Chad Elliott To Perform In Spencer

SPARC (Spencer Performing Arts Coalition) with Arts on Grand and Spencer Community Theatre is pleased to have as the last concert of the season, Chad Elliott in concert at Spencer SCT Playhouse on the corner of 1st Avenue and 7th Street on Friday June 5, 2015, at 7:30pm. The concert tickets are on sale at the SCT box office. The prices are $15 for adults and $10 for students and all seats are reserved. A 6:30pm hors d'oeuvres time with Chad costs $10 and reservations for this are due by June 2! Call SCT at 712-262-7336 for ticket information and seating reservations.

Americana musician, Chad Elliott, has written many songs and traveled many miles since his first performance in Spencer, Iowa, back in the '90s. Now the area is pleased to welcome him back to the SCT stage in June. Over the years Chad has shared the music stage with greats such as: Eric Church, Lonestar, Counting Crows, Brantley Gilbert, R.L. Burnside, Odetta, Tom Paxton and Loudon Wainwright III, among others. Chad will be releasing his 20th album "Wreck and Ruin" in October of 2015. It was recorded in Nashville and produced by Ken Coomer of Wilco. There will be a nation-wide tour to support the release with stops already planned as far as Texas. These days Chad lives in Coon Rapids, Iowa, with his wife Alyssa and children Ash, Eliza and Jackson.

The generous local sponsor for this event is State Bank & Insurance of Everly, Peterson, and Spencer. The season sponsors of SPARC include Del's Garden Center, John & Carole Lea Cotton, Farmers Bank, and Northwest Bank.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor:
 Visitors and Community Members: Some would argue that as a society we are guilty of the excessive use of cliché. We are constantly looking for a proper way to describe what we are thinking and what we desire to express and often we just can't get there....thus, a cliché. So I feel a bit guilty when I say that "one of the best kept secrets" in the lakes area is Clark's Museum located in Milford. Jerry Clark and his foundation have done a tremendous job of helping preserve many artifacts of the Lakes Area and display them in a manner that allows for quick viewing or extended study. If you have not been to the Clark Museum recently I would encourage you to visit. Please extend an invitation to others as well: Jerry is a wealth of information and a wonderful host. Help get the secret out.
 Thank you,
 Mike May, Spirit Lake

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor,
 Over Memorial Day weekend, Pirate's Cove Adventure Golf held its annual fundraiser across the nation. "Putting For Patriots" helps support wounded veterans and their families. To date, the Pirate's Cove family of courses has raised well over $200,000 for the organizations that support our wounded veterans. I would like to thank everyone that came to play adventure golf in support of our cause. I would also like to give special thanks to all of these organizations for their support and hole sponsorship: Tom's Plumbing and Heating, Northwest Iowa Sprinkler, Northwest Bank, Lost Lakes Wind Farm, Okoboji Tree Specialists, Fick's Ace Hardware, Lakes News Shopper, IGL Teleconnect, KUOO Radio Group, and the KICD radio group. If anyone would like to sponsor a hole in next year's event, please e-mail me at wes.hunziker@piratescove.net
 Sincerely,
 Wes Hunziker, Manager Pirate's Cove Adventure Golf

Kracker is coming

If you haven't heard the rumors or figured out the clue we had a week or two back, Uncle Kracker is set to be the headliner at the Arnolds Park Amusement Park's big 125th Anniversary Concert on Monday, July 5th. The secrecy had less to do with Park officials trying to create a buzz than it did with Kracker having another contractual engagement in South Dakota.

Born Matthew Shafer, in Mount Clemens, Michigan, Kracker will be celebrating his 41st birthday on Saturday — after a string of hit albums in this century...

Speaking of "headliners"... The Headliners of the Iowa Lakes Community College Summer Jazz Camp will be in town next week for the camp and four more public appearances.

Next Monday night The Headliners are expected to sit in with the DBBB at the PLAC, before taking over Pomerantz Hall at the PLAC on their own Tuesday night at 7:00. Wednesday night will see the crew in an open-air concert (bring a lawn chair or blanket) in Estherville's Thoreson Park, north of HyVee and east of the cemetery — also at 7:00.

