Sermon Comment

After a very long and boring sermon the parishioners filed out of the church saying nothing to the preacher. Towards the end of the line was a thoughtful person who always commented on the sermons. "Pastor, today your sermon reminded me of the peace and love of God."

The pastor was thrilled. "Nobody has ever said anything like that about my preaching before. Tell me why."

"Because it endured forever."

When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant, I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Information you need might be coming in sporadically, but at least what you're getting is valuable. Continue to wait until more is available before acting on that career move.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You continue on an upbeat cycle, and with that strong Taurean energy you should see favorable results from your hard work. A pleasant surprise awaits you in your private life.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A misunderstanding needs more time to be worked out. Don't give up on it just yet. Remain open to providing explanations, if called for. Another friend offers good advice.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Fast action can correct a seemingly minor problem that has taken on some unexpectedly difficult aspects. Stay with it until it's resolved. News on a more positive note is due soon.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Some snags could cause delays in those plans you're eager to see put into operation. But be patient. The Clever Cat will soon have good reason to celebrate a job well done.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Be careful not to let that Virgan sensitivity dissuade you from being the hardheaded realist you should be at this time. Your goals are in sight. Stay focused on them.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A more positive aspect opens up, allowing you to make some important changes in a personal situation. Remember to seek balance and avoid extremes as you proceed.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) This is a good week to get out and enjoy the fine times you missed while you were so deep in those workaday projects. Be sure to share it with that special person.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Work and play are in balance this week. However, expect news that could tip things toward the workplace for quite a while. But all to a good end.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You're more productive on the job than you have been in some time. That's good. But be careful not to overlook some situations developing in your private life.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You've been doing a lot for others (as usual). But now it's time to focus on your needs, including finally going on that long-delayed trip you've been hoping to make.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) It's all smoothly going on 'twixt you and that very special person in your life. But a colleague causes some disruption on the job that you might be called on to help settle.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are sensitive to the needs of others. But you're no pushover. You would make a fine teacher, psychologist or minister.

DAN RIVER HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL STATE CHAMPS GO WILDCATS!

On the evening of Saturday, June 3rd, 2017, residents of Ringgold, VA came together in triumphant celebration for their local youth. Earlier that day, the Dan River High School Baseball Team added to the Wildcat Community a bigger sense of Pride as they brought home the State Title, beating John Battle, 5 -4 in Radford, VA. Prayer, hard work, determination and coming together as a TEAM contributed to their big and well deserved win.

