ONE-CAR CRASH IN GAINES KILLS WATERPORT MAN

The Orleans County Sheriff's Office is investigating a fatal one-car accident in the Town of Gaines.

At approximately 4:55 a.m. on Tue., April 11, 2017, a passerby called Orleans County 9-1-1 to report a vehicle rollover.

It was determined that a 2011 Toyota Rav4, operated by Brian M. Arnett, 39, of Waterport, was traveling southbound on Eagle Harbor Road and struck a deer. The vehicle traveled off the west side of the road into a ditch. The vehicle struck a guide wire and overturned several times. Arnett, the sole occupant, was ejected from his vehicle.

Arnett was pronounced dead at the scene by Orleans County Coroner Rocco Sidari.

The accident is still under investigation. Speed is being considered as a possible contributing factor in the crash.

CAPSTONING EXPERIENCES GET PRECISION MACHINE TECH STUDENTS PREPARED FOR CAREERS

Students in Bill Rakonczay's Precision Machine Technology Program at the Orleans Career and Technology Center are being mentored and employed by some area machining companies. Because of the high demand for skilled workers in this field, companies contact Mr. Rakonczay every year looking for students they can give a paid internship to and potentially groom to be a full-time employee after they graduate. "Capstoning is a great process for both my students and employers," says Mr. Rakonczay. "It allows my students to have a broader understanding of what it is like to work for a manufacturing company. If they don't like the experience they can reassess their career goals before graduation, and if they do like it, it allows the company to employ them for several months to see if they are what they are looking for and where they will fit in to their operation."

Nick Gifford has been capstoning at Niagara Precision Inc. in Lockport. "I thought it was fun. I have learned a lot there." Jack Muscarella has been at Voss Manufacturing working. "I liked it a lot. I learned a lot more than I thought I would. It is great to go from books in the classroom to a real-life manufacturing place." Classmate Craig Heitzenrater has been at Pivot Punch Corporation in Pendleton capstoning. "I learned a lot that you can't learn in school like how a real machine shop works." All three students have accepted full-time employment after graduation at their capstoning locations.

"The need for trained professionals in the machining field is incredible," says Mr. Rakonczay. "I have almost 100 percent placement rate with my students if they want to go right into the working world. Capstoning is a great experience because it is learning in action. Part of my teaching process is to provide students with skills in the classroom and an opportunity to get their foot in the door of a local company so that they can learn about the organization and increase their skills in managing their time, conflict management and being part of a team."

National American Miss

National American Miss (namiss.com) is a nationwide organization that teaches young ladies 4-18 years old to learn how to have self-confidence, and how to become passionate in the things they truly believe in. That being said, "NAM" gives young ladies the tools to grow their own self-confidence, to believe in themselves passionately, and to know that it's what's inside that will always make them beautiful! Society has been the ones dictating what type of look or size is beautiful and look how today's youth is now compared to 20 years ago. Let's get our children back on track again, given that they are OUR future. With that being said, two local young ladies have earned the title of STATE FINALISTS in the National American Miss Pageant, and the challenge has been accepted! Arazelies Burton-Rivera and her sister, Sophia Burton-Rivera, have decided to represent the Albion community. But, in order for them to get to the final pageant that is held at Disney Land in California, they need to get the support of their community behind them. My daughters are so proud of even being invited to audition, and the fact that they have made it as STATE FINALISTS in the National American Miss Pageant is overwhelming!

Folks can go online to their website and sponsor each child directly using any major credit or debit card. The web address is namiss.com. Then select "online payments" once the child is found in the directory. Sponsors will receive confirmation online and by e-mail. Or if someone would prefer to write out a check, it is made out to "NAM" with the state finalist's name written in on the MEMO line. Send to P.O. Box 231, Albion, NY 14411. -Tammy Burton

CULINARY ARTS STUDENTS GET LESSON ON SPONGE CANDY

Students in James Atzrott's Culinary Arts program, at the Orleans Career and Technical Education Center, recently got a lesson in a Buffalo favorite, sponge candy. The treat is uniquely a western New York one due to the fact that it is very sensitive to heat and humidity and does not travel well.

