Karen (Johnson) Jackson, was born March 24, 1960, in Spencer, Iowa. His childhood years were spent on a farm near Dickens. He attended Lake Center School during his kindergarten year and then attended Spencers schools, graduating from Spencer High School in 1978. During his high school years, he was active in 4-H and FFA. Most notably during high school, he was known for his talent on the baseball field, where he was a very successful pitcher. After his schooling he began his career in farming.

Rick was an AVID Nebraska Husker fan, and a pillar in the cattle industry. The love of his life were cattle, farming, his family and his dog Jax. Rick had a nickname for everyone and no one was a stranger to him.

He married Kaylene Krieger on December 31, 2010, in Terril and they had lived in the Terril community for the last 14 years.

Rick passed away at his home on Friday, February 6, 2015, at the age of 54 following a long battle with cancer. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents: James and Meta Jackson; his maternal grandparents: Carl and Madeline Johnson and a son, Cody Lee Jackson.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Kaylene of Terril; his three daughters: Tess and her husband, Clayton Eggers of Graettinger, IA, Hallee Jackson and Jordan Salton of Terril and Bailey and her husband, Matt Sievers of Newell, IA; one stepson, Dalton Perrin of Terril; his parents: Gary and Karen Jackson of Dickens, IA; two sisters: Sherri and her husband, Pat O'Brien of Clarion, IA and Jill and her husband, Terry Marquardt of Hooper, NE; his nephew and nieces: Ian and Amanda O'Brien, Molli and Tyler Leiting, Paige and Jenna Johnson and Justin Marquardt; other relatives and many, many friends.

Dear Editor:

On behalf of a record-sized, 160 foot snail rumored to have appeared long enough to have its existence captured from the sky by photographer Judy Hemphill during the 34th annual Winter Games, we would like to thank the following individuals, businesses and organizations for making the 8th Annual Peoples Environmental Art Project a smashing success.

Thanks to Iowa Lakeside Laboratory and to the Friends - Lakeside's non-profit community support group - for being the major event sponsors, along with Beck Engineering. Special thanks to First Lutheran Church and Heritage Landings for allowing us to use their facilities and property as snail habitat when hazardous ice conditions forced the event off the ice.

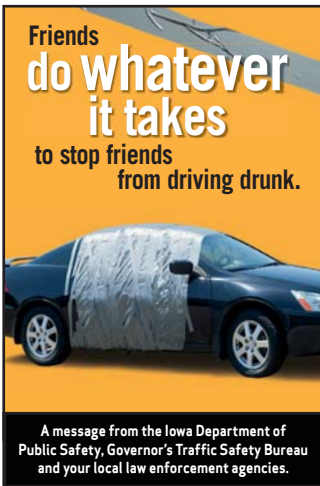

Hail to the 185 men, women and children who came out of their shells to be 'part of the art'! After the photo shoot, folks warmed up indoors in the First Lutheran Church and enjoyed hot drinks and delicious treats sold by the Okoboji Middle School TAG students. Sales proceeds will support the Okoboji students' travel expenses to Florida during an environmental field trip this coming summer. Participants also had the chance to win a multitude of raffle prizes donated by Bank Midwest, Bomgaars, Central Bank, Friends of Lakeside Lab, KUOO, Northwest Bank, Pizza Ranch, Three Sons and United Community Bank. We would also like to express our gratitude to the numerous volunteers who did everything from directing foot and vehicle traffic to assisting with the raffle and clean up.

Last but not least, hats off to our artistic team! This is the first year we opened up the project to design ideas submitted by the public and we had a wonderful response. Ruth Wolterstorff's winning drawing of the snail best fit the contest criteria that the image be representative of the unique ecology and setting of the Iowa Great Lakes region.

Chad Branham was our 2015 Artistic Director this year, responsible for taking Ruth's design and rendering it for shadow and mass effects. If you examine the photo, you will notice the excellent job he did calculating where the shadows would cast to enhance the image. Chad and his wife, Marta Barnard, were also responsible for guiding volunteers into the design.

Photographer Judy Hemphill not only has a talented and gifted eye for capturing the image from the sky, but the courage to lean out of a plane to take the photograph. Finally, we would like to extend our gratitude to our pilot, Phil Smith, of Leading Edge Aviation. We learned this year that Phil is an experienced mission pilot, trained to fly into remote areas in Africa. What a terrific background he brings to the People's Environmental Art Project!

Sincerely,
Jane Shuttleworth • Iowa Lakeside Lab. Education Coordinator
Lisa Roti • Executive Director, Friends of Lakeside Lab

J-Term Collaboration for Young Entrepreneurs

January isn't education as usual at Spirit Lake High School. Students there have the opportunity to participate in J-Term. They can take a hands-on, expert-facilitated class in something they're passionate about or just want to know more about.

