Southern Eye Center Hosts First "Gift of Sight" Event in Laurel

By Linda Cranford

On Wednesday, July 12, ten very happy people from the Pine Belt community were recipients of Southern Eye Center's first annual "Gift of Sight" event in their new Laurel Clinic and Surgery Center. Gift of Sight is a one day philanthropy event dedicated to providing free cataract procedures to patients who could not otherwise afford them.

Dr. Kiper Nelson, Ophthalmologist and Cataract Specialist at Southern Eye Center, performed this year's procedures. "During Gift of Sight, we treat patients with visual problems, typically advanced cataracts," said Nelson. "Ophthalmologist and optometrist from around the area who know a patient's circumstance may refer patients to us with various vision problems. Today, we are doing primarily advanced cataract surgery." Nelson added that cataracts impact every part of a person's life: their job, home life and hobbies. "After surgery, we see all of that restored to them, and it's a good feeling."

Dr. Lynn McMahan, founder of Southern

Eye Center, created the "Gift of Sight" program 23 years ago. The number of patients treated varies annually.

Southern Eye Center's brand new Laurel location is located at 1923 West 10th Street, and primarily serves Jones, Jasper, Covington, Smith, Clarke, Wayne and Lauderdale counties. The clinic tops 10,000 square feet, with state-of-the-art technology and a complete Ambulatory Surgery Center. In addition to providing cataract procedures, this facility will also provide services for retina, glaucoma, cornea, refractive, and oculoplastic surgery.

Wednesday was Dr. Nelson's first chance to use the new state-of-the-art equipment in the Laurel location. Several equipment vendors were on hand to assist if any issues with the equipment had appeared.

"It's exciting to use this latest and greatest equipment," exclaimed Nelson. "It makes my job much easier." Nelson added that when he first came to Southern Eye Center 17 years ago, Dr. McMahan had the latest state-of-the-art equipment. Nelson commented on the new technology saying, "You can see so much more minute details with this new microscope that it makes the equipment 17 years ago seem like you were working with just headlights."

He added that today's surgery only takes about 5-10 minutes and recovery time is short. "Before they leave the clinic, they already notice a difference," said Nelson. "Within a day or two the blurriness disappears, and they're seeing better than they have in years."

With clinics in Picayune, Hattiesburg, and Laurel, Southern Eye Center and its fellowship-trained, board certified physicians have been committed to quality care and community involvement since 1975. For more information or to make an appointment call 601-264-3937.

Jones County Sheriff Hodge elected to National Post

Submitted

Jones County Sheriff Alex Hodge was recently elected to the National Sheriffs' Association's Board of Directors. Out of over 3,000 sheriffs in the United States, Sheriff Hodge is now serving a 3-year term on the 22-member Board. Hodge was originally appointed to the position in March 2017 by now past NSA president Greg Champagne from St. Charles Parish, Louisiana.

Jones County Sheriff Alex Hodge

The National Sheriffs' Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to raising the level of professionalism among those in the law enforcement field. NSA is a key player in shaping national policy on critical criminal justice and homeland security issues important to the nation's sheriffs, deputies and police in the halls of Congress, US Courts and at the White House.

NSA is led by an Executive Committee and Board of Directors comprised of members of NSA who are currently holding the elected position of Office of Sheriff. The Board of Directors annually reviews the Association's progress and outlines the law enforcement policies that guide the Association's activities.

"I want the best for Jones County, I want the best for our nation, and I know one of the ways to see that fulfilled is to be involved," says Hodge. "The great parliamentarian Ed Burke has been quoted often as saying, 'The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing', I pray daily to be one of those 'good men,' and therefore I will not sit back and do nothing."

Sheriff Hodge refers to his tenure as sheriff as not a four-year term, but rather a career.

This additional title maintains that objective. He respects the office of Sheriff and wants to preserve and protect what is known by most as America's highest office for local contact. When the people of an area need help, have a question, require assistance, it is The Sheriff they call. And Sheriff Hodge is proud to serve and protect.

Since 1940, Mississippi has only been represented once as an elected president of the NSA (Tommy Ferrell, Adams County Sheriff, served as president 2002-2003). Sheriff Hodge has served as president of the Mississippi Sheriffs' Association in 2015-2016 and continues to chair and serve on several committees within the Mississippi Sheriffs' and National Sheriffs' Associations. Hodge is serving his third term as Jones County Sheriff since being elected in 2007.

