SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speak Out,"

I would like to compliment the United Presbyterian Church of Mount Morris. This church has been a wonderful influence in my life. When my Mom passed in 2012, I experienced a terrible emptiness. At this difficult time, Jerry Swain and the parish were welcoming and very supportive.

I invite any new families or people who are interested in finding a comfortable, fun place to worship to join the United Presbyterian Church of Mount Morris. It should be noted that the church is actively involved in supporting charities such as the Food Pantry and Kirkwood Nursing Facility, Heifer International, Super Bowl Sunday, a free clothes closet for the needy and Mount Morris Central School.

My experiences at the United Presbyterian Church have truly made me a better person. This establishment is a small town church that offers fellowship and calming serenity to all who visit.

Questions? Imignemi@co.livingston.ny.us

Deaths by suicide result in tragic losses - psychological, social and economic each year. According to the New York State Department of Health, Livingston County has one of the highest suicide rates in the region. In 2013, Livingston County had an average of 15 suicides per 100,000 people while the state average was 8. Adding to these numbers are the numerous family members and close friends that are forever affected.

The theme of this year's World Suicide Prevention Day is 'Connect, communicate, care'. These three words are at the heart of suicide prevention. It has been said that humans need a sense of belonging and connectedness in order to survive. Social connectedness reduces the risk of suicide while Communication reduces the stigma that may allow individuals to seek out help without the risk of shame or judgment. Finally all the connecting and communicating will have no effect without the final ingredient – care – care for others AND care for ourselves.

Join the Suicide Prevention Task Force of the Genesee Valley Health Partnership on Thursday, September 7th, at 7:00 pm for the 3rd annual Candlelight Vigil at the Livingston County Mental Health Services at 4600 Millennium Drive in Geneseo. Connect with those affected by suicide, attend to communicate the importance of reducing stigma allowing for dialog, and finally, attend to show your commitment in identifying this as a priority to be addressed in our community.

Please help us in our effort to reduce the risk of suicide. For more information regarding the Suicide Prevention Task Force, please visit www.gvhp.org, or like us on Facebook. If you or someone you know needs immediate assistance, please contact the National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-8255 or 2-1-1.
