Cowboy Mouth Coming to Preservation Plaza August 15

On August 15, Cowboy Mouth will be putting on a concert on Preservation Plaza, sponsored by Smiths RV and Okoboji Tourism. You won't want to miss this fun group!

For over two decades, Cowboy Mouth has dished up its unique style of rock & roll gumbo, mixing a rowdy spirit reflective of the band's hometown -- New Orleans -- with the fierce firepower of a group that lives on the road. These Louisiana natives have played more than 2,500 concerts and launched their signature song, "Jenny Says," into the upper half of the Billboard rock charts. Above all else, they earned a well-deserved rep as a raucous, redemptive, live music experience.

Formed during the glory days of grunge music, Cowboy Mouth forged a different sound from the very start. It's a sound rooted in rock, punk, blues, and the attitude of the Big Easy, a town known for its week-long parties and swampy, southern vibe.

Thank you to Smith's RV and Okoboji Tourism for bringing Cowboy Mouth to Preservation Plaza on August 15th to continue celebrating 125 years at Arnolds Park Amusement Park.

All the 2015 Live at the Lake concerts are free to the public. Don't forget your lawn chair or blanket! This will be a fun time!

The next concert, Friday August 21, will be The Rolling Stoners sponsored by Marilyn Vos and Hoen Realty, followed by The Jacob Martin Band on Saturday August 22nd, sponsored by Okoboji Motor Company.

For a full list of the 2015 Live At The Lake concert schedule, go to ArnoldsPark.com.

Perry Aalgaard Ordained and Installed as Pastor at First Lutheran

First Lutheran Church of West Okoboji celebrated the Ordination and Installation of Pastor Perry Aalgaard on Saturday, August 1st. Perry has been serving as a lay pastor at First Lutheran since October of 2012, but has recently finished his seminary studies at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, MN. Pastor Aalgaard has accepted the call to serve as Associate Pastor at First Lutheran, working in partnership with Pastor Bob Vaage in the ministry of Word and Sacrament.

Perry grew up in North Central Iowa, and graduated High School from Buffalo Center-Rake (North Iowa) school district. His home church was Trinity Lutheran in Rural Kiester, MN. Perry also served as the lay minister at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Buffalo Center, Iowa for nearly nine years before coming to First Lutheran.

Pastor Perry has been an important and integral component of First Lutheran already, and the entire congregation is thrilled to have him installed here. Saturday ended up being a great day for celebration as the Ordination and Installation ceremony took place at the 5:30 p.m. service, and was followed by a reception in the Prayer Garden. The service also included special guest Bishop Roger Prois of the Western Iowa Synod (ELCA) as well as several other pastors and lay ministers. The entire First Lutheran family extends a hearty word of congratulations to Perry and his wife Ann as they embark on a new chapter of ministry in the Iowa Great Lakes region.

APAP Time Capsule - Call for Memorabilia

In celebration of 125 years at Arnolds Park Amusement Park, there will be a time capsule dedication on September 5, 2015, at 10:30am. This time capsule will be buried on the State Pier at Arnolds Park Amusement Park to preserve memorabilia from the last 125 years of Arnolds Park Amusement Park and our community. It will be opened in 25 years in 2040.

"We have started collecting items and would like to include items that community members would like to see in 25 years. If you have any items that represent the past or present day Iowa Great Lakes Community and its history, and would like for it to be included in our time capsule, please bring the items to Guest Relations at Arnolds Park Amusement Park by August 22nd," said Di Lorenzen, Marketing and Communication Manager.

What would you like the community to see from this area in 25 years? Ideas of items include Park memorabilia, new or old photos, your business's menu prices, newspapers, magazines, brochures, or school memorabilia.

"Thank you to the Iowa Great Lakes Community for being involved in the 125 years of Arnolds Park Amusement Park and for continuing to preserve the Park for future generations during the next 125 years. We hope you can join this dedication on September 5th at 10:30am," said Lorenzen.

