Border Problems

An elderly woman lived on a small farm in Canada, just yards away from the North Dakota border. Their land had been the subject of a minor dispute between the United States and Canada for years. The now widowed woman lived on the farm with her son and three grandchildren. One day her son came into her room holding a letter.

"I just got some news, Mom," he said. "The government has come to an agreement with the people in North Dakota. They've decided that our land is really part of the United States. We have the right to approve or disapprove of the agreement. What do you think?"

"What do I think?" his mother said. "Sign it! Call them right now and tell them we accept! I don't think I could stand another one of those Canadian winters!"

On June 3rd, 2017, Hope Riders Of Danville, VA held a Poker Run at Thunder Road Harley Davidson in honor of Cameron Prior who suffers from a blood clot on his brain. Cameron's Family, Friends as well as Hope Riders would like to send out a special Thank You to all who attended the event and showed support!

THANK YOU

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You clever Ewes and Rams love nothing more than to rise to a challenge. So, by all means, if you feel sure about your facts, step right up and defend your side of the issue.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You've done some great work recently. Now it's time to reward yourself with something wonderful, perhaps a day at a spa or a night out with someone very special.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You love to talk, but don't forget to make time to do a little more listening, otherwise you could miss out on an important message someone might be trying to send you.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your aspect indicates some uncertainty about one of your goals. Use this period of shifting attitudes to reassess what you really want and what you're ready to do to get it.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your social life is picking up, and you'll soon be mingling with old friends and making new ones. But 'twixt the fun times, stay on top of changing workplace conditions.

VIRGO (August 23 September 22) A trusted friend offers understanding as you vent some long-pent-up feelings. Now, move on from there and start making the changes you've put off all this time.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might well feel uneasy as you face a difficult situation involving someone close to you. But you know you're doing the right thing, so stick with your decision.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You're a good friend to others. Now is the time to allow them to be good friends to you. Rely on their trusted advice to help you get through an uncertain period.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Family and friends are always important, but especially so at this time. Despite your hectic workplace schedule, make a real effort to include them in your life.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) That project you've been working on is almost ready for presentation. But you still need some information from a colleague before you can consider it done.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Don't let those negative attitudes that have sprung up around you drain your energies. Shrug them off, and move ahead with the confidence that you can get the job done.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Aspects favor some dedicated fun time for the hardworking Piscean. A nice, refreshing plunge into the social swim can recharge your physical and emotional batteries.

BORN THIS WEEK: You love to travel and be with people. You probably would be happy as a social director on a cruise ship.

RESCUERS OF LIVES, BUILDINGS, AND BUNNY

Amie Stanley, local mom of 4, shared a touching story on Facebook this week about how one of Danville's fire departments saved her little boy's favorite lovey.

We love our local heroes! Read her post below:

“Anyone who knows A.J. knows he loves ”Bunny.” He’s had this stuffed bunny since before he could walk. Bunny goes everywhere A.J. goes. Well, while the girls were at dance class this evening, Bunny was tossed a little too hard and ended up on the roof of the dance studio. I ended up calling the Danville Fire Department and explained our ”emergency.”

These 4 guys happily drove up in the big red truck and saved the day!
They even turned on the lights and siren for the kids as they left!
THANK YOU for being heroes in the eyes of my 6-year-old boy!”

Nancy Fitzgerald TURNER

Nancy Fitzgerald Turner, 97, died peacefully at her home in Pelham, NC on June 19, 2017. She was preceded in death by her husband of 70 years, James Witcher Turner (2007) and her son, Dudley Pierce Turner (2013). She is survived by her sons James Witcher Turner, Jr., MD (Evelyn) of Oakton, VA, and Michael Vincent Turner (Stacey) of Dedham, MA, along with eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Born Nancy Shelton Fitzgerald on July 23, 1919 in Pelham to Benjamin and Elizabeth Fitzgerald, she was one of eight children and grew up in sight of Pelham United Methodist Church. She was a graduate of Ruffin High School. After their first 25 years of marriage, Nancy and Witcher moved north to Westfield, NJ. While there she developed a passion for art, becoming an accomplished painter as well as learning to play the piano. Upon Witcher's retirement in 1984 they returned to Pelham, settling into the home across from the church. For many years she taught Sunday School classes and was active in bible study groups. In their retirement, Nancy and Witcher enjoyed many travels, both in the US and abroad, often sharing these trips with her family and friends. She made deep and lasting friendships wherever she lived and traveled, but Pelham was always "home."