A new collaboration with Iowa Lakes Community College resulted in 12 students taking the Introduction to Entrepreneurship for college credit this January.

Molly Bates, Intermediary Connections Coordinator for the Connect @ Iowa Lakes program, sponsored the course jointly with Kelly McCarty, Small Business Development Center Director, who facilitated the class. The Connect @ Iowa Lakes program is grant funded and designed to provide workplace learning opportunities for high school students such as job shadows, internships, career events and speakers.

Students came to the Iowa Lakes Spirit Lake campus to hear from 12 local business and industry entrepreneurs to learn about their personal experiences in planning a successful business.

"The experience was phenomenal for our students," said Natasha Nelson, school counselor, who co-coordinated the high school's part with Principal Angela Olsen.

She continued, "While the experience enhanced the desire to become an entrepreneur for some, for others it was a realization that being an entrepreneur is not at all the career path they want to go down. We see it as a very important career development experience to help guide them in their future pursuits."

Students made connections with successful people in the community by not only listening to them as guest lecturers but by also having the opportunity to visit six local businesses created by local entrepreneurs. For a culminating project, students created and wrote business plans of their own. These were presented the final day of class and also at the Sami Center for the Performing Arts in an evening fair where family, friends and community members could look at their work and ask questions.

Morgan Wolff, a Spirit Lake junior, completed a business plan for a pottery studio that gives lessons as well as selling pottery. She said she chose this J-Term class to open up her options for what she wanted to do in college.

"It was inspirational, hearing from all the speakers and hearing about their experiences," she said.

Colton Petersen, a senior, also found the speakers inspiring. He recommended this as a "great class for anyone who is interested in business in any way or interested in being an entrepreneur."

Petersen said that when they toured the West O Brewery he was most impressed with the owner's story - "how long it took him to get started, and how long it's going to take over time to start a business." His business plan was for a homemade pizza restaurant.

Bates commented that "it's been a successful experience and we plan to expand and grow it in the future."

McCarty expressed hope that the students became aware of the necessary processes, time and effort it takes to develop a business plan. "I hope they paid attention to the speakers and both their successes and challenges, especially the challenges they had to overcome," he said.

Students and facilitators alike said the J-Term Intro to Entrepreneurship class was a learning experience they couldn't have gotten in a regular classroom setting. School officials, Nelson and Olsen said, "We look forward to creating and implementing additional ways to partner with Iowa Lakes in the future!"

IOWA LAKES CORRIDOR DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION Iowa Lakes Corridor Honoring Public Champions Of Economic Development

In support of Public Service Recognition Week May 3-9, 2015, the Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation is seeking nominations for the inaugural Public Champion of Economic Development Award.

Corridor investors and the public are invited to nominate elected city or county officials from Buena Vista, Clay, Dickinson and Emmet Counties for this award, which recognizes the critical role government leaders play in economic development. One city and one county official will be honored.

"Northwest Iowa is fortunate to have strong, talented and committed public officials working on behalf of area businesses every day," said Steve Pick, Chairman of the Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation Board of Directors. "Their efforts make local economic development possible."

The Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation Board of Directors will select the winners of the Public Champion of Economic Development Award from among the list of nominees. Preference will go to nominees for which there are specific examples of economic development success. Winners will receive a plaque from the development corporation presented at a public meeting of the relevant city council or board of supervisors.

To nominate a person for the Public Champion of Economic Development Award, please send an email to Kiley Miller, President & CEO of the Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation (kmiller@lakescorridor.com). The email should include the nominee's name and position, a brief explanation of his or her contributions to growing the local economy, and the name and contact information for the person making the nomination. An application can also be downloaded at the Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation web site (www.lakescorridor.com). Visitors to the site should click on "Events Calendar" and then select "April 1" from the drop down calendar.

The deadline for submission is April 1, 2015.

Corporate Sponsorship for Relay for Life Event

Dickinson County News has signed up as a Corporate Sponsor benefiting the Relay For Life of Dickinson County. The Relay will be held on Friday, July 10th at Arnolds Park Queen's Court. Pictured are Russ Mitchell and Jason Lindsay of Dickinson County News.

Each person who shares the Relay For Life experience can take pride in knowing that they are working to create a world where cancer will no longer threaten our loved ones. Volunteering at a Relay event honors survivors, caregivers, and those lost to cancer. You get to support and work with your local community, build friendships, learn new skills, and have a lot of fun knowing you are making a difference. You can volunteer by yourself, by joining the planning committee, or get a group of family and friends to make a difference together. If you'd like to learn how to start a team or become involved, please contact Dana at 712-330-3368.
