SwitchGear Brewing

Craft brewery, tap room find a home in Elkhart Lake

By Mike Mathes
for the Depot Dispatch

Sometimes in life, we are nudged to make a change in directions. A trio of new business owners in Elkhart Lake like to think of it as switching gears.

Though the plans have been in the works for five years, this year Nick Kullmann, Mark Grasse and Ryan Feldmann shifted their dream into reality as they opened the SwitchGear Brewery and Tap room in Elkhart Lake's Feed Mill Shops.

SwitchGear Brewing has its foundations on the north end of the Feed Mill Shops, with its double doors opening adjacent to what was once the start-finish line for road racing on the streets of the village.

Beer aficionados got their first taste of Elkhart Lake's newly brewed beer on Memorial Day weekend, the target set by the trio when they formally established their business time line last year.

"We have been talking about the idea for about five years, but really began working on it seriously the past two years," said Nick Kullmann, the avowed home brew hobbyist-turned-craft brewer.

Kullmann serves as the brew master at SwitchGear, taking a personal hobby to the next level.

"It's really a hobby that got out of control," he said. "I always wanted to have my own business, and I think that's true of all of us."

Tried and true recipes

Kullmann took up the hobby of home brewing in 2000. He and his wife both liked to cook, raising their own foods in their garden. But, they also took a fancy to making beer and country wines.

The brew master always had a variety of his own beers on tap at home, and it was common for him to bring beer for graduation parties, weddings and other events.

"Whenever we were asked to bring a dish to pass, we would bring beer—on tap. And it usually ran out fast," Kullmann said.

Some of the SwitchGear Beer recipes got their tried and true tasting experience back in those days, as friends, family and neighbors weighed in on what they really liked.

Switching gears

The SwitchGear Brewing moniker carries many interesting connotations regarding the owners and the community.

Kullmann and Feldmann both see that they are switching gears personally as their children grow older. "I always wanted to own my own business, and the time is right for me now. I am still young enough to work long days and run around like an idiot," he said.

"Mark has an operational and accounting background, and he sees this as an opportunity to switch gears in that way."

Kullmann's main trade as an electrician—which also brings a connection to the SwitchGear name. In electricity, SwitchGear is a combination of electrical disconnect switches, fuses or circuit breakers used to control, protect and isolate electrical equipment.

When trying to find a location for the brewery and tap room, the owners first looked at a building behind the Paddock Club, which ironically served as the village's first power generation facility. The original owner of the facility was Matthias Gottfried, a brewer from Chicago.

Of course, any Elkhart Lake business is wise to tout its connection to road racing, doing business in the shadows of Road America.

"When we started thinking about using SwitchGear as our name," Kullmann said, "it was pretty obvious that our community is pretty tied to the race track, where drivers have to SwitchGears properly to be successful."

Great early reception

SwitchGear Brewing has been an instant draw in the Elkhart Lake community. "We knew we wanted to open by Memorial Day to hit the peak season in Elkhart Lake," Kullmann said. "We couldn't have asked for anything better. The support from the community has been awesome. We never imagined it would be quite like this. In fact we have seen some really heavy swings in our beer inventory."

Kullmann said the two months of operation have also given the owners a better feel for which varieties of their beer are most popular with their guests.

What's on tap?

At the SwitchGear Brewing tap room, guests will always find both SwitchGear beers and other craft beer options on tap.

Currently the tap room devotes four taps to SwitchGear's offerings and the remainder of its 20 taps to guest offerings.

For the summer, patrons have cast their ballots with their taste buds, showing a preference for Pontoon Pounder, an American wheat beer, light and low on alcohol, and served with an orange slice.

Resorter Red Ale has also caught the interest of the clientele. "It's a typical standard red ale. There's nothing fancy about it," Kullmann said.

"That's sort of true of all our beers. We aren't trying any tricks. It's all just beer."

Also on tap this summer are the Corner Five Smash Pale Ale, also fondly called C5. The Smash refers to single malt and single hop style pale ale.

The most unique of the four may be the Summertime Stout, a light version of stout.

