At a dinner party, several of the guests were arguing whether men or women were more trustworthy. "No woman," said one man, scornfully, "can keep a secret."

"I don't know about that," answered a woman guest. "I have kept my age a secret since I was twenty-one."

"You'll let it out some day," the man insisted.

"I hardly think so!" responded the lady. "When a woman has kept a secret for twenty-seven years, she can keep it forever."

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann
Derson

* When decluttering, use this tried and true tip: Set up four boxes with labels for Keep, Donate/Sell, Trash and Recycle. It's amazing how much you can take care of quickly.

* "We had a big basket for shoes by our door. It just kept getting messy as people would search for their own shoes in it. Finally, I got smart. I put a low bench by the door and stashed one small basket for each family member underneath. Your shoes go in your basket, and it's much less mess." -- A.L. in Georgia

* "Tired of waiting for that frothy head on your beer or root beer to go down? Stick your finger in it and watch it disappear like magic." -- K.E. in Idaho

* "My kids kept losing the plastic sticks for the ice-pop maker, and I ended up with several of the molds. I kept one, and we use craft sticks instead of the plastic ones that came with it. We use another mold in the car to keep little items sorted, like change, gum and mints and charging cords. It's set in the center console and works great!" -- M.R. in California

* Common substitutions: Use a tablespoon of lemon juice mixed with enough milk to make one cup for every cup of buttermilk a recipe requires. Let the mixture stand five minutes before use.

* A tub full of soapy bubbles after a kids' bathtime? Shake salt on the foam and watch it disappear!

Imponderables

Ponder on these imponderables for a minute

1. If you take an Oriental person and spin him around several times, does he become disoriented?
2. If people from Poland are called Poles, why aren't people from Holland called Holes?
3. Do infants enjoy infancy as much as adults enjoy adultery?
4. If a pig loses its voice, is it disgruntled?
5. If love is blind, why is lingerie so popular?
6. Why is the man who invests all your money called a broker?
7. When cheese gets its picture taken, what does it say?
8. Why is a person who plays the piano called a pianist but a person who drives a racing car not called a racist?
9. Why are a wise man and a wise guy opposites?
10. Why do overlook and oversee mean opposite things?
11. Why isn't the number 11 pronounced onety one? (I like this one alot!)
12. 'I am' is reportedly the shortest sentence in the English language. Could it be that 'I do' is the longest sentence?
13. If lawyers are disbarred and clergymen defrocked, doesn't it follow that electricians can be delighted, musicians denoted, cowboys deranged, models deposed, tree surgeons debarked, and dry cleaners depressed?
14. I thought about how mothers feed their babies with tiny little spoons and forks so I wondered if Chinese mothers use toothpicks?
14. Why do they put pictures of criminals up in the Post Office? What are we supposed to do, write to them? Why don't they just put their pictures on the postage stamps so the postmen can look for them while they deliver the post?
16. You never really learn to swear until you learn to drive.
17. No one ever says, 'It's only a game' when their team is winning.
18. Ever wonder about those people who spend two pound a piece on those little bottles of Evian water? Try spelling Evian backwards:
19. Isn't making a smoking section in a restaurant like making a peeing section in a swimming pool?
20. If 4 out of 5 people suffer from diarrhea, does that mean that one enjoys it?
21. Why if you send something by road it is called a shipment, but when you send it by sea it is called cargo?

It was the beginning of term at a primary school in Brooklyn. The teacher asked the children their names one at a time, and for each to spell their name out loud.

When she came to a young Pakistani boy and asked his name, he replied, "Ravashanka Vankatarataam Bannerjee."

"How do you spell that?" asked the teacher.

"My mother helps me," said the little boy.

'Taps': Do You Have What It Takes?

