

Haddock New CEO at ACCU

BIRMINGHAM—Alabama Central Credit Union recently announced the appointment of Brad Haddock as the new President and CEO. Haddock has 25 years of experience in the financial industry.

After serving as Executive Vice President of Retail Banking for Colonial Bank's South Alabama and Florida Panhandle area, Haddock returned to his hometown of Florence in 2010 as Senior Vice President of First Southern Bank.

Haddock

Haddock is an alumnus of both the University of North Alabama where he earned his Bachelors of Science in Management, and BAI Graduate School of Retail Banking.

Haddock was extremely involved in the Shoals area serving on the Board for the Shoals Economic Development Authority, YMCA, United Way and Kiwanis. He is looking forward to also being involved in the other communities where ACCU is located throughout state.

Alabama Central Credit Union has eight branches serving 28 counties throughout Alabama including branches in Florence, Muscle Shoals, and Russellville.

Garner Leads in Greenhill

FLORENCE – First Metro Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Belinda Garner to Branch Manager of the Greenhill location.

Garner's career in the financial sector spans an impressive nineteen years. She has served as Head Teller and Customer Service Representative since joining First Metro Bank in 2012.

Her new responsibilities include oversight of the daily operations at the Greenhill location while catering to the financial needs of First Metro Bank customers.

As a native of the Shoals area, Garner's roots in Lauderdale County run deep. "Being a graduate of Lexington High School and having served as part of the workforce in this area for many years, this community holds a very special place in my heart. I look forward to continuing my work in the community while building on previously established relationships

FLAG DAY - JUNE 14

Due Respect for Our Flag

SHOALS—Flag Day on June 14 is an appropriate time to review the U.S. Flag Code and flag etiquette. The U.S. Flag Code formalizes and unifies the traditional ways in which we give respect to the flag. It also contains specific instructions on how the flag is not to be used.

The following Do's and Don'ts associated with Old Glory, the U.S. Flag, are supplied by Military.com and Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW).

When Displaying the Flag, DO the Following:

- Display the U.S. flag from sunrise to sunset on buildings and stationary flagstaffs in the open.
- For a patriotic effect, the flag may be displayed 24-hours a

Keller Festival in an International Event

Tours, The Miracle Worker offer a Pre-Festival Glimpse

TUSCUMBIA—The population of Tuscumbia is expected to more than double for a few days as the 39th Annual Helen Keller Festival takes place June 22-25.

People from around the world will attend the festival that honors the legacy of Helen Keller, who was born there on June 27, 1880. Although illness left her deaf and blind as a toddler, Keller went on to become a prolific author, lecturer, and advocate for people with disabilities. She was known as America's First Lady of Courage.

The festival kicks off at 6pm on Thursday, June 22 with a parade through downtown Tuscumbia followed by activities and vendors at Spring Park. Music by Ben Bradford gets underway at 7pm with the Kerry Gilbert Band on stage at 8pm. Admission is free.

The music at Spring Park continues at 4pm Friday, June

Lions Building Excitement with Early FCS Schedule

FLORENCE -- The University of North Alabama's transition to NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) status in 2018 recently confirmed two significant additions to its 2018 schedule.

contract with Alabama A&M for a home and home series in 2018 and 2019.

UNA and Alabama A&M played annually with one exception from 1975-1997 when both were NCAA Division II institutions.

A&M is a member of the Southwestern Athletic Conference. They will host UNA, soon to be a member of the Big South Conference, on September 8, 2018 in Huntsville.

The Lions will then host the Bulldogs in Florence on September 14, 2019.

"These games are going to create a lot of excitement for UNA fans, Alabama A&M fans and football fans across north Alabama," UNA Athletic Director Mark Linder said. "It is renewing a great rivalry between schools in

You are invited to come and hear the Bible preached at Underwood Heights Church of Christ, 151 County Road 457 in Florence 7pm Sunday - Friday, June 18-23

The speakers are Joe Corley and Don Miller. Both men will speak each night and there will be a period of singing between the speakers.

Alabama Extension will host a series of instructional classes on the QuickBooks Pro software. The classes will help farmers and small business owners learn how to get the most out of this widely used program. Each section will last two nights with one class on Tuesday and one on Thursday, each from 6-8pm.

Participants will learn the basics of the software, such as file set up and data entry. The textbook that will be used during these classes is "QuickBooks 2014: The Missing Manual." This is a free Intuit manual that can be downloaded for personal use.

Here is a list of remaining area class locations and dates:

What Are You Depending On? Not By Works, Not Of Works

Surely one is not trusting our wicked flesh to justify himself. Philippians 3:3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. God describes our heart condition in Jeremiah 17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Romans 3:20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Romans 3:28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Romans 8:3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: Your flesh will never be content with its works. Do you really believe your good deeds satisfy God? Deception by the devil at its highest level. Paul knew it. Romans 7:18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. Romans 8:33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Jonah 2:9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD. Psalms 3:8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah. David and Jonah knew it. How come you don't know it? Ephesians 2:8-9 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. Titus 3:5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; 2 Timothy 1:9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. False teachers and blind leaders of the blind cause both to fall in the ditch. See Romans 10:9&10&13.

Helen Keller Festival...

23 with Tiera, Shane and Wendell, and the Sweat Tea Trio performing before headline act Shenandoah at 8pm. Admission to the park during the concert is $5.

Helen Keller Festival music at Spring Park begins at 2pm on Saturday, June 24 with Kaid Wright, Electric Zen, Dean, Aaron Blades, Josh Allison and Corner Pocket and the Wildwood Ruminators performing before Sister Hazel takes the stage at 8pm. Admission to the park after 11am Saturday is $5.

The music at Spring Park continues on Sunday, June 25 with C.C. Jags, Asleep by Ten, Natalie Askew, and NewSong at 4pm.

The keynote speaker is Mansfield Key. Admission is free for the Sunday concerts.

According to Fletcher Brown, entertainment coordinator for the festival, this year's music lineup is phenomenal.

VIP seating for the Friday and Saturday concerts is available online at HelenKellerFestival.com. The VIP tickets are $30 for each day.

The Miracle Worker will be performed Friday and Saturday each week through July 8 at Ivy Green. Gates open at 6:30pm and the play begins at 8pm. Tickets are $15 for reserved seats and $10 for general admission. Friday's admission also includes a tour of the home and grounds. The play depicts the early life of Helen Keller including her learning to communicate with the help of her teacher Anne Sullivan. For tickets, call 256-383-4066.