FEMA Awards AFG Grant to Powers Volunteer Fire Department

Submitted

Powers Volunteer Fire Department in Jones County has been awarded a FEMA FY2016 Assistance to Firefighters Grant (AFG) fire operations grant to purchase new self-contained breathing apparatus (SCBA). The department will receive $70,343.00 in federal funding which will be matched by the department with $3,517.00 in local funds to purchase twelve (12) new National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) compliant SCBA for deployment on Powers Engine 1, Heavy Rescue, Brush 1 and Tanker 1. "We are excited to have been awarded a FEMA AFG fire operations grant to purchase new SCBA for our volunteer firefighters to use during incident responses," notes Powers Fire Chief Joey Davis. He adds, "The FEMA AFG grant program is incredibly competitive on a national basis and we cannot say thanks enough to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran, U.S. Senator Roger Wicker and U.S. Congressman Steven Palazzo for their written letters of support for our project."

Self-contained breathing apparatus (SCBA) must meet strenuous National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) standards which are designed to protect firefighters from the dangers associated with structural firefighting. Intense heat, smoke and poisonous gases, which are commonplace in fire service structural firefighting responses, make having reliable and rugged SCBA units an absolute necessity. Powers Volunteer Fire Department requested twelve SCBA on the grant application and all twelve were approved for purchase by FEMA. The department has already begun evaluating SCBA units from several potential suppliers in order to become familiar with unit features, warranty periods, serviceability and pricing. Procurement of the units will follow state purchasing guidelines in order to ensure the best value for the department.

"We ask our volunteer firefighters to put their lives and their family's futures on the line with each and every incident response," advises Powers Assistant Chief Jeffery Fountain. He adds, "We owe it to them, their families and to the residents whose lives they are trying to save to provide them with the most up-to-date, safe and reliable equipment that we can afford to help them get the job done". Powers President & Treasurer Ed Ritchey concludes, "We could not have afforded to purchase new SCBA given our local funding level without the FEMA Assistance to Firefighters Grant (AFG) grant being awarded to our department. We are thankful to FEMA for this grant award which will undoubtedly make our volunteer firefighters and the citizens we serve much safer."

Pasquales 1956 Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Friday

By Linda Cranford

After 49 years, Pasquales in Laurel is expanding! Friday, July 21, at 10 a.m., a Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony will be held at Pasquales 1956, located at 2916 Highway 15 North, next to Bob Palmer's Chancellor Motor Group. Pasquales 1956 will be a pick-up and delivery location only for Pasquales' pizza, considered by many to be the best pizza in town.

"This is simply an extension of the 16th Avenue location," explained owner Mack Van Der Merwe. "This location will relieve some of the pressure off of the 16th Avenue restaurant and provide a better set up for our take-out customers."

Mack said the past year has been a challenging time for him personally, and for the restaurant itself. In February a two-foot wide trench ran through the full length of the dining area in the 16th Avenue location when the 49 year old pipes had to be replaced. Mack took that opportunity to give the inside a facelift, as well. "This past year has been both a challenge and a blessing," exclaimed Mack. "I want to thank the community for its continued support, and assure them that I would never do anything to jeopardize the 49-year old tradition of Pasquales that is so dear to so many."

Mack said that a third Pasquales location should open in Sandersville around the first or second week in August.

“Photo guy” James Pugh joins Impact staff

By James Pugh

I feel like I don't have to introduce myself. I've spent over seven years in Jones County covering sports in some form or fashion. I've been called by a few names by coaches and athletes alike; to begin with it was “hey, photo guy,” which was usually followed by “take my picture.”

As the years progressed, my name, which I was called by, changed to “djamesunchained” (That is my Instagram handle/name for those of you who might have wondered). After taking a full-time job with The Chronicle in 2014 to cover sports in Jones County as a photographer/writer/layout designer, I began to hear people call me by my actually name – James Pugh.

Now I enter a new journey in my life and career. That seems to be a repeating theme in the past year or two: back in October of last year I became a married man and that journey has been nothing short of amazing. And now I begin a new journey working for the fine people at The Impact, once again covering sports, except this time I will be branching out into the Smith, Jasper and Wayne County areas. It's a lot of ground to cover, but I am thrilled about the task ahead of me.

What you call me is totally up to you. I have learned to answer to “the photo guy” or to my Instagram name. At the end of the day my name is not what's important; it's the coaches and athletes that I hope my work gets you introduced too. The Pine Belt has great athletic programs with kids that deserve some recognition. These kids will be leaders for the free world in the years to come, and they deserve to be guided and recognized for their hard work now. That is my task . . . to acquaint you with them and their accomplishments.

