YIP Sets $30,000 Goal

At the November 4th meeting, Youth in Philanthropy (YIP) set their annual fundraising goal at $30,000. This ambitious group is determined to make a vital difference! There is nothing to buy; every dollar given to YIP goes directly back to the community through YIP Grant Awards.

25 students from area high schools participate from October through May in the Okoboji Foundation's annual Youth in Philanthropy initiative to learn about the importance of community giving.

Each student was asked to comment on "Why is Youth in Philanthropy important to our Lakes Community and to you?"

- Ryan Maris: "Youth in Philanthropy is unique in that it has a lasting impact on our community and the kids involved in YIP."
- Savannah Wiedow: "It allows me to give back to the community in a way that will last beyond my time in Youth in Philanthropy. Our YIP grants improve the lakes area and support local nonprofit organizations."
- Grace Eckard: "Youth in Philanthropy is a great way for students to give back to the community that has done so much for us. It is also a great way to raise money for important causes."
- Kaitlyn Kuker: "YIP is very important to the community to help it grow and to preserve it. YIP is important to me because I want to help make a positive impact on my community."

Visit www.GiveOkoboji.com to make a secure online gift to YIP or mail your tax-deductible donation to Okoboji Foundation, PO Box 593, Okoboji, Iowa 51355.

The Okoboji Foundation is the community foundation for the Iowa Great Lakes Region. Started in 1988, it serves as the Center Point of Community Giving for Vital Capital Projects. For additional information visit www.okobojifoundation.org or call the Okoboji Foundation at 712-332-7177.

ILCC's Spring Musical Announced

The Iowa Lakes Community College music students and area community members will be performing the timeless story of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Its family-friendly storyline, universal themes and catchy music provide the most entertaining couple of hours one can spend on stage or in the audience. This Biblical saga of Joseph and his coat of many colors will come to life in this delightful musical parable. Joseph, his father's favorite son, is a boy blessed with prophetic dreams. When he is sold into slavery by his jealous brothers and taken to Egypt, Joseph endures a series of adventures in which his spirit and humanity are continually challenged. Set to an amazing variety of styles, from country-western and calypso to bubble-gum pop and rock'n'roll, this Old Testament tale emerges both timely and timeless. "We need a large cast with at least 20 men, 20 women, an unlimited number of chorus members, plus an additional children's choir," said Carol Ayres, Professor of Music. Auditions will be Sunday, January 24 and Tuesday, January 26, 2016, in Room 74 on the Estherville campus of Iowa Lakes Community College. Please watch the newspapers, our website and our Facebook page for more information at a later date. Performances will be April 7, 8 and 9, 2016, on the Estherville Campus of Iowa Lakes Community College.

Habitat Housing Opportunity Available In Spencer

Every child needs a place to call home and the Northwest Iowa Corridor Habitat for Humanity wants to be part of that. The Board is excited to announce that their 2016 home build will be in Spencer, Iowa.

They are now accepting applications for anyone interested in being the next partner family with Habitat for Humanity. Applications are available at area libraries or online at the Habitat for Humanity website www.habitat.org. The Northwest Iowa Corridor Habitat for Humanity board will review all applications and make a selection based on several factors - A few of the requirements include:

1. the family selection will be based on need - this can be determined by the number of people in the family, amount of income, living conditions, percent of income spent on housing, etc.
2. the family's commitment to providing 50 hours of community service prior to the build
3. the family's commitment to contribute 350 hours of sweat equity working on the home during the course of the build process
4. the family cannot be receiving any government housing assistance
5. the family's ability to make a modest down payment, enter into a mortgage agreement on an interest free contract. If you are not sure you qualify based on the listed criteria, apply anyway or go to their website for a more complete list of guidelines. The web address is www.nwiwahabitat.com. Their email address is: nwiwahabitat@gmail.com. If you are still interested, please submit your application by November 30, 2015. The partner family will be determined as soon as the NWHFH has processed the applications and made the required home visits. Questions can be directed through their phone number 712-336-4700, or their mailing address at Habitat for Humanity, P.O. Box 754, Spirit Lake, IA 51360.