"We will have people from all over the country and from other countries at the play," said play director, Darren J. Butler. "I have people tell me every year that they planned their vacation around coming to Tusculumbia to attend the Miracle Worker and the Helen Keller Festival.

Butler said the William Gibson play commemorates one of the most incredible moments in American history. "We remind people of the incredible story and the hope Helen Keller still provides every day."

Earlier this year the Southeast Tourism Society named the Miracle Worker at Ivy Green a Top 20 event in the Southeastern states for June.

According to Eli Harper, a director for the festival, the market place at this year's festival will be outstanding with expanded vendors in type and number. He said, "Not only are we offering the unique and handmade arts and crafts that we have for the past 38 years, but we're also bringing in some specially selected vendors that will offer commercial and retail products."

In addition, Tours to the Historic Glencoe Cemetery, resting place of Keller family members, will be offered daily from 9am-4pm Monday-Friday.

A car and truck show is scheduled from 8am-2pm on Saturday in downtown Tusculumbia. A five mile run and one mile fun run, a golf tournament, and guided walking tours of downtown Tusculumbia are also taking place.

More details about the festival and a complete schedule sponsored by Helen Keller Hospital are available inside this issue and at HelenKellerFestival.com.

ON YOUR DEBT

Your Rights and Protections After Bankruptcy

B. Grant McNutt
Managing Attorney

At Bond & Botes we help people file for Bankruptcy relief, but it's also important to us that our clients are protected after the case is finished. The whole point of going through a bankruptcy is to receive a "fresh start" for your financial situation. With that in mind, I wanted to discuss some important rights and protections that extend even after a bankruptcy case is finished.

Discharge Injunction

The first and most important protection is called the discharge injunction. In the same way the Automatic Stay protects you from creditors during a bankruptcy case, the discharge injunction protects you after the case is over. The discharge injunction prohibits any creditor from attempting to collect from you on a debt that was discharged in the bankruptcy case. So you can't be sued for a discharged debt and creditors cannot send you bills or collection letters. The discharge injunction also applies to phone calls or verbal demands for payment. The strongest part of this protection is that it is permanent. Once a debt is discharged, the creditor cannot ever attempt collection again.

Credit Report

The discharge of a debt also extends to your credit report. A discharged debt cannot continue to report negatively against you on any of the three credit reports (Equifax, Experian, or TransUnion). In fact, associated laws such as the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) specify exactly what information can be shown. So if you have received a discharge in bankruptcy, but you still aren't receiving the full benefit then please call and set up an appointment with one of our offices to discuss your rights.

Discharged Debt Becomes Non-Enforceable

Finally, having a discharge makes a discharged debt non-enforceable. This is an important distinction for other areas of consumer rights. For example, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) provides for statutory fines and penalties against a debt collector that attempts to collect on a debt that isn't legally owed. So if you receive any collection letters or phone calls after receiving your discharge, then not only could you have a cause of action in Bankruptcy Court for a violation of the discharge injunction, but you may also have a cause of action in Federal District Court for an FDCPA violation. The fine is $1,000.00 plus your attorney's fees. Therefore, you do not even have to pay us a fee as we will collect it from your debt collector.

We want to make sure our clients receive the full benefit of their decision to file a Bankruptcy Case. While other firms may forget you as soon as your case is finished, we want to support you even after your case is done, and we recognize that protecting your rights as a consumer requires knowledge of more than just the Bankruptcy Code. So if you're having difficulty paying your bills and are considering Bankruptcy, please call us for a free initial consultation so that we can help you make a plan back to financial security. We can help you!

Alabama State Bar requires the following: "No representation is made that the quality of legal services to be performed is greater than the quality of legal services performed by other lawyers."

day if properly illuminated during the hours of darkness.

- When placed on a single staff or lanyard, place the U.S. Flag above all other flags.
- When flags are displayed in a row, the U.S. flag goes to the observer's left. Flags of other nations are flown at same height. State and local flags are traditionally flown lower.
- When used during a marching ceremony or parade with other flags, the U.S. Flag will be to the observer's left.

• On special days, the flag may be flown at half-staff. On Memorial Day it is flown at half-staff until noon and then raised.

- When flown at half-staff, the flag should first be hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position. The flag should be again raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day. By "half-staff" is meant lowering the flag to one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff.
- When the flag is displayed over the middle of the street, it should be suspended vertically with the union (blue field of stars) to the north in an east and west street or to the east in a north and south street.

- When placed on a podium, the flag should be placed on the speaker's right or the staging area. Other flags should be placed to the left.
- When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall (or other flat surface), the union (blue field of stars) should be uppermost and to the flag's own right, that is, to the observer's left.
- When displayed in a window it should be displayed in the same way -- with the union or blue field to the left of the observer in the street.

- When the flag is displayed on a car, the staff shall be fixed firmly to the chassis or clamped to the right fender.
- When the flag is used to cover a casket, it should be so placed that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The flag should not be lowered into the grave or allowed to touch the ground.

When Saluting the Flag DO the Following:

- All persons present in uniform (military, police, fire, etc.) should render the military salute.
- Members of the armed forces and veterans who are present but not in uniform may render the military salute.
- All other persons present should face the flag and stand at attention with their right hand over the heart, or if applicable, remove their headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

I was in an accident where I was hurt and my car was damaged. The other insurance company says it is my fault, however, a lady was waived through traffic and she hit me in the side. They say that I was trying to get into the turn lane early and that where I was driving actually wasn't in the turn lane yet, that the turn lane hadn't started where I was. What can I do?

Dustin, Sheffield, AL

Alabama is a contributory negligence state whereas the majority of other states are comparative negligence states. In a comparative negligence state if you are ten percent at fault and the losses or damages in the case are $100,000 then the jury simply deducts ten percent or in this case $10,000 from the losses or damages and you receive $90,000 and that accounts for your percentage of the loss that you caused.

In Alabama if you are one percent at fault you are barred from recovery. That's called a contributory negligence statute and this is a contributory negligence state. Just roughly based on what I see before me this is the kind of case that I would call (and I don't know where this term comes from) a dog fall. I do not believe that you would be successful in suing the other driver.

Courtesy wrecks (being waived through traffic by a courteous driver) are common and courtesy wrecks are the fault of the driver who failed to yield the right of way. If you were not in a lane zoned for traffic at the time of the accident then they would argue there would be some fault on your part as well. While you would not be successful suing her for failing to yield the right of way, she would not be successful in suing you for driving in a lane not zoned for traffic because she failed to yield the right of way. Neither side would win.

