A RISKY BURIAL

A man and his ever-nagging wife went on vacation to Jerusalem. While they were there, the wife passed away.

The undertaker told the husband, "You can have her shipped home for $5,000, or you can bury her here, in the Holy Land, for only $150."

The man thought about it and decided he would just have her shipped home for $5000.

The undertaker asked, "Why would you spend $5,000 to ship your wife home, when it would be wonderful to be buried here and you would spend only $150?"

The man replied, "Long ago a man called Jesus Christ died here, was buried here, and three days later he rose from the dead...I just can't take that chance."

Tips For Dining Out On Mother's Day

Mother's Day is right around the corner, and this special holiday serves to honor all those women who devote so much time and effort to their families. While gifts and other trinkets are certainly part of the celebration, a vast majority of children opt to treat Mom to a night out on the town come Mother's Day. Not only does this give mom a night off from cooking, but also it presents an opportunity to get dressed up and spend time together as a family.

A vast number of families travel to their favorite restaurants for Mother's Day meals. Mother's Day is one of the busiest holidays of the year for restaurants. The National Retail Federation says 54.8 percent of Americans treat their mothers to a special meal out on Mother's Day. Billions of dollars are generated by people eating out with their mothers. With large crowds to be expected, diners can follow a few tips when treating Mom to a meal.

- * Book early ... very early. To guarantee a reservation at any restaurant, namely your favorite restaurant, you will need to make a reservation well in advance of Mother's Day. It's never too early to put your name on the reservation list. Don't forget Mother's Day is Sunday, May 11, 2014.
- * Expect to wait. Even with a reservation, you're bound to spend some time waiting at the restaurant. Other families may be lingering at their tables, as no one wants to rush Mom out of the door. Plan accordingly for a potentially long wait time. This means having a snack before you leave. Don't arrive famished, as no one wants the dining party to be hungry and cranky, which is not a good way to celebrate Mom. Have plenty of snacks and drinks on hand for young children, as well as activities to keep them entertained.
- * Consider dining out a day before or after. Restaurants are generally packed on Mother's Day, and as a result kitchen and wait staffs might be overtaxed. What's more, diners might be relegated to a special or abbreviated menu. If you want a more relaxed setting and the ability to order whatever you desire, it may be a better idea to celebrate Mother's Day in advance. Then have Mom enjoy a relaxing day at home on her special day.
- * Take-out is an option. Families can treat Mom to a dinner out, without really having to go out. Many restaurants offer takeout service, so you will not be limited to pizza or Chinese. Even chain restaurants have curbside service, so if Mom is in the mood for a burger or something more elaborate, she'll have that option.
- * Expect an included gratuity. Restaurants often include a gratuity in the bill when servicing larger parties, such as those that might be celebrating Mother's Day. The standard gratuity rate is 18 percent, but you may want to go above and beyond if you feel the service is exemplary.
- * Hire a sitter for young kids. Although Mother's Day is a chance for the entire family to spend time together, the main goal is to ensure Mom's comfort and happiness. If very young children are in tow, she may not be able to relax and enjoy her meal. Infants will need to be fed, and toddlers may be easily distracted. Have a sitter watch little ones when adults are dining out, and then Mom can enjoy time with the kids when she returns home for more celebrating.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was award-winning American author Ann Patchett who made the following sage observation: "The question is whether or not you choose to disturb the world around you, or if you choose to let it go on as if you had never arrived."

* As St. Patrick's Day approaches, you might want to remember that the color originally associated with the Apostle of Ireland was blue, not green.

* In 1861, when a group of Unionist counties decided they didn't want to be part of Virginia any more, West Virginia became the only state formed by breaking away from a Confederate state. That wasn't the only attempt, however; a group of citizens in northern Alabama and eastern Tennessee wanted to band together and form a new state that would be allied with the Union. Unfortunately for this pro-Unionist faction, plans for the would-be state of Nickajack never came to fruition.

* Are you a coddiwompler? You are if you sometimes travel purposefully toward an as-yet-unknown destination.