Okoboji Summer Theatre Finale Fiddler on the Roof

The Okoboji Summer Theatre will close their 58th season August 11-16, with one of the most popular musicals of all times, Fiddler on the Roof. The only available seats remaining are on Wednesday through Friday at 8:00pm. Call the box office to be placed on a waiting list for unclaimed seats for the sold-out shows on Tuesday 8pm, Saturday 4:30pm and 8pm, and Sunday 6pm. Tickets ($20) may be purchased at the OST box office at 2001 Highway 71 North, Okoboji, 712-332-7773, or boxoffice@okobojisummertheatre.org. This week's show is sponsored by Signe Kim Lauridsen-Jones.

The original Broadway production of the show, which opened in 1964, had the first musical theatre run in history to surpass 3,000 performances. Fiddler on the Roof has won nine Tony Awards and was last seen on the OST stage in 2001. Fiddler takes place in a Russian village at the turn of the 20th century surrounding a father trying to raise his five daughters in a proper manner, despite their carefree spirits.

Two talented women will return to OST as directors of Fiddler: Allison Bibicoff and Nancy Epoch. Bibicoff directed Spelling Bee last season, and returns to Okoboji with recent assistant choreographer/associate producer experience from the east coast of Broadway to the west coast of L.A. and film. Guest musical director, Nancy Epoch, returns to OST where she has been the musical director for many shows since 1992, with her last two shows being Little Women and Chicago.

Special Ticket Discounts: Two students, 13 and above (including college students), are admitted for the regular price of one on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Two senior citizens, age 60 or older, are admitted for the regular price of one on Saturday matinees (4:30 pm) and Sunday evenings (6 pm). All ages may purchase two-for-one tickets for Saturday evening (8 pm) performances.

About Okoboji Summer Theatre: The Okoboji Summer Theatre is owned and operated by Stephens College (Columbia, Missouri). Founded in 1833, Stephens College is the second-oldest women's college in the country, with co-educational graduate and adult undergraduate programs and a Professional Conservatory Training Program. Students spend their final summer at OST gaining valuable professional experience. Over the past 58 years, OST has presented more than 550 plays to an audience of 1.5 million. A thousand young actors, 500+ professional faculty and 2,000+ guest artists have dedicated every waking moment to pulling off each production, accounting for nearly 40,000 exhausting hours of rehearsals. Today it is recognized as one of the longest running summer stock theatre programs in the country. Like on Facebook and follow on Twitter at @ExperienceOST.

Fruits and Melons

So far the apples have started but, very slowly. I have only tasted them in a pie. There were also some plums at the market last Saturday, but just a tad too tart. They needed some time. This time of year is melon season when watermelons and cantaloupes stand tall. There are exotic melons for sale and it was my experience that when ripe, they are sweet and delicious. The problem is how to tell. I bought two and they looked exactly the same. One was great the other not so great. Raspberries are also available but, they sell out quickly. It is my belief that the heat of August makes the fruits sweeter.

Mark your calendars, August 22 is Salsa Day.

Our vendors can walk the walk with a salsa contest made from their very own products. Last year there was a salsa made from watermelons that was tasty and the winning salsa used a squash. Here is the deal: every customer gets a bowl of chips and a poker chip. Many vendors will have their special salsa on hand to sample and if you like their salsa the best just drop the chip into the bucket with the vendor's name on it. I am expecting great things from our newest vendors because of the competence that they show in growing. Still, the young ones may need a few years of experience to get some schooling on our more mature vendors who serve up a competent concoction of fresh vegetables and keep it to themselves. I will be participating but not competing because I will be running the election. I look forward to seeing you. A good time should be had by all.

New vendors and edible art.

Welcome to TJ's Henhouse, from Jackson, selling eggs from a small flock (only 225 layers). They actually date the dozens and I want to report that, as suspected, they are delicious. Cindy's Creative Cookies is artwork. She ices cookies for sale on Saturday that make me feel guilty to eat. You will know her booth when you see the artwork. Until next week, Eat Well!

June Goldman Knows The Rewards Of Volunteering

"Volunteering is both heart warming and rewarding," says June Parker Goldman, one of the lakes area outstanding contributors to a number of worthy causes. She says that it's one of the most satisfying things that a person can do, "and the more you do, the more exciting it becomes."