We see these cases all the time but as I've said time after time in this column if you or someone you know is hurt or injured you should talk to a lawyer who does injury type cases. Make use of the free consultation. If the injury was severe enough to warrant investigation we could put several investigators at the scene at the same time and look for traffic patterns of people who are there at the same time every day and see if we could find a witness who saw it based on your perspective, as an example of something that might be done in a serious injury case.

Indoor Range Now Open

FLORENCE—Cypress Creek Indoor Range is the Shoals Area's first indoor shooting range. It recently celebrated its grand opening with a ribbon shooting ceremony.

Everyone from novice shooter to the highly skilled is invited to attend and take a tour of the facility. Cypress Creek Indoor Range has a knowledgeable staff available to answer any questions you may have. Services offered include renting a gun, the test-drive program, gunsmithing, gun safety classes, and buying your next gun.

"We are a state-of-art facility designed with elements representing the Shoals' beauty and history. We pride ourselves in being a family friendly destination for fun in a safe environment" said General manager, Gene Schrieber.

Everyone is invited to rent a lane and shoot in one of their ten personalized shooting stalls. They offer five lanes that are 50 yards long and five that are 25 yards long. All stalls are equipped with state of the art, touch screen target retrievers, giving the shooter the flexibility and convenience of shooting at precise distances. Each lane is rented by the hour and can be used by no more than two people during that hour. They are open to the public with membership options available.

Cypress Creek Indoor Range also includes a retail store and training center and is located on Hwy 157 just north of the Underwood community.

Florence Earns National Award

FLORENCE – The work of the Department of Planning and Community Development of the City of Florence has been rewarded. The city was recently named a recipient of the 2017 John A. Sasso Award from the National Community Development Association for outstanding education and outreach during National Community Development Week. Only fourteen cities throughout the country received the award.

Florence was selected based on an evaluation of criteria such as partnerships, engagement, results, and innovation. Mayor Steve Holt and the Florence City Council kicked off the activities by issuing a proclamation declaring National Community Development Week. Each day of the week featured an aspect of the City's program including Public Services, Residential Rehabilitation, Blight Removal, Public Facilities and Public Improvements. Information along with success stories and pictures were showcased on each of the City's social media accounts including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.

COLBERT COUNTY ALREADY HAS AN INDEPENDENT AMBULANCE SERVICE.

Last Sunday's ad by Shoals Hospital about ambulance services in Colbert County contained inaccuracies, untruths, and head-scratching statistics.

Just so you know, here are the facts about Keller EMS and Helen Keller Hospital:

Fact 1

All of our ambulances wear the Huntsville Hospital Health System "HH" logo because we are proud of our affiliation with the HH System. Our affiliation preserved 1,100 local jobs, brought $10 million in capital investments since 2015, and guaranteed that quality, locally-controlled, not-for-profit health care and services would be available to Colbert County and all Shoals area residents for 40 years.

Fact 2

In 2016, 99% of Keller EMS 911 transports went to Keller, ECM, and Shoals. Do Sheffield and Florence hospitals count as "out-of-town"?

2016 Colbert County Emergency Calls

GRAPH INDICATES THE HOSPITAL WHERE PATIENTS WERE TAKEN BY AMBULANCE.

Fact 3

Doctors and patients decide where patients are treated. Outrageous estimates about the amount of money spent on out-of-town hospital stays are based on fake numbers and have nothing to do with ambulance services.

Fact 4

Keller EMS was founded in the early 1980's because of a lack of reliable ambulance service in Colbert County and by request of the Colbert County Commission. For over 30 years, Colbert County has enjoyed reliable, safe, high-tech, and friendly emergency ambulance response. Is disrupting that stability really in the community's best interest?

Fact 5

ECM and Shoals Hospital have a long-standing relationship with Shoals Ambulance. They are working together to attempt to gain control of all 911 ambulance response services in Lauderdale and Colbert County.

Isn't all of this talk about ambulance service really just an attempted back-room deal for Lauderdale County's hospital to try and gain control of ambulance services and all medical care in Colbert County and the greater Shoals community?

Preserve your right to choose. Listen to the facts. Thank you for supporting your Colbert County hospital – Helen Keller Hospital and Keller EMS.

Common Sense Offsets Hysteria

Thankfully, someone with some authority rescued us temporarily from this climate insanity. Thank you, President Trump, for your leadership in saying goodbye to the Paris Climate Accord and fulfilling a primary campaign promise.

It's important to distinguish between an international treaty and an agreement.

In the United States, the word treaty is an official agreement that is made by and with the advice and consent of the senate as a supermajority -- article II, section 2, clause 2 of the Constitution.

All parties participate in similar fashion in a treaty which is fully binding on all signatories. The North Atlantic Alliance is a primary example. Nonbinding agreements like the Paris Climate Accord are voluntary arrangements, enabled in this country by a simple executive order. Likewise, an executive order can rescind them. Each nation has the flexibility to assess the benefits for themselves. Other nations may loosely refer to Paris as a treaty, but it is not. Withdrawal doesn't breach international law. An international treaty requires two-thirds consensus of U.S. lawmakers. It requires unity in thought across aisles, persuasion, and civil discourse - something we currently find very difficult. The same process is undertaken to a certain extent in other free countries.

United for a Connection

SHEFFIELD—Buffalo Rock Pepsi, Wellspring Advertising, and United Way of Northwest Alabama will present the 2nd Annual Rock the River event on Saturday, June 17 at Riverfront Park in Sheffield from noon-9pm.

Rock the River will feature local musicians throughout the day and will wrap up with special guests, the Wolves of Chernobyl, at 7:30pm. There will be food and drink vendors, specialty vendors, and activities for the kids. All proceeds will benefit United Way's 2-1-1 Information and Referral.

2-1-1 is a free, confidential referral and information helpline that connects people from all communities of all ages to the essential health and human services they need, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. United Way's 211 answered nearly 5000 calls and provided over 8000 resources to individuals and families in crisis in Northwest Alabama last year.

These bands will be donating their time in 45 minute sets that benefit the 2-1-1 system.

"I'm blown away by the generosity of these musicians and the fact that they'd give of their time and talents for

Qualified Concerns

Editor, Courier Journal:

Democrats have acted like it is an accepted fact that Russians interfered in our presidential election. Facts indicate Obama's NSA was aware of what the Russians were attempting and reported the same to him. Yet, there was no call for investigation by the Democrats. They also indicate there is something that needs investigating about "rumored" Trump and Russia ties, when to-date nothing has been found that indicates anything improper happened.

