Couple packs up everything and hits the road for the Lord Yerks family of 10 has traveling ministry at fairs and festivals

By ANN SCHWARTZ
When the adventurous spirit calls us, we may set out for a short camping trip or a longer road trip. But imagine the calling that Brett and Lindsay Yerks have from the Lord. They and their eight children travel the United States in a camper, ministering at fairs and festivals.

In this area, they were at the Aitkin County Fair in July. Lindsay is the daughter of Jim and Betty Jacobs of rural Aitkin.

"We work with Amazing Grace Mission doing fair evangelism all across the United States," said Brett in an interview. "We set up a booth at state fairs, county fairs, carnivals, festivals, rodeos, etc. and give out the gospel to anyone willing to hear it."

The parents tell how they manage the traveling life:

"Our schedule means that we spend months at a time that look like this: work a fair (usually 5-10 days), tear down our booth, pack up our house, drive to the next location, spend a day taking care of grocery shopping, laundry, and other errands, set up the booth at the next fair and start again. During the days Lindsay and the kids do school work, explore the local area, and try to live a 'normal' life as far as household chores and cooking meals.

"Chores are finished a lot faster since there is only around 400 square feet of living space to clean and all of our belongings are kept to a minimum including clothing, toys, and kitchen items. A camper only has a tiny oven, so we keep a crock pot and pressure cooker to help feed all 10 of us. There is no dishwasher, so that ends up being our largest chore, keeping up with all of the dishes. We

Gallery features cloisonné jewelry, landscape quilts of Emily Chesick

Whether she is creating her meticulously crafted cloisonné enamel jewelry pieces or stitching her landscape impressions into quilts, for artist Emily Chesick, nature is a strong, recurring influence. Chesick's jewelry and quilts will be featured at Ripple River Gallery in a new exhibit that opens August 16 and continues through September 10.

The public is invited to meet the artist at an opening reception at the gallery on Saturday, Aug. 19, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Chesick, who lives in St. Paul, grew up outside of Philadelphia, with a year each in England and Switzerland. Her parents were a college chemistry professor (hence the time spent in Europe), and a high school physics teacher. "Possibly in rebellion from the heavy math atmosphere, I gravitated to biology and art," she says. "To be fair, my father was also a woodworker and a cellist, and my mother sewed clothing."

Our family vacations usually consisted of traveling to National Parks, camping and hiking. I have continued to enjoy National Parks and other wilderness and semi-wilderness settings in my adult life.

Chesick learned how to enamel in seventh grade and loved it so much that her parents bought her a desktop kiln while she was in high school. "I spent most of the next four years converting class jewelry projects into enamel projects and enameling in my free time. I continued to enamel while in college and beyond, expanding it into a very small business," she said.

At Carleton College, Chesick majored in biology/botany, balanced with a lot of studio art classes. She attended graduate school at the University of Montana, earning a Master's degree in Forest Science. For nine years she worked in cell culture of forest trees. "While working in the lab I used to wish that I were home enameling and making jewelry." When Chesick's husband wanted to return home to Minnesota, she agreed providing she could become a jeweler. She expanded her jewelry-making skills at Minneapolis Community and Technical College and eventually began working at Murphy Design as a bench jeweler and with time, became a designer for the company. She still works part time at Murphy Design.

Scavenging her mother's fabric scraps to make no-sew garments for dolls and stuffed animals was Chesick's introduction to working with fiber. Over the years she continued to sew, often making her own clothing. In 2003 she took a landscape quilting class and was hooked on the process. Drawing on family vacations to national parks and other wilderness settings, she delights in making landscape quilts from her photographs. "The challenge for me is to make my landscapes look as believable as possible."

Ripple River Gallery is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday; and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sundays (other times by chance or appointment). The gallery is located five miles south of Deerwood on Highway 6, then 3 miles east of Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge on County Road 14 to Partridge Avenue; or south of Aitkin on Highway 169 to Bennettville, then 3.2 miles west on County Road 11 to Partridge Avenue.

Walleye fishing re-opened on Mille Lacs Lake

Catch-and-release walleye fishing and use of live bait returned to Mille Lacs Lake effective on Aug. 11, and will continue through Monday, Sept. 4.

"After an extended mid-season closure, we look forward to reopening the lake to catch-and-release walleye fishing," said Don Pereira, fisheries section chief for the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources.

A prohibition on night fishing remains in place from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. through Nov. 30. Regulations do allow anglers to fish for muskie and northern pike at night, but they may only use artificial lures longer than eight inches or sucker minnows longer than eight inches.

Bowfishing for rough fish also is allowed at night but possession of angling equipment is not allowed and only rough fish may be in possession.

As of July 31, state anglers had harvested 47,899 pounds of walleye, out of the state's conservation cap of 55,800 pounds.

The DNR decided last month to dip into the conservation cap in order to extend the walleye season through Labor Day.