June Parker Goldman (now Mrs. Karl E. Kilsholm, Spirit Lake ) chose to highlight just four of her many volunteer activities at the Ladies of Lake Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Chapter meeting on August 11 at the Senior Center, Zenith Ave., Spirit Lake.

A favorite that came to fruition through her dedication is the Dickinson County Humane Society. It began years back when she was keeping stray dogs in her garage. Her friends, Dr. R.C. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, were in ill health and could not keep pets, so they asked her to "bring over a gentle dog for visits," which June did regularly.

In the late '80s, June met with the late Gerry Erickson of West Okoboji and Glenda Frank of Lake Park to establish a Humane Society and a shelter which they saw were badly needed in the lakes area. While they were seeking finances, Dr. and Mrs. Johnson passed away. Almost a year later, their attorney called. The Johnson's had left $34,000 to facilitate the land purchase at 28th Street north of Milford and initiate the building. Two years ago, a donation by Anne Thorne Weaver enabled the addition of a new section designed for the cats. It includes a playground which is especially enjoyed by the kittens.

Even June's paying positions in the community led to to extended "overtime" as a volunteer. People still recall her many contributions while serving on the Dickinson County Board of Supervisors (1990-2002). While Director of the Meal Program for the Department of Aging, she saw the need for a "Dinner Date" program. After hours, she traveled on her own to nine northwest counties to meet with potential community sponsors. Today, seniors in those nine counties have at least one site where they can enjoy healthful meals and sociability. There are three in the lakes area: Spirit Lake, Milford and Lake Park.

More recently, Gov. Terry Branstad appointed June Goldman to the Work Force Development Board. Its purpose is to provide job opportunities, and training if needed, for people of all ages who want to work but don't get hired.

"It's such a joy to see people who felt hopeless about their futures get a new lease on life," declares

Overcoming Fears Discussed At Lifetree Café

this indefatigable lady of 90 years.

The fourth area in which June stays heavily involved is the work of the United Methodist Church. She is an active member of the church in Spirit Lake and serves on several boards and agencies of the National Methodist Church.

In September, 2002, June married Karl E. Kilsholm, who was elected a State Representative in 1967. Readers may know him as the author of "Karl E. Kilsholm: A Born American Immigrant," who sometimes gives talks about his book and life's experiences. For many years the Goldmans and the Kilsholms were couple friends. Following the passing of their respective spouses, June and Karl continued the friendship.

At June's 90th birthday party given by the DAR (in which June actively participates), Karl gave a warm tribute to "a lovely and accomplished lady." He said "I didn't like being alone. I finally asked June to marry me. She said that she would think about it. I took that as a "yes." But, he adds, "I told her that you had better keep your own name, because every where we go, you are recognized as June Goldman and people stop and thank you for one thing or another that you have done." When longtime friend Susie Jones (Doornink) of Wahpeton gave June a 90th birthday reception at Keelson Harbor, where the Kilsholms now reside, over 300 people came to express appreciation and congratulations.

Reinforcing Mrs. Goldman's enthusiasm Paula Zenor, Arnolds Park, Coordinator of the Dickinson County RSVP Program and Mary Steele, Northwest RSVP Coordinator, described the opportunities offered by the organization which connects local agencies with needed volunteers. Mrs. Zenor has been a DAR member since 1986.

For information on the DAR, and its many volunteer opportunities in the fields of patriotism, health, education and conservation, contact Colleen Lemkuil, stancoleen37@gmail.com, 525-229-4619.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:
 Our community was privileged to enjoy an amazing patriotic concert presented by Keith Brion and his New Sousa Band at the Sami Center Monday August 3.

Each musician was a top notch performer, chosen through a nationwide "invitation only". Together they presented an outstanding program. Fortunately a large crowd enjoyed the performance, which was offered free through the generous sponsorship of Nixon and Virginia Lauridsen. The audience was delighted with the program selections, the uniforms which are exact replicas of the 1920's Sousa Band uniforms, and the flag presentation by our local veterans. Thank you to all who planned this wonderful event.