Thursday night's concert at the Little Swan Lake Winery will come after the 3:30 p.m. Combo concerts and 6:30 p.m. on the ILCC campus. The Winery show will begin between 8:30 and 9 p.m....

As the unofficial start of the summer tourism season, the Memorial Day weekend kicked off the Big Band season on Campus — with two big shows, Monday and Tuesday nights. The Dick Bauman Big Band opened its 19th season (now at the Pearson Lakes Art Center), and The Jazzed Up Big Band of Okoboji, its second year, in the Majestic Pavilion, at the Arnolds Park Amusement Park.

While the DBBB got off to a great start with several new members, we missed the JUBBOO last Tuesday, but hope to catch that show tonight.

Sioux Central band director Adam Perry (see photo above) celebrated his 33rd natal day on his first night with the band, and had cupcakes for band members and friends. When Greg Forney announced Perry's 33rd, Forney also noted that he had been teaching just one year more than that...

We haven't figured out if the DBBB's play list is totally scripted each week, but did find the opening and closing selections possibly set with purpose. The band opened with George Gershwin's Nice Work If You Can Get It, and closed with Mercer Ellington's Things Ain't What They Used To Be... Think there's anything in those tea leaves?

Glenn Henriksen opens his summer show season at his place on Hill Avenue (across from the old Presbyterian Church), at 7:00 tonight. Glenn's next home show will be on June 16th. And his Wednesday night shows will begin in July... Eagles tribute group Hotel California will be returning to the Pearson Lake Art Center tomorrow (Wednesday) night at 7:30... The South 71 Trio begins the weekend entertainment at the Little Swan Lake Winery at 6:00 Thursday night. Sunday will see Scott Larson and Kiefer Brandt on the same barn stage, from 4 - 6 p.m.... Friday night will see Carroll's All-Strings Attached Orchestra back on Campus at Okoboji United Methodist Camp, for a 6:30 performance. Free(!) burgers will be served a half-hour ahead of the concert that saw a good crowd at the camp and at Arnolds Park last year... Boji Bay Fun House and Pavilion opens its Friday night concert season this week with the Lake Patrol Band — outdoors or inside if necessary — at 7:00...

After featuring A Boy Named Sue, and The Unicorn Song, in a Pop Quiz, Sunday morning at Class 105... we promised to print the URL for a YouTube video of The Unicorn Dance that we saw hundreds of people perform Friday night in the Twin Cities. The crowd's reaction to Bobby Van Dusen's warm up act and performance with the Barbary Coast Dixieland Show Band drew a standing ovation for the Pensacola-based pianist...

The Barbary Coast band will be seen on Campus in September, at the Clay County Fair, and also at the Little Swan Lake Winery...

The video was apparently made at the The Blarney Stone bar, in Virginia Beach. Goto: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vaWOCpy_D14

For the record, it was Phill Andreasen, of Spirit Lake, who aced a Pop Quiz, Sunday morning, by explaining that it was American cartoonist, poet, screenwriter, author of children's books and singer-songwriter, Shel Silverstein, who wrote both songs — along with dozens of others. Since all Pop Quizzes at Class 105... are open-book tests, Phill admitted he had to look up the answer on the Internet...

CORRECTION

Many donors to the Julie and Greg Forney Scholarship Fund have seen their generous contributions returned in recent weeks due to a technical detail that some organizers didn't understand as they were promoting the scholarship.

Northwest Wealth Management's Lance Evans, who is handling the details, said checks need to be payable to "TD Ameritrade," with a note in the memo field that the funds are to be directed to the "Forney Scholarship Fund."

After dispatching more than $1,200 in checks to the Omaha firm late last week, Evans said he hoped everyone involved would understand the situation and reissue their checks.

Benefit For Dorothy And Larry Kelly

The public is invited to a "Party for a Cause", which will be a Dinner/Dance hosted by the Softail Saloon in Superior, Iowa. The party will be June 6th, 2015, and will run from 5:00-8:00pm. There will be no cover charge, however, a free-will donation would be appreciated. The Softail Saloon is providing the dancing and dining area, the HyVee of Spirit Lake is providing pulled pork sandwiches and all the trimmings, The Jessie James and the Outlaws Band will provide the music for the dance and show. Numerous other friends have played a role in putting this fundraising event together.