Laurie Shelton MORAN

Laurie Shelton Moran, age 56 of Gretna died Tuesday, June 13, 2017 at Duke University Medical Center after a long battle with Cancer. Born August 16, 1960 in Danville, she was a daughter of the late Edrie Lee "Pete" Shelton and Ruth Martin Shelton. She was also predeceased by a son, Bryant Moran and a brother-in-law, Aubrey Yeatts. Laurie was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Gretna, having served as Deacon, mission team chair, finance team chair, pianist, bell choir member, Sunday school teacher and past clerk. Laurie was a graduate of Lynchburg College, where she received a Distinguished Alumni Award from the school in 2016. She is the President of the Danville Pittsylvania County Chamber of Commerce, a position she has held since January 2002. She was designated a Certified Chamber Executive (CCE) in 2006. Laurie has previously worked as the Communications Manager for Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company's Danville plant, as President of the Pittsylvania County Chamber of Commerce, as editor of the Gretna Gazette and Star Tribune, and as a consultant to develop the strategic plan for Pittsylvania County Schools. Laurie currently serves on the Danville Regional Foundation Board of Directors. Laurie previously served on the Board of Directors of the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (ACCE). She is a former president and member of the Board of Directors of the Virginia Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (VACCE) where she was named VACCE Executive of the Year in 2005. Laurie is a past chair of the National Association of Workforce Boards (NAWB). She has served on the Board of Directors of NAWB and previously held the positions of Vice Chair and Secretary. Laurie served on the Board and is a past president of the West Piedmont Workforce Investment Board. She also chaired the Dan River Region Collaborative's participation in the National Fund for Workforce Solutions and was a member of ACT's National Workforce Solutions Advisory Board. A member and past president of the Danville-Riverview Rotary Club, Laurie is a past Assistant Governor for Area 7 of Rotary International District 7570 and served as the District Membership Chair. Laurie is the immediate past chair of the Board of Directors of Smart Beginnings Danville Pittsylvania. She is a past chair of United Way of Danville-Pittsylvania County and The Launch Place. She also served on the Board of Directors for the Council for Rural Virginia as well as on the Workforce Advisory Board of Danville Community College, on the advisory committee for the Barkhouser Free Enterprise Center at Danville Community College, and on the advisory committee for National College. She also served on the Board of Trustees of Danville Regional Medical Center. She is survived by her husband, Bruce Moran of the residence; two sons, Jeffrey Bond and wife, Megan of Danville and Austin Moran of Gretna; three sisters, Joan Yeatts of Gretna, Alice Gourley and husband, Barry of Danville and Susan Elliott and husband, Milton of Gretna; two grandchildren, Alex Bond and Evie Bond; and her mother-in-law, Fran Moran. Funeral services will be conducted 11:00 a.m. Friday, June 16, 2017 at the First Baptist Church of Gretna by the Rev. Dr. Roy M. Ford, Jr. and Rev. R.G. Rowland. Private burial will follow in Gretna Burial Park. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8:00 p.m. Thursday, June 15, 2017 at Colbert-Moran Funeral Home and other times will be at the residence. The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the First Baptist Church of Gretna parking lot fund, P.O. Box 339, Gretna, VA 24557. Colbert-Moran Funeral Home, Gretna is assisting the family. Condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.colbertmoran.com.

Tommy TESTERMAN

Tommy Testerman moved from this life to the next on May 23, 2017. Tommy was born Thomas Melvin Testerman, Jr. on February 28, 1949, in Danville, VA. He was the third child of parent Melvin and Margaret (Evans) Testerman who eventually had a total of seven children. Known to many for his infectious laugh and sense of humor, Tommy spent his childhood and youth in Danville accumulating a wealth of memorable stories alongside his brothers and sisters. Tommy was a veteran of the Vietnam War and spent most of his adult life serving in the US Army and working for DeCA, the Defense Commissary Agency, an organization which operates commissaries serving military members and their families. He was stationed in Germany for many years during his military career in the 1980s. In 1993, he and his family returned to the United States and lived in Danville for two years. In 1995, he returned working at DeCA commissaries in California where he spent his remaining years. He was preceded in death by his parents Thomas Melvin Testerman and Margaret Testerman; his brother, Charles William Testerman; and sister, Susan Clare Maxie. Tommy is survived by his wife of 38 years Rosa M. Testerman, three children; Esther David (William) of Alexandria, Virginia; Charles Testerman, and Nicole Zamudio (Johnny) both of Marina, California; three grandchildren: Liam David, Ethan David, and Lucinda Zamudio. He is also survived by three brothers; Jerry of Danville, Virginia; David and Carlie of Chattanooga, Tennessee; a sister, Jean Tamson of Danville Virginia; and numerous nieces and nephews. Tommy was laid to rest on June 9, 2017 with full military honors at California Central Coast Veterans Cemetery in Seaside, California. Tommy was a loving Papa, husband, Opa, brother and Uncle, who was loved greatly in return.

Happy Father's Day in Heaven
Roy Lee Ayers
 9-3-28 ~ 3-21-92

A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. It broke my heart to see you go, God only takes the best. They say memories are golden, well maybe that is true, but I never wanted memories, I only wanted you. Your life was love and labor, your love for your family was true, you did your best for all of us, I will always remember you. I sat beside your bedside, my heart was crushed and sore, I did my duty to the end, till I couldn't do no more. In tears I watched you sinking, I watched you fade away. And though my heart was breaking I knew you could not stay. My lips cannot speak how I loved you. My heart cannot tell what to say. But God only knows how I miss you, oh my home is lonely today. I miss your smile, laugh. I miss our talks. In my heart you hold a place, that no one could ever fill. Your life was a blessing. Your memory a treasure, you are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure. I love you Dad. Till we meet on the other side of shore at the pearly gates of heaven. Tell Mom, Robert and Carroll Wayne I love and miss them too.