Other varieties will be brought on seasonally. This past month, Kullmann unveiled a batch of Catamaran Pounder, the typical wheat ale lace with fresh raspberries. The one-and-done brew never stood a chance in the tap room as the first barrel disappeared in 10 short minutes.

SwitchGear will also rotate its taps of

Just routine

A lot of life is just routine. The word itself creates visions of the commonplace, the dull, and the unexciting. That may in fact be the case, but it's all in how you look at it. With a little imagination, one can interpret one's routine as something more positive—and even enjoyable.

There is, in life, a whole list of activities that are routine—to brush one's teeth in the morning after you wake up, to make and pour your morning coffee, to fix your lunch at noon, to wash laundry on Monday, and to go out for a fish fry on Friday night. And on and on.

Our lives are actually a series of routine actions, which can, in and of themselves, be considered dull or unexciting. But why let the downside overwhelm us? Why not take possession of our lives when even the most mundane of attitudes can provide us with an alternative way of viewing the activities of our day-to-day existence?

Think of that cup of hot steaming coffee as the opening of a new day with new challenges (and opportunities). Or washing the laundry as another routine, which doesn't require any extra time or thought—why? Because it's part of a routine that you have followed so often that you can rely on it while you spend your creative time on the non-routine demands of your time and thought.

Using this approach, one may view routine as a way of organization of your time and thinking which allows you the freedom to do other meaningful things

If you have a routine built in to your day's activities, you don't have to re-think or make instant decisions as to what to do or how to do it. You will already have formulated and made the necessary choices. The task has already been accomplished and the rest of your time is free for the non-routine goals you want to achieve—the exciting, significant goals.

With this attitude, you can view routine not as an impediment to your goals and what you really want to do, but as the organizational way you can best accomplish those goals. Certain things need to be done in your daily life and routine has its place as the vehicle available to do them with the least amount of mental exertion.

So try a new approach, review your routines and routine tasks as providing the ways to approach your long-term goals in a well-organized way. Keep and improve those routines, which accomplish those tasks in the most efficient and time conscious way. Eliminate those other routines, which do not contribute to the goals you have set. With such a honed down and focused approach you will be able (and free) to explore all of the non-routine opportunities that life has to offer. In brief—keep an open mind.

Beer

guest brews from time to time. Currently, some of their offerings include beers from Three Sheeps, Eighth Street Ale House, Plymouth Brewing, Wisconsin Brewing, Ahnapee, New Glarus, Ale Asylum, Central Waters, Bull Falls, Potosi and Badger State.

Beer lovers can enjoy their favorite pint, or they can put together a sampler paddle of any of the 20 brews on tap.

Tap room atmosphere

Patrons coming to SwitchGear should expect a vintage industrial tap room atmosphere—a great environment to enjoy beer and conversation. Although soda, ice tea and lemonade are available, SwitchGear's only alcohol offering is beer. Sorry, no mixed drinks.

Additionally, SwitchGear does not serve food. The tap room welcomes patrons to bring their own food to the beer tasting environment.

"This is a tap room. It's a place for people to gather socially, have a few beers and talk," Kullmann said.

SwitchGear encourages its patrons to bring food from other Elkhart Lake restaurants into their setting.

Nothing beats having a beer with one's favorite sandwich.

Pizzas are often ordered in as well.

"Not only do we not want to mess with food, we consciously did not want to displace other businesses that serve food. We want to make and serve beer. Why should we mess with what's working—there are plenty of good restaurants already here in Elkhart Lake."

A patio is offered for outside seating.

All of the tables and chairs at SwitchGear were built by the owners. "We cut the steel, the wood, everything in my garage. We reclaimed old barn boards for the back bar cabinets," Kullmann said.

"But we definitely had a lot of help with everything to get this place ready. We are thankful for all those who gave us a hand," he added.

SwitchGear's tap room is open for beer tasting Tuesdays through Saturdays. Hours on Tuesday to Thursday are 4-9 p.m. Fridays hours are 4-11 p.m. Saturdays the tap room is open from 11-11. Hours may fluctuate for fall or winter.

Decorate a Paddle!

