Ethical Behavior In The Funeral Business

Ethical behavior is what actually defines personal character. It's imperative to treat families and their deceased loved ones with the dignity and respect warranted by such dire circumstance. For funeral services, it is the very foundation of what they do as professionals. It is vital to respect the family's dignity as well as the deceased's when coping in the wake of tragedy. For surviving family members and friends, it is absolutely crucial.

First impressions are not a recurring opportunity. Every day through sought services or provided ones, first impressions are forged. If trust and respect are reciprocated, care for a loved one will be entrusted. Funeral services hinge upon this earned trust with the client's family. There is a saying in the funeral service, "You are always on duty." The professionals at Grant Funeral Services serve families in need with the highest level of integrity and ultimately the respect they deserve and most importantly the respect their deceased loved one deserves.

Remember this when it's time to plan services for you or your loved one.

Meet.. Shelby

Shelby is a playful Labrador mix, approximately 9 months old. She entered our shelter as an owner turn in. Shelby is a sweet, good natured dog that is great with children and other dogs. She is up-to-date on her vaccinations, heartworm negative and on flea/tick preventative. She will receive a free spay with a $35 adoption fee.

Slappy the Coonhound from last week is still waiting on a forever home. Hercules the Shepherd mix found a great home!

The shelter has an ongoing need for donations of dog food, collars, leashes, treats, stainless steel food bowls and monetary donations to provide medical care. We greatly appreciate all donations made to the shelter.

Marisa Thornton
Business Development

I started my journey with Exchange Media Group in December 2007. While some things have changed, our commitment to small businesses has never waivered. We take pride in the fact that we've helped so many over the years. Our market saturation, strong readership, great customer service and vision for the future are what sets us apart from the rest. While our print product is strong, we realize the need to have a presence online. It's exciting to tell people the new digital products and services we've added to accommodate our growing clientel.

I love my job and my customers!

Mary Ann Marsh
Business Development

"Bill Thomas, founder of the Exchange, brought me on board 25 years ago. We had 1 edition at that time and now have grown to 6 editions. Our weekly Exchange reaches over 83,000 homes and thousands of people visit our website. I love seeing my customers connect to their customers and watching their businesses grow. Many of my customers over the years have become very good friends, which has been rewarding. I have been a member of the Fayetteville Kiwanis Club for 24 years and have loved working and helping serve children in our community. I feel very fortunate to have been a member of Team Exchange Media Group for so many years."

Sandra Thomas
Business Development

I can remember when Exchange made it's debut. It was just what the community needed - a place to bring buyers and sellers together; a place to showcase products and services; a place to inform, congratulate, or thank others. I know personally how well Exchange works because my family and I have used it for years. Therefore, it is an honor to recommend Exchange to my friends and customers

I love working with the people in the communities that make up Franklin County. From the Chamber staff and local community administrations, to the business owners and individual Exchange readers, I have met the nicest folks. They care about their neighbors and their community which makes my job meaningful.