Since Memorial Day, Gettysburg National Cemetery has held the One Hundred Nights of Taps, which will end Sept. 4.
Every night at precisely 7 p.m., a bugler plays "Taps" at Soldier Monument. Buglers have ranged from 11 to 82 years of age and have come from all over the country. The one thing they have in common is a desire to play "Taps" to honor those who have served our country. While it's great that 100 people are coming together for this months-long effort, every day there are military funerals across the country where no bugler is available. In those cases, they must resort to recorded "Taps." That's legal ... but far from ideal.
There is an answer: Bugles Across America is a volunteer effort begun in 2000 for the sole purpose of providing live buglers to play "Taps" at military funerals, instead of a recording.
Do you play trumpet? Do you have what it takes to be a bugler at a military funeral? Can you play the 24 notes of "Taps" in a dignified way, as it was written? Have others heard you play, and do they agree you can play it well? Are you willing to play for the state director in your area to verify your ability?
To review the requirements, go online to BuglesAcrossAmerica.org. Click on Volunteer/Audition. No computer? Call founder Tom Day at 708-484-9029. After you sign up, the state director for your area will call you for an audition.
BAA buglers do more than serve at funerals. They're called on for patriotic events of all kinds.
It's estimated we'll lose a half million of our most-senior veterans every year over the next seven years. If you doubt you're needed, click on the Bugler's Post tab and read the latest newsletter on the BAA website.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Relationships continue to thrive, but watch for any telltale signs of potential problems. Take needed action now to set things straight before they become troublesome later.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your powers of persuasion, backed up, of course, by your considerable expertise, help you establish your case even to the most dubious decision-makers in your workplace.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might still be a bit reluctant to face up to some less-than-pleasant realities. But the sooner you accept the facts, the sooner you can set about making some needed changes.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Expect to make adjustments, even when things seem locked up and ready to go. But cheer up: At least one change could lead to something you've been hoping for.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The success of a recent project should do a lot to boost your self-confidence.
You might want to start now to check out ways to make that long-deferred bigger and bolder move.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Ease up on the pressure you might be putting on the new person in your life. It takes time for a budding relationship to blossom. Show more patience and understanding.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You have lots of inner strength in reserve. Use some of it to resist intimidation from those who might try to impose on your good nature for their own reasons.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) The good news is that your on-the-job status is improving. The one cautionary note, however, involves a personal situation you might have been ignoring for too long.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Congratulations. Once again, your sharp Sagittarian "horse sense" helps you work through a complicated situation that would leave most people confused.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Plan on indulging yourself in some well-earned good times through much of the week. Then be prepared to face some thought-provoking issues by the 19th.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Positive factors continue to dominate following a recent change in both your professional and personal lives. Expect to make contact with someone from your past.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Workplace stability allows you to continue making progress on your projects. But don't ignore your personal life. Spend more quality time with those special folks.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have the gift for making people feel special. Maybe because you know how special you are.

↑ These free obituaries are sponsored by Swicegood-Barker Funeral Services as a service to their clients/families and Piedmont Shopper readers. Please let them know we appreciate their continued support.

Note from the Publisher...

Last week I received notification that three of the local funeral homes that were sponsoring our obituaries in the Piedmont Shopper have chosen to end their sponsorship as of August 1st. Therefore, without the funds they were providing to help cover a portion of printing cost, we will no longer be able to print obituaries from their funeral homes for free.

For families who wish to have an obituary printed in the Piedmont Shopper, the funeral directors will send it to us for a cost of $75. Please let the funeral homes listed on the left, know if you want to put an obituary in the Piedmont Shopper and please thank them for their past support.

Thank you for your understanding,

"What Is a Church For?"

A three letter word can make all of the difference in the world; in this case I am thinking of the word "for." The question "what is a church?" is a different question all together than the question "what is a church for?" It would be much the same as the questions "what is a wrench?" and "what is a wrench for?" The identity of a created thing and the purpose of a created thing are two different things.

I am currently musing on this subject as a result of a dispute with a happy ending.

The dispute in question centered around whether or not sinners should be getting saved in church. I took, and still take, the position that they should. My counterpart was and is of the rather vehement position that they should not. Mind you, he is an incredibly good man, but he is a good man with a bad position.

The philosophy he and others like him espouse is that a church is "strictly for believers." When questioned as to how the lost then manage to become believers, you will be told by people of that persuasion that the church goes out into the world and wins them in their homes, and then brings them into the church afterward.

