THIS IS WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU GIVE RED BULL TO A WOODPECKER

Favorite Email

Some guy bought a new fridge for his house. To get rid of his old fridge, he put it in his front yard and hung a sign on it saying: 'Free to good home. You want it, you take it.' For three days the fridge sat there without even one person looking twice at it. He eventually decided that people were too un-trusting of this deal. It looked too good to be true, so he changed the sign to read: 'Fridge for sale $50.00.'

The next day someone stole it.

Caution.... They Walk Among Us!

I was hanging out with a friend when we saw a woman with a nose ring attached to an earring by a chain. My friend said, 'Wouldn't the chain rip out every time she turned her head?' I had to explain that a person's nose and ear remain the same distance apart no matter which way the head is turned...

They Walk Among Us!!!!!! - And don't say you didn't turn your head to check!

I couldn't find my luggage at the airport baggage area. So I went to the lost luggage office and told the woman there that my bags never showed up. She smiled and told me not to worry because she was a trained professional and I was in good hands. 'Now,' she asked me, 'Has your plane arrived yet?'

They Walk Among Us!!!!!! -

While working at a pizza parlor I observed a man ordering a small pizza to go. He appeared to be alone and the cook asked him if he would like it cut into 4 pieces or 6. He thought about it for some time before responding. 'Just cut it into 4 pieces; I don't think I'm hungry enough to eat 6 pieces.'

IQ Test

An IQ test question given to a banker, an electrician, and a politician was, "What term would you use to describe the problem that results when outflow exceeds inflow?"

The banker wrote, "Overdraft."

The electrician wrote, "Overload."

The politician wrote, "What problem?"

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You're wise to let your Arian skepticism question a former adversary's request to let bygones be bygones. Time will tell if they are trying to pull the wool over the Lamb's eyes.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Congratulations. Your hard work soon pays off with some well-deserved recognition. Meanwhile, that important personal relationship needs more attention from you.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) That new person in your life seems trustworthy, but don't turn him or her into a confidant just yet. Remember: The secret you don't reveal is the one you won't lose sleep over.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your kindness makes a difference in someone's life. But by week's end, a touch of Cancerian envy could create a problem with a colleague. Take care to keep it under control.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A new spurt of energy sends you roaring back into that challenging work situation. But be careful not to overdo it, or your sizzle could fizzle before your task is completed.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your practical sense helps you see the logic of being a bit more flexible with a workplace colleague. But you still have a ways to go before there's a true meeting of the minds.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A surprise situation could cause you to spend more money than you feel you can afford. But careful budget adjustments will help. Your fiscal picture soon brightens.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) That decision you made might still have its detractors, but your supporters are growing. Meanwhile, your personal life takes on some welcome new developments.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Matters of the mind intrigue the sage Sagittarian through week's end. By then, you should feel more than ready to make room for pursuits of the heart.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The canny Capricorn can offer good counsel to others. But how about taking some advice yourself from a close friend or family member who is able and ready to help?

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A new workplace opportunity offers a variety of challenges that you might find intriguing. Best advice: Take things one step at a time so that you don't feel overwhelmed.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A bid to revive a relationship that ended on a bitter note needs to be carefully thought out before you can even begin to consider plunging into a new emotional commitment.

BORN THIS WEEK: You enjoy being with people, and people love being with you. You would probably do very well in politics.

1950s Magazines

Q. I have three old magazines that are from 1950. I have the April and December issues of McCall's and also a Look magazine. They are in good to fair condition. I would appreciate any comments you have. — Suzanne, Grosse Ile, Michigan

A. Even though your magazines would be on Social Security if they were people, they really don't have much value. Most post-war McCall's sell in the $5 to $10 range. Your magazines should include a column written by former first lady Eleanor Roosevelt. Look magazine, depending on what is on its cover, is worth perhaps a little more. You mentioned your magazines are not in excellent condition and this also could be a problem, since most collectors like publications that are pristine.

Q. I have inherited a bowl that has been identified as being Monart. What exactly is Monart? — Sue, Arizona

A. John Moncrief, a Scottish glassmaker, was fascinated by the technique of suspending colored enamels within molten glass during the glassmaking process. He opened a business in Perth, Scotland, in about 1924, and he called the glassware he created Monart. Typical prices for Monart are a red mottled vase, $130, and a green/orange/aventurine bowl in clear, yellow and orange mottle, $175. Not many pieces are found in this country.

low and orange mottle, $175. Not many pieces are found in this country.