NSB well received

Claude Hone, who was one of the first residents at The Harbor on West Lake Okoboji, is a World War II Marine Corps fighter pilot who saw action in Guam, Saipan, Iwo Jima and Okinawa. He has seen much in his 95.5 years here and abroad. But last Monday night the nonagenarian was proud to brag about being hoarse from participating in the New Sousa Band's sing-along segment at the SAMI Center.

Hone said the concert "stirred his soul and brought back many memories." (Later in the week Hone was called on stage at the Iowa Rock 'n' Roll Music Association's Elvis Night when he was caught dancing to Hound Dog with his daughter Nancy!)
 The Des Moines Civic Music Association's Calla Whipp wasn't hoarse, but did note both before and after the band's performance that even though she works in the Des Moines metro, she had "venue envy," seeing the SAMI Center, then hearing the show...
 Many patrons drove a distance. A couple from Fairmont was among the first to arrive about an hour early (with a picnic lunch) to make sure they got a good seat. Another couple from Spencer wasn't far behind. The auditorium was filling up surprisingly fast a half-hour ahead of the 7:00 curtain.

The New Sousa Band's performance left no one disappointed. While the SAMI Center is an integral part of the Spirit Lake High School, this is the kind of performance for which the 1,000-seat auditorium was designed. The acoustics were the perfect match for the band. And more than just music, Keith Brion and his aggregation put on a show that was well-received. The New Sousa Band will be long remembered on campus.

All involved deserve a round of applause...
Side notes: There were several interesting circumstances that added to the fun. Among them, first flute Katherine Borst Jones was conductor Keith Brion's student when she was in high school in Caldwell, New Jersey, in the mid-1960s. And second flute Teresa Beaman was part of Brion's band at Yale, when he was on faculty there!
 Spirit Lake Middle School band director Rich Nicklay also found connections to his alma mater, Luther College in Decorah.

One big surprise for us is that vocalist Virginia Croskery, who is an instructor at Simpson College in Indianola (and instantly recalled several of the Okoboji High School students she has worked with), has a home here — but had not been inside the SAMI Center until last week. We hope she might return to the SAMI stage and as a member of the audience...

While there'll be no show to compare with the New Sousa Band this week, there is still a lot going on as summer fun ebbs on campus...
Tonight (Tuesday) will see the final (!) performance of the summer season by the Jazzed Up Big Band of Okoboji, at 7:00, in the Majestic Pavilion at Arnolds Park, where Wednesday night's free movie night (Back to the Future) will also end their season...
Thursday night's Iowa Rock 'n' Roll Music Association Rock the Roof concert, featuring Kevin King and Richie Lee in the Roof Garden, will also be the last of the year...
The final Thursday night Farmers' Market in Spencer is the last of the season as well, and see Open Mic Night followed by the Spencer Municipal Band on the grounds of the Clay County Courthouse, from 6 - 8:00...
The Okoboji Summer Theatre is staging its final musical and show of the year this week. Fiddler on the Roof runs through Sunday, with tickets available only for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday night. It appears that Wednesday night will be the next night to sell out. Being already sold-out for three performances is a good thing for the OST!
Glenn Henriksen is continuing his Tuesday and Wednesday night performances at his place across from the former Presbyterian church on Highway 71, in Spirit Lake...
Wednesday night will also see the Mary Carrick Collective performing in the Lauridsen Theatre at the Pearson Lakes Art Center, for one 7:30 show. And, The Senders will also be performing from 7 - 9:00, Wednesday night, at Table 316 in Arnolds Park...
Estherville's Music on the Square will feature the inspirational sounds of the *Hymns and Hers, Thursday night, from 5 - 7:00, in Library Square; while The South 71 Trio will be heard at the Little Swan Lake Winery, from 6 - 8:00...
Boji Bay Fun House and Pavilion will present the Midwest Rock & Soul Revue, Friday night — outside or in; while The Itty Bitty Boji Band will perform in The Lounge at The Inn, from 6 - 8:00...
Cowboy Mouth returns to Preservation Plaza, at Arnolds Park, Saturday night; while Bill Carpenter will be playing aboard the Diamond Lady's Sunset Cruise...
And Coolmhor returns to the stage in the barn at the Little Swan Lake Winery, Sunday, from 4 - 6:00...
The Dick Bauman Big Band rounds out the week with its Monday night show in Pomerantz Hall at the Pearson Lakes Art Center, from 7 - 9:00. The DBBB season will continue through Labor Day...