This year the Downtown Night Committee will be auctioning off decorated Paddles in place of the birdhouses.

Here's your chance to get creative, don your art smock, and donate your artistic talents to help decorate these paddles! Please stop by the Chamber office and pick up your paddle(s).

We are asking that they be returned, fully decorated to the Chamber office, 41 E Rhine Street, Elkhart Lake no later than Wednesday, August 9 (return them earlier and we'll share them on our facebook page!).

Please be sure to use weatherproof paint (or a sealing lacquer topcoat) and décor items on the paddles if they are intended to be displayed outside.

Once decorated, each paddle (or set of paddles if decorated as a set) will then be auctioned off at Downtown Night through our silent auction and the proceeds will help fund various Elkhart Lake Chamber activities and initiatives; including Downtown Night and marketing/promoting Chamber businesses like you!

We can't wait to see all of the fun, unique paddles that our Chamber community creates!

Thanks and happy decorating!

Nest embraces quality, integrity

By Mike Mathes
for the Depot Dispatch

Since 2002, Nest has offered inspiration, expertise and service to make your home a haven.

Owner Pam Butler Channel, celebrating her 15th year in business likes to call her store a handmade home store.

Nest is a boutique-style home store that offers a variety of home design ideas from luxurious linens and accoutrements to dress the table, bed and to textural rugs, distinctive work by American artisans and custom furniture.

Located at 823 N. Eighth Street in Sheboygan, Nest is an Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce member. Butler Channel started the store next to a dry cleaning operation on New York Street, but Nest has found a home on Eighth Street since 2005.

"I always wanted to own a store," Butler Channel said. "I saw the space was for rent when I was taking my dry cleaning in."

She cracks people up when she tells them that she started Nest with her $10,000 in savings.

For Butler Channel, it wasn't the capital but the concept that proved golden.

"From the start I already had people in mind that I wanted to work with, local artisans that I wanted to work with on consignment. I just kept putting everything back into the store, and this is where we are today," she said.

Butler Channel has made a reputation for Nest by carrying ethically-made, often hand made goods, by artisans, women's cooperatives and small, responsibly run businesses.

"We often meet with the designer who educates us about their materials and processes, so we can, in turn, share that with our customers," she said.

Nest has always used the philosophy of finding the right small producers, making sure the goods are made with integrity and paying them fairly for their expertise. Similarly, Nest seeks to educate its customers and inspire them with unparalleled service.

This may not be the easiest way to do business, but for Butler Channel and Nest, it is the most rewarding.

"At the end of the day, it takes three things to be successful no matter what you are selling, no matter to whom and where, and regardless of the economy—honesty, friendliness and gratitude," she added.

More than 200 artists

Today, Nest features products from more than 200 artists. They continue to be picked for their attention to being responsible vendors. "We don't want to be about turning a buck on someone else's back," Butler Channel said.

Her other focus lies in finding vendors that bring a uniqueness to Nest. Many of the offerings at Nest are things that customers won't find anywhere else in this part of Wisconsin, or sometimes even in the Midwest.

Unique products from unique vendors are used to create unique designs for each individual customer's spaces.

"You don't want to go to a neighbor's house and see the same rug on their floor. People want to have a distinctive space for themselves," she said.

Butler Channel's husband Kim owns a complementary business called Dovetail

Woodworking, which enables her to come up with furniture solutions "you just can't find anywhere else."

In addition to the store, Butler Channel runs a successful Nest Design business, which works on designing unique spaces for people's needs.

Nest's Eighth Street location is open for business Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 10-5.

In summer, hours expand to include Sundays from 11-3.

Major events throughout the year at Nest include holiday open houses and special vendor events.

Teeing Off Together in the 11th Annual Golf Challenge

On October 7th, the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah Education Foundation and the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah Athletic Association will partner for the 11th year to host their annual Golf Challenge fundraiser at Quit Qui Oc Golf Club here in Elkhart Lake. The joint effort is geared toward bringing people together for a fun day of golf while also raising awareness of the two organizations and their missions to support students both academically and athletically in the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah School District.