* At the time of its completion in 1885, the Washington Monument, at 555 feet, was the tallest building in the world. The cornerstone had been laid on July 4, 1848, but insufficient funds and other interruptions repeatedly delayed the work. When the monument finally opened to the public in October 1888, visitors could take a 10-minute steam-powered elevator ride to the top. During the last 12 years of the 19th century, more than 1.5 million people visited.

* Hibernation doesn't always happen in cold weather; warm-weather hibernation, known as estivation, is common among some species of lizards, turtles and snails.

Thought for the Day: "The radical novelty of modern science lies precisely in the rejection of the belief ... that the forces which move the stars and atoms are contingent upon the preferences of the human heart." -- Walter Lippmann

LAFF - A - DAY

"Tent poles? I thought they were firewood."

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You Ewes and Rams will find your ideas cheered by a mostly receptive flock. Those few dissenters could well be turned around by your charm and powers of persuasion.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It's time for the bold and beautiful Bovine to shake off the dust of the past and shape up with new ideas for the future. This could surprise some folks, but they'll soon adjust.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Those nagging new doubts about an upcoming decision should alert you to step back (at least temporarily) so you can reassess its potential impact from a new perspective.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That unpleasant situation you hoped would go away by itself needs immediate attention before it affects an upcoming decision. Expect your supporters to rally around your cause.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're moving up and away from that recent setback. But remain cautious about finances. An exercise in thrift today helps cushion a possible end-of-the-month money squeeze.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You're still dealing with overtones of pessimism that cause you to doubt your ability to make some needed changes. But the negative pressures will ease up by week's end.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) There could be some fallout from the way you handled a recent family problem. But those who know that you were in the right won't hesitate to step in on your behalf.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Financial strains ease by week's end. Meanwhile, focus on cultivating that new relationship if you hope to have it blossom into something more meaningful.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Health matters once again dominate the week. Be careful not to ignore recurrences of an old problem. An almost-forgotten commitment resurfaces.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The emergence of an unusual selfish streak could dismay those close to you. Defy it -- don't justify it -- so you can become your gracious self again.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Reassess your decision to stay with the status quo. It might seem like the sensible thing to do right now, but changes around you could make that choice a risky one.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Move decisively but cautiously when dealing with a delicate personal matter. The fewer mistakes you make now, the less likely it is that the problem will recur later on.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can find beauty where many cannot. And you enjoy sharing your discovery with others.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord; whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Joseph Gerard Castagna

Joseph Gerard Castagna, 66 of Blairs, Virginia. Formerly of Elmont, New York passed away suddenly on December 22, 2016 at the Carilion Clinic in Roanoke, Virginia. Joseph was born in Brooklyn NY, living with his parents Joseph & Helen Castagna. Joe had many fond memories of Sunday dinners cooked by his Mom after church in Brooklyn. His parents moved the family to North New Hyde Park, Long Island NY. There Joe worked on American muscle cars and Harley Davidson motorcycles with his Dad. This love brought them together to build an auto body shop in Floral Park, Long Island. While working with his Dad Joe opened a limousine service Ambrosia Limousine and drove many famous people in Manhattan. Joe also worked at New York Harley Davidson and became a top salesman there.

During this time Joe became a volunteer Fireman in the Manhasset-Lakeview Fire Department. He was active in the Heavy Rescue area of the Fire Department for many years. Later in his life Joe volunteered at Elmont Fire department and went to ground zero in NYC the day after the attack on the twin towers 9-12-2001, which left a lifelong impression on him.

In these years Joe was an avid hunter and competition shooter, having many trophy heads as well as competition trophies at his Blairs residence. His love of hunting lead Joe to open Chestnut Firearms, a gun shop he ran with his wife Sue from 2009-2015, having to close it's doors due to health issues in '15.

In his middle years Joe was involved with 1/4 mile drag racing in his race car a '69 Camaro, "Stinky Pink", that was his pride and joy. Racing at Island Drag way in Great Meadows, NJ. And other local race tracks.

Another passion of Joes was Military WW II history, and Civil War history, he loved talking about these with anyone who was interested. When living in Virginia Joe became an Honoree member of Sons of Confederacy, attending many meetings with his friend Ed Clark. Joe was also an active member and 3rd degree Knight in the Danville Chapter of the Knights of Columbus attending meetings with his two friends Pete Alongi and Joe Danko.