The CAUSE for this party is simple. It is a fund raising benefit to help a couple of long-time residents of this area (Dorothy and Larry Kelly), deal with the medical costs of post-surgery complications that have been plaguing them for about 2 years. Many of these expenses are not covered by normal insurance coverage (travel, overnight stays at motels, care facilities etc.).

It is our goal to raise some funds (through your good will) to help defray some of these unexpected medical costs, and to also enjoy some good food and music while doing it.

All proceeds from this "Party with a Cause" will go directly to the parties involved and we all hope that they will get well soon. Committee for Party with a Cause

THROUGH THE EYES OF A CAMP FOSTER YMCA CAMPER

"Camp has changed my life! I've found confidence when I felt I've had none. I've found friends when I felt no one was there for me. The counselors and staff within you have shown me how to truly be myself and not be ashamed of it." - Taylor

"When you go to camp your whole life changes. You don't only have the best time of your life, you have a place you know you can always go back to. I would say anyone in their right mind would most definitely want to go to Camp Foster." - Alyssa

A SAFE PLACE TO BELONG
During the summer months, kids don't always have access to safe places where they can make friends, continue learning and have fun. Thankfully, the Y provides those safe places, along with positive role models and tremendous opportunities to realize their full potential.
Camp Foster YMCA campers experience a number of benefits during the summer:

- They feel a sense of accomplishment by building new skills
- They stay active and healthy by playing outdoors
- They unplug from technology and build friendships that will last a lifetime
- They are paired with positive role models all summer long

We wish to thank all of our valued donors and partners for their support in ensuring that children in our community have safe spaces and nurturing environments that help them to grow and thrive during the summer months.

New Mom Receives Surprise From Hy-Vee And LRH Foundation

Congratulations to Emily and Daniel Garloff of Lake Park. Emily's name was randomly drawn as the winner of $1,000 worth of diapers from Hy-Vee. She and Daniel are the proud parents of Ty, born at Lakes Regional Healthcare (LRH) in August 2014.

LRH's Birth Center opened in late May 2014. Each new mom that delivered in the past year was automatically entered into a drawing to receive $1,000 worth of free diapers on behalf of Hy-Vee and LRH Foundation. LRH Obstetrics Supervisor Katie Furman said, "It was fitting that Mother's Day and the one year anniversary of our new Birth Center coincided at about the same time as the announcement of the $1,000 worth of diapers winner and we are happy that Hy-Vee and Lakes Regional Healthcare Foundation did this for one of our new moms."

The Decline Of The American Church Examined At Lifetree Café

The closing of thousands of churches nationwide and a steady decrease in church attendance will be discussed at Lifetree Café on Sunday, June 7, 2015, at 6:30pm.

The program, titled "Has God Left the Building?" features filmed interviews with several experts on the American church, including Steve Hewitt, a writer for American Church Magazine. "Statistically the church in America has been dying since the 1970s," says Hewitt. "In a decade the church in America is going to have a whole different look: what it is and where it is. And what about all of these empty church buildings?"

Admission to the 60-minute event is free. Snacks and beverages are available. Lifetree Café is located at the Good News building, 1010 Julia Street, Okoboji, IA 51355.

Lifetree Café is a place where people gather for conversation about life and faith in a casual coffeehouse-type setting. Questions about Lifetree may be directed to Kelli Achenbach at 712.332.5698 or lifetreeokoboji@yahoo.com.

Don't Go, Fred!

As we go to press on Monday afternoon Fred Hoiberg is still the head basketball coach at Iowa State University, but it doesn't appear that will be the case by the time you may be reading this article. Many reports are coming out of Chicago that the Bulls are going to name Hoiberg as their next head coach sometime on Tuesday or Wednesday. The Bulls are reportedly going to pay Hoiberg $25 million over 5 years to help lure the Mayor away from his hometown of Ames. I am hoping that these reports are false but I have a bad feeling that the Cyclones are going to be searching for a new head coach as early as Tuesday night.