They are always happy to accept volunteers to be a build leader, organize a build team, contribute funds to the build, and many other jobs that are required in building a house. There is no need to have special build skills to help, we need people to set up snacks and lunches for the weekend helpers, people to sweep and pick up, people to organize and put things away, and even people to call or do mailings. Don't count yourself out, get involved. You may use the aforementioned contact information.

Auction for Autumn Raises $20,000 for Children's Center

On Saturday, October 31, 2015, 120 community members came together to raise $20,000 in Orange City, Iowa at a dessert auction to support Autumn's Center. This regional children's center will open in 2016 in Spencer, Iowa, serving children ages 0-21 who have experienced abuse, neglect, bullying, grief, loss, divorce of parents, parental substance abuse, or who have developmental conditions such as autism. Autumn's Center is named in honor and memory of Autumn Elgersma, of Orange City, Iowa who died two years ago after being hospitalized due to the abuse she endured while in the care of her babysitter. Autumn's mother, Jennifer Elgersma, addressed the crowd with a keynote speech detailing the life of Autumn and how significantly she and her family's lives changed on October 31, 2013, when three-year-old Autumn passed away.

"We are grateful to the many passionate people in northwest Iowa for supporting the Elgersma family and the 2,072 children who we are caring for," says Kim Scorza, Executive Director of Seasons Center. "At Autumn's Center, caring professionals will work with our children and their families to ensure the child's needs are being met all within a safe environment. It is with donations like these that this is all possible."

It was behind the walls of the Prairie Winds Event Center in Orange City that 14 tables of business owners, community supporters, and agency partners bid on locally-made desserts, with sales ranging from $325 for one cupcake to $2,200 for a chocolate cake layered with Kit Kats and Reese's peanut butter cups. The auction was led by auctioneer, Terry Meekma of Meekma Insurance.

"Our goal was to raise $20,000 to go directly to the completion of Autumn's Center and I'm proud to say we met that goal," says Candace Van Marel, Events Coordinator at Seasons Center.

"It was a beautiful evening, from the candle lighting for Autumn to the generous bids from the crowd. We can't wait to make this an annual fundraiser."

Seasons is a non-profit organization and has been providing a broad range of psychiatric and behavioral health services to people and communities in Northwest Iowa since 1959. University of Dubuque Inducts Sara (Gassmann) Higgins into Hall of Fame and Hall of Distinction

The University of Dubuque inducted the 2015-16 Alumni Athletic Hall of Fame Class on Saturday, October 3, 2015. New members of the UD Hall of Fame included Sara (Gassmann) Higgins (Class of 2001), of Spirit Lake, Iowa.

The University of Dubuque Alumni Association established the Alumni Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989 as a permanent place to honor those individuals who have promoted and served the University through its athletic programs.

Each recipient receives a plaque and a lifetime pass to attend all University of Dubuque athletic events. The recipient's name is added to the Hall of Fame plaque located in the Stoltz Sports Center. The Hall of Fame can be found online at: <http://www.dbu.edu/Athletics/AthleticsHallofFame/>

Sara (Gassmann) Higgins (volleyball/softball - class of 2001) could best be described during her time at the University of Dubuque with one word, "first." Sara was named First Team All-Iowa Conference and First Team AVCA All-Region in volleyball during the 1997, 1998, and 1999 seasons. Though the accolades didn't stop there being named Second Team All-Conference in softball in 1997. During Sara's years at Hempstead High School in Dubuque, she was selected First Team All-State in volleyball.

The highlight of Sara's athletic career at UD was traveling with the Division-III USA International Volleyball Team, going from Holland to Belgium in 1999. In addition, she enjoys traveling, in fact her first time on a plane was during her freshman year, traveling to Texas with the volleyball team. In 1998, the Spartans qualified for the NCAA Division-III Championships with Gassmann leading the team in Kills (473), Digs (678), Sets Played (131), Matches Played (35), Kills per Set (3.61), and Total Attacks (1280). Sara also earned the Kenneth "Moco" Mercer Memorial Scholarship, which is awarded to an outstanding senior student in physical education.

After graduation, Sara continued to work at Young-uns Childcare Center, where she was the Assistant Director for 11 years. In 2002, Sara married Matt Higgins, they now have three children, Maci (11), Bode (9), and Ty (6). Over the past six years, she has enjoyed being a stay-at-home mom, and now keeps busy with her children's athletic schedules. The Higgins family resides in Spirit Lake.