Q. I have some U.S. postage stamps of 1 cent and a series of stamps featuring American presidents. Where can I sell them? — Josie, Goodyear, Arizona

A. You are near Phoenix, where there are dozens of excellent coin and stamp dealers for you to contact. I suggest you get two or three opinions. One of the better price guides is The Krause-Minkus Standard Catalogue of U.S. Stamps, edited by Fred Baumann and published by Krause Books.

Q. I have an unopened bottle of Coors beer with a paper label. My dad told me it was bought in 1950. I've been offered $25 for it. Should I take it? — Steve, Colorado

A. I found your bottle referenced in the second edition of Warman's Bottles Field Guide by Michael Polak. Polak believes your bottle is worth in the $110 to $150 range.

Sense of Smell, Taste Likely Gone for Good

DEAR DR. ROACH: I am an 86-year-old male who unfortunately lost my sense of smell and, to a large degree, my sense of taste as a result of taking fluticasone propionate nasal spray (50 mcg, one spray in each nostril once a day). This drug was prescribed by my doctor. After finding out that I could not smell fresh coffee even when I put my face over the open container and sniffed, I knew I had a problem. I mentioned this to another doctor (the prescribing doctor had transferred), and he casually mentioned that that happens and that it could take a year to come back. Well, the year has come and gone, and I haven't regained my sense of smell. The literature that accompanies this drug does mention that a possible side effect is the loss of the senses of smell and taste. But this comes only after reading through more than five columns of small print. It may not seem like a big deal to be unable to smell the coffee, but I am also unable to smell natural gas, and living in a house with a furnace, hot water heater, clothes dryer and cooktop stove all powered by natural gas, it becomes a serious problem. I am hoping that you can give me some advice as to how I can restore my senses of smell and taste. -- T.K.

ANSWER: I certainly found the warning that fluticasone, like other nasal steroids, can cause alterations in taste and smell. However, I couldn't find in the published literature a case of someone losing his or her sense of smell entirely from nasal steroids. Some blood pressure medicines have been known to do it, as can nutritional deficiencies, tumors and Sjogren's syndrome. Exposure to some chemicals can cause temporary loss of smell. Alzheimer's and Parkinson's diseases sometimes cause loss of sense of smell. Anytime the sense of smell is lost, most people notice a dramatic loss of taste as well: This may be because the aromas of food are the most important contributor to flavor. Unfortunately, after a year it is likely the loss will be permanent, and I don't know of any way to bring it back. When researching your question, I found many references to studies that looked at fluticasone as a treatment for loss of sense of smell, which gives further evidence to the unfortunate and unusual apparent cause in your case. It worries me that your new doctor was so casual about this loss: It IS a big issue, and it sounds like he may not have evaluated you for other possible causes.

DR. ROACH WRITES: I got some good advice about my column on improving patient-physician communication. One tip I received, and one which I often recommend for my patients, is to make a list of the important questions you want to ask your doctor. Another is to bring someone with you. Finally, doctors can help by providing not only verbal advice, but written advice as well. This isn't always necessary or even possible, but often it can really improve the patient's understanding.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu. To view and order health pamphlets, visit www.rbmamall.com, or write to Good Health, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

City of Danville Appoints Sheila Baynes to DCC Board

Danville, Va., July 6, 2017 – Danville Community College (DCC) announced this week its first of two new college board members to be named this summer.

Sheila Baynes was appointed by the City of Danville to serve a four-year term, which began on July 1.

"I am grateful for the trust exhibited by Danville City Council in my ability to represent the citizens of our community and our region on the board," Baynes said. "Education is critical to the economic success of our region and DCC is a bridge to workforce training and the opportunity to save money for those seeking to continue their education."

Baynes will take the seat of Carrie Ashe, who completed her term last month.

"Filling the shoes of Carrie Ashe will not be easy, but I will do my utmost to continue her efforts in diversity and opportunity for all."

Baynes has worked for Williams, Luck, and Williams for 27 years and is a graduate of the Danville Pittsylvania County Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Southside XXII program. In addition to being a Middle Border Forward fellow, she serves on the Goodwill Board of Directors. Baynes was also recently appointed to the Haven of the Dan River Region Board of Directors.

