Shrimp Sweet Corn Grits

Adding sweet corn puts a fresh summer spin on classic shrimp and grits.

- 6 cups fresh corn kernels
- 4 slices thick-cut bacon
- 1 leek (white and light green part only)
- 1 tablespoon unsalted butter
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- Kosher salt
- Pepper
- 1/4 cup fresh basil
- 20 large peeled and deveined shrimp
- 1 pinch smoked paprika

1. In a food processor, pulse 3 cups corn until almost smooth, about 1 minute. Add the remaining 3 cups and pulse twice just to combine.
2. Cook bacon in a large skillet over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until crisp, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the leek and cook, stirring occasionally, until beginning to soften, about 3 minutes; transfer the leek-bacon mixture to a bowl.
3. Wipe out skillet and melt butter with 1 tablespoon oil over medium heat. Add corn mixture, 1/2 teaspoon each salt and pepper; cook, stirring occasionally, just until heated through, about 3 minutes. Stir in leek-bacon mixture and basil.
4. In a second large skillet, heat remaining 2 tablespoons oil over medium-high heat. Season the shrimp with paprika (if using) and 1/2 teaspoon each salt and pepper; cook, in a single layer, until golden brown and opaque throughout, 1 to 2 minutes per side. Serve with the corn grits. Serves 4.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Information you need might be coming in sporadically, but at least what you’re getting is valuable. Continue to wait until more is available before acting on that career move.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You continue on an upbeat cycle, and with that strong Taurean energy you should see favorable results from your hard work. A pleasant surprise awaits you in your private life.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A misunderstanding needs more time to be worked out. Don’t give up on it just yet. Remain open to providing explanations, if called for. Another friend offers good advice.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Fate action can correct a seemingly minor problem that has taken on some unexpectedly difficult aspects. Stay with it until it’s resolved. News on a more positive note is due soon.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Some snags could cause delays in those plans you’re eager to see put into operation. But be patient. The Clever Cat will soon have good reason to celebrate a job well done.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Be careful not to let that Virgan sensitivity dissuade you from being the hardheaded realist you should be at this time. Your goals are in sight. Stay focused on them.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A more positive aspect opens up, allowing you to make some important changes in a personal situation. Remember to seek balance and avoid extremes as you proceed.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) This is a good week to get out and enjoy the fine times you missed while you were so deep in those workaday projects. Be sure to share it with that special person.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Work and play are in balance this week. However, expect news that could tip things toward the workplace for quite a while. But all to a good end.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You’re more productive on the job than you have been in some time. That’s good. But be careful not to overlook some situations developing in your private life.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You’ve been doing a lot for others (as usual). But now it’s time to focus on your needs, including finally going on that long-delayed trip you’ve been hoping to make.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) It’s all smoothly going on ‘twixt you and that very special person in your life. But a colleague causes some disruption on the job that you might be called on to help settle.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are sensitive to the needs of others. But you’re no pushover. You would make a fine teacher, psychologist or minister.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

• It was beloved English author J.R.R. Tolkien, best known for fantasy tales "The Hobbit" and "The Lord of the Rings," who made the following sage observation about his chosen genre: "I have been a lover of fairy-stories since I learned to read. Why should a man be scorned if, finding himself in prison, he tries to get out and go home? Or if, when he cannot do so, he thinks and talks about other topics than jailers and prison walls?"

• You might be surprised to learn that thieves, too, have a patron saint: Saint Dismas. Incidentally, he's also the patron saint of prisoners and funeral directors.

• You're probably aware that nocturnal animals are active at night and that diurnal animals are active during the day. But what about creatures that prefer the twilight hours? Yep, they have a name, too: They're crepuscular.

• Those who study such things say that ecdysiasts — those performers better known as stripteasers — are likely to be first-born children.

• In a recent survey of Americans and Britons, conducted on behalf of meditation app Calm.com, respondents reported that they get their best sleep of the week on Thursday nights, while Sunday night is the worst for sleeping.

• In India at one time, it was believed that eggshells held clues to the future. Fortunetellers would smash a hen's egg against a special board, then interpret the pattern made by the fragments of shell.

• Add this to the list of America's puzzling small-town festivals: Every June, the town of Ainsworth, Nebraska, puts on the Middle of Nowhere Celebration.

 Hints For The Home

'Cleaning Green' With Vinegar

(NAPSA)—With the array of cleaning options at the grocery store, it is easy to forget that the most natural and effective cleaner could be sitting in your cabinet at this very moment. Vinegar is an all-in-one cleaner. It can take on most any cleaning challenge, no matter the size, and there's no need to worry about harmful effects typically associated with harsh, chemical cleaning agents. Budget conscious and eco friendly, vinegar is truly a product with many talents.