I love sports and I enjoy reporting about sports, but at the end of the day that is not what life is really about. Sports are a tool to be used for the greater good – it teaches and encourages good character. Often I remind myself that as much as I enjoy sports, the bigger picture involves more than a game or a series of games. I hope to highlight that in my work.

My background is photography, and that is how I got my start in sports journalism. I love how one image has the ability to tell a story far better than words can. I will of course use words too, along with the images I capture, to give you interesting game stories and features that will keep you informed. We will even make some game predictions during football season . . . I love how predictions regarding upcoming games get people talking and excited about an upcoming contest. The Pine Belt is full of people passionate about their sports, and I have witnessed that to a great degree over the past several years. We will share that excitement with you through the IMPACT.

The people of Jones County, and other surrounding counties, deserve good sports coverage and that is what I intend to bring to the table. Stay tuned for more exciting elements that will come from IMPACT in the near future as well.

So here we go. I am beyond excited to be able to continue to work with the good people in Jones County, and I look forward to the new relationships I will build in surrounding areas.

Feel free to email me at james@buckleynewspapers.com to share tips about interesting sports stories that you come across that deserve to be told.

The Jagged Edj final Summer Jam Session performance

By Linda Cranford

For the past 19 years on the third weekend in July members of a popular high school band, The Jagged Edj, have traveled from as far away as California and China to reunite for a "Summer Jam Session." Hundreds of their former classmates, friends, and other graduates from R.H. Watkins High School have traveled from all over the United States each year to attend the performance and reunite with old friends. This year was a bitter-sweet reunion, for the band announced that this would be their last year to perform for everyone.

The "Summer Jam Session," started in 1998 when the band got together to provide the entertainment for the combined reunion of the R.H. Watkins High School 1972 and 1973 Classes. Band member John Helveston, who made the suggestion for the band to reunite and play for the reunion, said they were afraid to take a break. They thought if they took a break everyone would leave. But, no one left. Their popularity was restored and a tradition began.

The members of The Jagged Edj include Helveston, Doug Bush-bass, Wilson DeWitt-drum, Bryan Greco-vocals, and Johnny Hozey-lead guitar. To make each year's performance possible the band received help from Neill "The Colonel" Thames, who is considered the band's manager, Steve Guy-historian, Randy Carleton-legal advisor, Cynthia Tittle Welborn-publicist, Charlotte Saik-coordinator, and the "Edj Chicks." The "Edj Chicks" members include Debbie Thompson Bratu, Betsy Corum Carr, Diane

Missy Fortner Sanderson

Bush Cook, Cheryl Wyrick Guy, Lucy Low Helveston, Betty Tittle Huff, Denice Wheat McKenzie, Gaye Loper Napier, Maureen Axton Ousley, Katty Wood Robinson, Charlotte Saik, Cynthia Tittle Welborn, and Patti Ellis Winstanley.

To show their appreciation for all that the "Edj Chicks" have done throughout the years the members of the band gave each a special necklace.

Each year everyone looks forward to the special guest performances of Missy Fortner Sanderson and Patrick Weathers who are also R.H. Watkins graduates. Weathers, who lives in New Orleans, entertains the crowd with his rendition of the songs of Johnny Cash, Elvis Presley, and Bob Dylan. Sanderson brings the house down with her rendition of Janis Joplin's "Cry Baby," and other songs from artists Grace Slick and Pat Benatar. For the first time in 19 years, Sanderson joined the band for the entire night's performance. Throughout the evening, during this year's performance, several guest musicians stopped by to perform with The Edj including Ronnie Goss, Bobby Kling, James Duckler, and Mike Walley. Sanderson's daughter, Katy McCraw, proved that she is her mother's daughter when she joined the band on stage for a couple of songs.

The dance floor of the Laurel Country Club was never empty from the moment the first note sounded at 7:30 p.m. until the last note faded away around 12:30 a.m. For a few hours, people now in their 60s and those approaching 70 were able to step back in time, reunite with old friends, and dance all night to the music of years gone by. It was a night that many wished they could bottle up and save forever. The Jagged Edj Summer Jam Session will be greatly missed by all.