Joseph is preceded in death by his Parents, Joseph Castagna and Helen (Barzyz) Castagna.

He leaves his adoring Wife of 9 years Susan Castagna of Blairs, VA, his loving Daughter Catherine Castagna of Huntington Station. His cousin Joseph Barzyz of Spring Hill, Florida and his Aunt and Uncle Helen and Thomas Palumbo of College Point, NY.

Why God Made Teachers

by Kevin William Huff

When God created teachers,
He gave us special friends
To help us understand His world
And truly comprehend
The beauty and the wonder
Of everything we see,
And become a better person
With each discovery.

When God created teachers,
He gave us special guides
To show us ways in which to grow
So we can all decide
How to live and how to do
What's right instead of wrong,
To lead us so that we can lead
And learn how to be strong.

Why God created teachers,
In His wisdom and His grace,
Was to help us learn to make our world
A better, wiser place.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On May 20, 1862, the Union Congress passes the Homestead Act, allowing an adult, male or female, to claim 160 acres of land from the public domain. Homesteaders had to cultivate and improve the land by building a barn or house and live on the claim for five years, at which time it became theirs with a $10 filing fee.

* On May 21, 1927, Charles Lindbergh lands at Le Bourget Field in Paris, 33 hours after leaving New York, successfully completing the first solo, nonstop flight across the Atlantic Ocean.

* On May 15, 1942, gasoline rationing begins in 17 states to aid the U.S. war effort. Rationing soon took effect in all 50 states, and coupons became a hot commodity on the black market.

* On May 17, 1954, in a major civil-rights victory, the U.S. Supreme Court hands down a unanimous decision in Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, ruling that racial segregation in public educational facilities is unconstitutional.

* On May 16, 1960, following the downing of an American U-2 spy plane by the Soviet Union, Russian leader Khrushchev lashes out at the U.S. during a Paris summit meeting with President Dwight Eisenhower. The outburst angered Eisenhower and doomed any chances for successful talks.

* On May 18, 1989, in Beijing, 1 million protesters take to the streets calling for a more democratic political system. On June 3, Chinese armed forces stormed Tiananmen Square, killing thousands and arresting over 10,000 protesters in what became known as the Tiananmen Square Massacre.

* On May 19, 1997, a 3-year-old boy dies of avian influenza in Hong Kong. By the time the outbreak was controlled, six people were dead and 1.6 million domestic fowl were destroyed. The virus later mutated, becoming extraordinarily lethal, and killed 62 people in Asia before spreading to Europe.

DCC's Spring Fling Supports Charity

Danville, Va., April 28, 2017 — Near-record rainfall didn't stop Danville Community College from hosting its annual Spring Fling on Tuesday, April 25.

More than 150 students and 25 faculty and staff members assembled in the Student Center and under the center's covered patio to enjoy free food, games, and a fundraiser that allowed them to throw pies at their professors.

"Our school events are successful because our students truly appreciate the chance to bond with our faculty and with each other," said Student Activities and Transfer Coordinator Kirstin Pantazis.

Student organizations helped make Spring Fling a successful event this year. DCC's African American Culture Club gave away baked goods while accepting donations, the TEACH Club put up a display on autism ahead of Danville's Autism Awareness 5k on Saturday, April 29. Professor of Business Management Dr. Vince Decker's Business 298 class ran multiple service learning projects as part of their capstone class aimed at teaching the industry standard project management tools and techniques. These projects included an ice cream giveaway, cancer care packages with the Never Give Up project, and promotion of Wayne Alan's Magic of Business talk on Thursday, April 27.

Phi Theta Kappa raised more than $200 with its faculty pie-in-the-face booth and students, faculty, and staff signed the college's 50th anniversary banner, which will be captured and saved as part of the 50th anniversary time capsule in the coming months.

DCC will have commencement exercises on Saturday, May 13. Summer course registration is still open and the college has several new programs, with information available at www.danville.edu/newprograms or by calling 434-797-2222.