You are invited to join the Old Professor for Ballads, Blues and Big Bands, too, at Class 105, The LIVE Broadcast from the College of Musical Knowledge at the University of Okoboji.
 Class 105... airs Sunday mornings from eight 'til noon, on 105.7, KRAQ-FM.
 All the news that fits, we print. Please send your music-related announcements or comments to: class105@connect.com or P. O. Box 676, Okoboji, Iowa 51355-0676

Bank Midwest Donates $5,000 To H-LP Community Wellness Center

Bank Midwest has committed $5,000 to support the purchase of equipment for the Community Wellness Center, a new addition to the Harris-Lake Park Community School. The first $2,500 installment has been donated and will be followed by another $2,500 donation in Spring 2016.

"Bank Midwest is proud to help fund equipment for this new community facility," said Jamie Engel, Bank Midwest Insurance Agent. "Providing a comfortable, modern fitness center to students and families will make a healthy, positive impact on the immediate and surrounding communities."

The Community Wellness Center will open its doors in July and offer affordable memberships for individuals and families featuring key cards for 24x7 access and a "Fitness on Demand" screen for classes that don't require an instructor.

Bank Midwest has been providing communities in northern Iowa and southern Minnesota with full-service financial solutions for almost a century. Bank Midwest is currently $700 million in assets with locations in Fairmont, Jackson, New Ulm, Sherburn, Windom, and Westbrook, MN, and Okoboji, Armstrong, Wall Lake, and Spirit Lake, IA and Sioux Falls, SD.

Bank Midwest is an employee-owned organization and home of the "Great Experience, One Place." It has assets of $700 million, and is a full-service bank offering loans and traditional FDIC-insured accounts, as well as insurance, investment and trust services. (Investment and insurance services are not deposits, not FDIC insured, not guaranteed by the bank and may go down in value.)

Cyclones Add Key Recruit

Iowa State has a very strong roster coming back for the 2015-16 season that just became deeper when former SMU recruit Simeon Carter announced that he will join the Cyclones this year. Carter originally had committed to the Mustangs and is an NCAA qualifier but SMU was having a hard time getting him into school and Carter re-opened his recruitment. It sounds like SMU coach Larry Brown helped out the Cyclones, pushing Carter to ISU knowing that their style of play would fit Carter's game and that Carter would fit in well with the talented Cyclones.

Carter is a 6'8" forward from West Charlotte who averaged 14.5 points, 9.7 rebounds and 4.0 blocks per game. He will add much needed depth to a team that many believe will make a run at the 2016 Final Four. I feel like this could be the last piece of the puzzle for new coach Steve Prohm and the Cyclones, as they had a loaded roster before, but didn't have much depth, especially in the front court. Now with Jameel McKay, Georges Niang, Abdel Nader and Carter you have four guys who can battle down low while Monte Morris, Naz Mitrou-Long, Matt Thomas, Hallice Cooke and Deonte Burton do damage on the perimeter. This is also a great sign for ISU fans that Prohm can recruit big-time talent, as Carter was also recruited by Texas, Illinois and Oregon as well as other high-major programs. I know that football season is just around the corner, but adding Carter to the roster gets this Cyclone fan dreaming of what will be possible this season. I'm hoping ISU football won't have us talking basketball all fall, but that's an article for a different day. Go Cyclones!

The YMCA Provided The Motivation Carol Needed

Last year, Carol Armstrong had a knee replacement surgery, but found that the surgery didn't fix her problem. After further diagnosis, it was found that she had to go back and have the surgery corrected. Unfortunately, before that happened, she took a nasty fall down the stairs in her home.

A stringent physical therapy regimen was now on the docket for Carol. That's when she found her inner strength at the Bedell Family YMCA. Carol credits the strides she's made in recent months to YMCA programs, exercise, physical therapy and diet.