Baynes is no stranger to DCC's impact on the lives of students in Danville, Pittsylvania County, and Halifax County.

"My granddaughter received her associate's degree from DCC and also participated in the college's dual enrollment program while attending George Washington High School and Governor's School," Baynes said. "I am excited to play a role in the continued success of our community college system and in the opportunities DCC will offer for a better tomorrow."

A representative selected by the Halifax County Board of Supervisors will also be joining the DCC board this year to replace Valdivia Hall, who also recently completed her appointed term.

From a reader...

One of our local deputies in Danville came by my office to drop off paper work and had been doing so all day in this heat. She took a moment to cool off in the AC and met my baby goat (1 month old) fell in love with her. Well, I think the feeling was mutual! When I look at this photo I cant help but smile! Danville needs more sweet happy pictures and news nowadays and just thought I would share. We love our law enforcement and most of the time they are taken for granted for one reason or another. If you ask me, they all deserve a moment to hug a goat :D

A Healthy Family Lifestyle Study

Researchers at the University of Virginia invite all interested families of children ages 8 to 12 to join a healthy lifestyle study that is part of a team effort between Danville Parks and Recreation, Children's Healthcare Center and the University of Virginia. With a flip of a coin, you will be randomized into one of these programs: Family Connections or iChoose.

The purpose of the study is to compare two childhood obesity treatment programs to see which one is the best fit for your community. The study includes free health screenings, small group healthy living classes and telephone support calls. Families will receive $300 in gift cards for participating in the study. Primary Investigator: Dr. Jamie Zoellner (IRB #19748).

To learn more about the study and see if you qualify, please call Danielle Montague at 434.799.5150.

Q. Can you tell me what my favorite actor, Kevin Bacon, has been up to lately? — Brian F., via email

A. The prolific and talented actor is currently working with Jason Blum on a pilot of his 1990 cult-hit comedy/horror movie "Tremors." They are developing an eight-episode series based on the movie for the Syfy network. Kevin will star in and produce the series, returning as lead character Valentine McKee, a handyman in a small Nevada town who battles for his life, and the lives of the townsfolk, against giant man-eating sandworms. There is no word on whether any of the other stars of the movie will return, but then again, did anyone except Kevin's character survive? It's been so long, I can't remember. Looks like I have my Friday movie night planned out!

Q. Is it true that there is going to be another installment of my favorite scary movie, "The Conjuring"? — Larry K., Galveston, Texas

A. New Line recently announced that "The Conjuring 3" is indeed in the works. Patrick Wilson and Vera Farmiga are expected to return as Ed and Lorraine Warren, the husband-and-wife team of paranormal researchers. The plot of this installment will come from the case files of the Warrens, and you can bet it will be just as scary as the first two films. Since it's in the very early stages of development, details such as plot, premiere date, co-stars, etc., are not yet available.

Dan directed Jake and Renee in the film "Nightcrawler," so it'll be interesting to get the team back together and see what they create. If you want to get your Jake fill before then, his Netflix-original movie "Okja," which recently competed at the Cannes Film Festival, is now available for streaming. It also stars Tilda Swinton and Paul Dano.

Q. I've watched quite a few original Netflix feature films, and I always find them enjoyable and compelling. Can you tell me any new ones I should look out for? — Xavier R., via email

A. I just got word that Netflix won the rights to an as-yet-untitled drama set in the art world and starring Jake Gyllenhaal and Rene Russo (one of my favorite actresses). The movie was written by Dan Gilroy, who also will direct. You may remember that

Q. I loved James Franco in Hulu's "11.22.63." What does he have coming up? — Nina H. in Florida

A. James is once again teaming up with Stephen King and Hulu. He has signed on to "Castle Rock," which is based on the stories of Stephen King, intertwining characters and themes from the fictional town of Castle Rock. The series stars Andre Holland and Sissy Spacek, with Sissy playing Ruth Deaver, the estranged adoptive mother of Henry (Andre), a retired professor with fading memories and a complicated history about the town. The series is set to premiere in 2018.

The Garden Bug

All varieties of thyme come from the lands surrounding the Mediterranean Sea. The Egyptians and ancient Greeks appreciated its antiseptic properties; Dioscorides mentioned its value as an expectorant and Pliny recommended it for fumigating. The ancient Romans flavored alcoholic beverages with it. The famous Hymettus honey of Greece is specially flavored through bees gathering pollen from the wild thyme flowering on Mount Hymettus near Athens.

