Mother's Day Ideas
Give Her The Gift Of Less Stress

(NAPSA)—This Mother's Day or on just about any gift-giving occasion, you can have the question of "what to get" all sewn up—encourage her to make a hobby of sewing.

The pastime has several benefits. For some moms, it's a way to express themselves. For others, it relieves stress. Yet other mothers find it gives them one more thing (besides raising their children) to have a sense of accomplishment about.

To help, consider these great gift ideas for presents to please the crafty mother:

- Since seeing is believing, show Mom how easy, enjoyable and creative sewing can be by treating her to a beginner (or advanced) sewing class at a sewing shop.
- Try supplying her with tasteful fabrics that complement her home decor.
- Present a few patterns that reflect her clothing style.
- Consider new tools to make the process fun and easy, such as embroidery-editing software, a new serger for a quick professional finish or even a new lightweight computerized machine.

Many of today's machines have automatic needle threading, automatic thread cutting and automatic bobbin winding, to make getting set up and starting easy.

If your mom is into fashion, you may want to look into the "Project Runway" Limited Edition family of

The Struggle to Find Pet-Friendly Housing

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I'm having a very hard time finding a new apartment where the management will allow my two cats. And those that do allow pets have really high pet fees. I'm not sure what to do. Is there a law or something that would force landlords to allow pets? After all, there are laws to keep animals off the street, but it seems like apartment rules banning pets may cause more pets to be abandoned. — Christine B., Atlanta

DEAR CHRISTINE: I wish I could say there were laws like that — you make a very good case for them. But I doubt that there are any laws like that on the books in the U.S.

While some might say you just need to keep looking for an apartment that takes pets and has reasonable fees, the reality is that fewer apartments allow pets at all. A new study by the National Association of Realtors surveyed homebuyers, and found that 61 percent said "it is very difficult or difficult to find a rental property or a home-owner association that accommodates animals." At the same time, 95 percent of buyers who are pet owners said that it's important for housing communities to allow animals.

Pet owners paid about $150 a year in fees to communities — either association dues or rental applications — in 2016, the study said. But that didn't include fees like monthly dues for pets that some apartment communities charge.

For now, keep looking. Some new communities are adding pet-friendly features like dog parks, while others are revisiting their policies. Be prepared to pay a nonrefundable deposit for each pet, however, no matter how accommodating the apartment community is.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. Courtney Hope stars as "Sally" on "The Bold and the Beautiful."

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL

Zende surprised Nicole when he showed her his new sketches. Knowing that there was a good chance that she would be going to jail for a lengthy period of time, Sally sadly announced to her employees that Spectra Fashions was closing its doors. Thomas confided in Steffy that he wanted to help Sally get through her predicament. Bill learned from CJ that the Spectra property would be up for sale soon. Wyatt and Liam grilled their father about his plans to marry Brooke since the past few attempts didn't pan out. Meanwhile, Katie asked Brooke point blank whether she harbored any feelings for Ridge. Shirley and Saul accompanied Sally to court. Wait to See: A son reveals his father's incriminating secret.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Lani went behind JJ's back to meet with a drug dealer. Chad told Abigail that he wasn't giving up on her. Tripp suspected that Steve wasn't the one who killed Ava. Jennifer was thrilled when Eric asked her out on a date. JJ raced to save Lani from a life-threatening situation. Rafe brought Hope along to the Hernandez family lunch. Brady asked Eric for an important favor. Marlena got some unsettling news about John. Nicole tricked her captor and tried to escape with Holly. Tripp questioned Kayla about the day that Ava was killed. Brady urged Eric to go on a rescue mission to find Nicole. Claire's music career hit another dead end. Wait to See: Dario asks Abigail out to dinner.

Anna owned up to past mistakes. Ned made an important announcement. Lucy enlisted Dante's help. Sonny entertained an enemy. Carly had a momentary lapse in judgment. Nathan was met with disappointment. Sonny was caught off guard. Tracy's bond with Monica was stronger than ever. Amy took on the planning of the Nurses Ball. Michael delivered a warning. Griffin had some bad news. Brad planted the seeds of doubt. Ava put two and two together. Wait to See: Griffin takes Hayden by surprise.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Nick learned that Victor was donating money to the GC Memorial to have a medical center named after Nikki. Victoria lamented about keeping their family secret from Billy. Nikki told Victoria that she had a way to put Billy's questions to rest. Nick warned Chelsea to be wary of any gift from his father. Jack visited Nikki and asked her what was going on between her and Victor. Victoria decided to take the Brush & Sassy staff to dinner, which ruined Billy's dinner plans with Phyllis. Later, Phyllis crashes Ravi and Ashley's date at Top of the Tower. At the same restaurant, Lily found out Devon and Mariah were dating. Ashley covered her insecurities about dating a younger man. Wait to See: Sharon takes a chance with Scott.