1. Name the first group to release "She Cried."
2. Which group released "Laugh, Laugh"?
3. Who released "Candy Store Rock," and when?
4. Name the group that created the theme song to James Bond's 14th film, "A View to a Kill."
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "But there never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you find them."

Answers

1. Jay and the Americans, in 1962. A version by The Lettermen followed in 1970.
2. The Beau Brummels, in 1964. The group took the name because they thought it sounded British, in response to the British Invasion spearheaded by The Beatles.
3. Led Zeppelin, in 1976 on their "Presence" album. The album didn't chart, and except for one brief improv at a concert, they never played the song in public.
4. Duran Duran, in 1985. It was the only Bond theme song to hit No. 1 on the charts.
5. "Time In a Bottle," by Jim Croce, in 1973. The song was intended only for album release, but after his death in a plane crash there was much so demand for the song that it was released as a single.

PTSD Lawsuit Seeks Honorable Discharges

Some 22,000 Iraq/Afghanistan veterans have been discharged with less than honorable ratings due to misconduct. It's estimated that 20 percent of Iraq veterans have PTSD, along with 11 percent of Afghanistan veterans. Misconduct often goes hand in hand with PTSD as the veteran struggles to keep a balance.

A recent class-action lawsuit by Yale Law School's Veterans Legal Services Clinic seeks to address the failure of the Army Discharge Review Board to do as they were instructed in 2014: give special consideration to appeals to upgrade the discharge levels of veterans with PTSD, per instruction from then-Secretary of Defense Chuck Hagel.

Part of the lawsuit details the experiences of Steve Kennedy. His path is one followed by many other veterans: the surfacing of his PTSD symptoms, attempts to self-medicate with alcohol, having suicidal thoughts, not seeking help because he'd seen how others became targets for seeking assistance. The final straw (his "misconduct") came when Kennedy was denied leave to attend his wedding, even though that leave had been approved over a year earlier. He went AWOL. When he returned he was sent to a psychologist, who misdiagnosed him in a single appointment and suggested he be discharged. Kennedy was then sent to a psychiatrist, who gave him pills for two months but no treatment. Kennedy was then given a choice: join a new unit that was going back to Iraq -- or take a General discharge. He made the decision to get out and seek help. Eventually both Department of Veterans Affairs and civilian doctors diagnosed Kennedy with PTSD. Kennedy's application to have his General discharge elevated to Honorable was turned down -- twice -- contrary to the 2014 Hagel memo. To read the whole class-action document, go online to law.yale.edu/clinics/vlsc and search for Kennedy veteran lawsuit.

HIDDEN IN THE ABOVE FRAME is a famous old saying. You can find it by reading every other letter as you go around it counterclockwise. The trick is finding the right first letter.

Answer: Starting with the "O" in the bottom rail: "Out of the frying pan and into the fire."

A TONGUE TWISTER! "One day Esau Wood saw a saw saw wood as no other wood-saw Wood saw would saw wood. In fact, of all the wood-saws Wood ever saw saw wood, Wood never saw a wood-saw that would saw wood as the wood-saw Wood saw saw wood would saw wood and I never saw a wood-saw that would saw as the wood-saw Wood saw would saw until I saw Esau Wood saw wood with the wood-saw Wood saw saw wood." (How fast can you say that one out loud?)

FIND THE SEVEN WORDS PUZZLE! In the word square at the right, we've removed six of the letters to spell out the word "GREET'S." Can you replace these letters in the squares so that you have four 3-letter words across and three 4-letter words down? Time limit: 90 seconds.

Answers: 1. Airdromes, 2. Armories, 3. Marmes, 4. Sierra, 5. Raise, 6. Sarr, 7. Sir.

PYRAMID OF WORD POWER! You have three minutes to unlock the secrets of Word Power! Starting with the given word AIR-DROMES, at the bottom of our pyramid, try dropping one letter at a time as you work your way up, so that the remaining letters at each level spell out a new word. The following helpful hints are in ascending order, beginning with AIRDROMES.

1. Airports (given).
2. Military reserves headquarters.
3. What a minister does.
4. A rugged range of mountains.
5. A type of poker bet.
6. An Indian outer garment.
7. A form of polite address.
8. To exist; have life.
9. Symbol for iodine.