'Could be two concerts on Campus tonight...

The Okoboji High School Jazz Band is presenting its first concert under the direction of new band director Toni Hoffman, tonight (Tuesday). As noted here last week, the 7:30 performance at the Okoboji High School auditorium will include the music of Count Basie, Stanley Turrentine, Bob Washut, Josef Zawinul, and Tito Puente, among others.

And while Professor A. Good Outlook's forecast called for the possibility of some Monday dampness, it shouldn't have been snow. But if Monday night's Northwest Iowa Concert Band and Jazz Band concert was postponed, it will take place tonight, too, starting at 7:30, under the direction of Rich Nicklay, in Estherville's Roosevelt Auditorium.

There is no admission for either show. Free will donations will be accepted.

This is the 30th year for the jazz band, now led by Scott Benjamin. Stan the Stagerat has confirmed that he heard the jazz band rehearse a Christmas tune last week...

Elsewhere out and about on campus, Wednesday night will see John Senn and friends performing at Table 316, in Arnolds Park, from 7 - 9:00...

Charlie Leissler will be heard Thursday night, on the stage in the barn at the Little Swan Lake Winery, where Ceolmhor will be performing, Sunday afternoon, from 4 - 6:00.

And Damon Dotson, Dave Rowley and Ryan Sather will come together Thursday night, as well, to kickoff the holiday season at the Pearson Lakes Art Center. The three will be performing on stage in the Lauridsen Performing Arts Theatre, starting at 7:30...

Estherville's Parade of Lights will also be Thursday night -- at 7:00 -- following a Chocolate Walk that starts at 4:00. With over 20 lighted float entries it is sure to be a spectacular night and is guaranteed to put you in the holiday spirit!

The parade will go from 5th Street to 13th Street on Central Avenue. Kids are invited to Library Square to see Santa Light up the entire block. It's going to be a magical evening...

Former Spencer resident Chad Elliott will be featured in the first Prairie Wind Folk Music and Bluegrass Association show of the season, Friday night, at 7:30, in the BARC Library in Windom.

Also Friday night, in Spencer, The Itty Bitty Boji Band will be playing for listening and dancing, at the YMCA. The music will be from 7 - 10:00, with Dick and Marilyn Wiltgren offering free dance lessons. The monthly sessions are open to both couples and singles...

To further add to the choices, Friday night will also see Beatlemania -- a tribute to the 'Fab Four' -- at the Clay County Regional Events Center, in Spencer, starting at 7:00...

Looking ahead, you might consider making your reservations this week for the Iowa Lakes Community College Madrigal Feast, Saturday and Sunday, December 5 and 6. Both nights are traditionally sold-out well in advance of the performances.

For more details, call Linda Kautz, at 712-362-8345.

Stan the Stagerat reported too late for last week's RAMBOLing that from his backstage vantage point at Spencer High School's production of the Wizard of Oz -- the final Spencer High School musical performance in the 78-year-old former high school and junior high school auditorium -- director Larry Unteit related the bromide that a director should never use children or dogs in a production. There's apparently good reason for that.

While the three hour show was done well in all respects, Stan explained that Dorothy's dog Toto stole the show the first time she saw Glinda the Good Witch on stage. Toto's tail wagged just slowly at first, before breaking into what looked like an airplane propeller spinning up for takeoff.

That was the giveaway that Glinda (Skye Cauthron) was Toto's offstage master.

Unteit later told Stan that with 75 Spencer High School students on stage, and a crew of 40, along with 42 young Munchkins, the show was perhaps the largest ever staged in the soon-to-be-closed auditorium. And as he predicted in his opening comments, the Munchkins stole what remained of the show after the tail wagging incident.

Stan wasn't able to get Unteit to reveal what next year's musical might be after the new performing arts center opens at SHS. But we expect it will be something really whiz-bang to dedicate the new, more modern facility.

Our ever-busy research director, RD, tells us that today is homemade bread day -- a day for the family to remember and enjoy the making, baking, and most especially the eating of homemade bread.

That should be every day!

RD also notes that today is Governor Terry Branstad's 69th natal day. Other birthdays of note this week include John Herndon 'Johnny' Mercer (1909 - 1976), Wednesday; and Howard Hoagland 'Hoagy' Carmichael (1899 - 1981), Sunday.