Where was the Democrat's concern when the Russians paid Bill Clinton $500,000 for one speech? or when Hillary did not disclose Russian donations to the Clinton Library while she was Secretary of State? or Hillary's $145 million from shareholders of a uranium company sold to the Russians? or when Hillary approved sale of 20% of total US. uranium to the Russians? or when Hillary sent classified emails from her personal email server? or Hillary's actions in the Benghazi massacre?

And what about John Podesta being a business partner with a Russian company that received $35 million from the Russian government?

It appears the Clintons are involved in more unlawful, and in some instances treasonable acts, without the Democrats ever expressing any concern.

Floyd Price
Florence

The claim that Podesta's account was hacked is even more farfetched...

Ourselves to Blame

Letter to the Editor:

The greatest opportunity for wealth creation in the twenty-first century is projected to be the development of least-expensive electricity technology. This means natural gas, wind (the cost of wind will fall 40% by 2040) and solar (the least expensive electricity technology by 2030). By pulling out of the climate agreement our government has given a great gift to the rest of the world, which will empower and encourage China, Europe, and India to focus on these markets.

The clear loser in this great change is coal which our government now champions. However, markets do not seem to want coal as much as they used to and this form of energy apparently peaked in 2013. China cancelled 100 planned coal facilities in

WE HAD YET ANOTHER CLIENT call us concerning a pop-up message on his screen that scared him into calling "Microsoft."

My regular reader already knows the drill here. If you see that, it is a scam. If you call them, they will get you to give them remote control access to your computer, show you all sorts of scary things, tell you that you have illegal material on your computer, and that you have horrible viruses that will steal your banking information and that you need to give them a few hundred dollars to fix the problems. All of these claims are 100% pure bull hockey.

Fisher

CALLING ALL OLD PEOPLE!

by "The Computer Skeptic" enough to bring his system into to us to make sure his computer wasn't infected. It wasn't so sent him home and warned him not to call "Microsoft" ever again.

Four days later, he called to tell us that he again received the nefarious pop-up, again called "Microsoft," but this time he gave them FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS! He brought his computer back to us, we checked it for viruses and found nothing.

So many people would hear such a story and the first reaction is, "Gosh what an idiot!" I'm here to tell you guys to stop that. Old people didn't get old by being idiots. The problem they have is an interesting one that I hope you will ponder next time you hear of an old person getting scammed. They need our help for the same reason a blind person needs help crossing the road. Let me explain:

There have been numerous studies comparing the brains of old folks to the brains of young people and how they assess "risk." I don't want to bore you with the details but there appears to be a distinct area of the brain called the anterior insula that is located deep down in the middle of the brain. This area of the brain seems to be responsible for delivering "gut feelings" of trustworthiness. When the anterior insula degrades, the person's ability to detect suspicious people degrades. The changes begin to be apparent around 55 years old and continue to degrade until we assume room temperature.

So old folks literally cannot help it. Evil scammers know this and take advantage of them every chance they get. Everyone from door-to-door vacuum cleaner sales people (I've heard a lot about these people lately) to televangelists to psychics to caregivers to fake "Microsoft" employees. They are predators looking for the weakest among us. Is that infuriating or what?

We have to help each other out. If you know an old person, please warn them about these scams. Check on them from time to time. If you can't do it, call me and I'll do it for you. Let's all use our own anterior insula (while we can) to make sure the people they are involved with really are trustworthy.

Riddle Card

- Why did the fly fly?
- Why is my cup of tea stronger than yours?
- Why is the letter "E" like London?
- If a chicken could talk, what kind of language would it speak?
- Why is a loaf of bread four weeks old like a mouse running into a hole?

IT'S ALPHABET SOUP TIME! To solve this problem you must replace the letters in our AlphaMath puzzle with the digits 0, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, so that you have a correct addition expression. The same letters get the same digits. See if you can get a higher total than we did.

Medicare Minute

Medicare Part B

Medicare Part B is the part of Medicare that is billed when you receive services as an outpatient by a Medicare approved provider such as your primary care physician (PCP) or specialist. Although a visit to your doctor is the primary way that you will use Medicare Part B it also covers many other services. Before we look at exactly what Part B covers let's discuss couple of other things.

Whereas Medicare Part A is free to most Americans, Medicare Part B has a cost or premium. For those people who were enrolled in Medicare Part B prior to 2016 the premium for having Part B is $104.90/month. If you enrolled or are enrolling into Medicare Part B for the first time in 2016 your premium will be $121.80. Why the difference in premium? Because those enrolled in Part B prior to 2016 did not receive a COLA on their Social Security for 2016 there could not be an increase in their Part B premium. Also these premiums are income based. If you make over a certain income limit your Part B premium can be higher.

Because there is a premium attached to Medicare Part B this coverage is optional. This means you are not required to enroll in Medicare Part B. There are two important things to remember about Part B being optional. First, if you opt out of Part B you will have no coverage under Medicare for your outpatient services. Second, if you decide at a later date to enroll in Part B there can be a late enrollment penalty applied that will last as long as you live and have Part B. There are exceptions to the late enrollment penalty that we will discuss in future articles.

Ourselves to Blame...

January of this year, choosing to leave known coal deposits in the ground in favor of renewable power.

The rivers of finance and renewable energy infrastructure will begin to bypass our country and create jobs in China, Europe, and India. If the twenty-first century belongs to China, we will have only ourselves to blame.

Editor:

James Comey's testimony before the Senate Intelligence Committee was ultimately all about James Comey. The minute he acknowledged that nobody had ever been prosecuted for hoping something and that neither President Trump nor Attorney General Sessions had actually ordered him to stop any investigation with their words, any potential obstruction case against anyone in the Trump administration including the President ended.

The rest of his testimony would have been better left for his memoirs.

Rich's Death is Suspicious

Dear Sir:

The Democrats and the media are in meltdown mode about the young man, Seth Rich, who was shot in the back near his home in Washington D.C.

Mr. Rich was an employee of the Democratic National Committee. There are many questions surrounding his death, including the theory that he may have been the source of the emails released by Wikileaks.

If that is put aside for a moment, the questions around the emails become very troubling. The DNC refused to allow access to their server or computers, claiming the Russians had stolen the emails. However, there is no proof. Mr. Assage of Wikileaks has denied that his source was a state. He has stated his belief is that it was an inside job.

Mr. Rich is a prime suspect. The mystery surrounding his death lends credit to the theory that he was murdered. His laptop computer has disappeared and paramedics who transported him to the hospital say that he should have survived his wounds.

He was put into a room alone and the exact cause of death is not known. Proof that he had provided the stolen emails would kill the story that the Russians had anything to do with the DNC theft. The claim that Podesta's account was hacked is even more farfetched. He is guilty of opening a phishing email and providing his password, which by the way is password.