As a Cyclone fan it will be incredibly disappointing to have Hoiberg leave for the pros, but we all knew this was going to happen at some point. Fred has never hidden the fact that he wants to coach in the NBA, as he has an extensive pro background from his playing career and time in the front office with the Minnesota Timberwolves. Hoiberg apparently really wants to coach in the pros even more than Cyclone fans may have believed as it has been reported that he had discussions with the New Orleans Pelicans and Orlando Magic about their head coaching vacancies over the past few weeks. I knew this would eventually happen but I am shocked it is happening at this point for several reasons. The first is that Hoiberg still has three sons in the school system at Gilbert, which is just outside of Ames. I thought Fred would wait until they were done with school before making the jump to the NBA. Another reason is the Cyclones will be loaded next season and with their experienced roster back they have a realistic shot at making a run to the Final Four. Hoiberg is also coming off open-heart surgery, and while college coaching is a very stressful job, NBA coaching is even worse with an 82 game regular season schedule and unrealistic expectations of management and fans. Over the past four years 28 of the 32 NBA teams have fired their coaches, several of them were even fired after making the NBA playoffs.

No matter what Fred decides, I will wish him well and thank him for what he has done at Iowa State. Hoiberg inherited a program that was struggling under Greg McDermott and quickly turned them into one of the top programs, not only in the Big 12 but also in the nation, guiding the Cyclones to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances while also winning two Big 12 Tournament Championships. Iowa State is now a player on the national scene and we can thank Hoiberg for that. Fred turned Iowa State around in an unconventional fashion, relying heavily on Division I transfers while surrounding those pieces with talented junior college and high school recruits. There is no doubt that Hoiberg is one of the best coaches in college basketball, just look at all the success ISU has had the last four years with just one player (Chris Baab) who ended this season on an NBA roster. Hoiberg's Cyclones played an extremely unselfish basketball while playing a style that fans loved to watch.

I won't speculate as to who will be the Cyclone's next coach until I know for sure that Hoiberg is gone. I sure hope all these so called experts are wrong about this and that Fred will surprise us all with a press conference on Tuesday announcing that he's staying in Ames. If this happens, Cyclone fans will be dancing in the streets like they won the NCAA Tournament. If most people are right, however and Hoiberg leaves for the Bulls, ISU fans will be very disappointed, but we should all be appreciative of the time that we had Fred at the helm of our program, as he definitely will have left our program much better than it was when he arrived. Life will go on and this team will still contend for a Big 12 championship next season, with or without Fred. Let's just hope it's with him!

Mike Schrunk Earns "GRI" Title

Mike Schrunk of DOWDEN-HINN, REALTORS[®] was recently awarded the Graduate REALTORS[®] Institute (GRI) designation.

Mike Schrunk of Spirit Lake, Iowa, has completed the curriculum required to join other Top Producers in the residential real estate industry who hold the most recognized REALTOR[®] designation across the nation.

Mike earned the "graduate Realtor Institute" (GRI designation) by attending an intensive series of a minimum of 90 hours of classroom instruction, covering a variety of subjects including: Buy Client Services, Professional Standards, Sales & Marketing, Finance, Technology, and Risk Reduction.

The REALTOR[®] Institute is taught by well-respected Professionals from around the country, and is focused on local, state and national real estate practices that affect the industry and consumers.

The GRI designation sets REALTORS[®] who have attained it apart from other practitioners; it shows that they have worked hard to obtain a professional educational foundation on which to base the services they provide.

Camp Okoboji Celebrates 75th Anniversary In 2015

Camp Okoboji has been faithfully serving families, youth and Lutheran Congregations for the past 75 years. Camp Okoboji was originally purchased from the YWCA in 1940 by the Iowa Walther League Association. Today, the camp is owned by the members of the congregations that make up the Iowa District West of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod.

Over the years, Camp Okoboji has built a tremendous following with its family focused ministry. Many families have made it part of their summer tradition going back several generations. Though youth camps see ebbs and flows, the camps Concordia Cub Week has been a camp institution since 1944. Throughout the year, Camp Okoboji serves as a great location for a number of retreats and events.