It's interesting to us at least that these two great songwriters come close to sharing a common birth date, albeit 10 years apart.

Sunday is also the day National Games & Puzzles Week begins, to increase the appreciation of board games and puzzles. No doubt the folks at Parker Brothers, the Monopoly people, had something to do with that.

Fill A Boat, Fill A Tummy Oak Hill Marina Food Drive

Oak Hill Marina is pleased to announce the start of their 5th annual food drive, Fill A Boat, Fill A Tummy. The community is being asked to donate non-perishable items to Oak Hill Marina now through Friday, November 21, in order to help the hungry this holiday season.

Oak Hill Marina is reaching out to the public to help fill a boat full of food, which will be donated to the Dickinson County Food Pantry/Upper Des Moines Opportunity. "Oak Hill Marina wanted to do their part in helping those in need this holiday season and we are hoping to collect enough food to help feed the hungry during Thanksgiving," commented Jake Jostand, an owner of Oak Hill Marina. The employees of Oak Hill Marina will deliver the boatload of "hope" to Upper Des Moines Opportunity.

Non-perishables will start being collected Monday, November 3rd until Friday, November 21. Food may be dropped off at Oak Hill Marina during regular business hours which are as follows: Tuesday-Friday 9:00am- 5:00pm, Saturday 9:00am- 4:00pm, closed on Sundays and Mondays, or by appointment. Oak Hill Marina encourages everyone to give back to the community and to those who are less fortunate this holiday season. Another unique aspect of Oak Hill Marina Food Drive is the focus on "giving the good stuff," which encourages families to donate the kinds of foods that have the most impact at a pantry—such as peanut butter, canned tuna fish, and canned vegetables.

Oak Hill Marina is owned and operated by Jake Jostand and Tim Sather. Oak Hill Marina is a family friendly marina in the Iowa Great Lakes, committed to making a difference for families in northwest Iowa. In addition to their food drive, Oak Hill Marina also participates as volunteers for Meals On Wheels during the winter. "Laugh, Share, Reconnect." Oak Hill Marina.

Thanksgiving
Where did the year go? As we enter the holiday season of Thanksgiving, let us not forget that some things are better shared with others. This is the one time that Americans eat better than the French, according to Pierre Salinger. Well, the former press secretary does have a point on the majority of people eat home cooked meals. My turkey will be from Guritz farms and pretty much everything else, except for the cranberries, will have been grown here. I am thankful for that.

Attitude of gratitude
It has come to my attention that our fair County has a champion in our midst. Our very own Spirit Lake Indians have advanced to the Class 2A football championship. From what I understand, they have been very successful in their football endeavors for the better part of a decade. But what got my attention was a sign that said "Built for others". That sums up what our community is about very succinctly. Whether it is athletics, music or debate, the young people of this community have been benefiting from the direct mentoring of others; namely teachers. The teachers do wonderful work from kindergarten to high school. Maybe it is time to acknowledge that our educational systems in place are as good as any in the land. I think that our younger generation will have no problem passing along the fine traditions that have been built by others.

Quick note on our Holiday market.
The holiday market is approaching and yours truly will be selling sweets in my inaugural entrance to the farmers market. If I can do it, so can you. If you are thinking about vending at the market, you can get all the information you need by stopping by on Saturday, December 5, anytime from 9:00am until 2:00pm. Any of the vendors can put you on the path to joining them. Finally, with heavy heart, Que Dieu Benisse tous en France. (God Bless all in France)

Tidings Of Comfort And Joy?

(Facing the holidays after bereavement)
Submitted by Jo Winkowitsch, Milford, Iowa

When you're grieving the death of a family member or friend, you may dread the holiday season. Thoughts of social gatherings, family traditions, and obligations leave you anxious and overwhelmed. Your sadness can seem unbearable. You may wish you could skip these next two months and go straight to the routine of the next year—but you can't. What can you do to lessen your stress and loneliness?

Holidays trigger tough emotions: You can start by learning what emotions are normal and to be expected when facing the holidays without your loved one. "If you're feeling overwhelmed as this holiday season approaches, that's very normal," advised psychologist Dr. Susan Zonnebelt-Smeenge, (associated with GriefShare) whose husband died. "You're probably wondering how you're going to handle this and are unsure of what course to take. I want to assure you that you can get through these holidays, and hopefully you can even find moments of joy."