A Shepherd's Heart – Focus on the One

Dr. Timothy L. Hubbard

“Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.” – Hebrews 12:2-3 (NIV)

I will celebrate a birthday next month. As I get closer to 58, I am certainly thankful that the Lord has allowed me to live this long and I trust that He is not quite through with me yet. However, I am reminded by certain things that I am not as young as I used to be. Things like aching feet, moving slower, loss of hearing, and trouble seeing are all sure-fire signs that I am getting older. As I think about some of these indicators of aging, one specific item seems to need immediate attention. My focus seems to be off a bit! It's time for another visit to the eye doctor.

The writer of Hebrews gives some interesting insight on this issue of focus as it relates to the Christian life. He states that we should fix our eyes on Jesus. This phrase “fix our eyes on” literally means, “to bring into sharp focus.” What he is saying to us is basically “keep Christ in focus, look intently to Him.”

The hymn writer understood this concept well as the words to “Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus” were penned. Listen to the text of the chorus: “Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in His wonderful face. And the things of earth will grow strangely dim, In the light of His glory and grace.”

When we are faced with the struggles in this life, whether it be the struggles of growing older or the struggles of battling the enemy's (Satan's) attack on us, we must keep our eyes fixed on Jesus. He is the author and finisher of our faith. He is the One who is worthy of our heart, our life, our all. When we focus on the One who is worthy of our focus, we have no reason to lose heart or grow weary. He has already endured the cross, the shame and the opposition of Satan himself. There is victory in Jesus!

Dr. MLK Committee Back To School Bash set for July 29

By Linda Cranford

The Dr. Martin Luther King Committee of the Pine Belt Mississippi will host a Back to School, Stay in School, Stop the Violence event Saturday, July 29 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church, 112 Dacetown Road in Ellisville. This is the seventh consecutive year that the Committee has offered such an event within the Pine Belt area.

“The purpose of this event is to unite the community behind the students who are returning to school for the 2017-2018 new year,” explained Thaddeus Edmonson, president of Dr. MLK Celebration Committee of the Pine Belt Mississippi. “We have partnered with several local businesses to offer a time of food, fun and games for the children as well as things for the parents to do to interact with their children.”

Dr. MLK Committee Program Director Chameshia Rogers, who recently returned to Laurel from Florida, said several members of the local medical field, law enforcement and fire departments will be on hand to offer educational information, screenings, and tests including school safety, fire safety, health screenings, blood pressure checks, vision and hearing tests, mental health, dental hygiene, heart disease, etc.

Guest speakers for the event will include former Maddox Principal Sandra Williams Gasper, who now lives in Jackson, and West Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, NAACP President and former educator Gaylor A. Spiller. Rogers said the speakers will address pertinent issues facing students today such as bullying, sex trafficking, domestic violence, teen pregnancy and mental health.

“Education is the key of life,” exclaimed Edmonson. “Dr. Martin Luther King espoused education and basically said without education you're going nowhere.”

Edmonson and Rogers said the event will give the community an opportunity to come together, have fun, enjoy some food and prepare for the upcoming year. Door prizes will be given away along with backpacks filled with school supplies. Any organization interested in participating in the event or anyone interested in helping out should contact Rogers by calling 313-753-4827 or email at chameshiar@gmail.com.

Jones County Sheriff's Department K-9 Officers receive body armor

Submitted

Jones County Sheriff's Department K-9 Officers Shadow C., Flash, Shadow S., and Zedd have received bullet and stab protective vests thanks to a charitable donation from a non-profit organization – Vested Interest in K9s, Inc. The K-9's vests are sponsored by an anonymous donor and embroidered with the sentiment "This gift of protection provided by Vested Interest in K9s, Inc."

Vested Interest in K9s, Inc. is a 501c (3) charity located in East Taunton, MA whose mission is to provide bullet and stab protective vests and other assistance to dogs of law enforcement and related agencies throughout the United States. The non-profit was established in 2009 to assist law enforcement agencies with this potentially lifesaving body armor for their four-legged K-9 officers. Since its inception, Vested Interest in K9s, Inc. provided over 2,300 protective vests, in 50 states, through private and corporate donations, at a cost of over 1.9 million dollars. All vests are custom made in the USA by Armor Express in Central Lake, MI.

The program is open to dogs actively employed in the U.S. with law enforcement or related agencies who are certified and at least 20 months of age. New K-9 graduates, as well as K-9s with expired vests, are eligible to participate.

Sheriff Alex Hodge is thankful to Vested Interest in K9s, Inc. and to the anonymous donor that made this possible. "These K-9s offer an immeasurable amount of protection as well as direction for our deputies, we are so very grateful to be able to give to these incredible animals some specific protection of their own," says Hodge.

