DORDT COLLEGE

Marketing Project Manager

Dordt College seeks an individual to manage projects for the Marketing and Communication Department and oversee the details of the project management system as Marketing Project Manager.

The individual will process all project requests and other duties to support organization and coordination between the department and other on-campus stakeholders. They will implement administrative systems, procedures, and policies as well as resolve and monitor administrative projects.

The marketing project manager will maintain all project management systems for the web, video, print, and photography requests and will serve as the first point of contact for all new project requests for the team.

A bachelor's degree with a minimum of 2 years of related experience is preferred. Excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to pleasantly communicate with key stakeholders are required.

Qualified candidates committed to the mission of Dordt College should send a resume and letter of interest to the Executive Director of Human Resources at the address below. A review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Dordt College 498 Fourth Ave NE Sioux Center, IA 51250

September 2017

Fellow Citizens,

The members of the Orange City Fire Department (OCFD) want to thank you for "having our backs" this past year, as the Fire Station update and expansion has been proposed, planned, approved via bond issue, and under construction. Many of you have stopped to ask a member how the building is coming along, or commented on how good it looks. We're glad to know that you are taking ownership of the station, and regard it as a point of pride in your community. The Department looks forward to opening it for your inspection on October 13 at our annual open house.

Poppema-Sikma Construction has been a pleasure to work with as they've kept construction on or ahead of schedule. You have probably seen various crews working on Saturdays or into the evenings. The OCFD Chief Officers have been keeping an eye on progress daily, and pitching in where possible. Recently firefighters have been installing landscaping and working on Saturdays to keep the facility and trucks "Dutch Clean."

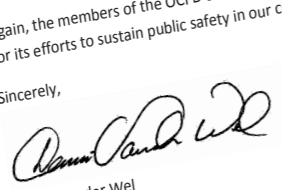

Because construction was carefully planned, we were able to start using the new apparatus bays and gear room this summer. This has allowed us to maintain our standard 4 minute response time to calls with a minimum of disruption. The laundry room is also now up and running, which means we can clean turnout gear that has been exposed to contaminants at fire calls. We look forward to having full use of the station next month, and anticipate that the result will be improved service to the community by our volunteers.

We invite you to attend the "hose uncoupling" (ribbon-cutting) and Open House for the updated station on Friday October 13 at 6 p.m. with a meal served from 5-7 p.m. Firefighters will offer tours of the building, answer your questions, and explain our operation. Watch the newspaper for details.

The support and generosity of this community has been phenomenal, a true encouragement to our volunteer firefighters who work hard to provide professional response to emergencies. You've done enough and more. If, however, you would like to continue to back our efforts, we are accepting donations towards the purchase of a new "Jaws of Life" to replace the first set we acquired in 1978. This tool package was cutting edge at the time. But in the decade since the TV show "Emergency" brought the tools of the fire service to public attention, new materials used in auto production mean that more hydraulic compression than this older tool possesses is needed to cut and spread vehicle components.

Again, the members of the OCFD can't say enough to thank the citizens and leadership of Orange City for its efforts to sustain public safety in our community.

Sincerely,

 Rob Bruxvoort
 Assistant Chief

 Dan Roghair
 Assistant Chief

Denny Vander Wel
Chief, OCFD