Camp Okoboji feels blessed to be part of the Okoboji area and is glad to serve the community.

Camp Okoboji wishes to announce several 75th Anniversary events.

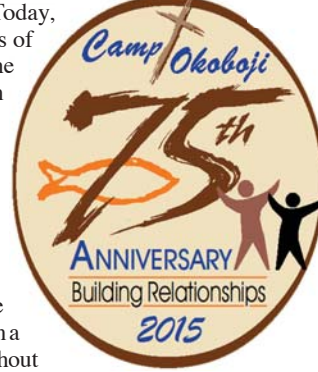

Over the June 5-7 weekend, the camp will be hosting a Walther League Reunion. The camp wishes to invite anyone associated with the Walther League to join them.

On Sunday, June 7, Camp Okoboji will be celebrating the dedication day of the camp at its 9:45 worship. The president of the Iowa District West, Rev. Paul Sieveking will be the guest preacher. An Omelet brunch will be served from 9:30 to 1:00. Guests are invited to enjoy tours of the camp along with several fun activities for the whole family. A 3:00 concert by pianist, Glenn Henriksen will close off the afternoon, along with an ice cream social beginning at 4:00.

Other Anniversary Events that are open to the public:

- An All Staff Reunion will be held the weekend of June 26-28. All former staff, from support staff to program staff and volunteer staff are invited to attend.
- Camp Okoboji's 5th Annual Golf Outing, Sunday afternoon August 9 will be held at Okoboji View Golf Course.
- A weekend with nationally known speaker and author, Rev. Dr. Paul Maier will be held Aug. 14-16. People can register for the whole weekend retreat, or attend his speaking times.
- The 75th Anniversary will close on Labor Day Weekend with an All Camp Celebration. Fun activities and programs will be offered all weekend. The Sunday Worship is usually held in the outdoor worship area. Reverend, Bob Riggert, retired pastor from Zion Lutheran, Manning will be the guest preacher.

Grand View University Commencement

Matthew Weeks, of Spirit Lake, received a degree at Grand View University (Des Moines, Iowa) commencement ceremonies held on Saturday, April 25, 2015 at 2:00pm at Hy Vee Hall in the Iowa Events Center, 730 3rd Street, downtown Des Moines.

Spirit Lake Library News

On June 11th at 2:00pm, Karl Kiilsholm will speak about his life at the Spirit Lake Public Library. The subtitle of his written memories, which he completed last fall, is "A Born American Immigrant." Though this seems to be a contradiction, he will explain how it came about that he is one of few people to have both an American certificate of birth and an American certificate of citizenship.

World events and specific circumstances of his own life take him and his family from America to Denmark and back again. Karl's detailed memory of his carefree childhood in rural Denmark contrasts with the time from the morning of April 9th, 1940 to the evening of May 4th, 1945. It was during these five years that the Nazis occupied Denmark. Karl is just 16 years old when the country and his family first receive the news. Though educated in Danish schools through high school, Karl married an American girl. His life in rural Algona, Iowa included many roles: husband, father, farmer, church leader, Rural Youth leader, Representative to the Iowa Legislature and motivational speaker. His topic on his travels as a public speaker through the Midwest and West was "What Freedom Means to Me." His wife Fedelia was a homemaker, mother and educator.

After the death of his first wife, Karl married June Goldman in 2002. They have been active members of our community ever since. Though Karl celebrated his 90th birthday last October, his memories are still vivid. His language retains just a hint of the Dane, but his patriotism is All-American.

Sales Bill From Floete Lumber, Fostoria, Iowa

Franklin Floete, Dealer in Lumber, Paint, ETC., Main Boards On Grove

Franklin Floete was born in Guttenberg, Iowa, on April 6, 1855. His primary education was received in the public schools of that place. He then entered Kentucky state university at Lexington where he spent several terms. He returned home to work in Stauer, Daubenger & Co.'s Saw Mill, until that firm opened a branch establishment at Spencer in 1878. Mr. Floete was placed in charge there and so remained until 1885, when he purchased the lumber mill from them. Floete and P.E. Randall erected a building in Spencer to accommodate a thousand people for public gatherings. He was secretary of the Iowa and Montana Livestock Co. Floete owned lumber yards and businesses in other Iowa towns. The Floete mansion on West Okoboji Lake, later became the Okoboji Club, and was a famous lakes area landmark.