Candy maker Dave Selig spent an afternoon with the students showing them how he makes the candy. He starts by making the toffee center which is comprised of sugar, corn syrup, gelatin and baking soda. "When you are making candy, it is very important to get the temperature right. It can change the whole character of the product," he explains to the students. "Once it hardens, you have to saw off the exterior to get to the soft inside." He told the class that the recipe makes about 5, to 6 pounds a batch and a lot of stores sell it for $18-20 a pound. "Not bad for three and a half hours of your time."

After the sponge is cut into pieces the students dipped it into chocolate and then were able to enjoy the end product and share with staff. "It was great that Mr. Selig was able to come in and show my students how to make this traditional Easter candy," says Mr. Atzrott. "It is very hard to get this in other places, so it is unique to us. There is a real art to making it."

Tips on how to write

CLASSIFIED ADS that sell!

- 1 USE A KEY WORD. This immediately tells the reader exactly what you have to sell.
- 2 Make your description CLEAR AND FACTUAL. State the year, make, model, color & size and tell what condition the item is in. Also, state the special features.
- 3 STATE THE PRICE. Successful classified advertisers have learned that the price in an ad helps increase the chances for results.
- 4 IF THERE IS A GENUINE SENSE OF URGENCY, say so. The words "We're moving," or "Must sell fast," suggest that readers respond immediately.
- 5 INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER. Classifieds get results fast and often generate immediate sales. If you cannot be available to answer the phone at all times, be sure to specify special calling times such as "after 9pm" or "before 11am."

LOCAL RENDEZVOUS

By Douglas H. Domedion

The rendezvous at the Feldmans' every April is one of the best!

Back in the early to mid 1800s there were general spring or early summer gatherings, at various locations put on by the fur companies, at which trappers would sell their annual collections of fur and hides and replenish their supplies. These rendezvous were the high point of the trapper's year and they were lively and all were allowed – free trappers, Indians, native trapper wives and children, traders and travelers. There were all kinds of activities going on such as target shooting, foot and horse races, shouting, trading, singing, dancing, storytelling and just about any kind of excitement that the men could come up with. Sometimes things could get pretty wild, as the fur companies putting on these gatherings in order to collect furs from the trappers would not only haul in supplies the trappers would need for the next year but also whiskey.

These old rendezvous are still celebrated today by sportsmen today which may including fur trading, black powder events, contests like knife and tomahawk throwing, primitive archery, selling of general hunting and fishing equipment, cooking and the telling of "tall tales." Some are large events today such as the big hunting and fishing shows, fur auctions and taxidermy shows, but many are smaller by individual sportsmen clubs and just small local sportsmen groups that get together every year.

The smaller gatherings of local sportsmen are what I enjoy, and Tim and his father, Bill Feldman, host such an event every spring around the beginning of April. It is held way back in the woods on Bill's property and there is a cabin and a pavilion. A tractor and ATV's are used to shuttle folks back and forth to the road, with the cabin and pavilion making a nice addition if bad weather shows up. It is held come rain, shine or snow with some years requiring deer hunting garments. However, everyone is accustomed to all outdoor conditions, so that is not a big factor.

There is no fur trading (although there is a gathering of the coyote and fox hunters from the group the weekend before to hang the pelts, take pictures and tell the stories of the past season), contests or shooting events. Some of the attendants are old friends and some are new, but they all have a love of the outdoors. There are sportsmen there who I look forward to seeing again every year, and there are many who I don't know but enjoy spending the event with.

There are plenty of refreshments and folks bring lots of great food: food from the game and fish caught during the year that is made up into special offerings like jerky, sausages of all kinds, many other meat specialties and of course my favorite – perch! In fact you can pretty much find me hanging around that big deep fryer while I'm there (someone has to constantly keep an eye on how the fish are turning out)! My good friend Neil Newton always heads up this operation, and this year Mike Elam was his partner and they did another super job probably frying up to 50 pounds of fish for the guys.