It seems to me that the entire mess is more a stew of stupidity than anything else. Just think—we could have had these idiots running the government. Mr. Rich is a patriot in the company of persons like Nathan Hale. Rest in peace, young man. We will find the truth!

Jimmy Wayne Cosby

Steps Back on Climate Policy

Editor:

A week after releasing a budget proposal that would slash funding for USDA rural development, cut farm conservation programs, and exacerbate hunger in rural communities, President Trump announced the U.S. is pulling out of the Paris Climate Accord. The accord is a landmark international commitment to limit climate change below two degrees Celsius (3.6 degrees F), a dangerous ecological tipping point.

As the largest per capita carbon emitter and economy in the world, the U.S. must commit to climate action. Under the Paris Climate Accord, we agreed to reduce our greenhouse gas emissions by 26-28% compared to 2005 levels. Yet, the current administration has taken steps backward on climate policy.

Those of us living in the rural U.S. know backtracking presents a threat to our families and communities. Not only are rural communities likely to suffer some of the worst consequences of climate change, but we will miss out on opportunities to shape the direction of global policy and markets.

The National Climate Assessment predicts climate change will have devastating effects on agriculture, forestry, and other sectors upon which rural communities depend. Policies that help avoid these costly scenarios also have economic and health benefits for rural communities. The renewable energy industry grew 14%. Solar alone created 2% of all new jobs in 2016. Yet, the administration's proposed 2018 budget will decimate programs that support research and development of the advanced energy economy.

We cannot afford to fall behind on climate action. As one of only three UN member nations to refuse to participate in the Paris Climate Accord, the remainder of the world will continue to innovate and outpace us. And rural communities in the U.S. will be left behind, again.

DAVE Says

BUY LEASED BUILDING?

Dear Dave,
When you use the envelope system, what should you do with any leftover money?
Mandy

Dear Mandy,
My suggestion would be to carry it over to the next month. Lots of folks don't use all the money in their clothing envelope during a month. There's nothing wrong with letting a little extra build up in one of your categories if you don't spend it all in a given month or two.

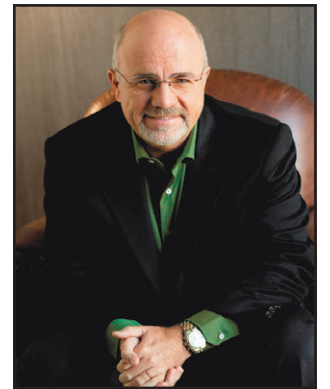

You should be hitting the budget pretty close each month on categories like food. Getting out of debt and managing your money wisely doesn't mean going hungry. If you do end up with a little left over in the food envelope, treat yourself to a nice dinner out, or buy something that's food-oriented.

But it's okay to carry a few categories over from month to month. Just make sure you don't get crazy and blow that money on something outside the intended category, or on stuff you really don't need.

—Dave

TOO MUCH RISK

Dear Dave,
I have some company stock my grandparents bought for me years ago. Would be a good idea to cash out the stock and roll it into an IRA?
Dylan

Dear Dylan,
Technically, you wouldn't be rolling it into an IRA. You would cash it out and use the money to establish a Roth IRA. And yes, I would do that.

It was very kind of your grandparents to buy you a gift like this, but I think you can do better. You didn't mention an amount, but let's say you've got $10,000 in that company's stock. Now, would you buy the stock if you had $10,000 sitting on the table? Most people, myself included, would say no because there's too much risk. I wouldn't advise having the majority of your wealth — the highest percentage of your net worth — tied up in one single company. That's bad news.

So yes, I would sell that stock and use the money to fund a Roth IRA or multiple Roth IRAs. I invest my Roth IRA money in mutual funds that have a solid track record of outperforming the S&P 500 for 10 years or longer.

What would an out-of-town hospital stay mean for you and your family?

If you or a loved one have ever had to endure an out-of-town hospital stay, you know just how costly and stressful it can be.

Every year, in fact, Shoals families spend $205 million on out-of-town hospital stays—some of which are completely unnecessary.

One reason: if you dial 911 in Colbert County there is a 100% chance you'll be picked up by an ambulance with a Huntsville Hospital logo on it.

That's why Colbert County needs an independent ambulance company answering 911 calls. Not one that's owned by one hospital or hospital group.

That way, patients would be taken to the hospital that makes the most sense for them and their condition. Families would save time, money, and stress.

And that would be good for everyone.

close proximity that have great fan bases. These are the kind of games that we need to be playing and want to play."

NDSU BISON

The most prominent programs in the history of the NCAA football playoffs will meet September 22, 2018. The Lions will travel to Fargo, North Dakota to face five-time FCS National Champion, North Dakota State, at the Fargo Dome.

UNA has claimed three NCAA Division II National Championships, is tied for the most playoff appearances in Division II history with 21, and is second in Division II history in playoff wins with 35. UNA is the only program in Division II history to win three straight national championships (1993-95) and the Lions have advanced to the Division II Playoffs 12 times in the last 14 seasons.

North Dakota State won five national championships on the NCAA Division II level before moving up to the FCS ranks. The Bison claimed five straight FCS National Championships from 2011-2015. The Lions and Bison met in McAllen, Texas in the 1985 Division II National Championship Game. NDSU won 35-7.

"Our goal in moving to the FCS level is to continue to compete at a high level and play for championships. The best way to find out where you stand is by playing the best competition that you can," Linder added. "By playing NDSU, we will be able to play against one of the best FCS programs in America and see firsthand what it will take to get there." North Alabama will play a full NCAA Division II schedule in 2017 in its final year of membership in the Gulf South Conference. UNA will begin competing as a member of the Big South Conference in football in 2019.

UNA is continuing to work to solidify its football schedules for 2018 and beyond. Additional announcements will be forthcoming.

Sense...

Paris is a continuation of the global cooling/global warming/climate change scheme. It is far more about controlling America's collective lifestyle and a transferring of what's left of U.S. wealth than it is about stabilizing the world's climate.

I am among the first to admit that this President has more flaws than this space can list in a week. However, HE alone had the courage to look past the progressive talking points, subject himself to misplaced ridicule, and get us out of this international hijacking of our lifestyle and tax dollars. It was an answer to both prayer and reason. Even if we could influence the earth's climate, the U.S. pullout would negligibly impact the average temps by .02° Fahrenheit over a century. Natural climate fluctuations will likely be greater than that figure.