When you know what to expect, you won't be rendered helpless as holiday events trigger unexpected emotions. Make a point to spend time talking with people who have experienced a past loss and have already been through a holiday season without their loved one. They can help you have an idea of typical emotions and emotional triggers to expect. These people can also provide much-needed comfort and support.

Creating a holiday plan will help: Another important step in surviving the holidays is to create a healthy plan for the coming season. A healthy plan involves making decisions in advance about traditions, meals, time spent with others, holiday decorating, gift-giving, and commitments. You will likely not have the energy or the interest in doing as much as you have in past years. Decide ahead of time which invitations you'll accept, and let the host or family member know that you might leave early. Consider whether your decorating will be different this year: perhaps a smaller tree or simpler ornaments. If you cook or bake, cut back.

Make a list of every holiday tradition you can think of, from music to presents to outings. Then decide which traditions will be too difficult without your deceased loved one, which traditions you'd like to maintain, and what new traditions you can start this year.

Communicating with family and friends: What's also helpful in facing the holidays is to communicate your specific concerns and needs with your family and friends. Your friends may want you to "cheer up" and "have fun," when that's the last thing you want. Others will avoid you because they don't know what to say and don't want to make you feel worse. Some family members will give you wrong advice in a misguided attempt to help. All of these people likely mean well, but will only end up hurting you if you don't communicate what you truly need from them.

As difficult as this may be, it's important to tell people what they can do to help and what they are doing that isn't helping. And if you don't have the energy or inclination to talk to people face-to-face, then write your thoughts, concerns, and needs in a letter or email. What's important is that you are being honest and gracious in your communication.

"Surviving the Holidays" seminars offer help in communicating with people, identifying feelings and making a holiday plan. Two will be offered locally on November 30, 2015 and December 5, 2015.

A GriefShare Surviving the Holidays seminar is a one time, 2 hour workshop which offers practical, actionable strategies for making it through the holiday season. The videos and material are all new and revised, with this being the first time the area will be showing these videos. At the two-hour seminar, you'll view a video featuring advice from people in grief who've faced the holidays after their loss. You'll hear insights from respected Christian counselors, pastors, and psychologists.

Anyone is welcome to attend and will receive a Survival Guide filled with practical tips, encouraging words, journaling ideas, and exercises for daily help through the holiday season. The cost is $5 for the guide, but scholarships are available for those who cannot afford the cost. Children over the age of 10 are invited to attend with their parents or grandparents. Child care is not available.

This helpful, encouraging seminar features video interviews with top Christian experts on grief and recovery topics as seen from a biblical perspective and personal testimonies from people who have experienced the holidays after bereavement. For more information or a video about the workshop please go to <http://www.griefshare.org/holidays>.

The seminar features video interviews with counselors, grief experts, and other people who have experienced the holidays after their loved one's death and who offer practical suggestions and reassurance.

- Some of the topics discussed:
- Being prepared for surprising emotions that may hit over the holidays
 - What to do about traditions and other coming changes
 - How to handle holiday parties and invitations
 - How to survive potentially awkward moments with other people
 - Where to find comfort, strength, and hope in a seemingly hopeless time

To register or find out more about GriefShare Surviving the Holidays, call Jo Winkowitsch (ph. 712-330-7091) or email her at jowink55@milfordcable.com. More info and a video about the workshop is also available at www.griefshare.org/holidays

Monitoring System Expanded At LRH

Lakes Regional Healthcare (LRH) has been offering state-of-the-art technology that allows critical care patients an extra level of care and to stay within the community to receive needed care rather than going out of the area since late 2010 through Avera's eICU™. Volume in LRH's Critical Care Unit (CCU) has increased since implementing eICU technology, as well as been a great patient satisfier. LRH started using one mobile unit for the entire 3-room CCU department in 2010, and recently installed three fixed eICU units to better meet the needs of critical patients and their families.