Jason set aside his personal misgivings. Carly threw herself into her work. Sonny used alcohol to cope with his demons. Ava found herself at the right place at the right time.

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Tips On Saving Water In Style

(NAPSA)—Any time of year can be the right time to look for ways to conserve water. The good news is that water-saving strategies can benefit both the environment and your wallet. To help, here are some tips.

- A good place to start is turning off the water while you are brushing your teeth, shaving, washing your hands, doing dishes, or any other tasks where you usually let the water run.
- Use a bucket to catch the cold water that comes out of the faucet or shower while you are waiting for the hot water to heat up. You can put the water you captured to use watering your plants or pouring it into your toilet reservoir.
- Installing low-flow showerheads and faucets can be a low-tech, low-maintenance way to save water.
- Check your plumbing for leaks, especially leaking toilets and faucets. Fix anything you find leaking. A silent toilet leak could waste from 30 to 500 gallons every day.
- Install faucets designed to save water. For example, the German manufacturer Blanco is known for finely crafted sinks and faucets that offer what it calls "liveable style."

Said Tim Maicher, an executive with the company, "When we say liveable style, we are referencing style that leads trends while integrating into any kitchen design."

I think the real heroic teachers are the ones who work with kids, like my mom and my sister do.
 - David Duchovny

Warm Weather Tips

Staying Cool At Home While Saving On Energy Costs

(NAPSA)—Before summer kicks into high gear, consider converting your home into an eco-friendly and energy-saving one. An excellent place to start is with your window coverings. Cooling your house with cellular shades, solar screens or window film provides a multitude of benefits that can not only save you money, but create a more enjoyable home environment as well.

Studies have shown that the largest portion of a home's energy bill comes from the heating and cooling of its interior. While many families are not in a position to make costly energy-efficient updates to their air-conditioning systems, installing window treatments that help regulate internal temperatures is the next best thing.

Step up to a more comfortable home with special window treatments.

Cellular Shades

Few window coverings can provide better insulation than cellular shades. Because of their double-cell design, they help keep air from entering and/or escaping. As a result, your home will be cooler in the summer and warmer in the winter. This can lead to energy bill savings of up to 30 percent. Cellular shades come in various transparencies to help you create the ideal privacy and lighting levels.

Window Film

Many homeowners have beautiful views that they would like to preserve. This makes it difficult to find the right window treatment. Window film is an excellent solution. Window film blocks over 80 percent of the sun's UV rays while providing an unobstructed view of the outside. It also reduces solar heat gain while protecting your interiors from the sun.

Solar Screens

Solar screens are a summertime necessity. They effectively block the sun's rays while allowing cool breezes through on hot days. If used throughout the home, solar screens can lower interior temperatures by as much as 10 degrees, reducing dependency on air-conditioning systems. Retractable screens are also available, which allow you to open your view at any time. This makes them ideal for porches and patios.

Summertime is the perfect season to enjoy get-togethers with friends and family, and choosing the right window coverings can help you celebrate in comfort and style while reducing your energy costs. Budget Blinds has a wide selection of energy-efficient window coverings available to help keep your home cool in the summer. The company provides free in-home consultations and complete measuring and installation services. For more information, visit www.budgetblinds.com.

Hints For The Home

Re-siding 101: What To Consider, Start To Finish

(NAPSA)—Deciding to re-side your home isn't a small undertaking but it doesn't have to be intimidating. You need a keen eye, some research and a game plan. Here are hints that can help:

Evaluating Your Home
 Start by inspecting your current siding both from the curb and up close. Look for:

- Sagging
- Cracking
- Blistering
- Buckling or dents
- Fading
- Missing pieces
- Insect damage or infestation
- Rot
- Water stains

If you find two or more of those things, it's time to re-side.

Determining The Material
 There are several materials you can consider: fiber cement, masonry, vinyl, wood-based and cedar.

To find which makes the most sense for your home, see what others in the neighborhood have and browse house magazines. Also, consider your climate and consult your insurance agent; some companies offer discounts on durable, noncombustible fiber cement siding and masonry.

Next, consider how siding materials can enhance curb appeal. Remember, vinyl needs regular cleaning and washing, and wood needs to be repainted every few years. Fiber cement siding needs little maintenance and can save a lot in repairs later. What's more, fiber cement siding from James Hardie is uniquely formulated for wet, freezing conditions and hot, humid conditions so you can match your siding to the weather where you live. Durability and sustainability are also important; the U.S. Green Building Council recognizes fiber cement siding in both areas.