Funds raised from this event and others throughout the year help the EL-G Education Foundation and Athletic Association grant money back to the district in a wide variety of ways. This year the Education Foundation was able to support students in their learning environment by:

- * Providing annual fees to support the Jr. Achievement program for classes in the elementary and middle schools
- * Granting funds for busing transportation costs for the high school World Language Club trip to France and the Middle School trip to Washington, D.C.
- * Increasing all students global learning by covering the costs for Electronic Field Trips
- * Providing grants for district emergency funds for families with financial needs
- * Funding for a new tuba for the District Music Department
- * Helping to raise $170,000 to date and granting $10,000 for the new elementary/middle school "All Inclusive Playground"
- * Funding for $4500 in scholarships for two 2017 graduating seniors

Similarly, the Athletic Association was able to contribute to the athletic options available to our students in the district by:

- *Purchasing a new pitching machine
- *Purchasing new playground equipment at June Vollrath Park
- *Subsidizing player registrations for various sports throughout the year for families facing financial hardships
- *Purchasing new jersey's for the baseball teams
- *Awarding over $22,000 over the last 11 years to graduating seniors.

The challenge kicks off at 11:00 am for those playing 18 holes and 12:30 for those interested in 9 holes. Throughout the day there are fun ways to win and bid on bucket raffles, 50/50 raffles and silent auction items. The day ends with a social gathering in the club house from 3:00-6:00 with cocktails and appetizers where winners will be announced and hole prizes will be distributed. Even if you are not a golfer, you can join the fun from 3:00-6:00 for the socializing, raffles and silent auction and help these two organizations continue to support our students!

For more information on registering to play or for ways to help sponsor this event go to www.elgef.org.

Run with Angels benefits Sharon Richardson hospice

Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice received $29,540 from The Blind Horse's recent Run With Angels event; held Saturday, June 17; with the official check presentation held on Thursday, June 29.

Run With Angels, in its second year, features a 5K run/walk, an Art & Wine Festival, and a five-course dinner, all of which raised proceeds for the hospice. The event drew more than 200 participants and also included live musical performances and the opportunity for guests to watch more than ten artists paint en plein air, followed by an art judging, awards ceremony and auction.

"We are thankful that The Blind Horse has chosen us to receive these proceeds," said Charmaine Conrad, director of development and communications for Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice. "This event pays tribute to loved ones and family members who have passed, and serves as an important part of the grieving process."

The proceeds will support the hospice's community outreach and patient care programs, all of which share the goal of maximizing the comfort and enhancing the quality of life for patients and their families and loved ones. Auctioned during the Art & Wine Festival was Going Together, a painting by Jason Prigge, depicting a grandfather holding hands with his granddaughter. The touching scene is featured on The Blind Horse's custom wine bottles, with $20 from each bottle sold to benefit the hospice.

"Run with Angels was conceived by my wife Nancy and me, as way to help cope with the grief we felt over the loss of our daughter, Addison. Given our experience with Sharon S. Richardson Hospice, we are thrilled that the walk/run has raised money to help a great local institution... and hopefully provided some healing for all those that participated," said Tom Nye, winemaker at The Blind Horse Restaurant & Winery.

Many hands made this event possible including the generosity of our sponsors Acuity Charitable Foundation, Inc., Frank G. and Frieda K. Brotz Family Foundation, Inc., Sargento Foods, Vintage Neighborhood, Miesfeld's, Wisconsin Bank & Trust and Sartori.

DeO's new owners hold meet and greet

Thursday, July 20 DeO'Malley's hosted an event to meet the new owners, Jesse and Sarah Frank, as well as an opportunity to say thank you and best wishes to departing owner Carole O'Malley.

O'Malley was on hand to greet everyone.

For the past 14 years she has enjoyed making DeO'Malley's an integral part of the community. For the founding owner, the time went by fast.

O'Malley is happy to turn the reigns over to a young couple. The Franks have 3 children and want families to feel comfortable bringing their children to DeO'Malley's.

Not much will change, except the name. Jesse and Sarah went with the name that people have called DeO'Malley's for years, DeO's!