Sadly missing you.
 Love,
 Carolyn

Jacqueline "Jackie" Ward Tompkins

Jacqueline Ward Tompkins, 70, of 3326 Brackenhouse Road, Danville, Va., went to her heavenly home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Friday, June 9, 2017. She had been in declining health over the past year and was able to spend the last of her days in her beautiful home, which she designed, surrounded by her wonderful family and friends. She was born December 30, 1946, in Oldham Lancashire England to Lillian Hollingsworth Ward and the late Harry Ward. Jackie immigrated to the United States with her family in 1950. She proudly became a citizen of the United States in the 1980s.

In her early twenties, Jackie was a vocalist who sang with the band "Artie Tompkins and his Orchestra." The man behind the band, Artie Martin Tompkins, Jr, quickly became the love of her life, and they were joined in holy matrimony on July 1, 1969. She spent the majority of her career as co-owner and operator of Tompkins Furniture until she retired in June 1996.

Jackie was an active member in her church, Grace Design United Methodist Church. Approximately five years ago, Jackie had a vision of an outreach Bible study program which led her to create, organize, and operate weekly studies. She entitled it "God's Little Coffee Shoppe". It became a beloved Wednesday morning staple, which drew in participation from throughout the community.

Around four years ago, Jackie was instrumental in the planning and day-to-day operation of the "Helping Hands Thrift Shop", which was the vision of Rev. Kameron Wilds and Rev. Charles Wickham. This vision came to fruition through the combined efforts of Grace Design UMC, Trinity UMC, Mt. Vernon UMC, and Fairview UMC.

In addition to her father, Jackie was predeceased by a daughter, April Pruitt Tompkins. Jackie is survived by son, Artie M. Tompkins, III of Chatham, son, Christopher W. Tompkins and wife, Denise, of Danville, daughter, Mary Evangeline Tompkins of Richmond, daughter, Toni T. Nuckols and husband, Robert, of Callands, sister, Jenny Irving and husband, Ed, of Ruffin, brother, Tony Ward and wife Karen, of Cascade, and brother Tommy Ward of Danville. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life service will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, June 12, 2017 at Grace Design United Methodist Church with the Rev. Winston Crinchlow and Pastor Daniel Irving officiating. Interment will follow at Highland Burial Park.

The family will receive friends Sunday, June 11, 2017, at Norris Mt. Hermon Chapel from 6 to 7:30 PM, and at other times at the residence, 3326 Brackenhouse Rd., Danville.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, make a donation in her memory to a cancer research organization of your choice.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

Go Online to Explore PTSD Options

The Department of Veterans Affairs has come up with an online resource that will help those with PTSD decide which type of treatment might be best for them. Treatment Decision Aid, found at www.ptsd.va.gov, is a question/answer program to help you decide how you want to approach getting better. At each step are videos of other veterans talking about their experiences, and more information as you learn, compare treatments and act to get help.

This is one treatment exploration that might actually work.

Under the Learn section, you'll find out about PTSD and what this decision helper can do.

The Compare section, however, is likely where the best help begins, as you answer questions about what you want in a treatment. Both the Psychotherapies and Medications on-screen bubbles contain sub-bubbles with more information. Mouse over everything. On the Medication side you'll see antidepressants and sub-bubbles of those. Don't miss the areas at the bottom showing which therapies have significant, some or no benefits.

Next come six questions: Choose between psychotherapy and medication, and see the explanation chart at the bottom. Are you open to talking about trauma? How about individual versus group treatment? How often do you want treatment? Are you up for doing homework between sessions? Do you care what the studies say? At the end, you'll be given recommendations about which treatment might be what you're looking for.

In the Act section you'll get a summary you can print and take to your doctor. That's where the rubber meets the road, and you step up and take responsibility for your treatment.

After answering the questions multiple ways, I think you'll get the most options if you indicate that you're willing to try different things if they might help you. You can narrow down the options later, if necessary.