Nancy loved crossword puzzles, bridge and other card games, and was a voracious reader, often finishing a book in a single sitting. She was also a great (and knowledgeable!) sports fan, following not only her beloved Duke Blue Devils basketball team, but also baseball's Washington Nationals, St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Red Sox. She was a marvelous cook, admired particularly for her exquisite rolls - often imitated, but never duplicated.

The family will receive friends on Friday, June 23, 2017 from 7:00 - 9:00PM at Townes Funeral Home. The funeral service will be held on Saturday, June 24, 2017 at 2:00PM at Pelham United Methodist Church, with Reverend Nathan Webb officiating. Interment

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On July 14, 1789, Parisian revolutionaries and mutinous troops storm and dismantle the Bastille, signaling the start of the French Revolution. The royal fortress had come to symbolize the tyranny of the Bourbon monarchs.

* On July 11, 1804, Vice President Aaron Burr fatally shoots his long-time political antagonist Alexander Hamilton in a duel. Charged with murder in New York and New Jersey, Burr, still the vice president, returned to Washington, D.C., where he finished his term immune from prosecution.

* On July 16, 1935, the world's first parking meter is installed on the corner of First Street and Robinson Avenue in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Indignant opponents of the meters considered paying for parking un-American, as it forced drivers to pay what amounted to a tax on their cars.

* On July 12, 1957, Dwight Eisenhower becomes the first president to ride in a helicopter. Although helicopters had been tested since 1947, it was not until 10 years later that a president considered using the new machine for short, official trips to and from the White House.

* On July 10, 1962, the United States Patent Office issues Swedish engineer Nils Bohlin a patent for his three-point automobile safety belt. The National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 made seat belts mandatory on all new American vehicles from the 1968 model year onward.

* On July 13, 1978, Ford Motor Company chairman Henry Ford II fires Lee Iacocca as Ford's president. The following year, Iacocca was hired as president of the nearly bankrupt Chrysler Corporation, which ended up getting a $1.5 billion bailout from Congress.

* On July 15, 2002, John Walker Lindh, the "American Taliban," accepts a plea-bargain deal and pleads guilty to one count of supplying services to the Taliban and carrying weapons. Lindh was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

16 Agencies Scammed, and No One Noticed

A former National Guard veteran is going to jail for a long-running scam that netted him more than $750,000.

The big question is how this could involve 16 different government agencies and have gone on for so many years. Those agencies included the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Department of Commerce, Social Security Administration and his state's employment security department.

The scam started in 2005 when Darryl Wright was serving in Iraq as part of the National Guard. A rocket landed some considerable distance away, and no one was injured. Wright, however, took it as an opportunity to cash in, beginning with using a fake photo of a damaged vehicle as part of his claim.

Among the many ways Wright had his hand out for money:

* His sister was recruited as his caregiver and was paid big money. The claim was that he was so disabled he couldn't even tie his shoes. Their mother was apparently in on the scam as well, falsifying nursing documents.

* While Wright was claiming that he couldn't even get out of bed two-to-five days a week, he was coaching a high-school team and playing basketball. He also was employed full time at the Department of Commerce.