FAVORITE RECIPES

CHICKEN BACON RANCH CASSEROLE

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 slices bacon, diced
- 2 boneless, skinless chicken thighs*, cut into 1-inch chunks
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 tablespoon Ranch Seasoning and Salad Dressing Mix, or more, to taste
- 8 ounces rotini
- 1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1/2 cup shredded cheddar cheese
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley leaves

FOR THE ALFREDO SAUCE

- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 cup heavy cream, or more, to taste
- 1/4 cup freshly grated Parmesan
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

DIRECTIONS:

Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Lightly oil a 9x9 baking dish or coat with nonstick spray. To make the alfredo sauce, melt butter in a saucepan over medium heat. Add garlic, and cook, stirring frequently, until fragrant, about 1-2 minutes. Gradually whisk in heavy cream. Cook, whisking constantly, until incorporated, about 1-2 minutes. Stir in Parmesan until slightly thickened, about 1-2 minutes. If the mixture is too thick, add more heavy cream as needed; season with salt and pepper, to taste. Set aside. Heat a large skillet over medium high heat. Add bacon and cook until brown and crispy, about 6-8 minutes. Drain excess fat; reserving 1 tablespoon in the skillet. Transfer bacon to a paper towel-lined plate. In a gallon size Ziploc bag, add chicken, 1 tablespoon olive oil and Ranch Seasoning, shaking to coat thoroughly. Add chicken to the skillet and cook, flipping once, until cooked through, about 2-3 minutes on each side; set aside. In a large pot of boiling salted water, cook pasta according to package instructions; drain well. Add pasta to the prepared baking dish and layer with chicken and alfredo sauce; sprinkle with cheeses and bacon. Place into oven and bake until bubbly and heated through, about 15-20 minutes. Serve immediately, garnished with parsley, if desired.

* "Use a large hair clip to hold your dish towel on the oven door handle." -- M.W. in Iowa

* "An easy way to save money is when you write a check [or make a debit or check-card purchase], round it up to the nearest dollar in your checkbook register [or spreadsheet]. We saved over $300 in no time using this method. It works great for unexpected expenses like fixing a car or paying the copayment when you have to go to the emergency room." -- S.W. in Arkansas

* "Erase permanent markers from countertops: Rubbing alcohol will dissolve the marker back to a liquid state so you can wipe it off." -- B.D. in Virginia

* If you have a Swiffer sweeper or one like it, here's an idea for a reusable sweeping pad, from T.C. in Georgia: "Get a pair of those fuzzy socks at the dollar store, and just stretch one over the pad of your duster [Swiffer-style sweeper]. You can pop it right in the laundry when you're done. It doesn't pick up everything, but it makes a really good dust mop!"

* "Use a stick-on hook to keep bibs where you need them: right on the back of the high chair! You can add a second hook for a small washcloth, too. I snipped a little hole in a few and they hang more securely on mine. I used to have to get up for extras while we were feeding, but now I have backups on the chair at all times!" -- M.I. in Washington

* Got a lint roller? They are genius for quickly riding a screen (window or door) of cobwebs. Simply roll over the screen and watch the dirt and cobwebs disappear!

- #### 5 Tips to help you develop saving habits.
- Make a date with your money. Make sure that you are frequently taking a look at your spending and saving habits. Take a look at what you can do to budget your money a little better. There may be things that you can cut back on or eliminate from your spending to help you save.
 - Work more. This doesn't necessarily mean at your job but if you stay busy and stay active then you will spend less money.
 - Avoid the fads. Our society makes us want the latest trends. This costs money! Avoid the trap of having the latest iPhone, game system, designer handbag, or whatever temptation might be.
 - Goal oriented savings. Challenge yourself! Set a goal for your savings. Plan what you are saving for. It may help you to start with a small goal. After you accomplish that goal set a larger goal.
 - Automate your savings. If you don't see it, you don't miss it! Having a set amount automated to go into a savings account is a great way to save money. There are many avenues to get this set up. See your payroll department or your financial institution to get this arranged.