Make His First Father's Day Special

Dads are often the first heroes in their young children's lives. Dads chase away ghosts in the closet, let their daughters dance on their toes and teach their sons how to win the heart of their first crush. The first Father's Day a new dad spends with his growing family can be quite memorable, as celebrating one's fatherhood for the first time is a unique and special time. Spouses and other family members can go the extra mile to make this year that much more special for first-time fathers.

- Let Dad sleep in. Chances are Dad is enamored with his little bundle of joy, but it's well-known that being a new father often means sacrificing sleep time — especially for the first several months to a year of that child's life. Enlist the help of a family member who can be on baby watch while Dad gets to sleep in on the weekend of his big day. With some extra sleep, Dad can enjoy Father's Day that much more.
- Create a first-year memory book. Take the time to put together a scrapbook of the photos and moments baby and Dad have gotten to spend together. So much focus is often placed on a new baby and his or her mother that Dad may be left playing second fiddle. Make it clear that fathers are key to their children's development and happiness, too.
- Make a baby keepsake. Use washable ink so that baby can sign a Father's Day card with a hand or footprint. The tradition can be repeated year after year until the child is old enough to write.
- Go overboard on gifts. The idea isn't to buy Dad's love, but Dad's first Father's Day is a truly unique time. On behalf of his firstborn, purchase a few different gifts — those items that he has been interested in buying but has resisted in favor of saving money for new onesies and burp cloths. Or invest in one special event gift, such as tickets to a game to see his favorite team or a concert to catch a favorite band.
- Boost his ego. Get matching T-shirts for baby and Dad with cute memes and sayings, such as "Couch Potato" and "Tater Tot." Father's Day comes once a year. However, a father's very first Father's Day occurs just once. Use the opportunity to pamper Dad so he can savor this truly special experience.

* "When packing for the kids to go to camp, here's a tip we've used over and over again: Put all elements of each outfit (top, bottom, undergarments, socks, etc.) folded into a gallon-size zipper-close bag. I add a plastic grocery bag as well. Each day, the child puts on a fresh outfit, then puts yesterday's clothes into the plastic grocery bag. You can tell what's been worn, and it's all ready at the start of day -- no looking for socks or underwear!" -- M.H. in North Carolina

* Keep your car's back seat clean with a sheet. Drape a twin-size sheet over the back seat. Tuck in all around. Use scissors to make a small opening for the seat belts. Now dirt and crumbs will be contained in the sheet, and you can shake it off when you get to your destination or home! Works great for road trips and beach days.

* When Mom or Dad travels for work, it can be hard on the parent and kids staying home. Try this trick: Record yourself reading a story. The child can play the recording as he or she follows the story in the book. Or, make a video for younger kids.

* Need a quick travel cup or kids' sippy cup? Use a plastic cup, then cover it with a square of plastic wrap secured with a rubber band. Finally, insert a straw through the plastic. There you go!

* "Here is a guaranteed no-scrub tip for a clean coffeepot: Fill coffeemaker with water, drop a dishwasher pod in the carafe, and brew the hot water right on top of it. After brewing, let sit 10-15 minutes, and it'll be clean as a whistle." -- C.L. in Oregon

OPTICALS

WHAT DO YOU SEE when you look at the intersections of white lines above?

Answer: You see gray dots. If you look at any one dot, it will disappear.

HERE'S ANOTHER BETCHA! Bet your friends that you can prove that half of eight is three. When they give up, print the number "8" on a sheet of paper (fig. 1). Then cover the left half of it with another sheet of paper (fig. 2). The "8" has now been changed to a "3."

THE "G" PYRAMID! As you move down the word pyramid shown here, each word contains the same letters as the word above it, plus a new letter. We give you all the G's. Here are some hints from the top down.

1. $1,000 (sl).
2. A Monopoly square.
3. A ship's diary.
4. Of great duration.
5. A strange language.
6. Charitable giving.
7. A computer getting data.
8. A slanted line.