If the identity of a created thing and the purpose of a created thing were the same thing, they would be correct. A church is an "ekklesia," meaning a called out assembly. A church is therefore a body of believers; a church is people who used to be lost and are now saved. So if the purpose of the church is to be what it is, then no sinners would ever get saved in church.

But if the purpose of a wrench was to be a wrench, no nuts would ever be taken off of bolts either. It would just sit there on the workbench all shiny and new, it would never get any grease on it, it would never get any nicks or scratches, it would just sit there being a wrench.

In Mark chapter two, all of the members of the church that Jesus was forming (meaning at that point him and all of the disciples) were having a service. It was being held in a home on that occasion, since there were no such things as church buildings just yet. But the service does not seem to have looked much different than what we hope for in a service today. There was preaching going on, and there was a huge crowd gathered to hear it. Some people realized that Jesus was there, and they brought a friend to Jesus. That friend got healed that day, but he also got something even better. In verse five, he got his sins forgiven. That sinner got saved in a church service.

It is wonderful when we can go out into the community and win the lost. But it is no less wonderful when we can invite a sinner to visit and have them get saved at the church altar. We actively practice both. Either way a sinner has been delivered from destruction. And the practical truth is that sinners are often easier to win using the latter methodology than they are using the former. There is something powerful about a church inviting all week, praying for the lost all week, and then getting them under the convicting sound of the gospel message.

Now about that happy ending. After my little dispute, I went to church the next night (a Wednesday) and preached on the subject. I challenged the church to respond with a huge effort to bring the lost in to hear a salvation message, and they did. There was a very large crowd Sunday morning, and a lady we have been praying for came to the altar and received Christ as her Savior. She was back Sunday night to learn and grow as I preached doctrine to the church.

Here is what I have found to almost always be true. Churches that strictly teach that the one and only proper way to win souls is to win them outside of the walls of the church, normally do not do so at all. It becomes a beautiful wax theory to them that melts away under the hot light of actual results. In an effort to "keep the church pure" (which, by the way, I am thoroughly in favor of) they simply do not win anyone, and die a slow death with the loss of each aged "saint."

The definition of a church tells us what a church is. But the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20) tells us what a church is for. The Great Commission is one mission in three parts: win the lost, baptize them, instruct them in the doctrines of the faith. Two thirds of it is the "winning and baptizing" part. Only one third is the "instructing" part. I do not know of any test, anywhere, in which 33% is not a failing grade.

Be about the Master's business. It starts with winning the lost.

The Garden Bug

Native Americans used beebalm to treat a wide range of ailments, such as soothing bee stings by crushing the leaves of the plant and rubbing them on the skin. The Blackfeet used the plant in poultices applied directly to infections and minor wounds, the Cherokee and Teton Dakota used it to treat stomach ailments, and the Winnebago made a stimulating tea from it. - Brenda Weaver

What Kind of Doctor Is a 'Hospitalist'?

DEAR DR. ROACH: I recently spent four days in the hospital for a respiratory infection. I was not admitted to my primary-care doctor's service, but had three names on my wristband. When I inquired as to who they were, I was told that they were hospitalists. They would see me and communicate with my primary-care physician. I did not see the same doctor more than once in my four-day admission. When I saw my PCP after discharge, he did say he had been in contact with the hospitalists.

Is this common? Who is absorbing the cost? Does my PCP bill for consultation? -- M.M.E.

ANSWER: Hospitalists are specialists in inpatient medicine. Hospitalists typically have no outpatient responsibilities, and spend the entire day in the hospital taking care of admitted patients only. Because they are constantly in the hospital, they usually can see an admitted patient more expeditiously than a doctor with outpatient responsibilities, and they tend to become expert and efficient at managing serious illness requiring hospitalization. Most studies comparing hospitalists with doctors who do both outpatient and inpatient medicine have shown that hospitalists facilitate decreased lengths of stay in the hospital and at least as good medical outcomes. The theory is that by specializing in just inpatient medicine, one can become expert as well as very efficient at using the resources available at a particular hospital.

The potential downside of hospitalists is that the personal knowledge about a particular patient isn't as high. Your PCP knows you -- hopefully very well, if he or she has been taking care of you for a long time. Although your records may be available to the hospitalists, it isn't the same as personal knowledge. That being said, with good communication (both ways) between your doctor and the hospitalists, the quality of care can be excellent.