Live Green With White Vinegar

An online survey conducted by The Vinegar Institute found that cleaning/disinfecting are the second most popular uses for white distilled vinegar next to food preparation uses. Here are a few hints on how to utilize the cleaning power of vinegar in your home:

- Use full-strength vinegar to banish grease and eliminate mildew.
- Dilute with water to remove grease and grime on miniblinds.
- Use full strength to clean chrome fixtures and whiten grout.
- Dilute with water to brighten brickwork.
- Dilute with ammonia and baking soda to freshen a musty closet.
- Mix with salt and baking soda to unclog drains.
- Dilute with water to deodorize the garbage disposal.
- Spray full strength to get rid of unwanted grass and weeds.
- Use full strength to remove your child's ballpoint pen "art" from painted walls.
- Dissolve 1 teaspoon of salt in 1 cup of white distilled vinegar and stir in flour until it becomes a paste. Apply paste to brass, copper or pewter and let it stand for about 15 minutes. Rinse with clean warm water and polish until dry.

- Add 2 tablespoons sugar and 2 tablespoons white vinegar to a 1-quart vase of water to keep flowers fresh longer.
- Mix white distilled vinegar and linseed oil to clean leather. Rub the mixture into the leather and then polish with a soft cloth.

This information comes from the professionals at The Vinegar Institute, an international trade association representing the vast majority of vinegar manufacturers and bottlers, as well as suppliers to the industry. Members manufacture a range of vinegar types including white distilled, apple cider, balsamic, red wine, white wine, malt and rice vinegar.

WWII Ration Books

Q. I have two War Ration Books, and I wonder if they are worth keeping or should I cash them in. —
Helen, Decatur, Illinois

A. Millions of ration books were issued during World War II.
They were intended to prevent the hoarding of such goods as coffee, sugar, meat and other items in short supply due to the war. Ration books generally sell in the $5 to $25 range, but unlike savings bonds, you can't cash them in as you wish.

Q. I have two crocks that were made in Parkersburg, West Virginia, by A.P. Donaghho. I believe they were probably produced in the 1940s. What could they be worth?
— Leonard, Salisbury, Maryland

A. Alexander Polk Donaghho moved to Parkersburg from Fredericktown, Pennsylvania, in 1870.
He built a kiln there because of the rich clay deposits and continued in Parkersburg until 1903, when he ceased operations. Your crocks are more than a century old, much earlier than you suspected.

Donaghho is best known for his hand-decorated stoneware. He later used stencils, but it is his earlier pieces that bring record prices. A salt-glazed crock with a cobalt design recently sold at Cowman's Auction Company for $270.

Q. I have an RCA Victor Collectors Issue of Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, which I purchased for my husband in 1963. Does it have any value? — Barbara, Albuquerque, New Mexico

A. I found your set referenced in the Goldmine Standard Catalogue of American Records 1950-1975, compiled by Ted Neely (Krause Books). According to Neely, your limited edition was originally issued in 1953, and that first pressing is valued in the $75 to $150 range. Since your set is a later issue, it would be worth less. I found several sets listed on eBay, mostly in the $50 to $75 range.

***

Q. I have some baseball record books called "Who's Who in the Major Leagues," by John Carmichael. The ones I have are 1944, 1945 and 1947. These are baseball history and I am curious about values. — Ken, Leland, Illinois

A. Your baseball record books would retail in the $25 to $50 range, depending on condition.

Hints For Homeowners

Tips To Help You Sell Your House

(NAPSA)—If you're considering putting your home on the market in the coming months, there are a few tips you should follow.

House sales generally peak around June and July, with many families beginning their home search in the spring, in hopes of settling into their new home in time for the next school year.

It's wise to work with a Realtor. According to a survey from the National Association of Realtors, 88 percent of recent homesellers used an agent. A Realtor can provide expert advice and counsel on the selling process, including listing your house on the Multiple Listing Service (MLS), marketing it to prospective buyers and accepting offers and negotiating on your behalf. To find a Realtor nearby, go to www.realtor.com/realestateagents.

Know your neighborhood when setting your asking price. Realtors have real insights in the markets where they do business. A Realtor is your best source for accurate, up-to-date information and comparable properties to help you determine a competitive listing price for your home. He or she will give you an idea of how long homes are staying on the market and at what price they're selling. While it's important to get the best possible deal for your home, a Realtor will help you understand the importance of pricing your house appropriately. Overpricing your home could lead to it staying on the market too long—compelling you to compromise on the asking price or terms.

Decide on how to market your home. Given the mass amounts of information available today to consumers, the days of just placing an ad in your local newspaper and putting a "For Sale" sign in front of your yard are over. A Realtor® can place your listing on the MLS and work with you to decide other ways to market your home. Marketing your listing on a popular real estate website such as www.realtor.com will ensure your listing is generating the most eyeballs from interested buyers.

If you're looking to sell your home as quickly and easily as possible, you could use the real insights you'll get having a Realtor help you through the process of finding interested buyers and eventually closing the deal.

ST. JOSEPH CEMETERY MARKER RECOVERY

In June of 2015, the St. Joseph Cemetery was vandalized. The Johnston Police have released 25 bronze markers and 6 vases. All markers have been broken or bent beyond repair. The vases are damaged and will need attention. These markers and vases are the property of the families of the deceased. If you would like to claim your marker or vase, please call Saint John and James Rectory at 401-821-7661 by July 25th. *Proof of family relationship must be provided prior to the release of the marker or vase. Please note: Due to the generosity of the St. Joseph Cemetery Fund, all markers were replaced in the fall of 2015.