The eICU technology allows LRH critical care patients to be monitored via telemedicine capabilities by specially trained physicians who specialize in caring for critically ill patients and critical care nurses at Avera McKennan in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Various monitors are applied to the patient, and these monitors connect to a clinical decision support system. The computer system is connected via secure, high-speed data lines to the eICU operations center in Sioux Falls. The operations center resembles an air traffic control room, where healthcare professionals constantly monitor the patient's condition, such as vital signs (heart rate, blood pressure, respiration), x-rays, and test results on several computer screens. Professionals in Sioux Falls also visually see the patient with powerful, real-time cameras. Computers continuously analyze the information, helping the physicians recognize changes in patient conditions, which allows for early intervention through coordination with local physicians and nurses before significant problems arise. Besides being monitored and cared for by the patient's physician and LRH staff in Spirit Lake, the eICU means the patient's physician can get an immediate second opinion about how to treat the patient.

LRH President and CEO Jason Harrington said, "There is a significant amount of research showing better outcomes and lower mortality rates for patients who are monitored in this way. It allows for real-time intervention when it is most effective and provides additional support to our local care team. We are excited to extend this service to all of our CCU patients and the community."

Farmers Market Plans Winter Market

There will be many of the vendors from the summer Farmers Market present. You will be able to find meat, baked treats, candy, gifts, cards, eggs, honey, decorating items, and maybe even some late fall produce. Save this one day to shop at the Farmers Market in the winter.

Plucker, Daniel Ruf, David Strom, Paula Streeter, Holly Zinn. Also participating are a number of artists from around the state - including furniture maker Chris Martin, as well as Molly Nagel, Chuck Richards, Reiko Cunningham, Celinda Stamy, Nancy Thompson and Barbara Walton. The show is organized by Paula Streeter, Lecturer at Iowa State University.

The artwork will be installed alongside fine antiques and furnishings available for purchase in the building's recently renovated west wing gallery space.

Doors will open at the west entrance at 3:00pm Friday, December 4. Hours for the show are 3:00 - 8:00 Friday, 10:00 - 6:00 Saturday, 11:00 - 3:00 Sunday. Systolic Studio is located at 26 Avenue B. in Lake Park (the former Methodist Church). For more information, contact Paula Streeter at 515-451-7933.

Operation Christmas Child

Iowa Lakes Community College's Student Senate on the Estherville Campus will be partnering with Samaritan's Purse to participate in Operation Christmas Child. The mission of Operation Christmas Child is to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to needy children around the world and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. This project is the world's largest Christmas outreach of its kind. Since 1993, over 124 million children affected by war, poverty, natural disasters, and other crises in more than 150 countries and territories have received gift filled shoeboxes.

Student Senators will be collecting donations in the form of money or gifts from November 11th-18th. Some gift suggestions include toys, school supplies, non-liquid hygiene items, accessories (T-shirts, socks, hair clips, etc.), and homemade crafts. If you would like to donate to this cause, please drop off your donation at the student senate office on the Estherville Campus. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our Student Senate Advisor, Katie Larson, via email at klarson@iowalakes.edu or phone at 712-362-8367.

Native Thanksgiving Hike

'Tis the time of year for thankfulness, so get in the spirit during the Native Thanksgiving Hike the Wild Wednesday, November 25, at Wildwood Nature Preserve in Spirit Lake.

Meet at 3:00pm. at the Dickinson County Nature Center in Okoboji and caravan to the site with naturalist Charles Vigdal, who will lead the intermediate hike through this beautiful area off Big Spirit Lake.

"It's a neat area, and this is a unique opportunity to see this privately-owned preserve," Vigdal said. Vigdal will begin the program with some history about the Wildwood Nature Preserve, which would have historically been occupied by American Indians, and then participants will have the opportunity to explore the area to learn more about the historic Sioux Indian culture.

Stations along the hike will allow all ages to learn about American Indian food, their relationship with animals, their tools and how they made them and the connection between the American Indian culture and nature.

"One of the reasons I do Native American programs is because their culture was about giving," Vigdal said. "They were a hunter-gatherer society, and they had to work together. They treated everything outside with as much respect as other people, because if you hurt the wetland or you hurt the prairie, you hurt yourself."

Learning about American Indian culture will put people in the Thanksgiving mood as we see how thankful we should all be for everything around us, just like the American Indians were and are.