FLASHBACK

POP, ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICK HARPER

1. What group had a hit with "Just Like Romeo and Juliet," and when?
2. Name the artist who released "Agent Double-O-Soul."
3. Which two artists released "It Takes Two" in 1965?
4. Who co-wrote and released "She Works Hard for the Money"?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Listen, tell me, have you got a boy you can send? This is what I want him to do. Put him on his bike right away."

Answers

1. The Reflections, in 1964. It climbed 80 spots on the charts in six weeks. Sha Na Na covered the song in 1975, but it didn't do as well.
2. Edwin Starr, in 1965. The song launched his career, which would later include the Vietnam War protest song "War."
3. Marvin Gaye and Kim Weston. Later Tammi Terrell would pair more successfully with Gaye in their duets until her death at age 24.
4. Donna Summer in 1983. The song climbed nearly every chart, including Dance Club Songs.
5. "Hey, Western Union Man," by Jerry Butler in 1968. The song became Butler's second No. 1 R&B hit. Diana Ross and the Supremes covered the song a year later on their "Let the Sunshine In" album.

* "A great use for an old purse is to hold the basic tools you need around the house, such as a hammer, pliers, a set of screwdrivers, etc. I keep an assortment of fasteners in mine too: Nails, safety pins and screws go easily in a side pocket." -- R.L. via e-mail

* If you need to keep a door from closing, use this rubber-band trick: Loop a thick rubber band (like the ones that bind stalks of broccoli) around the doorknob, twist, then loop it around the opposite door knob. It will keep the latch from catching, and the door can close, but will push right open. This is handy if you have little ones who like to lock the bathroom door or if you're bringing groceries inside and want to close the door between trips without shutting yourself out!

* You can keep ribbon on a paper towel holder for easy access. If you have lots, consider using a tension rod inside a deep drawer!

* "When I go shopping in the grocery store, nothing irritates me more than to open a carton of eggs to see if any are broken, and to have the carton not close back up. So, I decided to find my own solution. I now take a rubber band in my purse to wrap around the carton to hold the lid in place until I get home. Once they've been opened, they never shut tight again. Case solved!" -- E.D. in Alaska * Paper coffee filters are great in the microwave as splatter guards.

* Studies show that the higher the temperature, the lighter the fare. Dieters take note: Turn off the air conditioning about 20 minutes before dinner. You'll take in less food and will be more likely to eat lighter foods.

Strawberry Cheesecake Lush

Ingredients

- 1 package Golden Oreos (36 cookies)
- 6 tablespoons butter, melted
- 8 ounces softened cream cheese
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 (16-ounce) container Cool Whip, divided
- 2 packages (3.4 ounce each) instant cheesecake pudding mix
- 3 cups milk
- 3½ cups sliced strawberries

Instructions

Crush the entire package of Oreos. A food processor would work great for this - I don't have one, so I just placed my cookies in a gallon sized Ziplock bag and crushed them with a rolling pin. When the cookies are fine crumbs, transfer them to a large bowl and mix in 6 tablespoons of melted butter. Press the cookie mixture into a 9x13 pan and refrigerate while you prepare the remaining layers. Next, beat together 1 cup of powdered sugar, the cream cheese, and 1 cup of Cool Whip. Spread over your cookie layer. For the next layer, mix together the pudding mix, milk, and another 1 cup of Cool Whip. Spread over the cream cheese layer. Layer the sliced strawberries on top, and spread the remaining Cool Whip on top. Keep refrigerated until ready to serve.

FRESH, FILLING FAMILY DINNERS

FAMILY FEATURES

When busy mornings give way to a hectic workday followed by homework and after-school activities, a fresh, simple meal is often the only option. Before you hit the drive-thru or settle for an equally unhealthy alternative, check out these delicious dishes you can prepare and serve without the hassle.

Find more ideas to make your busy weeknights easy at Culinary.net.

Savory and Scrumptious

Take a nutritious dish to the family table that still brings a flavorful bite. This savory lasagna recipe boasts meaty eggplant, fresh zucchini and lycopene-rich tomatoes. Whole-wheat noodles pack fiber and natural plant compounds, called phytochemicals. Find more better-for-you recipe ideas at AICR.org.