There is no doubt that the hospitalist model is increasing in prevalence in the U.S. and Canada. In answer to your question, your insurance company (or the government) pays the hospitalist directly. The PCP does not bill for consultation.

DEAR DR. ROACH: My husband has Meniere's disease. We cannot find anyone who can help him. Is there any medication for this? -- L.M.

ANSWER: Meniere's disease causes episodes of vertigo, tinnitus and eventually hearing loss. It is caused by swelling in the organ of balance in the inner ear, but the reason for the swelling isn't clear.

Before being seen by a doctor, your husband can try to identify triggers for the attacks. Common triggers include a high-salt diet, tobacco, alcohol and stress. A low-salt diet can dramatically reduce episodes. ENT doctors are usually expert in treating Meniere's disease. A diuretic such as hydrochlorothiazide often is used if diet alone doesn't help.

The booklet on vertigo explains this disruptive condition in detail and outlines its treatment. Readers can order a copy by writing: Dr. Roach -- No. 801W, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803. Enclose a check or money order (no cash) for $4.75 U.S./$6 Canada with the recipient's printed name and address. Please allow four weeks for delivery.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu. To view and order health pamphlets, visit www.rbmamall.com, or write to Good Health, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

The Eagle Riders Dean Ferris Memorial Ride

The Dean Ride as I like to call it is in memory of Dean Ferris a well liked and respected member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Dean contacted pancreatic cancer in 2010 and the Eagles and friends of Dean and his wife San where going to do a benefit ride in August for Dean. Unfortunately Dean passed on August 20, 2010 but he was thrilled that a ride was being held for him. The ride went on and was very successful and helped his family.

From the success of the first ride came the idea to continue the ride each year in August. The desire was to do the benefit for a cancer victim or organization that helps cancer patients and their families. The second year in 2011 it was held for a young boy with cancer and then in 2012 the Eagle Riders (a m/c club within the Eagles) and the members decided to after a lot of research and talking with cancer patients that had received help from the Danville Pittsylvania Cancer Association along with a representative addressing the membership on behalf of the D.P.C.A. the decision was made to go with it. We felt the DPCA could better handle the needs of more people in need of medication, food and lodging trying to cope with this awful illness.

Trying to raise money for any project is very hard you would think as much as this disease touches all of us it might not be but it is. We are in the process of trying to raise money, sell shirts, obtain donations for auction on the 19 of August and get door prizes. We will have poker run Saturday August 19,2017 sign up at Thunder Road Harley Davidson from 11 till 12:45 KSU at 1 p.m. will ride 63.6 miles to the Eagles on 58 East of Danville where there will be a supper waiting for all riders after there will be door prizes,50/50,auction and drawing. All that paid to ride or get in are welcome to stay or come back that evening at 7 pm and at 8 the Legendz band will be playing the best classic country, classic rock and beach music there is.

Anyone interested in helping in any way can call Jerry 434-251-0994 checks can be made out to D.P.C.A. c/o Dean Ferris Ride. In the 5 years we have held the Dean ride for DPCA over $72,000.00 has been donated.

Roach Nominated for VCCS Leadership Academy

Danville, Va., August 1, 2017 – Danville Community College (DCC) President Bruce Scism recently nominated Public Relations and Marketing Specialist Bobby Allen Roach to attend the Virginia Community College System (VCCS) Classified Staff Leadership Academy (CSLA), which was held in Richmond last week.

CSLA is an annual three-day training academy during which emerging leaders in Virginia's community colleges are exposed to a variety of topics, including crisis management and leadership styles. The academy is centered on experientially-based learning seminars focusing on solving problems and leveraging opportunities relevant to Virginia's community colleges and skill development and career enhancement through behavioral assessments, senior leader panels, facilitated discussions, feedback, and action-planning.

The academy is by invitation only, and presidential nomination only. The 2017 CSLA was aimed at enhancing the readiness of staff professionals who are committed to advancing the VCCS mission through effective leadership and supervision.

CSLA 2017 was held at the VCCS Central Office in Arboretum III.