The Dickinson County Nature Center's Art & Nature series also continues this fall with a Nature Weaving class 6:00pm Wednesday, November 18, and a Recycled Christmas workshop 6:00pm Wednesday, December 16. Make sure to call 712-336-6352 to pre-register by 4:00pm the day before each class as a minimum of five students is needed for each workshop to be held.

For more information about the Art & Nature, the Native Thanksgiving Hike the Wild or the Winter Survival hike 3:00pm Wednesday, December 23, please visit www.dickinsoncountynaturecenter.com. You can also keep up with what's happening at the nature center on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Save your local economy...
three stores at a time.

the 3/50 project

SAVING THE BRICK AND MORTARS OUR NATION IS BUILT ON

3 Think about which three independently owned businesses you'd miss most if they were gone. Stop in and say hello. Pick up a little something that will make someone smile. Your contribution is what keeps those businesses around.

50 If just half the employed U.S. population spent $50 each month in independently owned businesses, their purchases would generate more than $42.6 billion in revenue.* Imagine the positive impact if 3/4 of the employed population did that.

68 For every $100 spent in independently owned stores, $68 returns to the community through taxes, payroll, and other expenditures. If you spend that in a national chain, only $43 stays here. Spend it online and nothing comes home.

1 The number of people it takes to start the trend...you.

Pick 3. Spend 50. Save your local economy.

SLMS Builders And SL Key Canvass The Town For The Kiwanis International Project "Eliminate"

Saturday, October 31, 2015, sixty-four members of Spirit Lake Middle School Builders and Spirit Lake Key Club joined together to canvass the town of Spirit Lake, between 1:30 - 3:30, collecting for the Kiwanis International project "Eliminate". Project Eliminate is close to reaching their goal of raising $110 million to eliminate maternal/neonatal tetanus in developing countries. For $1.80 a mother and her future children are saved from this dreadful disease. The $1.80 provides education on safe birthing practices, 3- vaccine doses, health worker training, and transportation to remote regions that receive little or no health care.

We want to thank the generous, giving people of Spirit Lake that helped us to reach our all-time high of $1500! This will save 833 lives!

This has been the fourth year the students have gone out "trick or treating for UNICEF/ Eliminate", and in those four years they have raised over $4700 and helped to save over 2,638 lives. Again, this would not have been possible without the strong community support of the residents of Spirit Lake.

Citizens Community Credit Union Donates To Kiwanis

Citizens Community Credit Union would like to thank their members for their donations during national Credit Union Day. Spirit Lake Branch has donated $100 to the Spirit Lake Noon Kiwanis club and $100 to Spenser's Underground. Pictured are Kelsie Sturm (Branch manager of Citizens Community Credit Union and Brent Harris (Kiwanis President).

Frick Serves As Club Secretary

Alexis Frick, a junior psychology major from Milford, Iowa is the Secretary of the Psychology Club at Southwest Minnesota State University for the 2015-2016 academic year.

The Psychology Club offers students opportunities to learn about the field of psychology and participate in a variety of service, fund-raising, career development and social events... both on campus and in the community.

Founded in 1963, Southwest Minnesota State University experiences continual growth by serving students oncampus, online and around the state. Students enjoy a close working relationship with faculty and other students as well as a robust campus environment with over $100 million in construction over the past ten years including a new Student Center and Conference Center; Foundation Residence Apartments; a renovated library and science labs; a new Regional Event Center, home to Mustang Football and Soccer; and Sweetland Hall, a new 250-bed residence hall that opened in Fall 2009.

Tales Of Tails

After a first trip through the kennels at the Northwest Humane Society, one remembers Joc, a very big dog with the most expressive and appealing eyes. Joc is so big, one first thinks he is surely a mastiff. Only a DNA test will identify the breed of his "tail," but research indicates he may be an unusual breed - a Cane Corso mastiff. Whatever his breed, he is huge, but exceptionally sensitive and loyal which is true of a Cane Corso mastiff. They are more athletic, faster, and easier to train than other mastiffs. His personality doesn't relate to his size!

Joc was first adopted by two women and he immediately sensed his job was to protect them. This was true, but he took his job too seriously and did not get along with a male member of the family who visited frequently. Next, he was adopted by a former Marine and a "love match" developed until the man was promoted and transferred. Joc couldn't tolerate being alone all day long so he returned to the shelter, but he keeps looking for another master he can protect and cherish.