Roasted Vegetable Lasagna

Reprinted with permission from the American Institute for Cancer Research.

Servings: 12

- 2 eggplants (about 3 pounds), quartered lengthwise
- 6 medium zucchini (about 3 pounds)
- canola oil cooking spray
- 1 pound whole-wheat lasagna noodles
- 15 ounces low-fat ricotta or low-fat cottage cheese
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 3 cups low-fat mozzarella cheese
- 4 cups low-sodium tomato sauce, divided

Heat oven to 450 F. Grease 13-by-9-by-2-inch baking pan; set aside.

Slice eggplant and zucchini in 1/2-inch slices. Layer on two baking sheets and coat both sides of vegetables with cooking spray. Roast 20 minutes. Toss vegetables and continue roasting until well browned and soft, about 20 minutes more. Transfer vegetables to large bowl.

Reduce oven temperature to 375 F. Cook lasagna noodles according to package directions. Separate noodles and let cool slightly.

In medium bowl, mix together cheese, eggs, Parmesan, nutmeg and garlic powder.

To assemble: Spread thin layer of sauce over bottom of prepared pan. Cover with layer of pasta (noodle strips slightly overlapping). Spread with one-third of ricotta mixture.

Sprinkle 1/4 of the mozzarella over ricotta. Spoon 1/3 of roasted vegetables on top. Top with 1/2 cup tomato sauce and continue assembly as directed until there are four layers of pasta and three layers of filling. Spread remaining sauce on top and sprinkle with remaining mozzarella.

Cover pan with aluminum foil and bake 30 minutes. Uncover and continue baking until golden and bubbly, about 15 minutes more. Let stand 15 minutes before serving.

Quick, Flavorful Meal Idea

It's not always easy to make healthy food choices. When time is of the essence, look for delicious recipe ingredients that are convenient and easy to prepare while also offering great taste and health benefits.

In fact, 40 percent of American consumers said shorter cooking times are especially important when buying grocery items such as rice, grains and pasta, according to research from Statista, and 83 percent said taste is an important factor when purchasing food.

Ready in 10 minutes with flavor infused in every grain, Uncle Ben's Flavor Infusions rice is ideal for those looking for quick and healthy meal options. With its one-step cooking process, it makes it easy for families to cook with their kids and quickly get dinner on the table. The re-sealable pouches ensure freshness for multiple uses, and any of the five flavors can be combined with fresh vegetables, proteins and herbs for a simple meal that's ready in less than 20 minutes.

Simple recipe options using Flavor Infusions, such as Easy Thai Chicken Satay and Rice Salad, are quick meals the entire family can enjoy, even when short on time. Find more meal ideas at UncleBens.com.

Easy Thai Chicken Satay and Rice Salad

Servings: 4-6

Dressing:

- 1/4 cup canned, unsweetened coconut milk
- 1/4 cup creamy peanut butter
- 1 tablespoon rice wine vinegar
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 2 teaspoons red curry paste
- 1/8 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper
- 1-2 tablespoons hot water

Salad:

- 1 cup Uncle Ben's Flavor Infusions Roasted Chicken
- 1 1/2 cups shredded rotisserie chicken
- 1 cup shredded carrots

- 1 cup sliced pea pods
- 1 cup sliced red pepper
- 1 avocado, pitted and sliced
- 4-6 radishes, thinly sliced
- 2 tablespoons chopped peanuts
- 2 tablespoons chopped green onions

To make dressing: In small glass bowl, stir together coconut milk, peanut butter, rice wine vinegar, soy sauce, red curry paste, cayenne pepper and hot water; set aside.

Cook rice according to package instructions. Makes about 3 1/2 cups.

In center of individual plates, place about 1 cup rice. Arrange chicken, carrots, pea pods, red pepper, avocado, radishes, peanuts and green onions around rice then drizzle with dressing.

Fish with a Twist

Add a little variety to your dinnertime protein with a smart, heart-healthy option like fish. Fillets cook quickly and a slightly sweet white fish like farm-raised catfish has a mild enough flavor to entice picky young eaters. White fish is also quite versatile; it can take on other flavors such as this citrusy topping with ease. Find more family-friendly fish recipes at USCatfish.com.