Piedmont Shopper FAVORITE RECIPES

Grilled Spiced Chuck Roast With Grilled Smashed Rosemary Potatoes

- GRILLED SPICED CHUCK ROAST
- 1 (3 to 4 pound, 2-inch thick) chuck roast
 - 3 tablespoons five-spice powder
 - 1/2 cup reduced sodium light soy sauce
 - 1/2 cup rice wine vinegar
 - 1/2 cup toasted sesame oil
 - 2 tablespoons fish sauce
 - 2 tablespoons agave syrup, honey or sugar
 - 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
 - 5 slices (nickel-sized), unpeeled ginger
 - 2 red Thai chilies, sliced, or 2 tablespoons Sriracha
 - 3 cloves garlic, smashed

1. Rinse meat and pat dry. Season chuck roast with five-spice powder on both sides.
2. Combine the soy sauce, vinegar, sesame oil, fish sauce, syrup, honey or sugar and oil together in a zip-lock plastic bag. Add the meat, ginger, chilies or Sriracha and garlic. Open the bag slightly and squeeze it to remove excess air and to combine the flavors and press them into the meat. Close the bag and place on a plate or rimmed baking sheet. Let the meat marinate in the refrigerator for 30 minutes or up to 8 hours, turning frequently.
3. Heat gas or charcoal grill. When grill is heated, remove roast from marinade; reserve and refrigerate marinade. Place roast on gas grill over medium-low heat, or if using charcoal, place roast 4 to 6 inches away from medium-low coals. Cover grill. Grill the roast over indirect heat (the cooler zone of the grill) at approximately 250 F for 2 hours.
4. Place two sheets of heavy foil inside of a disposable aluminum pan. Place the roast on the foil and pour the remainder of the marinade over the roast. Double wrap the roast and continue to cook for another two hours or until the core temperature reaches 195 F.
5. Allow the roast to rest for 20 minutes. Slice beef against the grain and serve it with Grilled Smashed Rosemary Potatoes (see recipe below) and any remaining meat juices. Serves 6 to 8.

- GRILLED SMASHED ROSEMARY POTATOES
- 1/2 cup olive oil
 - 2 tablespoons minced garlic
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons chopped fresh rosemary
 - 2 pounds (1 to 2 inches each) baby Red Bliss potatoes, scrubbed
 - 1 teaspoon kosher salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground coarse black pepper

1. Combine the olive oil, garlic and rosemary. Set aside at room temperature for at least 15 minutes to infuse flavors.
2. Place potatoes in microwave and cook on high to 7 to 8 minutes or until tender when pierced with the tip of a knife.
3. Using a towel wrapped around the palm of your hand or a wide spatula, gently smash each potato until the skin breaks, while trying to keep the potato whole (leaving it about 1 inch thick).
4. Transfer potatoes to a baking sheet. Generously brush both sides of the potatoes with the olive oil mixture, and season both sides with the salt and pepper.
5. Place potatoes on the grill and cook until grill marks appear and the potatoes are nicely caramelized, 3 to 4 minutes per side.

1. What artist released an album titled "The Kids & Me"?
 2. Who recorded and released "Un canto a Galicia"?
 3 "Only the Lonely (Know the Way I Feel)" was the first big hit for which artist?
 4. Which girl group released "My Boyfriend's Back," and when?
 5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Oh, my love, you are my heaven, you are my kingdom, you are my crown. Oh, my love, you're all that I prayed for."

Answers
 1. Billy Preston, in 1974. The album, which included the No. 1 hit "Nothing from Nothing," was dedicated to St. Elmo's Village, a Los Angeles inner-city rec center.
 2. Julio Iglesias, in 1972. It was recorded in Galician, a Spanish language, and gave Iglesias his big break in Europe.
 3. Roy Orbison, in 1960. He tried to sell the song to Elvis Presley, who turned it down. Orbison's version went to No. 2 in the U.S. and No. 1 in the U.K., launching his career.
 4. The Angels, in 1963. Bobby Comstock and The Counts countered with an answer record called "Your Boyfriend's Back."
 5. "Endlessly," by Brook Benton in 1959. The song was Benton's first to chart in the U.K. after doing well on the U.S. Hot R&B.