Finding A Contractor
 The next step is finding and hiring a contractor to do a quality installation on time and on budget. These five tips will help:

1. Ask neighbors, friends and co-workers for referrals.
2. Find contractors who specialize in siding, preferably with a certification.
3. Contact and meet with at least three contractors to get written estimates. Make sure each is licensed and insured, and a member of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI).
4. Do background checks with the Better Business Bureau or Consumer Affairs Office.
5. Prepare a complete project description with your expectations and make sure each proposal includes everything you requested and the price is based on the complete project.

Bowl, Plate, Paperweight

Q. I have a bowl that has been in my family for almost a century. My grandmother referred to the piece as an example of fused glass. What is fused glass? The piece I have is multi-colored and truly unique. — Susan, Broomfield, Colorado

Liverpool, Ohio. Your plate has two stamps because it was made by one company for the other. This was not uncommon. Some British ceramics have two and three marks that can indicate maker, distributor and even retailer.

A. According to "Glass A to Z" by David J. Shotwell, fused glass is made by placing glass of different colors side by side or in layers and then heating until the individual pieces fuse together in a single mass. Unlike stained glass, fused glass has no leading and there are no limitations on the surface or thickness of the pieces. Most pieces I have seen have a matte, gloss or faceted finish for effect.

Q. While prowling through a thrift shop in San Antonio, I found a paperweight in the shape of a horseshoe with a picture of the Cascade Gardens, obviously a souvenir from the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis. I paid $25 for it. — Kathy, Gulfport, Mississippi

A. The Cascades was an elaborate fountain display that was one of the main attractions at the 1904 Fair. Scott Joplin took one look at it and was inspired to write one of his best rags, "Cascades."

Q. I have a plate depicting the Lord's Supper. It has two stamps on the back, one from the "Pearl China Company" and the other "Taylor Smith Taylor." I have no interest in its value, but am curious why two marks from two different companies are on this plate? — Carol, Willmar, Minnesota

Your paperweight is valued in the $100 to $200 range by the late Robert L. Hendershott in his essential guide "1904 St. Louis World's Fair: Mementos and Memorabilia," privately printed and almost impossible to find.

A. The Taylor, Smith and Taylor Company operated in Chester, West Virginia, from 1899 to about 1981. During its last decade, the firm was owned by Anchor Hocking and Company. The Pearl China Company began operations in 1931 in East

Hints For The Home

Tips On Sprucing Up Your Home

(NAPSA)—While new throw pillows, a fresh coat of paint or a decorative lamp can do wonders to refresh a room, when you get down to it, one of the best ways to make a room sparkle is to refinish your hardwood floors.

In the past, refinishing hardwood floors was often considered a time-consuming, dusty and smelly undertaking. Today's technology and products, however, can make it quick and easy—in some cases, you can be back in your home the same day.

These five tips can help.

1) Don't let your floors get overly worn, scratched or damaged before you take action. Refinishing when your floors only have some wear and tear can mean an easy, one-day recoat. If you wait too long, you may have to replace some of the floorboards.

2) Go with a contractor that uses a dust-free system. Dust containment systems make refinishing hardwood floors clean and safe by reducing airborne dust by 99.8 percent. Old wood floor refinishing methods can produce wood dust particle counts 200 times over the OSHA limit.

3) Go with a pro. Know the company that's coming in to refinish your floors. It should be experienced and insured. For example, Bona has a Certified Craftsman Program that is comprised of a trusted network of hardwood flooring experts that deliver outstanding results in both craftsmanship and customer service. They all must adhere to a Five Star Advantage program, which means they are insured, trusted, knowledgeable and mindful to utilize products that are safe for your home and the environment.

4) Keep it green. It's a common misconception that environmentally friendly, water-based finishes aren't as durable as oil-modified finishes. An industry test found that waterborne finishes withstand wear and tear better than most oil-modified finishes. Additionally, acid-cure finishes emit extremely high levels of VOCs and harmful fumes, which means people, pets and plants have to vacate the house for two to three days. With a GREENGUARD certified, waterborne finish such as Bona's Traffic HD, you can often walk on the floor the same day.

For a new home at the old address, start at the bottom—refinish your floors.