Catfish Quesadilla with Cilantro-Lime Sour Cream

Recipe courtesy of The Catfish Institute
Servings: 4

- 4 U.S. Farm-Raised Catfish Fillets, grilled or baked
- 2 1/2 tablespoons olive oil, divided salt, to taste
- freshly ground pepper, to taste
- smoked paprika or chili powder
- 1 small red bell pepper, diced
- 1/2 red onion, diced
- 3/4 cup whole corn kernels
- 1 teaspoon red pepper flakes
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1/2 cup fresh cilantro leaves, chopped
- 4 flour or wheat tortillas (10 inches each)
- 1 can (16 ounces) refried black beans
- 2 cups grated pepper jack cheese

Cilantro-Lime Sour Cream:

- 1/2 cup sour cream
- 1/4 cup fresh cilantro leaves, chopped
- 1/2 lime, juiced
- lime zest
- salt, to taste

Lightly brush fish with 1 tablespoon olive oil. Season with salt, pepper and smoked paprika or chili powder. Prepare fish on grill or bake until done. Place in refrigerator to cool. When cool, cut into bite-size pieces.

In large skillet, heat 1 tablespoon oil over medium-high heat. Sauté red pepper and onion until soft, about 5 minutes. Add corn, red pepper flakes, cumin and salt and pepper, to taste. Toss to incorporate and sauté 3 minutes. Transfer to bowl and add cilantro.

Heat pan large enough to hold flat tortilla to medium heat. Lightly brush pan with remaining olive oil.

Spread tortilla on work surface. On half of each tortilla, spread refried beans and vegetables; top with fish.

Place in heated pan and sprinkle 1/2 cup cheese on other half of tortilla. Heat until cheese is melted and tortilla is lightly crispy. Fold cheese side over vegetable side and remove to plate.

Using serrated knife, cut each tortilla into four pieces. Serve with Cilantro-Lime Sour Cream.

To make Cilantro-Lime Sour Cream: In small bowl, mix all ingredients until combined.

HOLLYWOOD
by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Daniel Day Lewis, the only actor to win three best actor Oscars — for "My Left Foot" (1989), "There Will Be Blood" (2007) and "Lincoln" (2012) — has decided to quit acting and retire. He is 60. Jack Nicholson won three Oscars, though one was as supporting actor for "Terms of Endearment" (1983).

Lewis has always been a private person and gave no reason for this momentous decision, but the fact he's now living in Ireland could signal he feels his greatest role will be raising his sons. Lewis has three boys: Gabriel was born in 1995 while he was partnered with actress Isabelle Adjani (1989-1995), and Ron and Cashel are from his marriage to the daughter of American playwright Arthur Miller, Rebecca, whom he married in 1996.

If he stays true to his word, his last film will be "Phantom Thread" (about the London couture fashion world of 1950s) with his "There Will Be Blood" director Paul Thomas Anderson at the helm. The film will be released Christmas Day.

Meryl Streep, who also has won three Oscars — though one was for supporting actress in "Kramer vs Kramer" (1979) — still has to win two more best actress Oscars just to tie Katherine Hepburn's four best actress Oscars. Before we see her in "Mary Poppins Returns" (out Christmas 2018), she'll appear in the historical drama "The Papers," being produced and directed by Steven Spielberg.

It's about a cover-up spanning four presidents that forces Kay Graham, the first female publisher of The Washington Post, to work with its hard-driving editor, Ben Bradlee (being played by Tom Hanks) as a battle ensues between journalists and the government (sound familiar and topical?) causing them to publish "The Pentagon Papers." The cast also includes

Daniel Day Lewis

Bruce Greenwood, Matthew Rys and Bradley Whitford. "The Papers" opens Dec. 22.

George Clooney lost money producing "Our Brand is Crisis" (2015), with Sandra Bullock ($28 million cost/$8.6 million gross) but scored with "Money Monster" (2016), with Julia Roberts ($27 million cost/$93 million gross). Now he has really scored, selling his four-year-old tequila company, Casamigos (which means house of friends), along with partners Rande Gerber and Mike Meldman, to the London-based spirits giant Diageo for $1 billion. Diageo is giving them $700 million now and $300 million over the next 10 years.

Clooney has completed producing "Suburbicon," with Matt Damon and Julianne Moore, due Nov. 3, and "Ocean's Eight," with Sandra Bullock, Cate Blanchett, Anne Hathaway and Rihanna, due June 2018. Now that Clooney won't have to act anymore, he can devote himself to spending all that money and watching tequila sunrises!
