YELLOW BUG-EYE
Other than mine...I didn't know there is another Austin Healey, Bug Eye, MK-1 in Cullman County. I met this yellow w/ black stripes Thursday morning, about 10 - 10:30 AM, traveling east, toward Cullman on Hwy 69, about half way between Fairview and Cullman. Very sharp car. I have one and I live in Cullman. I would like to meet with the owner, compare/swap stories about these cars. Contact: wdoug42_co1@csgonline.com. Jun 21

Most so called Christian churches do not teach to worship or to live as The Holy Bible commands (Lk 16:17). History reveals most church days kept for Christ have pagan involvements which do not acknowledge The Holy Scriptural law. Many churches do not teach what Christ taught (Heb 13:8), they teach man's theories instead (Mt 15:9). So Be It!

The U. S. Food and Drug Administration recently approved a new indication for Jardiance (empagliflozin) to reduce the risk of cardiovascular death in adult patients with type 2 diabetes mellitus and cardiovascular disease. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, death from cardiovascular disease is 70 percent higher in adults with diabetes compared to those without diabetes, and patients with diabetes have a decreased life expectancy driven in large part by premature cardiovascular death.

An oral anticoagulant drug given to some heart disease patients may actually enhance blood clot formation, according to a new study published in Science Translational Medicine. The surprising discovery may help explain why some individuals taking the drugs, called oral thrombin inhibitors or OTIs, have a slightly higher risk of heart attack. OTIs are often prescribed to prevent venous blood clots and reduce the risk of stroke resulting from atrial fibrillation. They are sometimes preferred over another class of anticoagulant drugs called vitamin K antagonists because they work more swiftly and require less frequent monitoring.

Patients with a chronic type of leukemia could safely reduce the side effects of life-long treatment by cutting their dose in half, according to the results of a study presented at the American Society of Hematology Annual Meeting. Drugs known as tyrosine kinase inhibitors (TKI) have drastically improved the prognosis for patients with chronic myeloid leukemia (CML), essentially turning what was a deadly cancer into a chronic disease that can be managed with a daily pill. Common side effects include chronic headaches, stomach problems, and fatigue, and women are typically advised not to conceive children while taking the drugs due to the high risk of birth defects.