For more information about Danville Community College, visit www.danville.edu or call 434-797-8467.

Harry Styles

HOLLYWOOD – It seems hard to believe that three-time Oscar-nominated director/screenwriter Christopher Nolan didn't know how famous Harry Styles, formerly of the boy band One Direction, was when he cast him in his film "Dunkirk," which has just opened in theaters. Nolan received Oscar nominations for his scripts for "Memento" (2005) and "Inception" (2010), as well as best director for "Inception." He's also the man who guided "Batman Begins" (2005), "The Dark Knight" (2008) and "The Dark Knight Returns" (2012) to top box-office success.

"I don't think I was aware of how famous Harry [Styles] was," Nolan said. "I mean, my daughter had talked about him, my kids talked about him, but I wasn't really aware of it. ... I cast Harry because he fit the part wonderfully. What he does in the film is really remarkable."

Seems strange he'd cast a singer with no acting experience to act with seasoned professionals Kenneth Branagh, Cillian Murphy and Tom Hardy unless he knew he could bring something to the table. You'd have to have lived in a cave not to know who Harry Styles is!

Robert Pattinson, red hot because of "The Twilight Saga" (2008-2012), had six films released since 2014, all of which were box-office duds. He now has three more films due: the crime drama "Good Time," with Jennifer Jason Leigh, out Aug. 11; the Western comedy "Damsel," with Mia Wasikowska; and the sci-fi adventure "High Life," with Patricia Arquette. At 31, Pattinson has to hit with these films if he's going to headline any others.

British actor Douglas Booth shaved his eyebrows and wore heavy makeup when he played Boy George in the 2010 BBC TV film "Worried About the Boy." An enthusiastic Boy George remarked, "He gets it, he reminds me of me when I was 17" (he wishes!). When he played Pip in a BBC film of "Great Expectations" (2011), critics went crazy over his looks. One female critic gushed "He gave a mesmerizing performance and was distractingly lovely; one can't expect Dickens ever intended Pip to be more beautiful than Estella!" Who gets reviews like that?

Booth then starred as Romeo in "Romeo & Juliet" (2013) to Oscar-nominee Hailee Steinfeld's Juliet; and Emma Watson's husband in "Noah" (2014), causing her to observe, "He's a 90-year-old man in a young body." He also starred in "Jupiter Ascending" (2015) with Mila Kunis, Channing Tatum and Oscar-winner Eddie Redmayne. His next film is "Mary Shelley," in which, as Percy Shelley, he inspires her to write "Frankenstein" (The Doctor or the Monster? Is that a compliment either way?) From Boy George to "distractively lovely" and inspiring Frankenstein, now that's a stretch, even for "an old man in a young body"!

Pets and Lyme Disease

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: We recently had a scary incident with our beloved collie mix, "Moon." She is an energetic dog, but one day last week she started slowing down, panting more and not wanting to play as much. A couple of days later she was even limping a bit. I took her to the veterinarian that very day! The vet quickly diagnosed Moon as having Lyme disease. She loves to run around outside on our big property, and I try to check her daily for ticks, but sometimes forget. I never noticed a tick on her, but the vet said that it's not unusual to never see a tick or notice a bite, and yet the symptoms appear. The good news is that Moon responded very quickly to treatment. Even though she will be taking antibiotics for a few more weeks, she is back to her old energetic self. Please remind your readers to check their pets frequently for ticks and monitor them closely if they spend any time outside. -- Doug in Concord, New Hampshire

DEAR DOUG: I'm so glad to hear that Moon is doing OK! It is indeed very important to check pets that spend time outdoors daily for ticks. If you have multiple pets and only one goes outside, you should check all the pets. The check can be as simple as running your hand up through their fur to feel for the telltale smooth, hard bump of an attached tick. Using a flea and tick repellent also is important, but it's not 100 percent effective. So check regularly, and monitor your pet for behavior or physical changes. If you feel that something is "off," not quite right, contact the vet.

Send your tips, comments and questions to ask@pawscorner.com.

UNINVITED GUESTS! See if you can correctly count the number of party crashers at the above picnic. Your time limit is 30 seconds.