The menu at DeO's Pizzeria Pub will continue to offer great pizza along with some new sandwiches. Watch for Perch to be added in the Fall. Coming the Summer of 2018 they will add lunch on Monday & Tuesday.

Carole will continue to be a face in the background as needed. She is enjoying finding time to clean closets and tend to yard work and gardening which have all been neglected!!

Jesse and Sarah opened Frankie's Pub & Grill in Sheboygan 10 years ago. Frankie's will continue to operate as wonderful family members and staff keep it running smoothly.

Sheboygan Symphony promises a great year

From the moment Kevin McMahon, SSO Director & Conductor, raises his baton at the first concert on Oct. 7, the 99th Season promises to be a year to remember. The Stefanie H. Weill Center will reverberate with thunderous fortissimos, echo classical trills and showcase the clear voices of the Sheboygan Symphony Chorus. An exhilarating mix of majestic music will move patrons as they enjoy many traditional classics as well as compositions new to orchestra and audience, including the US Premier of Paus' Timpani Concerto.

The Sheboygan Symphony Chorus, under the direction of Fabian Qamar, will perform great choral and orchestral repertoire with an exciting Christmas Treasures concert, as well as presenting two first-rate works by Johannes Brahms.

McMahon stated, "Our 99th Season will offer a wide variety that is sure to have something for everyone. It is filled with traditional music by W. A. Mozart, Tchaikovsky, Dvořák, Brahms, Humperdinck, Vaughan Williams, Weber, F. J. Haydn, Schumann, Debussy, Smetana, Rimsky-Korsakov and Mahler. Other musical fare includes favorites from The Nutcracker, John Rutter, Irving Berlin, Mel Torme, and Leroy Anderson. Expect some surprise encores through the season."

McMahon added, "We are also presenting works on the more recent side of musical composition such as music of Wisconsin composer Scott Gendel, other American composers Hovhaness, Foss, and Theofanidis, as well as the US premiere of the 2015 Timpani Concerto of Norwegian composer Marcus Paus."

Featured guest artists for the 2017-2018 Season include the SSO's principal cellist Jichen Li, Southern Methodist University professor Chee-Yun Kim, Atlanta Symphony principal cellist Christopher Rex, National Symphony principal timpanist Jauvon Gilliam, and Juilliard flute professor Carol Wincenc.

Beyond the subscription concert series, the SSO will present the Christmas Treasures Concert, a Symphony and community tradition. This year the Symphony is also presenting two new concerts that will be fun for all; a family "tailgating" event and another geared for preschool to third graders. "What an amazing lineup of music, guest artists and concerts. Onward and upward we go, toward the 100th Anniversary," added McMahon.

Horses compete at Wade House

Come see horses of every size, shape, and color hitched to elegant carts and carriages compete for division championships. This spectacular display of equine splendor takes place August 12-13 at Wade House Historic Site in Greenbush, WI just seven miles west of Plymouth.

A historic stagecoach stop on the busy line between Sheboygan and Fond du Lac, the Wade House was a welcome respite to weary travelers. Now this Wisconsin Historical Society site will once again be host to horses and carriages much like it was in the 1850s. Ladies wearing elegant hats and gentlemen in dapper boaters will drive their horses in a series of competitive classes designed to test the skills of the drivers and the athleticism of the horses. The devil is in the details of this equestrian competition, as drivers try to impress the expert American Driving Society certified judges to win the coveted blue ribbon. “

“We are excited to bring this event to Wade House Historic Site,” stated Susie Koos Acker the event’s coordinator. “The Wesley W. Jung Carriage Museum holds the largest and most diverse collection of horse drawn vehicles in Wisconsin. What better place to bring horses from around the Midwest to celebrate the art and science of horse driving.”

Spectators will be able to take a horse drawn wagon ride from the Wade House Visitor Center and Wesley W. Jung Carriage Museum, over to the competition ring where they will enjoy watching many different breeds of horses hitched to all types of carriages; antiques, reproductions and modern vehicles will be shown. Visitors can sit right next to the ring and watch the action up close, feeling the footfalls of

Frank Lloyd Wright carriages feted

In 2017, Wade House Historic Site will celebrate the 150th birthday of famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright with season-long exhibits, lectures, and educational activities focusing on Wright’s life and work in Wisconsin and his relationship with Sheboygan carriage collector and restoration expert Wesley W. Jung.