"The OPTIFAST® Program at the Bedell Family YMCA helped get me motivated and up and moving again," said Carol. "Exercise and physical therapy were keys to my recovery."

The OPTIFAST® Program is a partnership between the Bedell Family YMCA and Lakes Regional Health Care. The program provides participants like Carol access to dietitians, trainers and combines comprehensive lifestyle education and physical activity in a supportive setting. Participants also take a FitnessAge Test, a test to see how your physical age relates to the age of your body.

Most days of the week, you'll find Carol making a trip to the Bedell Family YMCA. She usually swims seven days a week and participates in water aerobics classes and occasionally an exercise class. She has the goal of swimming in the Senior Games next year, a goal she is still working towards.

"I enter the pool at the Y through the zero depth area, but for the Senior Games, I'll have to be able to jump in and use the ladder to get out," she said.

Carol's advice for others is simple: "Join a program or an exercise class," she says. "But, make it one you can commit to."

For more information about the Bedell Family YMCA, please call 712-336-9622 or visit www.okobojimca.com.

Hole In One For Bockman

Sky Lantern Celebration At Lake Park Care Center

Lake Park Care Center with coordination of the City of Lake Park and Gentiva Hospice will host a Sky Lantern Celebration at Lake Park Care Center on August 19, 2015, at 9:00pm.

It's a beautiful sight and creates a soul lifting experience when releasing that soft glowing light of love to the heavens in remembrance of someone.

Lake Park Utilities Board has embraced and supports the Lake Park Care Center Sky Lantern Celebration, recognizing this community ceremony as a true representation of small town spirit and who better than our local nursing home that does so much for our community to host this awesome event.

Gentiva Hospice is located in Spirit Lake and serves all of Northwest Iowa. At Gentiva Hospice, we believe that every moment matters. Gentiva Hospice is centered around the entire family to make the most of each day. We provide a team that focuses on individual care while offering families all of the support that's needed. They are proud to be sponsoring this event with Lake Park Care Center.

All are welcome to participate and free will donation will be available for those that would like to help contribute towards next year's lanterns.

Al-Anon Meetings: Breakfast In The Park

New Hope Al-Anon Meetings will be held on Mondays at 8:00pm at the St. Joseph Catholic Church School (1301 Okoboji Avenue, Milford).

Scavenger Hunt Scheduled For Terril Fun Days

On Saturday, August 22, there will be a Scavenger Hunt held from 3:00pm to 6:00pm. Meet at Marisa Sidles' Art Studio. It will be held in and around the town of Terril. Players will work as part of a maximum of a four person team, only one car or form of transportation per team. Must have one digital camera or phone for the portion of the hunt that requires a picture as proof that the task was done. All ages are welcome! There are two ways to win, either by being the first back or by having the most points. There will be extra points if your team has a name and you are dressed to match the name! Good, clean fun for the afternoon!

Breakfast In The Park

Knights Of Columbus will host Breakfast In The Park on Saturday, August 15, 7:00 - 11:00am at Preservation Plaza in Arnolds Park. They will be serving french toast, pancakes, ham, scrambled eggs and sausage for $8 at the door or $7 for advanced tickets. ## Spirit Lake Noon Kiwanis Donates To UDMO Back To School Program

Spirit Lake Noon Kiwanis donated $1000 to the UDMO Back to School Program.

"UDMO offers us a great opportunity to help the children in our community and that's what Kiwanis is all about" stated Spirit Lake Noon President Ernie Cupp.

Stepping Back In Time by Jerry and Irene Clark of the Clark Museum of Okoboji and Iowa History.

Pictured are the Milts and Davison buses from the Milford school in 1912. This picture was taken by old Mill Pond south of the present Milford. The museum displays a horse drawn school bus like this from Excelsior school that was located northwest of Milford. Adults as well as youngsters enjoy viewing the old bus. I know many people enjoy seeing all the pictures and original signs from the amusement park, but there are many other pictures and interesting stories of the area. There were three other lakes near Milford that I would love to tell you about. If you want to know the history of the many towns in Iowa, it is here at the Clark Museum. The museum is located 1 mile west and 1/2 mile north of the Catholic church in Milford. Call 712-338-2147 or email ijclark1@msn.com for any information. The museum is air-conditioned.