Answer: We counted 35. Did you get the same?

IT'S SINK OR SWIM with this AlphaMath puzzle. You must replace the letters on the boat with the digits 0 through 9 so that you will have a correct addition problem. Try to get the highest possible total.

FIND THE SEVEN WORDS PUZZLE! In the word square at the right, we've removed six of the letters to spell out the word "WEASEL." See if you can replace these letters in the squares so that you will have four three-letter words across and three four-letter words down. The time limit is 60 seconds.

Answers: (Across) Was, era, area, sea. (Down) Weep, eel, pat.

10 back-to-school tips that save time and money

FAMILY FEATURES

Back-to-school season means it’s time to get back to the business of learning. This year you can ace your back-to-school shopping excursion with these time- and money-saving steps that can make getting the whole family ready for a new school year a breeze.

Start with a list. Walking into the store without a list is an open invitation for impulse buys and forgotten items that end up costing you more time and money with a return trip. Create a thorough list by categorizing all the items you’ll shop for, such as supplies, electronics and clothing. If you want to take an extra-organized approach, try color coding items by the section of the store where you would expect to find them.

Set a budget. Knowing what you can afford to spend ahead of time can save regret and returns after you shop. Calculate how much you’ll need to cover all the items your students truly need, then tack on some room for wants. One must-have is a high-quality backpack, like the High Sierra Access Backpack, which includes a dedicated storage area for your child’s laptop, among other features. If your total budgeted expenses exceed your available funds, consider browsing weekly circulars to keep your budget in check.

Explore your inventory. It may be buried under a summer’s worth of knick-knacks, but digging out the supplies your child cast aside at the end of the last school year may be worth the effort. Items like scissors, rulers and protractors may not need to be replaced every year if they’re still in working condition. Assess what items you have that can be reused and those that need to be replaced for the new school year.

Cut extra stops. Dashing all over town to find all the items on your supply list is not only time-consuming, it’s unnecessary. At stores like Office Depot and OfficeMax, you can find all the academic tools and supplies your student needs to head back to the classroom. What’s more, a store that specializes in school supplies will have a broad selection and ample stock of the essentials.

Try online shopping. When you know exactly what you need, shopping online is a great time-saving solution. Online shopping makes it incredibly simple to keep tabs on your budget before you make purchases and easily keep track of the items in your shopping cart. If you need to hand-select a few items in person, you can always take advantage of a “buy online, pick-up in store” option. This service lets you do your shopping from home with just a quick stop in-store to pick-up your purchases.

Buy in bulk. It may seem counter-intuitive when you’re trying to trim your spending, but if you can swing it, go ahead and buy extra items that you’ll likely need to replace mid-year. The sale prices during the back-to-school season aren’t likely to repeat during the school year, so in the long run you’ll save money and avoid a last-minute shopping trip on a busy school night in the future. Items like Stellar fashion notebooks, which give note-taking a fashionable twist, are great to have on hand throughout the school year.

Research specials and promotions. For many stores, the back-to-school shopping season is second only to the holidays. This means you can expect widespread sales, promotions and special deals, such as “deals as low as a penny.” Some states also offer tax-free holidays near the beginning of the school year, which are honored at multiple retailers and generally restricted to school-related purchases like clothing, supplies and some technology.

Weigh quality vs. quantity. When you have a lengthy list of items to purchase for each child, it can be tempting to cut corners and skimp on spending. In some cases, being cost-efficient is smart, but do your research beforehand to avoid selecting items based solely on price. Value and quality don’t always go hand-in-hand and if you buy an item that falls apart or breaks down quickly, you may end up spending more to replace the items later. While it may be simpler for students to use printers and other machines at school, an all-in-one Epson Expression EcoTank Wireless Printer at home can be a convenient solution when late-night homework is bearing down.

Make dollars do double duty. While most families expect to spend a sizable amount on back-to-school purchases (nearly $700, according to a 2016 survey by the National Retail Federation), making that money go a little further can soften the blow. You can help improve education in your community by shopping at stores that give a percentage of proceeds back to local schools. Programs vary; in some cases, you can even designate proceeds to the school district of your choice.