The next event in our celebration will be a presentation titled “The Frank Lloyd Wright Carriages” by Vicki Nelson Bodoh, past president of the Carriage Association of America and an avid carriage-driving enthusiast. On Thursday, August 10 from 7-8:30 p.m. at the Wade House visitor center, Bodoh will share the results of her two year-long study of Frank Lloyd Wright’s horse-drawn carriages at Taliesin in Spring Green, WI, and the connection she discovered between the famed architect and Sheboygan carriage collector Wesley W. Jung. Bodoh’s presentation will be preceded by a complimentary reception featuring microbrews and light hors d’oeuvres, which will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Bodoh’s tale begins in 2000 with the rumor that horse-drawn carriages remain at Taliesin, home of Frank Lloyd Wright, in Spring Green and continues with research done over a period of two years to locate the carriages, find evidence that they were used at Taliesin and driven by Frank Lloyd Wright and discover the connection to Wesley W. Jung of Sheboygan. In her presentation, through compelling photos and stories, Bodoh will document the mystery of the horse-drawn carriages that remain at Taliesin in Spring Green, and how they were used by Wright, his family and the fellowship of apprentices. Bodoh will also highlight the relationship of some of Wright’s carriages to the horse-drawn vehicle collection of Sheboygan carriage collector and restorer Wesley W. Jung, which is housed in the Wesley W. Jung Carriage museum at Wade House Historic Site.

The seventh event in our “Frank Lloyd Wright: A Wisconsin Original” monthly speaker series will take place on Saturday, Sept. 16 at 1 p.m. and will feature a lecture by Dr. Brandon Ruud, Abert Family Curator of American Art from the Milwaukee Art Museum, titled “George Mann Niedecken.” Dr. Ruud will share the life and work of interior architect George Mann Niedecken, including how Niedecken’s influence played a role in furnishing many of Wright’s best-known Prairie School houses.

The “Frank Lloyd Wright Carriages” presentation will take place at the Wade House Visitor Center located at W7965 Hwy. 23 in Greenbush, WI, halfway between Sheboygan and Fond du Lac. Admission to the “Frank Lloyd Wright: A Wisconsin Original” monthly speaker series is complimentary. For more information, please visit our website at wade-house.org or call 920-526-3271.

Lakeland hosted Movers and Shakers

On May 20 Lakeland University held the 10th Anniversary Movers and Shakers Gala, an event that has raised over $1.9 million for Lakeland student scholarships, the Sheboygan County Scholars Program and over 30 local nonprofit organizations. The 2017 Gala Event featured seven celebrity dancers who shared their best dance moves in support of the Movers and Shakers Gala. Lieutenant Colonel Conrad Barrows and professional dance partner, Susan Alby, were recognized as Gala Champions, receiving the Champions Trophy along with $10,000 to be awarded to the charitable organization chosen by LTC Barrows. LTC Barrows chose the Wisconsin Military Network as his charity and the check was presented to Wisconsin Military Network President Charlene Cobb at their June 28 Monthly Business Meeting held at the Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake.

The purpose of the Wisconsin Military Network is to provide a web-based platform for service organizations that provide programming, resources, information and advocates focused on the United States Armed Forces Service Members, veterans and their families. The specific purpose is for charitable and educational purposes within our state and a link to services for the health and welfare of our service members and veterans. The Wisconsin Military Network was incorporated in the fall of 2014 however, its roots started with Military Families Connect which was founded in 2003. The Wisconsin Military Network and its Board is committed to expanding the list of resources for military personnel, veterans and their families while ensuring partner organizations are vetted as meeting the highest standards of operation.

LTC Barrows is a Sheboygan native having graduated from Sheboygan South High School and later Wake Forest University. Following his retirement from the United States Army Reserve in 1995, Barrows enrolled in Lakeland University's Master of Business Administration Graduate Program and received his MBA in 1999. Barrows was employed at Lakeland for six years assisting with the, "Legacy for Lakeland" Capital Campaign.