Continued acceptance would have further handcuffed our economy, sent more jobs outside our borders, and would have stripped us of hundreds of billions of dollars that we would have to borrow and can never pay back. No one with common sense should contemplate that decision for more than a few seconds, especially when the world's primary polluters, China and India, are not subject to the emissions guidelines.

We keep hearing the phrase, "The science is settled." They are right, it is. There is no credibility left for this argument.

The only thing factual about man-made climate change is that we have an assortment of wealthy, overly-hyped entertainment and political personalities who claim the sky will be falling because of Carbon Dioxide (CO<sub>2</sub>), yet they insist on taking private chartered flights with regularity.

We need to remind ourselves of three crucial facts:

- Atmospheric temperature data clearly shows that our planet hasn't gotten any warmer for almost two decades, no matter what traditional media or Facebook fanatics tell us.

- CO<sub>2</sub> is not a pollutant. It's among nature's most important plant foods, a life-sustaining trace natural gas that is the basis for supporting life on earth. When there's more of it, plants, crops, and trees flourish, which in turn pours more Oxygen (O) back into our air.

- The "97% scientific consensus" for man-made global warming is an arbitrary number that our former president threw out during a press conference for emphasis. It is a figure which every news organization has parroted, and for which none has ever asked substantiation. Besides, the only climate scientists who convene on this matter are those in the circle of agreement. Many are federally subsidized and none have any concern about U.S. displaced jobs and workers through this global accord.

I am all for continuing private efforts at improving alternative energy options. Let those taking the risk reap any rewards. However, at this point, alternative energy is limited in capabilities. It is more costly to produce, and is less reliable than we need. Wind and solar farms require conventional energy-producing backups. Taxpayer subsidies are the only way that products can be manufactured or sold at competitive prices. The electricity that a grossly-expensive electric car takes to go 250 miles is more energy-consuming than traditional vehicles. In addition, with fossil fuel vehicles we don't have to wait for four hours between charges to drive for four hours.

The best evidence of sham is the climate change proponents themselves. Here are just two examples

Christiana Figueres, executive secretary of U.N.'s Framework Convention on Climate Change, summed it up before last year's Paris meeting. "This is the first time in the history of mankind that we are setting ourselves the task of intentionally, within a defined period of time, to change the economic development model that has been reigning for at least 150 years, since the Industrial Revolution. This is probably the most difficult task we have ever given ourselves, which is to intentionally transform the economic development model for the first time in human history."

Ottmar Edenhofer, former co-chair of the United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, exposed the ruse even further. "One has to free oneself from the illusion that international climate policy is environmental policy. This has almost nothing to do with the environmental policy... such as deforestation or the ozone hole... We redistribute de facto the world's wealth by climate policy."

And we have had a willing Marxist in control of US policy for the past eight years.

President Trump is absolutely correct in looking out for the U.S. economy and U.S. workers FIRST. Frankly, it is more than amazing how we allow thieving political representatives opposed to a U.S.-first idea walk around freely and unobstructed.

We've heard the catastrophic earth-ending predictions for decades. None have come to pass, so let's not get our panties in a wad about Paris.

Unless the Lord decides that He is fed up humanity's sinfulness, we'll have plenty of time to civilly debate and improve energy options without being ripped off by a political power-grab.

Bad Examples of Fatherhood

Thinking about Father's Day, there are many good things I could say about fathers and their importance to our society. However, here I have chosen to think about his role in reverse. In other words, what is it like to have a father that does not fulfil the role God has given him? Unfortunately, we don't have to look far to find examples of those and I offer two for your consideration.

Example One: A man, only in his early thirties, was killed in an accident leaving behind his wife and small children. Adding to the pain was the fact that he was not a Christian. In spite of the pleadings of his wife and children for years, he had shown little interest in spiritual things.

Because of the distraught and shocked condition of the young widow, the lot fell upon a Christian friend to take their oldest child, an eight-year-old daughter, to the funeral home and the service.

The little girl kept asking, "Did daddy go to heaven? He never went to Church!" Several who heard her question tried to offer some encouraging words, but no answer seemed to satisfy. Deep within her innocent heart was the gnawing realization that her Daddy's life was not filled with those things that give hope at death. (What a pity!)

Example Two: A Christian man's father passed away in another town. Even though he had not seen him in some time, due to a stormy relationship, he was still his daddy, so he went back home for the funeral.

Later, he recalls the funeral and confesses that he cried during the service. "Why?" he asked himself. "Maybe I wept because of what could have been." You see his dad was an alcoholic. Drinking and having what the world calls having "a good time" dominated his life. Consequently, he missed out on the real joys of life. For example, he never knew the fulfillment of being involved in the lives of his children, nor did he ever know the thrill of grandchildren sitting on his lap with their little arms around his neck and saying, "I love you, granddaddy!" (Again - what a pity!)

These are two of many examples of what fathers are not to be. And I would encourage any daddy who finds himself in the above stories to turn his life around before it is forever too late.

Fathers, you are tremendously important to your families! Your children need you and admire you perhaps more than you even know - so please, don't let them down! (cf. Deut. 6:4f; Eph. 6:4; Col. 3:21. etc.)

Paris is a continuation of the global cooling/global warming/climate change scheme. It is far more about controlling America's collective lifestyle and a transferring of what's left of U.S. wealth than it is about stabilizing the world's climate.

I am among the first to admit that this President has more flaws than this space can list in a week. However, HE alone had the courage to look past the progressive talking points, subject himself to misplaced ridicule, and get us out of this international hijacking of our lifestyle and tax dollars. It was an answer to both prayer and reason. Even if we could influence the earth's climate, the U.S. pullout would negligibly impact the average temps by .02° Fahrenheit over a century. Natural climate fluctuations will likely be greater than that figure.

Continued acceptance would have further handcuffed our economy, sent more jobs outside our borders, and would have stripped us of hundreds of billions of dollars that we would have to borrow and can never pay back. No one with common sense should contemplate that decision for more than a few seconds, especially when the world's primary polluters, China and India, are not subject to the emissions guidelines.

We keep hearing the phrase, "The science is settled." They are right, it is. There is no credibility left for this argument.

The only thing factual about man-made climate change is that we have an assortment of wealthy, overly-hyped entertainment and political personalities who claim the sky will be falling because of Carbon Dioxide (CO<sub>2</sub>), yet they insist on taking private chartered flights with regularity.

We need to remind ourselves of three crucial facts:

- Atmospheric temperature data clearly shows that our planet hasn't gotten any warmer for almost two decades, no matter what traditional media or Facebook fanatics tell us.

- CO<sub>2</sub> is not a pollutant. It's among nature's most important plant foods, a life-sustaining trace natural gas that is the basis for supporting life on earth. When there's more of it, plants, crops, and trees flourish, which in turn pours more Oxygen (O) back into our air.