Milford Library News

On Tuesday, August 18, at 10:00am, we are excited to welcome Karens Knudson, Dickinson County naturalist and environmental educator, as a presenter for the Teen Summer Reading Program. She will be talking more about the environment and what we can do to protect it.

Students in 5th – 12th grades are invited to come to the Milford Memorial Library on Thursday, August 20, at 10:00am, to make s'mores. Participants will be making solar-powered ovens to cook their s'mores in. All supplies are provided by the library.

Thursday, August 13, at 10:00am, we will be looking for our Shelf Elves. Volunteers take on the task of organizing and cleaning a section of shelves. This helps our librarians and it will make sure you can find the book you are looking for that might have otherwise been misplaced.

Jump Start to Reading is an opportunity for children to read to adults one-on-one on Friday mornings from 9:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Registration forms are available at the circulation desk at the library. Adult volunteers may contact children's librarian Betty Naab at 712-338-4643 or betty@milfordlibrary.net.

Join us for great stories and much more every Friday morning at 10:00! Betty, our children's librarian, looks forward to sharing stories with you! No pre-registration is necessary. This week the theme is "Horses."

Charter Officers: Peter B. Narey, President, Carlyle C. LaDoux, Vice President, Blaine L. Hoen, Secretary and Treasurer.

Board of Directors: Robert R. Cornell, Claude G. Harpole, Dr. Alfred L. Klein, Wilbur E. Hanson, Father J. G. Skahill, Berkley W. Bedell. "Our club and the community has benefitted tremendously, and will continue to benefit, from the leadership and direction of these dedicated and generous men," stated current President Ernie Cupp.

River Clean Up Project

On Sunday, August 2, Jason Simpson of Milford, and Trevor Woods of Littleton, Colorado, decided to set out and do a little service project by cleaning up the trash left behind by people that don't know about protecting and preserving the natural resources that make Dickinson county so beautiful. The location of the bridge pictured is west of Milford on sixth street out on the gravel road about a half a mile. After two and a half hours of trudging in the river below the bridge in chest waders, mud, and sweat, improvements could be seen. Removed from the river on both sides were 8TV sets, 1 bed spring frame, 1 full size microwave, 1 small children's folding chair, 1 ATV suspension spring, 1 recliner chair, and 4 truck tires.

"Apparently there are people out there that don't care about our natural resources and the beautiful area that we call home", stated Jason.

Get Crafty For The Clay County Fair

From glass art to wood carving, there is something for everyone to enter in the textiles, arts and crafts department located in the Creative Living Center at the 2015 Clay County Fair, September 12-20.

"The Fair is an annual showcase of people's creativity and artistry," said CCF Manager Jeremy Parsons. "We hope everyone who is even the tiniest bit 'creative' will enter something in this year's Fair."

This year there are 14 different sponsored classes with over $1,000 offered in additional premium money and prizes. The special classes range from scrapbook pages, flip flop art, paper pieced patchwork, rubber stamping and much more. Other special classes include the Barbara Chenhall Spirit Award and the Victoria Axtell Textiles Entry Award.

There is no fee to enter and exhibitors do not need to be residents of Clay County. To encourage new exhibitors, there is a first time exhibitor class available for adults, which includes textiles (garment making), crafts, patchwork or quilting and art (woodcarving, pottery and painting).

Check out the exhibitor handbooks online at www.claycountyfair.com to find the rules and guidelines to enter your work at the Clay County Fair.

"Take It All In" September 12-20, 2015 at the Clay County Fair in Spencer, Iowa! Known as "The World's Greatest County Fair" since 1917, the Fair attracts more than 300,000 people each September for world-class Grandstand events, daily livestock and horse shows, more than $140,000 in free entertainment, thousands of competitive exhibits, the thrilling GoldStar Amusements Midway, every imaginable type of fair food, hundreds of commercial vendors and the largest farm machinery show at any fair in the United States!