"Two special events in my life are my military career and my experience at Lakeland", LTC Barrows remarked. He continued, "The Movers and Shakers Gala has given me the opportunity to give back to both. I have met many new and interesting people through my involvement with the Movers and Shakers Gala and all the contestants in the competition were dedicated to advancing the wonderful academic programs at Lakeland University."

Elkhart Lake Village Report

Kudos to Bauer and caboose crew

In the July issue of the Depot Dispatch, space was not available to run the finished caboose picture. Fred Bauer and his crew did a great job restoring the caboose to its original look.

Thanks to everyone who contributed to this restoration project. Next up is a project to build a cover for the caboose. This will guarantee the life of caboose for many years to come.

Yield to Pedestrians

We have had some issues with cars failing to yield the right-of-way to pedestrians in posted and unposted intersections. With the large numbers of families walking throughout the Village, our police will be vigilant in monitoring the crosswalks.

Wisconsin State Statute reads:

The operator of a vehicle shall yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian or personal delivery device, or to a person riding a bicycle or electric personal assistive mobility device in a manner which is consistent with the safe use of the crosswalk by pedestrians, that is crossing the highway within a marked or unmarked crosswalk.

State Statute calls for a stiff fine for not yielding to pedestrians. You could be fined up to $250. The Elkhart Lake Police Department (ELPD) has issued a total of 23 citations for crosswalk violations so far in 2017.

The police department will also be monitoring speed limit violations. The speed limit in the Village is 25 MPH. Again, with the numbers of tourists and residents walking throughout the Village, we are taking this very seriously.

Driving Under the Influence

This summer we seem to have a particularly large volume of DUI citations. Please do not drink and drive. The penalties for a DUI violation become very expensive. Our goal is for all of our residents and guests to have a fun and safe environment in our Village. We currently have issued seven OWIs so far in 2017 versus the six that were issued in all of 2016.

Open Intoxicants

The Village has regulations regarding the consumption and carrying of open containers. There are only three events that the Village allows drinking on the streets in designated areas. These events are: Fireman's Picnic Parade, Downtown Night, and Vintage weekend. Once the barricades come down for these events the ordinance is in force.

The open intoxicant ordinance states: No person shall consume or carry in open containers any alcoholic liquor or fermented malt beverages on any street, sidewalk, parkway, municipally owned swimming beach, or railroad property within the corporate limits of the Village. The fine for a violation of this ordinance is $149.20.

4th of July Celebration

No one can remember the last time it rained on Fireman's Picnic weekend. However, rain does not stop Elkhart Lake from having a party. The rain on Friday night did not prevent the Village from having one of our best firework's displays ever. This year Wolverine Fireworks Display, formerly known as Bartolotta Fireworks Company, put on the show for us. The skies cleared just in time, giving us a perfect night for the show.

We were not as lucky on Sunday. Congratulations to everyone who participated in the parade and to all who endured the weather to watch the parade.

A special thanks to our Public Works Department for cleaning the streets and Village after the weekend of celebration.

Throttlestop Now Open

Throttle Stop opened on July 20. Jim Balestrieri and Tom Kostrivas have built a beautiful building that is a great addition to our village. Stop and take a look. I think you will be impressed.

Dog Refuse Stations

The Village has installed dog refuse stations throughout the Village. These stations will dispense plastic bags to help in the cleanup effort. The dog stations are located at:

- S. End of Walkway
- N. End of Walkway
- Near Village Square Park
- S. Lake Street near Elm St.
- Osthoff Avenue
- Lions Park
- E. Rhine St. near Charlene's
- E. Rhine St. near Two Fish Gallery

Downtown Night

Downtown Night will be held on Monday, August 14 in downtown Elkhart Lake. This Chamber of Commerce event has grown every year. Featuring food from local restaurants, music and more.

Yard Waste Dumpster

The dumpster is open for the season. Hours of operation are Wednesdays 2-6 p.m. and Saturdays 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m.

Please drive carefully and watch for children! Have a safe August.