The donation to provide one protective vest for a law enforcement K-9 is $1,050.00. Each vest has a value between $1,795 – $2,234 and a five-year warranty, and an average weight of 4-5 lbs. There is an estimated 30,000 law enforcement K-9s throughout the United States. For more information or to learn about volunteer opportunities, please call 508-824-6978. Vested Interest in K9s, Inc. provides information, lists events, and accepts tax-deductible donations of any denomination at www.vik9s.org or mailed to P.O. Box 9 East Taunton, MA 02718.

Dorothy E. Stancill, D.M.D.

Dorothy Elizabeth Stancill is a Laurel native who recently graduated from the University of Mississippi Medical Center with a DMD (Dental Doctor of Medicine) degree.

In the class of May 2017, she received special recognition for Excellence in Prosthodontics from the Southeastern Academy of Prosthodontics and the presentation of the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons Dental Implant Student Award for the outstanding achievements and performance related to the placement of dental implants.

She is the daughter of Dr. Hugh and Carolyn Ruth Stancill, also of Laurel. Her father, Dr. Hugh Stancill has practiced obstetrics and gynecology in Laurel since July 5, 1977 when he established the OB-GYN Group of Laurel. Incidentally, Dr. Dorothy Stancill began practicing dentistry on July 5, 2017, on the 40th anniversary of her father's first day of practice.

Her late grandfather, Dr. Jeff Holder, was an Orthopedic Surgeon who established the Laurel Bone and Joint Clinic. He was influential in Dorothy's pursuit of a career in dental medicine.

Dr. Dorothy Stancill obtained a Masters of Biological Science from Mississippi College in 2011 and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Methodist University in Art History.

"I am looking forward to practicing dentistry in Laurel," stated Dr. Dorothy Stancill, "Laurel is a very special place and it is good to be back home."

Mississippi's 2017 Miss Hospitality will be crowned Saturday, July 22 in Hattiesburg

Submitted

Mississippi's reigning Miss Hospitality Mary Elizabeth Stringer will crown a new state titleholder during the upcoming 2017 Mississippi Miss Hospitality Pageant at the Historic Hattiesburg Saenger Theater on July 22.

For one week, the Miss Hospitality Pageant will bring twenty-five young women from across Mississippi to Hattiesburg. After arriving on Sunday, July 16, contestants will spend a week participating in service projects, touring the community, learning dance numbers for the pageant, interviewing with the pageant's judges, and making lifelong friendships.

"When I arrived in Hattiesburg last year, I quickly formed a bond with the other girls. We immediately had a common bond, and that was our love for our state. While we each came to Hattiesburg to compete for the title, we left as a closer, stronger group of young leaders than when we arrived. The Miss Hospitality experience has been life changing," Mary Elizabeth Stringer, Mississippi's current Miss Hospitality said.

Stringer has spent her year as Mississippi's Miss Hospitality traveling the state and promoting tourism and economic development as the state's official goodwill ambassador. A recent graduate of Mississippi State University and native of Starkville, Stringer has spoken at events such as the Mississippi Governor's Conference and Hattiesburg's Shining Stars Tourism Luncheon, opened the Mississippi State Fair, ridden in parades, and kept a Mississippi-themed blog during her reign.

"We have truly enjoyed having Mary Elizabeth as our 2016 Miss Hospitality. For a year, she has championed Mississippi with her intelligent and poignant insights into a state with a rich history and promising future. We know she will take these experiences with her as she begins the next chapter of her life. We are anticipating a wonderful new addition to the Miss Hospitality family next Saturday, and we are confident a strong tradition of ambassadorship will continue," Jennifer Parsons, director of the Mississippi Miss Hospitality Pageant said.

Now in its 20th year as host city, the Mississippi Miss Hospitality Pageant brings in hundreds of visitors from across the state to Hattiesburg each year. With an influx of visitors, including friends and families of contestants throughout the week, the pageant adds an estimated $450,000 of additional spending in the local economy.

The Miss Hospitality Pageant will take place on July 21 and 22 at 8 p.m. with the winner being crowned on Saturday, July 22 at the Saenger Theater. Doors open at 7 p.m. each evening. Tickets can be purchased for Friday and Saturday nights at www.misshospitality.com or by contacting the Saenger box office at (601) 584-4888.

Contestant information is also available at the Miss Hospitality website and the program's Facebook page.