Take more notes on smart back-to-school shopping ideas and deals at officedepot.com.

- Over the age of 50 and postmenopausal
- Vitamin D or Calcium Deficiency
- Decreased bone mass or loss of height
- A curved, stooped shape to your spine
- Sudden back pain that gets worse with movement

If you have any of these potential risk factors you may qualify for a clinical research study of an investigational medication for osteoporosis. Qualified participants will receive all study-related care and investigational medication at no cost and may be compensated for time and travel. Health insurance not required.

1. Who had a global hit with "Sweet Pea" in 1966?
2. Name the b-side of the 1962 song "Rhythm of the Rain."
3. What are the differences between Elton John's "Simple Life" single and album versions?
4. What song did John Denver write as a tribute to Jacques-Yves Cousteau?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "I don't want you to come round here no more, I beg you for mercy, You don't know how strong my weakness is."

Answers

1. Tommy Roe. It was used in the film "Jesus Son" in 1999.
2. "Let Me Be," by the Cascades. The group started in 1960 as the Silver Strands, a group of Navy guys in San Diego.
3. The single is faster with more drums and less bass. The album version is 90 seconds longer.
4. "Calypso," in 1975. The Calypso was an oceanographic research ship, converted from a British minesweeper and then a ferry in Malta.
5. "My Heart Can't Tell You No," by Rod Stewart in 1988. The song was written for Barbara Mandrell, but Stewart grabbed it first. Sara Evans covered it in 2011. Mandrell never released the song, but her niece Vanessa appeared in the Evans video.

Piedmont Shopper FAVORITE RECIPES

Momma's Baked Macaroni and Cheese

Ingredients

- 16 oz elbow macaroni, cooked al dente and drained
- 1 1/4 lb sharp white cheddar cheese, sliced
- 5 tsp butter
- 3 cups milk
- 15 oz can stewed tomatoes, roughly chopped

Instructions

- Preheat oven to 350°.
- Grease a 9 x 13 baking pan with butter. Layer ingredients in the following order: half of the macaroni, half of the cheese, the remaining macaroni, followed by the remaining cheese. (Sometimes I'll spread it out even more and do the layers of macaroni a little thinner and I end up with somewhere around 1 or two more layers. As long as you end up with cheese on the top, you're good.)
- Top with sliced butter.
- Pour milk over layers until the milk fills the dish about 3/4 of the way full or until you just see the milk coming through the macaroni when you're looking at it from the top, about 3 cups.
- Bake uncovered in preheated oven for 1 hour or until the top is golden and bubbly. Let sit 10 minutes before serving. Serve with warmed stewed tomatoes.

Notes

- Sharp cheddar works best for this recipe. Orange cheddar will work, but Mom always used white.
- Depending on the size/shape of your pan, the amount of cheese needed can vary between 1 lb - 1 1/4 lb.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was aviation pioneer Amelia Earhart who made the following sage observation: "Never interrupt someone doing what you said couldn't be done."

* You might be surprised to learn that famed composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart wanted to marry the notorious Marie Antoinette. Of course, at the time he stated this desire, he was 6 years old and she was 7.

* It's possible that you've never tried to imagine a baby bat nursing -- though, as mammals, they certainly do. Now that you are imagining it, here's a hint: The babies have to nuzzle into mom's armpit (wingpit?) to get to the milk.

* The year the Second Continental Congress issued the Declaration of Independence, establishing the United States of America, the fledgling nation had a total population of 2 1/2 million -- less than one-third of 1 percent of the global population. By 1800, even though the population of the growing nation had more than doubled, America still ranked 16th in the list of most-populous nations. Today, though, with a population of over 325 million, the United States has more people than any country except China and India.

* Those who study such things say that as we get older, we breathe more slowly.

* Sure, a group of swans can be referred to as a flock or a flight, but why not show some creativity? You can refer to a grounded group as a bank or a drift (presumably due its resemblance to a drift of snow); in the air, they can, collectively, be called a wedge. The best choice, however, might be the fanciful term "a lamentation of swans."

Thought for the Day: "It has been said that a pretty face is a passport, but it's not. It's a visa, and it runs out fast." -- Julie Burchill