* He then claimed disability at his Commerce job, defrauding the Office of Personnel Management, and turned in fake orders about being on military leave. He defrauded the state by claiming unemployment and used his alleged disability to keep from paying his student loans, defrauding the Department of Education. The only person to catch on was a co-worker at Commerce who discovered the fake military-leave documents. Wright threatened a lawsuit, and as a result Commerce tried to suspend the co-worker. She had to spend tens of thousands of dollars to defend herself. And did I mention that Wright also pushed for and received a Purple Heart and Combat Action Badge?

10 Tips to Make Outdoor Parties Unforgettable

FAMILY FEATURES

Entertaining is one thing, but dazzling your guests with an outdoor party sensation is another. Summer can be the best time of year for outdoor parties. From twinkling lights to patterned tablecloths, every detail counts when it comes to impressing family and friends.

It may feel like a lot of pressure to live up to expectations, but your party can be both simple and elegant with a few easy tips.

Start early

Early is never early enough when it comes to planning a rock-star summer gathering. Check to see if you have enough utensils, make sure everything is in place and that there is enough food for your guests. Prepare weeks in advance, if possible, to make sure you have all the materials necessary to throw your dream outdoor party.

Spice up the invitations

The perfect invitations can do three things. First is tell the basics: what, when and where. They can also tell guests what to bring along with them. Of course, invitations should also be appealing to the eye. This is your time to get a little creative and catch guests' attention before the big event.

Show your style

You want your guests to be as comfortable as possible. Make sure to dress tables and chairs with cushions and tablecloths. Mix it up and show off some of your personal flair with bright colors or fancy patterns. It's easy to celebrate summer with styles that bring summer vibes to life.

Light up the party

Brighten up the big day or night with some candles, lanterns or sparkling lights. In case of wind or weather, try to purchase covered candles to increase the chances the flame will stay lit. Make sure everyone can see the hard work you have put into the party.

Less mess meals

No one likes messy meals, especially at a summer party. Put together a menu that isn't stressful on the cook or stressful on your guests to eat. Dropping sauce on a white summer top is a party no-no.

Rain, rain, go away

Always prepare for the worst. If clouds roll in on party day, make sure you're ready. You can simply move the party indoors at the drop of a hat. Tents can also help keep the party going outdoors in case of precipitation.

Brighten it up

It's finally summer and that usually means flowers everywhere. Pick out an arrangement and make it the focal point of each table. The bright colors can draw your guests in and make them want to appreciate the beautiful nature around them.

Make your own games

Give the kids something to do and make it fun. While the adults visit, the little ones need something to keep themselves busy. Whether it's bubbles or water play in the heat, something to mix it up can help keep them occupied.

Jam it out

Keep the music low and cool. There is no need to blast your speakers across the entire yard. Play your favorite jams, but nothing too crazy. The music can really set the mood of the entire party and make or break the atmosphere.

Cool it down

The summer heat is blazing and sometimes being outside can be miserable. Make sure your guests stay comfortable, even in the heat. Lay out handheld fans, lots of water and even some towels. Your guests will want to stay hydrated so they can party on.

Secrets for Mastering the Grill

With warmer temperatures and sun-filled days arriving, there are few better ways to celebrate the summer season than by firing up the grill. Whether preparing a simple dinner at home or a backyard bash for a crowd, grilling is an easy way to add sear and flavor to your favorite meats and vegetables.

The perfect party, regardless of the number of guests, requires proper preparation, attention to detail and a few handy tricks around the grill to serve up delicious options for all in attendance. However, hosting a great get-together doesn't have to be complicated.

To up your grilling game this summer, try these tips from Chef Rick Bayless of Macy's Culinary Council, a national culinary authority featuring some of the nation's leading chefs.

Use the Right Tools

Aside from fuel, there are several cooking tools that are essential for grilling, including a meat thermometer, long-handled spatula and tongs, grill mitts and a grill brush. Bayless's go-to gadgets are a basket to prepare whole fish and a cast-iron grill grate to achieve marks and depth of flavor.

Get to Know the Fire

When grilling for a party, planning ahead is key, according to Bayless. It can be helpful to know the hot spots of the grill and the distance from grates to flame. Start early by roasting a larger piece of meat, while thinner cuts can be thrown on the grill after the party begins and your guests arrive.