There is a barbecue pit there that someone is always heating up the "specials," and under the cabin overhang there is another special of mine – a variety of homemade wines by "Ace" Caldwell. My favorite is Pink Catawba, and I try to hide it from the other guys!

It's hard to tell how many sportsmen show up because guys come and go, some staying for just an hour, others for the whole day, but 50 or so sounds about right.

When a plate of "goodies" is filled from the grill someone grabs the plate and walks around among the guys and offers samples. You have to get your own drink, though!

Sometimes there is a moment of silence and a quick word or two for a recently lost member of the group. I know what they will say about me, "More perch and wine for everyone this year!"

This year's rendezvous at the Feldmans' was another great day with especially nice weather with great food and companionship and a lot of wild stories. I'm looking forward to next year already!

There is another "kind of rendezvous" coming up on April 22 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. called Spring Into Nature at the Iroquois National Wildlife Refuge on Casey Road. There are nature-related exhibits, hands-on activities for kids, live birds of prey, and various speakers. All activities are free and there will be food available for purchase. No wine or perch, though!

My contact information is 585-798-4022 or woodduck2020@yahoo.com.

THE LAW AND YOU
 BY NATHAN D. PACE
 ATTORNEY AT LAW

GRANDPARENTS' VISITATION RIGHTS

Children are not the only ones who can suffer as a result of their parents' divorce. Grandparents often find themselves locked out of their grandchildren's lives when their children divorce. While there are "grandparent visitation" statutes in all 50 states, they vary greatly. Some states have such restrictive visitation statutes that they force grandparents to get a court order for visitation if the child's parents are divorcing or if one or both parents have died. Most states have more permissive visitation laws that allow their courts to consider visitation requests even without the death of a parent or the dissolution of the family as long as visitation would serve the best interests of the child.

At Law Office of MACK & PACE, our attorneys have years of experience with all aspects of family law, including visitation rights, and we can help. Whether you're getting divorced or trying to revise a child custody agreement, we can help you and your family through this emotionally and legally complex moment. In addition, we also take cases that pertain to criminal law, business law, contracts, and estate planning. Call right away to make an appointment.

 534 Main St., Suite 6

HINT: Both restrictive and permissive grandparent visitation statutes have been challenged in court by parents. Courts in various states and jurisdictions have made contradictory rulings.

 —Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

Perhaps you sent a lovely card. Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Broiled Chili-Lime-Crusted Tilapia

Serves 4

- 2 tablespoons olive oil, plus more for the pan
- Juice of 1 lime (about 2 tablespoons)
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1 tablespoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon dried oregano, rubbed in your palm
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon onion powder
- 3/4 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 4 fresh tilapia fillets

Garnish:

- Lime wedges
- Torn fresh cilantro leaves
- Pico de Gallo (see below)

Place the oven rack in the top portion of the oven. Crack the oven door and preheat the broiler to high. Line a rimmed baking sheet with aluminum foil and lightly brush the foil with olive oil.

In a shallow dish, combine the olive oil, lime juice, cornstarch, chili powder, coriander, cumin, oregano, garlic powder, onion powder, salt, and pepper. Whisk to blend.

Dip both sides of each tilapia fillet into the spice mixture and use your fingers to coat evenly. Place the tilapia on the prepared baking sheet with the bottom facing up. Broil for 4 minutes, then carefully flip and cook for 4 to 5 minutes more, or until the fish flakes easily.

Serve with lime wedges and torn cilantro or top with a few spoonfuls of Pico de Gallo.

Pico de Gallo

Makes about 2 cups

- 3 plum (Roma) tomatoes, seeded and diced
- 1/3 cup finely diced red onion
- 2 scallions, sliced
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh cilantro
- 1 tablespoons minced jalapeño
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- Juice of 1/2 lime
- 1 teaspoon olive oil
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt

In a medium bowl, combine the tomatoes, red onion, scallions, cilantro, jalapeño, and garlic. Add the lime juice and oil, season with the salt, and stir to combine.

Serve immediately or cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate until ready to serve. ■