EDNA EBNET

Edna Mae Ebnet, 97, of Aitkin died with her son Arthur by her side on Monday, August 14, 2017 at Cuyuna Regional Care center in Crosby. Mass of Christian Burial will be held 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, August 22, 2017 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Deerwood. Burial will be at the Lakewood Cemetery in Crosby. Visitation will be one hour prior to the services at the church on Tuesday.

She was born February 7, 1920 in Rice, MN to Frank and Mae Janski. Edna married Lawrence Ebnet on January 7, 1941. Edna was a dedicated wife and mother who worked tirelessly on the family farm and for a time worked as a janitor at the Deerwood Bank. She tended to the family garden, put up all the winter food from the garden, helped with the milking and harvesting along with putting a bounty of food on the table at least three times a day. She was a wonderful cook and an accomplished seamstress making much of the family clothing and quilts for the beds.

She is survived by her four sons: Allen and Art of Aitkin, Duane (wife Elsie) of Delano and Malaysia, Marvin of Anchorage, Alaska; four grandchildren: Adam, Angeline, Matthew, Lisa (husband John) and four great-grandchildren Ian, Tristan, Nolan, Atticus; and son-in-law, John Smith of Honolulu, HI.

She was preceded in death by her parents; six brothers: Henry, Delmar, Alphonse, Lorenzo, Maurice, and Norbert; six sisters: Evelyn, Bernice, Irene, Ethel, Effie and Marjorie; husband, Lawrence; daughter, Diane; grandson, Jon and daughter-in-law, Mary Ann.

Arrangements were with the Koop Funeral Home in Crosby.

also have no washer or dryer, so laundry can really pile up. We can usually make it about a week between trips to the laundromat. Brett runs the fair booth during the days sometimes working with other missionaries, members of a local church, or other volunteers. Sometimes our oldest children will accompany him to help out.

"We have a couple of off seasons over the holidays and again in the spring when there aren't any fairs. During those times, and on other days off, we have been able to enjoy family time and do some fun traveling or just take some time to relax. We have been able to make a lot of memories and see and do some amazing things. We went sledding in the desert, saw Saguaro cactuses, explored caves, visited historical battlegrounds and the Alamo, saw petroglyphs and walked through cliff dwellings, visited the Grand Canyon, Joshua Trees, the Badlands, national monuments, and more. Our children have all been to 34 states, except the youngest who has only been to 32. "

"Our children are pretty normal. They have disagreements and tantrums like any other children. Plus the added challenges of special needs can make life challenging [one adopted son is a special needs child]. There was an adjustment period for all of us learning to live with less privacy, but everyone has handled it really well. None of our children ever had their own room even when we lived in a house, so they are used to sharing. We get creative with finding ways to allow them to have some quiet time away from everyone else if they need it. They can sit outside, put a curtain up on a bunk bed, hang out in the master bedroom, or use a small pop-up tent we have. If we focus on working together as a team and having the same goals then relationships are strengthened and things run more smoothly."

Brett grew up near Green Bay, Wisconsin and he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science

Music in the Park ends Thursday

Cuyuna Lakes Chamber's Music in the Park on ends for the season on Thursday evening, August 24, from 5 to 8 p.m. at Crosby Memorial Park. Enjoy live music by She'lin & Wills and Tim Fast while overlooking the spectacular views of Serpent lake.

Those attending are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets. For more information about each Music in the Park event, visit www.cuyunalakes.com.

The event will include complimentary root beer floats and games for the kids.

She'lin & Wills "SHILLS" is a newly formed local duo, with an emphasis on playing groovy tunes from the 1960's to current.

Tim Fast could be a character in one of the gems-of-a-song he writes and sings. He's a dust-covered man who has traveled the roads in search of whatever song is over the next rise.

Lakes Area Music Festival performs

Lakes Area Music Festival has had performances in the Brainerd area for the last month. Here the opera Carmen is staged at Tornstrom auditorium. Ann Schwartz photo and eventually started up his own computer consulting business. He sold the business when he felt God calling him home to be with his family. At that point he started up another business building farmhouse furniture out of his garage.

"He did that until we set off on our adventure, "said Lindsay.

She grew up in the Twin Cities. "Although we only lived a couple of miles away from each other, we actually met online. We have always liked adventure and travel."

What are their hopes and dreams for their ministry?

"We hope that God will work through us to grow His kingdom. We hope our children will be able to see God work and do mighty things. We have gotten to know so many amazing people and hear the amazing things that God has done in their lives. We hope to grow closer to God and to each other. Serving and obeying God has taught us that he asks us to follow Him for our own benefit. It is God that saves souls and not us, He doesn't need us, but through our obedience to Him, He can grow us and bless us in amazing ways. You don't truly see God work and the miracles He does until you step back and put yourself in a position where you need to fully trust in Him and rely on Him.

"After a six-month trial we made a decision to serve with Amazing Grace Missions for three years. We are over a year into that time period now. We are not sure where we will be in a couple more years. We will reevaluate at that time and see, if we would like to continue living on the road, settle down in a house for a while, or serve God in another capacity if He calls us to. "