Keep it Simple

Bayless recommends a simple menu that features tried and true flavor profiles nearly everyone loves. For appetizers, he suggests grilling vegetables and adding them to guacamole with bacon. Pair with wedges of grilled pita for dipping, which is an unexpected alternative to typical chips.

For a main entree, Bayless suggests making meat the star and serving up ribeye steaks marinated in garlic, chilies and fresh lime juice. To cap off the meal, his go-to dessert is grilled cornmeal pound cake, served warm and topped with ice cream, berries or whipped cream.

FOURTH OF JULY BARBECUE ESSENTIALS

The 4th of July is fast approaching and revelers across the nation are preparing to toast their independence with family and friends. For many Americans, backyard barbecues are synonymous with the Fourth of July, a day that, in the United States of America, commemorates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence by the Second Continental Congress on July 4, 1776.

Precious few Americans can say they have not been present at a 4th of July barbecue or witnessed a fireworks display honoring America's official declaration of independence from Great Britain. Hosting a July 4th barbecue for the first time may have some hosts anxious about throwing a summer soirée to remember, but fun is sure to be had if hosts remember to include the following backyard barbecue essentials this Independence Day.

Food

No Fourth of July barbecue is complete without food, so hosts should be sure to stock up on popular barbecue fare like hot dogs and hamburgers. Though such foods likely won't be mistaken for gourmet fare anytime soon, Fourth of July revelers often embrace the tradition of grilling up some hot dogs and hamburgers even if they tend to avoid such foods throughout the rest of the year. Hosts should not feel pressured to provide gourmet fare on July 4th, but it is a thoughtful gesture to ask guests in advance if they have any food allergies or need to avoid certain foods for other reasons.

Beverages

It goes without saying that guests will need refreshing beverages at parties held in early July, but be sure to stock up on a variety of beverages so guests are not forced to consume drinks they don't want. Be sure to have plenty of water available to guests, and provide sodas, iced tea and lemonade as well. Offer alcoholic beverages to adult guests, but don't go overboard stocking up on alcohol, as that might encourage guests to overindulge.

Games

Backyard barbecues are most fun when guests are entertained, so plan to have some games available for guests of all ages. Encourage guests to bring a change of clothes or swimsuits if games will involve water or something that might soil their clothing. If you have a pool, purchase some pool games so swimmers can do more than just wade in the water or take a few laps. Plan a Wiffle® ball game for kids and dig some horseshoe pits or buy a ring toss set so adults can engage in some friendly competition as well.

Safety

Though no one wants to think of a 4th of July celebration taking a turn for the worst, hosts must prepare for emergencies. Restock the first-aid kit if necessary and keep a constant eye on guests, especially children, to ensure everyone is having a safe and happy time. Program a list of local taxi companies into your phone so you can easily call for transportation should any guests have too much to drink during the festivities. Hosts should abstain from alcohol so they can serve as designated driver should the need arise at the end of the night. Backyard barbecues are a staple of July 4th, and there's no reason your summer soirée can't be one to remember for years to come.

CREDIT Solutions

with Suzie Bohannon
Financial Counselor

Increasing available credit = better credit score

30% of your credit score is influenced by the amount of credit that is available to you. For this reason you do not want your credit cards to be near their limit. Example: If you have a credit card that has a $1,000.00 limit and you have a balance of $200.00 then you have 80% of credit available to you on that credit card. If you have a balance of $999.99 then you have no credit available. Keep balances low to increase the capacity you have on your credit report. In addition to this do not close accounts that you are not using. When you close those accounts you are decreasing the credit that is available. Increasing your capacity (available credit) is the second largest factor on your credit report. Remember keep balances low and keep accounts open.

* It was American civil-rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr., who made the following sage observation: "We all too often have socialism for the rich and rugged free market capitalism for the poor."