Paceline Construction focuses on energy

Elkhart Lake Chamber member Paceline Construction is a full-service general contractor specializing in distinctive, energy efficient custom homes and renovations. The company was founded in 2003 and is owned by Anthony (Tony) Schwaller, a skilled designer, carpenter and project manager who has built a thorough knowledge of building science over 20 years of experience in home remodeling and construction.

One of the most unique things about Paceline Construction is their focus on building highly energy efficient homes with specifications that don't add significant up-front building cost, but dramatically lower the cost of home ownership. Paceline Construction guarantees new home heating and cooling costs for five full years, and their energy efficient construction is certified by independent third-party verification. They are proud to be a Wisconsin Focus on Energy Trade Partner.

Owner Tony Schwaller is quick to credit his team for their success. "Quality control has always been a challenge for builders who subcontract most of their work, but now they're also having a hard time keeping up with the high demand. We have our own dedicated project leaders and carpenters so we can manage the schedule and build quality very intensively. We're really proud to say that we actually are on-time and on-budget, without ever sacrificing quality."

No Surprises from Paceline

Twenty plus years of construction experience has taught Tony that the best way to manage new home construction or any other complex building project is with meticulous up-front planning and scheduling. He often finds that his bids are higher than other builders for the same project, because they actually include everything the client asked for. It is common for other builders to tack on extra costs later through "upgrades" and "change orders" that may surprise the client. At Paceline Construction, project change orders average less than four percent, and are carefully tracked. They use specialized, client interactive software to provide transparency and real-time progress and budget status throughout the build process. Knowing exactly what to expect is a huge benefit for their clients.

What Does "Paceline" Mean?

"Paceline" is a cycling term for a team of riders who cooperate in a streamlined formation, creating efficiencies that allow for significantly higher performance than an individual rider can achieve. Excellent leadership is required, as well as a high level of skill in all team members. An avid cyclist, Tony brings these concepts of leadership, teamwork, efficiency and excellence to every building project he undertakes for his clients.

The Paceline Construction Mission is to create an exceptional experience for every client, whether they are remodeling or building a new house from the ground up. If you're considering a home remodeling or new home construction project in or around Sheboygan County, contact Paceline Construction today to begin your planning. Their office and design showroom is located at 101 North Lincoln Street in Elkhart Lake. Office hours are 7:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. by appointment. ## LOL strengthens six programs

Six community programs will be strengthened, thanks to the charitable donation program of Ladies of the Lakes, (LOL) an Elkhart Lake and surrounding area woman's social organization.

At their June meeting held at Siebkins Resort in Elkhart Lake, organization members voted to contribute a total of $5200, which was raised by their yearly dues, and raffles held at each monthly meeting. Prizes awarded were $1500 to Elkhart Lake First Responders, $1200 to Sheboygan County Cancer Care Fund, $1000 to Safe Harbor, $800 to Lakeshore Community Health Care, $400 to Hearthstone of Wisconsin and $300 to Glacial Lakes Conservancy.

The Elkhart Lake First Responders will be using their donation for medical bags and supplies as well as defibrillators for current members who need them.

Sheboygan County Cancer Care Fund provides financial assistance to those under going treatment for things not covered by insurance and helps meet basic needs.

Safe Harbor of Sheboygan will use its stipend to support residential services for families who request emergency shelter from violence.

Lakeshore Community Health Care will be using funds for its dispensary of Hope Medication Support Program.

Hearthstone of Wisconsin will be providing five scholarships for young people to continue their education beyond High School.

Glacial Lakes Conservancy, Inc. will use the funds to help with the cost of purchasing and planting native prairie plants and seeds at Grasshopper Hill Preserve.

Ladies of the Lakes, founded in 2005, meets the second Wednesday of each month. Their purpose is to develop and enhance friendships while, at the same time, provide support for the improvement of their communities. For meeting information, contact Mary Richter at 920-876-2079 or Laura Myers at 920-918-8559.

This year the charitable donation committee was chaired by Jackie Pottratz, Tina Lammers, Ann Wondergem and Pam Polasky.