The Clark Museum displays dishes, pictures and other items from the Okoboji Club. The museum displays many historical items like this, as this is what history is all about. The museum is located 1 mile west and 1/2 mile north of the Catholic church in Milford. Call 712-338-2147 or email ijclark1@msn.com for more information.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor,

Those of us from the area know that the Iowa Great Lakes Region is a special place to live, work, and play. Recently I was reminded of just how special when the Good Neighbor Fund sent a check to the Humane Society of Northwest Iowa for $1763.87. The generosity of those who contribute to the Good Neighbor Fund is to be commended, as is the hard work of the board which administers that fund. This donation will help us to continue assisting the companion animals of this region and will help fund more community based programs, some of which are already in place and others that are in their beginning phase.

On behalf of the companion animals of HSNWIA, thank you for your generosity and support.

Sincerely,
Jan Donaldson, Executive Director
Humane Society of Northwest Iowa

BIG SMILES – Dorin Dash, of Des Moines, with 2 Walleye and 2 Perch caught in Silver Lake on May 24, 2015. One Perch measured 13 inches and weighed .92 pounds.

Should Your Picture Be On This Poster?

Colleen Lemkuil, Regent of the Ladies of the Lake Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is compiling a poster picturing the current 59 members and six associate members of the local DAR Chapter. However, says Mrs. Lemkuil, there are many more women in northwest Iowa who are potential members of this patriotic and community service organization.

"If you believe that your ancestors were in America at the time of the American Revolution (1770s) or if your genealogy has been traced back to that time, you probably have an ancestor who served in the war for freedom and are eligible to join," says Lemkuil.

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution is the largest women's organization in the world. Regent Lemkuil notes that it is a patriotic, not a political organization. The Ladies of the Lake Chapter, which serves northwest Iowa, partners with various community groups to promote health and education and to preserve our history and environment.

The chapter will take an active part in the national project this year, which is that of honoring the men and women who served in the Vietnam War.

"We invite these veterans, or their families, to contact us so that we may record their contributions to our country with special recognitions and events," reports Mrs. Lemkuil. Contact Collette Travis, chairperson, cobotravis@gmail.com, 712-204-3977.

Another exciting 2015 project is the inauguration of a chapter of Children of the American Revolution (CAR). This is open to young women to 17 years of age. They will have an opportunity to share in the activities of the adult DAR Chapter, experiencing the pleasure and value of community service as they grow up. For information, contact Diane Lavender56@gmail.com, 507-525-2897. Colleen Lemkuil would like to add many more pictures to her DAR membership poster. She can be contacted at stancolleen37@gmail.com, 515-229-4619. The next meeting will be on June 9 at 1:00pm at the Abbie Gardner Sharp Shelter House, Arnolds Park.

Dave Rowley And Ryan Sather To Perform At The Nature Center

Dave Rowley and Ryan Sather kick off the first summer concert series in the Dickinson County Nature Center outdoor amphitheater 7:00pm Saturday, June 13.

The duo met more than a decade ago, when Rowley's daughter was taking violin lessons at Sather's Midwest Piano store in Spencer. "We decided to get together for one gig, and that was 12 years ago," Sather said, adding that he has played with Rowley for more than 200 shows since.

Rowley and Sather share vocals for their shows, and Sather pounds the keys while Rowley switches between guitar, harmonica and ukulele. They play a variety of music, from classics by the Beatles and Eagles to blues, jazz, folk and rock 'n' roll hits.

"It's a mixture of adult contemporary-type of music," Sather said. "We play songs people can relate to."

Rowley and Sather have a successful following, and Sather thinks it's not because they are the best musicians in the world but because they are good entertainers. Plus, they have learned how to play well as a duo.

"I think we're both good listeners," Sather said. "We listen to what the other musician is doing and trying to accomplish, and we adapt."