* If you go on a road trip to the Northwest Territories of Canada, keep an eye out for the unusual license plates -- they're shaped like polar bears.

* When he was 66 years old, American novelist Edgar Rice Burroughs -- beloved creator of Tarzan and Mars explorer John Carter -- served as a war correspondent, going along on bombing runs during World War II.

* Did you ever wonder what makes French vanilla different from other kinds of vanilla? Evidently, French vanilla contains egg yolk.

* If you're like me, you have fond memories of a bookmobile visiting your neighborhood. For more out-of-the-way locales, though, there are other kinds of mobile libraries. For instance, residents of some parts of Norway look forward to the arrival of Epos, a library on a boat. In addition to space for 6,000 books, the boat has room for author readings and other literary events.

* In Vietnam, the conflict that Americans commonly call the Vietnam War is known as the Resistance War Against America, or just the American War.

* You might be surprised by the strength of the mantis shrimp. When it swings its claw at its prey, it doesn't have to hit the creature -- the shock wave from the attack is often enough to stun or kill the animal.

* Social scientists say that the first businesses to get set up in a new neighborhood -- and the last ones to flee a dying community -- are churches and liquor stores.

Thought for the Day: "My country is the world, and my religion is to do good." -- Thomas Paine

"First, a moment of silence for the archery instructor."

* "A go-green and lose weight tip: Shut off your car and walk inside banks, restaurants, etc. You'll burn less gas than sitting in the drive-thru, and the walk will flatten your figure." -- S.S. in South Carolina

* "Here is my tip: When closing a plastic bag, use a clip-type wooden clothespin with a metal spring-form. It holds much better than a 'twist tie' and takes less time and effort to use. Keep a bunch in a kitchen drawer with rubber bands and other handy things. They're not expensive and can be used over and over again." -- S.L. in Illinois

* If you are sensitive to the smell of leftover coffee grounds, here's a tip from E.O.B. in Delaware: "Line a 34.5-ounce coffee can with a plastic bag and dump the filter and grounds in it every day. Keep lid on. At week's end, or trash day, tie up the bag and put in trash." (Or the compost pile! -- JoAnn)

* If you're watching what you eat, try food logging for a week. You may be taking in more calories than you think. Write down everything you eat and drink -- including tiny treats or spoonfuls you eat while cooking! -- and use an online calorie counter or get a book from the library. You might surprise yourself.

* M.A. in Oklahoma has a novel tank for her fish: a coffee pot! It's economical -- most thrift stores sell glass coffee pots for $1 or less -- and easy to handle, too. She has two pots, and when it's necessary to clean one, she pops the fish right into the other pot with no fuss. She can even transport her fish easily around her apartment.

Q: I am so excited that "Turn: Washington's Spies" is back for another season. How many more seasons will I get to tune in to this wonderful show? — Ken T., via email

A: As you know, season four started June 19, and it will consist of 10 episodes, just like the previous three seasons. However, this current season will be the last. Like all series that are based on actual events, there is only so much source material to draw from, so, unfortunately, it has almost run its course and must come to an end. For those unfamiliar with the series, I highly recommend the book it was based on by Alexander Rose, "Washington's Spies: The Story of America's First Spy Ring," and then have yourself a little binge-watching party and three through seasons one through three, all of which are available on Netflix.

Community Foundation awards surprise grant to Danville Public Library at Legacy Society Reception

A surprise grant of $3,000 was awarded to the Danville Public Library by The Community Foundation of the Dan River at a June 15 Legacy Society Reception at the Foundation office. The grant is in honor of the Foundation's 20th anniversary and will be used to make reading materials available to children in our community and to foster a culture around reading.

The Board of The Community Foundation search for a way to give several small grants across our region which could have broad impact. We could find no better project than to support summer reading programs at all the area libraries, said Debra L. Dodson, Executive Director. Four grants totaling $12,000 were awarded to libraries in Pittsylvania County, Caswell County, Halifax-South Boston and Danville.