- The "97% scientific consensus" for man-made global warming is an arbitrary number that our former president threw out during a press conference for emphasis. It is a figure which every news organization has parroted, and for which none has ever asked substantiation. Besides, the only climate scientists who convene on this matter are those in the circle of agreement. Many are federally subsidized and none have any concern about U.S. displaced jobs and workers through this global accord.

I am all for continuing private efforts at improving alternative energy options. Let those taking the risk reap any rewards. However, at this point, alternative energy is limited in capabilities. It is more costly to produce, and is less reliable than we need. Wind and solar farms require conventional energy-producing backups. Taxpayer subsidies are the only way that products can be manufactured or sold at competitive prices. The electricity that a grossly-expensive electric car takes to go 250 miles is more energy-consuming than traditional vehicles. In addition, with fossil fuel vehicles we don't have to wait for four hours between charges to drive for four hours.

The best evidence of sham is the climate change proponents themselves. Here are just two examples

Christiana Figueres, executive secretary of U.N.'s Framework Convention on Climate Change, summed it up before last year's Paris meeting. "This is the first time in the history of mankind that we are setting ourselves the task of intentionally, within a defined period of time, to change the economic development model that has been reigning for at least 150 years, since the Industrial Revolution. This is probably the most difficult task we have ever given ourselves, which is to intentionally transform the economic development model for the first time in human history."

Ottmar Edenhofer, former co-chair of the United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, exposed the ruse even further. "One has to free oneself from the illusion that international climate policy is environmental policy. This has almost nothing to do with the environmental policy... such as deforestation or the ozone hole... We redistribute de facto the world's wealth by climate policy."

And we have had a willing Marxist in control of US policy for the past eight years.

President Trump is absolutely correct in looking out for the U.S. economy and U.S. workers FIRST. Frankly, it is more than amazing how we allow thieving political representatives opposed to a U.S.-first idea walk around freely and unobstructed.

We've heard the catastrophic earth-ending predictions for decades. None have come to pass, so let's not get our panties in a wad about Paris.

Unless the Lord decides that He is fed up humanity's sinfulness, we'll have plenty of time to civilly debate and improve energy options without being ripped off by a political power-grab.

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Ridge explained to Quinn about Eric's past relationships and why his father would never leave her. Liam made an unfavorable suggestion to Bill about the plan to take over the Spectra building knowing that Sally's business might be around for a while. Quinn's sense of security was short-lived after she received another threat against her life. Brooke was shocked when Ridge brought up a not-so-pleasant time in their past that she had forgotten about. Katie had a difficult time suppressing her rage. Bill and Brooke basked in their marital bliss. Word got out to family and friends about the incident at the Forrester mansion. Brooke couldn't help but notice that Ridge and Quinn appeared closer than ever. Wait to See: Sisters clash over a legal issue.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Hope and Abe made a shocking discovery. An unlikely couple got married. Gabi and Chad talked about where they were headed romantically. JJ warned Sonny that extreme measures might be used to take down Paul. Claire was horrified when everyone assumed the worst of her -- including Theo. Hope's advice caused Claire to rethink her future. Sonny tried to get through to Paul. Lani admitted to Eli that she wasn't sure where she and JJ stood. Steve learned that Anjelica was out for revenge against Adrienne. Jade was forced to make a confession. Dario pressed Abigail to file for a quickie divorce. Wait to See: Tripp gains Kayla's trust while devising a plan to frame her.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Carly began second-guessing herself. Scotty worried about his fate.

Sonny confided in Laura. Jordan asked TJ a big favor. Sam was increasingly on edge. Jason worked to find out who had been doing Helena's bidding. Amy had an important favor to ask. Jason got ahead of his enemy. Liz took great pains to keep Jake safe. Sam was less than thrilled to see her mother. Olivia received some surprising news. Nathan gained a little perspective. Sam had a premonition. Lulu and Dante found themselves in over their heads. Kevin whisked Laura away. Michael had something important to discuss with Nelle. Wait to See: TJ's secret is revealed.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Scott tried to resign until Victor told him he purchased a new company called Hashtag for him to run. Abby promised to buy Ashley a new lab if Jack sold his shares back to her. Jack and Nikki bonded over his issues with Dina. Sharon confessed to Mariah that she didn't trust Tessa and worried that she would break Noah's heart. Lily vented to Neil about Juliet's lawsuit, and he in turn asked her if Cane was being totally honest with her. Ravi agreed to help Ashley learn more about Graham's past. At Crimson Lights, Sharon recognized Zack from his date with Abby and attempted to make small talk. Reed asked for Mattie's number. Juliet refused to drop her lawsuit despite Cane's pleas. Wait to See: Jordan sees a new side of Hilary.

Why Do I Get Repeated Urinary Tract Infections?

If you have been alive long enough, chances are you will have experienced the annoyance of a urinary tract infection, with its classic symptoms of burning and pain when urinating, urinating frequently and the sensation of pressure around your bladder. Sometimes the discomfort can even ascend into your back, suggesting that the infection has worked its way up to your kidneys. Of those who suffer from urinary tract infections, the majority only have to deal with it every once in a long while. Others however have the misfortune of developing frequent recurrences of these infections. Naturally, many of my patients dealing with this will ask why and what they can do about it.

While in many cases we have trouble finding an underlying cause, there are often certain conditions that can predispose individuals to getting urinary tract infections (which I will abbreviate UTIs going forward). Perhaps the greatest risk factor for repeated and severe UTIs is in patients who wear long-term urinary catheters. These are often placed in patients who difficulty emptying their bladder, such as in men who cannot urinate due to a severely enlarged prostate or anyone who has suffered damage to the nerves responsible for bladder emptying. Unfortunately, insertion of the catheter can potentially introduce new germs into the bladder and the catheter itself provides a surface for bacteria to stick and multiply. You don't have to be wearing a catheter to get frequent UTIs, however. Anything that causes prolonged retention of urine in the bladder can contribute to developing UTIs. For example, some medicines can promote urinary retention, such as those that folks take for urinary incontinence. If the medicine works too well, then the urine that is sitting for prolonged periods of time in your bladder can set up as an environment for germs to grow. There are times when people have anatomical problems in their urinary tract that causes urine to back up and lead to UTIs. Frequent UTIs are also seen in people who have a weakened immune system due to conditions like diabetes, cancer or various genetic causes of poor immune function. Infected kidney stones are another underappreciated cause of recurrent UTIs. Finally, sexual relations can sometimes lead to germs entering the urinary tract to cause infection.