The outdoor amphitheater at the nature center will provide the perfect setting for Rowley and Sather's music, and although they have done outdoor concerts before it's not a common occurrence for them, so this will be a unique experience for audiences.

"It's fun being outside sometimes," Sather said. "It's beautiful."

The concert will be the first of three outdoor shows this season at the nature center, and it will be held after the We Pedal Clean Water conservation bike ride around West Lake Okoboji scheduled for 8:00am-noon June 13.

Concert tickets cost $7 at the nature center entrance, with children 5 and younger free. The gate will open at 6:00pm for the 7:00pm show. Audience members may bring blankets or lawn chairs to sit on as well as picnic dinners, beer, wine or pop to enjoy during the show.

"We are so excited to be kicking off the new Art & Nature concert series for the summer with Dave and Ryan; they will put on an amazing show," said Karess Knudson, environmental education coordinator at the nature center. "I am certain that people will enjoy the laid-back atmosphere the amphitheater area provides with the wetland and prairie backdrop; it is sure to be a great event."

Determan Named Coach Of The Year

Jacksonville, IL - The MacMurray College Highlanders' head softball coach, Lexy Determan, formally of Terril, Iowa, was named softball Coach of the Year by the St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference last weekend, during the SLIAC's softball tournament.

In addition, four MacMurray softball players received all-conference honors.

The MacMurray softball team had a complete turnaround season under the direction of second-year Coach Determan. In 2015, the Highlanders reversed last year's record, from 6-12 in conference, to 12-6 this season. That earned the Highlanders a spot in the SLIAC conference tournament this past weekend for the first time since 1999.

"Lexy has done a tremendous job with the softball team in only her second year on the job," said Athletic Director Justin Fuhler. "She has recruited well and pushed her team to levels that the program has not seen in 15 years," he continued. "In my opinion, she is one of the best young coaches around, and we are thrilled that she is our softball coach at MacMurray."

The Highlanders boasted the second best offense in the conference and a pitching staff with the third lowest earned-run average. They came into the SLIAC tournament on an 11-game winning streak, but that streak was snapped with a pair of close losses to Greenville College and Spalding University in the tournament.

Determan is the second MacMurray softball head coach to be named Coach of the Year; Sonni Creglow won the honor in 1991 and 1993. © www.mac.edu/athletics/mobile/highlights.asp?ID=3345

ELL, Dream-Making From Spirit Lake To Riviera Maya

Alma Ortiz walked into the Spirit Lake United Methodist Church basement in September of 2011. She had a dream and needed more English skills to achieve it.

Laura Johnson loved listening to the stories she heard from English Language Learners (ELL) who came into her classroom. In addition to this newly formed Spirit Lake class, other morning classes were held for many years at the Grace United Methodist Church in Spencer and evening classes were at the Spencer campus of Iowa Lakes.

Students came from many places - Japan, China, Israel, Paraguay, Mexico. They all had a common need to communicate better in English.

Twice a week Ortiz worked with Johnson then went to the Spirit Lake campus of Iowa Lakes Community College to work with Debbie Clark and use the RosettaStone online program to practice her English language skills.

"Alma only came from September to November, but she wanted to get ahead; she had a goal and worked hard for it," said Johnson.

By November, Ortiz felt like she was ready and applied online for the position of Housekeeping Manager at the Rosewood Mayakoba in Riviera Maya, Mexico. Soon she had a Skype interview.

Johnson and Clark worked with her, practicing interview skills, anticipating questions, coaching her answers and helping her determine questions to ask the company. After the interview the job choice was down to two and she received an airline ticket to interview in person.

Ortiz started there on December 1. She emailed back to Johnson that she'd gotten her dream job and to please come visit - she had a friend in Mexico.

From living with her sister in the United States to learn English, to the Riviera Maya, Ortiz had achieved her dream.

She now supervises over 100 employees and uses hard-earned English skills to communicate with management and the many tourists who come to enjoy the 128-suite resort. She has a house near her work and within travel distance of her family. She has a car. And every morning she goes swimming in a beautiful place.