Donors, organizations or businesses may start their own endowment funds for as little as $10,000 and scholarships for $25,000. Once a fund is established anyone can make designated gifts to that fund.

The Legacy Society is a way for The Community Foundation to honor those who have made a lasting commitment to the Dan River Region. Individuals who designate a gift to The Community Foundation through a will, trust, retirement plan beneficiary or other planned gift are invited to join the Legacy Society.

Online grant applications for 501c3 community agencies in Danville-Pittsylvania-Caswell County are now open at HYPERLINK "http://www.cfdr.org" www.cfdr.org with a July 28 deadline. The next scholarship application cycle will begin January 1, 2018 and will also be available at HYPERLINK "http://www.cfdr.org" www.cfdr.org.

The Community Foundation of the Dan River Region is an independent, public charity established in September 1996 by a steering committee of local civic leaders to gather permanent funds to support our area. The Community Foundation is a public charity with total assets exceeding $32 million.

For more information, contact the Foundation office at 434-793-0884 or visit HYPERLINK "http://www.dpccf.org" www.cfdr.org

IT'S MAGIC! Use the numbers 1 through 10 to fill in this Magic Square. The numbers in each horizontal row and vertical column should total 35. We've filled in six of the squares. The rest is up to you.

PICKS OF THE WEEK

Power Rangers (PG-13) — Five outcast teens — played by Dacre Montgomery, Naomi Scott, RJ Cyler, Ludi Lin and the singer Becky G — find each other in a small-town high school. They stumble upon some magical coins and develop extraordinary powers. Afterward, their destiny is revealed, and the kids, now sort of superheros, train under the direction of the disembodied Zordon (voiced by Bryan Cranston), where they unite to defend against the extreme evil of Rita Repulsa (played delightfully by Elizabeth Banks). All the while, they are cracking one-liners in all directions. If you're a Mighty Morphin Power Ranger fan, you're familiar with the concept. The 2017 reboot doesn't take itself or the series nostalgia too seriously, and the end result is purely freshened-up fun. Go, go Power Rangers!

StudioCanal/Kimberley French

Naomi Scott, RJ Cyler, Dacre Montgomery, Ludi Lin, Becky G in "Power Rangers"

Autopsy of Jane Doe (R) — In a small town, an investigation into a brutal and perplexing murder uncovers a corpse half-buried in a basement — dead but apparently untouched by the carnage suffered by the other victims. "Jane Doe," as she is called, is brought to a father and son team of coroners, played by Brian Cox and Emile Hirsch. They begin to piece together the peculiar particulars of the hair-raising mystery — wounds, broken bones, damage inside that defies explanation. Each cut of the scalpel reveals paranormal evidence that becomes increasingly hard to ignore until they are trapped in a situation in which logic and perception are masterfully skewed. The film is smartly done, keeping you on the edge of your chair until the very, very end.

Berlin Syndrome (R) — Teresa

Palmer plays Clare, a young Australian photographer on holiday in Germany. She unexpectedly meets Andi, steaming-hot local, played by Max Riemelt. The attraction is immediate, and it leads to a passionate night together. Clare wakes up and Andi has gone, but after a bit of innocent snooping, she uncovers clues to a terrible realization: She's locked in and not going anywhere. We follow her inescapable journey in deep, stomach-turning terror. It's a suspenseful, cautionary tale on indulging in a one-night stand, and fans of psychological thrillers won't be disappointed.

Money (R) — Mark (Kellan Lutz) and Sean (Jesse Williams) are friends and co-workers who indulge in a little industrial espionage, netting them $5 million from selling their company's secrets. After bringing home their loot and settling in for some celebration with their wives, a charming neighbor shows up and he's invited it (he brought wine!). The new guest (Jamie Bamber) draws a gun, takes everyone hostage and demands the money. So begins the violent game of cross, double-cross. The action is tight and slick, but the film feels like a gritty old-school crime caper.