As those who have had a UTI will know, antibiotics are the mainstay of therapy. But how do you address recurrent UTIs? One approach is to treat each UTI as it comes, with its own course of antibiotics. Some health care practitioners will often place a patient with frequent UTIs on antibiotics that they take daily to prevent UTIs from occurring. While this strategy can cut down on the UTIs, it has potential disadvantages. First, taking prolonged antibiotics increases the risk of having adverse effects to them, such as gastrointestinal problems. Second, prolonged courses of antibiotics can lead to germs in your body becoming resistant to those antibiotics, making it more difficult to treat a new UTI if you get one. The approach I take to patients with frequent UTIs is to first see if there is any reversible underlying condition or medication that is making it easier to get the UTIs. Many times, we can improve things just by addressing underlying causes. Also, I'll often encourage patients to consider taking a probiotic. The theory behind this is that because most of the germs that cause UTIs are derived from "bad bacteria" that live in your gut, replenishing your intestines with probiotics can help suppress the growth of the "bad bacteria". Indeed, there is research to suggest that probiotics can help decrease the frequency of UTIs. As always, please consult your primary care provider before implementing any advice in this column.

Etiquette...

When Stowing or Disposing of the Flag, DO the following:

- Fold in the traditional triangle for stowage; never wad up the flag.

The VFW offers the following Instructions for Properly Disposing of a Worn Flag:

The flag should be folded in its customary manner. It is important that the fire be fairly large and of sufficient intensity to ensure complete burning of the flag. Place the flag on the fire. The individual(s) can come to attention, salute the flag, recite the Pledge of Allegiance and have a brief period of silent reflection. After the flag is completely consumed, the fire should then be safely extinguished and the ashes buried. Please make sure you are conforming to local/state fire codes or ordinances.

Quick List of Flag Etiquette DON'TS:

- Don't dip the U.S. Flag for any person, flag, or vessel.
- Don't let the flag touch the ground.
- Don't fly flag upside down unless there is an emergency.
- Don't carry the flag flat, or carry things in it.
- Don't use the flag as clothing.
- Don't store the flag where it can get dirty.
- Don't use it as a cover.
- Don't fasten it or tie it back. Always allow it to fall free.
- Don't draw on or otherwise mark the flag.
- Don't use the flag for decoration. Use bunting with the blue on top, then white, then red.

Courier Journal ADOPT A FRIEND

The animals you see here are currently in local animal shelters or rescue facilities. Adoption fees vary and include having your new friend spayed or neutered, if necessary. Help us help these and other animals by adopting a new friend today.

The ladies love DEACON! He's a charmer, and he'll win your heart right away. Deacon is HIGH ENERGY! He will do best in a home that has a lot of time to give & an active lifestyle. Small kids may get knocked over. Deacon is already neutered and ready to go to the right home!

THE PET OF THE WEEK SPECIAL ADOPTION FEE IS $15 FOR DOGS & $25 FOR CATS & INCLUDES SPAY OR NEUTER & RABIES! To learn more, contact the Colbert Shelter at 256-381-4073!

STANLEY here! I'm a 5 year old who is sweet, snuggly, & good with children; I'm choosy about my cat friends but fine with friendly, respectful dogs. I'm fully vetted & litter box trained. Indoor only home is best for me, & I have a $75 ADOPTION FEE. If you're interested in giving me my forever home, please call PAWS at 256-383-0690

DOTTIE is a sweet, medium sized terrier mix with lots of love to give! She's about 8 years old, spayed, & will be up to date on vaccines when a suitable home is found. She needs a place that will give her all the love she's missing! If you're interested, call Elizabeth at 256-415-7329 & leave a message with your information.

BRONX is a 2 year old male Sheperd/Boxer mix who is always smiling! He is a sweet boy who gets along with others and is heartworm negative! For more information or to adopt ($85 ADOPTION FEE), contact the Florence Shelter at 256-760-6676!

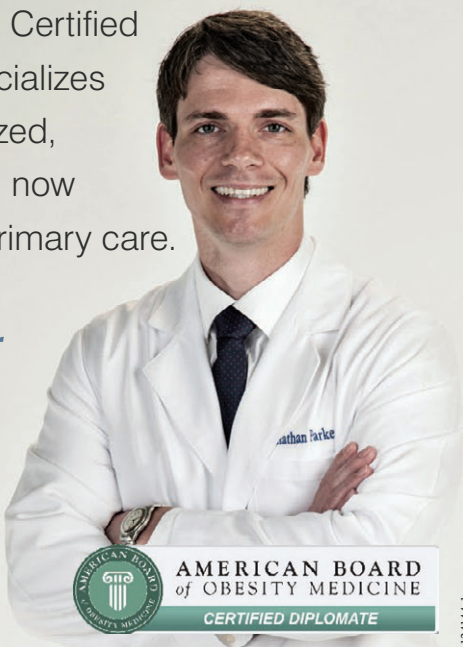

You can get a cat for free and pay over $125 to get it fixed and it's rabies. If you don't get it fixed it creates more of an overpopulation problem. Or you can get one from us for $75 and be a part of the solution. Please help us we are overwhelmed with cats that need to be rescued!! We have every kind imaginable for you to choose from. Please contact CASA Canine at 256-415-1026 for more info.

Famous Sports Quotes

A recent search of the Google website caught my attention of some interesting famous sports quotes from some of the greatest sports figures of all time. They were not just inspirational thoughts to think on but thoughts that could also apply to everyday decisions in all walks of life.

The website contained hundreds of these type quotes but I'm listing ten of the ones I think you'll enjoy. 1. "It's not the will to win that matters-everyone has that. "it's the will to prepare to win that matters."-Paul "Bear" Bryant. 2. "Set your goals high and don't stop till you get there."-Bo Jackson. 3. "One man practicing sportsmanship is far better than fifty preaching it."-Knut Rockne 4. "Push yourself again and again. Don't give an inch until the final buzzer sounds."-Larry Bird. 5. "If you aren't going all the way, why go at all."-Joe Namath 6. "Never let the fear of striking out get in your way."-Babe Ruth 7. "Do not let what you can not do interfere with what you can do."-John Wooden 8. "A champion is someone who gets up when he can't."-Jack Dempsey 9. It's not whether you get knocked down; it's whether you get up."-Vince Lombardi

10. "Never give up. Failure and rejection are only the first step to succeeding."-Jim Valvano. If you're going through some kind of difficulty or struggles in your life, I hope some of these quotes can get you through those hard times. You can find many more by searching the Google website.