In March of 2013, Johnson and her husband met Ortiz in Cozumel while they were on a cruise. Ortiz came in her car on the ferry, met them at Starbucks and took them on a tour of the eastern side of Cozumel.

"When Alma talked about the demanding new job she loves, she was glowing," said Johnson.

Of the experience, Johnson finds Ortiz typical of her ELL students. "They are very appreciative toward people who have shown them kindness."

"It's interesting to learn about the different cultures and to get to know the students' stories. Now that I'm retired I miss that," said Johnson.

She concluded, "We all try to do as much as we can, in whatever way we can. Alma is just one of many we've gotten to know and each has a story."

Current ELL instructors are Anne Aalgaard, Spencer campus, and Glenda Rogers, Estherville campus.

LAKES ART CENTER

Obituaries

Mr. John Franken, age 85, of Sioux Center, passed away on Tuesday, May 26, 2015, at the Royale Meadows Care Center in Sioux Center. Arrangements were with the Oolman Funeral Home in Orange City.

John was born on April 5, 1930, to Art and Hermina (Rozeboom) Franken in rural Sioux Center. He was one of five children.

On February 10, 1950, he married Darlene Sandbulte. They made their home in Sioux Center where they raised their five children. Darlene passed away on April 25, 2001, in Fort Myers, Florida, after 51 years of marriage.

In his early working years, "Johnny" was employed at the Sioux Center Light Plant and the Mutual Telephone Company. He also did power line work for the city, started doing electrical wiring, and sold televisions and appliances from his home, after taking a home course in television repair. In 1953, he started his own business from their home, known as Johnny's TV. In 1964, he added Johnny's Electric out of their basement. This became Interstates Electric and Engineering, Inc., in 1969, and grew to include several other divisions. John also started Jesco, which stood for Johnny's Electric Supply Company and is now known as Echo Group.

On December 26, 2003, he married Lorene Reid in rural Sioux Center. He became a dad to Lorene's four children, a grandpa to her nine grandchildren, and a great-grandpa to her five great-grandchildren. After many happy years in their home in Sioux Center, John moved to the Royale Meadows Care Center in June of 2014.

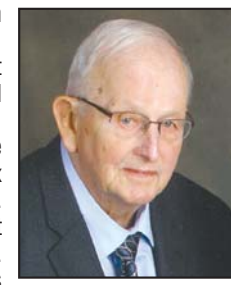

John also had a home on Lake Okoboji, where he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, skiing, and being on the water. He was a pilot and owned several airplanes that he was thrilled to fly. His need for speed caused him to be one of the first persons in Sioux County to own a snowmobile, which his children also enjoyed.

Mr. Franken was very active in the community, becoming the founding president of the Sioux Center Land Development Corporation. He was involved in many aspects of the growth of Sioux Center, and was a major fund raiser and investor for the Sioux Center Community Hospital, Crown Pointe, and Royale Meadows Care Center. In 1973, John built Franken Manor, into which his mother, Hermina, moved. The beautiful white upright piano in the lobby of Crown Pointe was a donation he gave when Darlene was still alive, which gave her great joy.

Survivors include his wife, Lorene; his four children and their spouses, Marlowe and Bonnie Franken; Janna and Dr. Gregory Holmes; John Mark and Mary Franken; and Doreen Franken; a daughter-in-law, Nancy Franken; four grandchildren, Jaymi, and her husband, Justin Vandewater; Gabe Franken; Jessica, and her husband, Leslie Marston; and Kayti, and her husband, Cory Gallagher; eight great-grandchildren, Grace, Lainey, Joah, Asher, Zac, Stefan, Aubrey, and Coen; and two sisters, Louise Hulstein and Arlene Bensema.

In addition to his parents and first wife, Darlene, he is preceded in death by his son, James L. Franken; two stillborn children; a brother and his wife, Everett and Gertrude Franken; a sister and her husband, Alice and Henry Van Roekel; and two brothers-in-law, Gerrit Robert Hulstein and the Rev. Joel Bensema.

Memorials may be directed to Sioux Center Health or the Franken Leadership Center at Northwestern College in Orange City. You may express your sympathy at www.oolman.com.