Thanks to his athleticism, he loves walks and enjoys jogging and being outside. He'd make a great running partner. He seems to get along well with other dogs unless they become aggressive. He also seems to enjoy children. Joc's coat is a mixture of brown and black short fur and he is about two years old. His outstanding trait that makes one remember him is his personality. His eyes seem to be searching for someone to love!

Remember... "In a perfect world every animal would have a home, and every home would have a pet."

Call the Northwest Iowa Humane Society at 712-338-2738 or come see the animals at 607 28th Street, just north of Milford - open Thursday through Sunday, noon to 6:00pm.

Ladies Of The Lake Verify Their 14th New Member For 2015

by Colleen Lemkuil

Ladies of the Lake have had 14 new members this year. We have 3 new Juniors and now we announce new member Kim Weaver of Sheldon, Iowa. Regent Colleen Lemkuil met Kim Weaver last April at the State DAR meeting in Ames. Kim Weaver was attending the meeting with her Mother, Sharon Lamb, of Des Moines. Kim talked with Colleen Lemkuil, Regent of the Ladies of the Lake and the process of membership began.

Kim Weaver is from O'Brien County, one of the Counties served by Ladies of the Lake Chapter. Colleen met with Kim Weaver at the Prairie Arts Historical Park in Sheldon and collected needed documents for her DAR lineage application. Kim Weaver met Harold Tuttle and was pleased to see the Ladies of the Lake's Historical Preservation project and Mr. Tuttle the winner of the NSDAR Historical Preservationist award.

Kimberly Anne Jukam Weaver was introduced at our July meeting. With a great Registrar like Bobbie Lea Holden it is great to find new members. Bobbie Lea had Kim Weaver's application ready for Kim to sign that day and she was introduced to our Chapter members. We thank Bobbie Lea Holden for her work on our applications. We have kept her busy this year with 14 new members and more in process. Then our outstanding Treasurer, Nancy Tomlinson, handles all the checks and payments for the applicants and to collect the dues for the 71 members in Ladies of the Lake Chapter.

Kim Weaver can trace her family tree back to Patriot Daniel P. Bergen who was from Pennsylvania. Check out your family tree and apply to the DAR. It is a service organization which has given 3000 hours of Community service this year. They are one of the largest women's organizations in the world.

We are happy to have Kim Weaver join and hope you will contact Bobbie Lea Holden soon at bobbieleaholden@gmail.com or call her at 712-330-5925 at Arnolds Park, Iowa. For more information regarding DAR, go to DAR.org to get an application on line or to Facebook to the DAR Facebook page or contact Colleen Lemkuil, Regent, at stancoleen37@gmail.com.

Bobbie Lea Holden will assist you with sending the application to the National Society in Washington, DC. She will assist you to answer questions you have. Kim Weaver will receive her certificate with the Special 125 year Anniversary seal on her application.

Look soon for the Christmas tree at the Spirit Lake Mall decorated by the Christmas tree DAR committee of the Ladies of the Lake Chapter and vote for our tree. We will give our prize money to a good cause.

Spirit Lake Library News

New Aquarium!

The Spirit Lake Public Library has a beautiful new 75-gallon salt-water aquarium, thanks to Lakes Endodontic Specialty Practice and Dr. Lee Taito. This beautiful addition to our library is just being set up for our patrons to enjoy.

Patrons are noticing some changes with the new catalog system. This catalog software interacts with our electronic resources like BRIDGES. In order to check out and use the electronic resources, your account must be in good standing. Overdues must be returned and any outstanding debts must be resolved in order to keep your account active.

Many patrons are unable to log-in to their BRIDGES account because their library card has expired. If you haven't checked out physical items from the library in recent years, this is probably the case. If you call the library, we can renew your card. You should also remember to use your phone number as your password, no 712 or dashes when entering it.

Holiday Closing

The library will be closed on Thanksgiving and the Friday following it. We will reopen on Saturday, November 28th from 10-3.

Cooking a holiday dinner? Wondering how to carve a turkey? Don't forget that the library has dozens of cookbooks plus great magazines available for checkout and digital download. Join us for book club on December 2nd at 10:30. We'll be discussing "Little Mercies" by Iowa author Heather Gudenkauf.