5) Consider a change. Refinishing can be a good time to change the color and sheen of your floors. Consult a craftsman for advice or download the Bona Floor Design Guide app. Once you've refinished your hardwood floors, you can keep them beautiful by using a cleaning solution specifically formulated for hardwood floors. Avoid overly acidic cleaners (such as vinegar and water) that can eat away at your new finish. Instead, look for pH-neutral cleaners that won't leave a residue behind to bring out the best in your hardwood floors.

For more information or to locate a hardwood floor craftsman, go to www.mybonahome.com.

Be Car Care Aware

Simple Steps To Save Gas Without Driving Less

(NAPSA)—Just because gas prices go up, that doesn't mean your driving has to go down. You can't control the price of gas but you can control how much you use with some simple and inexpensive vehicle maintenance.

Save Gas And Cash
 Consider these simple steps to save gas without driving less:

- Keep your car properly tuned to improve gas mileage by an average of 4 percent.
 - Keep tires properly inflated and improve gas mileage by 3 percent.
 - Replace dirty or clogged air filters on older vehicles to improve gas mileage by as much as 10 percent.
 - Change oil regularly and gain another mile per gallon.
 - Check the gas cap. Damaged, loose or missing gas caps let the gas just vaporize into the air.
 - Observe the speed limit. Gas mileage decreases rapidly above 60 mph.
 - Avoid excessive idling. Idling gets zero miles per gallon. Warming up the vehicle for one or two minutes is sufficient.
 - Avoid quick starts and stops. Aggressive driving can lower gas mileage by 33 percent on the highway and 5 percent in the city.
 - Consolidate trips. Several short trips taken from a cold start can use twice as much gas as one longer multipurpose trip.
 - Don't haul unneeded items in the trunk. An extra 100 pounds in the trunk reduces fuel economy by up to 2 percent.
- "Some motorists think they are

Fuel economy is directly related to vehicle care and driving behavior.

saving money when they put off needed vehicle maintenance," said Rich White, executive director, Car Care Council. "What they don't realize is that neglecting routine maintenance can end up costing a lot more. Keeping your car running efficiently and modifying your driving behavior is the best way to improve your vehicle's fuel economy and keep more money in your pocket. Fuel consumption is directly related to vehicle care and driver behavior and both can have a significant impact on how much motorists pay at the pump."

The Car Care Council is the source of information for the "Be Car Care Aware" consumer education campaign promoting the benefits of regular vehicle care, maintenance and repair to consumers.

PICKS OF THE WEEK

xXx: Return of Xander Cage (PG-13) — The original "xXx," a 2002 Vin Diesel gruntfest, put him in the role of an extreme-sports enthusiast recruited into the world of extreme international espionage (which is like regular espionage, but with more skateboards, rock concerts and tattoos). In the sequel, Xander (Diesel) is pulled back into the action to hunt down a super-weapon. He puts together his extreme team (including Donnie Yen and Deepika Padukone) and gets to work pulling stunts and winking at the camera.

Diesel is like an internet tall-tale version of himself. Xander's extreme team-building exercise is playing catch with hand grenades. He doesn't just hook-up with singular supermodels, but tangles with a volleyball team's worth at a time. He can surf a tidal wave on his dirt bike. Be ready for the extreme, and you just might survive to the super-fight at the end.

The Space Between Us (PG-13) — Gardner (Asa Butterfield) is the first human born on Mars, to a surprised astronaut mother who died during childbirth. As the only teen on Mars, Gardner has a hankering for Earth so he can meet with Tulsa (Britt Robertson), the girl he's been chatting with online. Besides the long-distance romance, he's also looking for his unidentified father and dealing with the threat that Earth's gravity could be fatal for his Mars-conditioned organs before he's done coming-of-age.

The movie plays it fast and loose with the science, and takes a lazier approach to issues of drama — some lines about love and courage might as well be delivered by Precious Moments figurines. Butterfield is a bright spot, as he nails the look and movements of that gangly awkward kid who just cannot be from this planet (and that's not a dig at the lanky young actor).

Between Us (R) — No space or young-adult tropes in this one. Just sad, young urban creative types experiencing turbulence in the journey of their traditionally non-traditional relationship. Henry and Dianne (Ben Feldman and Olivia Thirlby) are in the market for a new apartment; Henry wants to stay in downtown LA and keep his hipster cred, along with all the hopes and possibilities of his youth. Dianne is underdeveloped but ready to move on. In one night, they both stray from the course as they weigh whether to go on and why they should. It draws comparisons to a lot of other indie relationship dramas without doing much to rise above or strike its own note.

Asa Butterfield in "The Space Between Us"

Resident Evil: The Final Chapter (R) — I invite anyone to take the Resident Evil Challenge — which was just made up by this reviewer. Watch any Resident Evil movie after the first, and then play (or watch a friend play) any Resident Evil game before the fifth installment. You'll get more thrills and scares from the pixelated polygons than watching Milla Jovovich kick-box. In this sixth (really?) film adaptation, Alice (Jovovich) is still trying to save humanity from an all-powerful, zombie-spreading, evil corporation — except they wiped out most of humanity by the third movie. (It wasn't a good business plan.) About 90 minutes of blurry, forgettable violence stands between Alice and ending a 15-year franchise that elevated video games to the detriment of movies.

Q. It seems like I've been waiting forever for a new season of "House of Cards." Can you tell me when it will be back? — Vivian C., via email

Jeffrey Donovan in "Shut Eye"

A. You don't have much longer to wait. The political drama/thriller will return to Netflix for its fifth season on Tuesday, May 30. The 13 new episodes will focus on Frank (Kevin Spacey) and Claire's (Robin Wright) campaign for president and vice president, respectively, after winning the party's nomination at the end of last season.

Returning this season are Michael Kelly, Jayne Atkinson, Neve Campbell, Derek Cecil, Paul Sparks, Joel Kinnaman and Dominique McElligott, with Patricia Clarkson and Campbell Scott joining in on the political intrigue. Season five also will deal with Frank and Claire's decision to take the country to war with the Islamic Caliphate Organization (ICO) in order to boost approval ratings. Mahershala Ali, who played Remy Danton, will not be returning.

In other Netflix original-programming news, "Unbreakable Kimmy Schmidt" returns May 19. Its third season has Kimmy (Ellie Kemper) trying to divorce Richard Wayne Gary Wayne (Jon Hamm), whom she married while she was in his cult in the underground bunker. Since last season Kimmy got her GED, she decides her next step is to go to college. Lillian (Carol Kane) deals with a breakup, and Titus (Tituss Burgess) goes all "Lemonade" on his boyfriend, whom he suspects of cheating. Also returning are Jane Krakowski, Josh Charles and Dylan Gelula.

Q. I just binge-watched the entire first season of "Shut Eye" on Hulu, and I am definitely hooked. Do you know if it has been renewed for another season? — Karl T., via email

A. The Hulu original drama starring Jeffrey Donovan, KaDee Strickland, Susan Misner, Emmanuelle Chriqui, David Zayas, Angus Sampson and Isabella Rossellini was given the green light for a second season. The show centers on Charlie Haverford (expertly played by Donovan), a Las Vegas magician who comes to LA to try his hand in the world of psychics and fortunetellers. He encounters a lot of physical and metaphorical bumps and bruises along the way as he tries to navigate his mafia-like Roma bosses in his quest for "the big score." Look for season two to be 10 episodes as well.

STEAK FRY: Club Frontenac, 1143 Main Street, West Warwick. Thursday, May 11, 5-8PM. Menu includes steak, potato, vegetable, salad, mushrooms, onions. $14/person. 821-9846.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You Ewes and Rams will find your ideas cheered by a mostly receptive flock. Those few dissenters could well be turned around by your charm and powers of persuasion.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It's time for the bold and beautiful Bovine to shake off the dust of the past and shape up with new ideas for the future. This could surprise some folks, but they'll soon adjust.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Those nagging new doubts about an upcoming decision should alert you to step back (at least temporarily) so you can reassess its potential impact from a new perspective.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That unpleasant situation you hoped would go away by itself needs immediate attention before it affects an upcoming decision. Expect your supporters to rally around your cause.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're moving up and away from that recent setback. But remain cautious about finances. An exercise in thrift today helps cushion a possible end-of-the-month money squeeze.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You're still dealing with overtones of pessimism that cause you to doubt your ability to make some needed changes. But the negative pressures will ease up by week's end.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) There could be some fallout from the way you handled a recent family problem. But those who know that you were in the right won't hesitate to step in on your behalf.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Financial strains ease by week's end. Meanwhile, focus on cultivating that new relationship if you hope to have it blossom into something more meaningful.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Health matters once again dominate the week. Be careful not to ignore recurrences of an old problem. An almost-forgotten commitment resurfaces.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The emergence of an unusual selfish streak could dismay those close to you. Defy it — don't justify it — so you can become your gracious self again.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Reassess your decision to stay with the status quo. It might seem like the sensible thing to do right now, but changes around you could make that choice a risky one.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Move decisively but cautiously when dealing with a delicate personal matter. The fewer mistakes you make now, the less likely it is that the problem will recur later on.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can find beauty where many cannot. And you enjoy sharing your discovery with others.
