The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has issued a new warning that grapefruit juice can interfere with the your medicines work, especially if you have high blood pressure or arrhythmia (irregular or abnormal heart beat). Here are some examples of the types of drugs with which grapefruit juice can cause problems:

- Some statin drugs to lower cholesterol, such as Zocor (simvastatin) and Lipitor (atorvastatin).
- Some drugs that treat high blood pressure, such as Procardia and Adalat CC (both infedipine).
- Some organ - transplant rejection drugs, such a Sandimmune and Neoral (both cyclosporine).
- Some anti-anxiety drugs, such as buspirone.
- Some corticosteroids that treat Crohn's disease or ulcerative colitis, such as Entocort EC and Uceris (both bubesonide).
- Some drugs that treat abnormal heart rhythms, such as Pacerone and Nexterone (both amiodarone).
- Some antihistamines, such as Allegra (fexofenadine).

Treatment of benign prostatic hyperplasia (BPH) with the commonly prescribed Avodart (Dutasteride) may put men at an increased risk for diabetes, elevated cholesterol levels, non-alcoholic fatty liver disease (NAFLD) and worsening erectile dysfunction, according to a new study in the journal Hormones Molecular Biology and Clinical Investigation.

Our competitors also have advertised specials. The difference is, in most cases, they have a limit on how many of an item you can buy at the sale price...we don't have any limits to family shoppers.

Still Time To Reserve Space On Antebellum Christmas Tour Of Natchez

Anyone who has ever wanted to see Antebellum homes all decked out for the holidays can do that and more when the Wallace State Community College Alumni Association takes a group of travelers on a holiday trip to Natchez, Mississippi, from November 30 through December 3.

The four-day, three-night road trip will depart from Wallace State on a motor coach, with a destination of Vicksburg, Miss., for a one-night stay at the Hampton Inns and Suites. While in Vicksburg, participants will have a guided tour at the Vicksburg National Military Park, a family-style Southern dinner at the Walnut Hills Restaurant, and tour the old Courthouse Museum.

The tour will head to Natchez, Miss., on day two, with a stop at the Natchez Visitor Center first on the agenda. Time there will include "The Natchez Story" film and the afternoon will include the Jeweled Christmas Tour at The Towers, one of the most unique seasonal tours in the South.

The group will spend two nights at the Natchez Grand Hotel, located on a bluff overlooking the Mississippi River. After check-in and a little down time, the group will enjoy a dinner at the Biscuits and Blues Restaurant, followed by a show at the Natchez Christmas Cabaret, part of the Natchez Festival of Music.

Day three of the trip begins at the Frogmore Plantation's "Christmas in the Quarters" tour, which will include stories of the Old South - Civil War soldiers, cotton kingpins, slaves and share-croppers. Lunch will be at the Carriage House Restaurant at Stanton Hall, followed by a tour of that antebellum mansion and Longwood mansion, the largest octagonal house in America that was never completed due to the outbreak of the Civil War. The evening will conclude in downtown Natchez, with a viewing for the Natchez Christmas parade, followed by a tour and dinner at Choctaw Hall and then "Libations at Linden Hall" consisting of a tour of the mansion, cheese straws and a special holiday beverage known as milk punch.

The trip is open to the public; WSCC Alumni Association members enjoy a $100 discount on the cost. The annual membership fee to join the Association is $25, and membership is open to the public. The cost of the trip, based on occupancy and Alumni Association membership, ranges from $670 to $1,105 per person. The tour fees include lodging and transportation, admission fees to all activities on the agenda, seven meals (3 breakfasts, 1 lunch, three dinners), gratuities, and baggage handling.

A $200 deposit is required to hold your registration, and final payment is due by Nov. 1. Registration can be completed online at www.wsccalumni.org. You may also download and print a registration form at this website. A form can also be mailed to you by contacting LaDonna Allen at 256.352.8071 or ladonna.allen@wallacestate.edu.

Elizabeth "Jane" Meyer
Feb. 29, 1936 ~ Sept. 22, 2017

We extend our appreciation to everyone who joined us in loving "Aunt Jane".
'Aunt Jane' was a gentle spirit who walked a path of faithfulness and integrity. She loved well and was well loved.
Thank you to New Life Church, her faith family. Our appreciation is extended to her neighborhood, especially her neighbors, Ricky and Vickie Brown, who helped her maintain her treasured independence.
We recognize and appreciate all the friends she made at Doug's Corner Mart, Cullman Health Care, Central Hospital Discount Pharmacy and Piggly Wiggly. You meant the world to her.
We appreciate the care provided for her at Cullman Internal Medicine by Dr. Jeremy Stidham, 'Nathan', and staff.
We gratefully acknowledge the loving care given to Aunt Jane while she stayed at Woodland Village - East Wing.
Finally we extend our appreciation to Kindred Hospice. Thank you for the team approach to her care and for serving her with your heart as well as with your talents and skills.

Vera Thornton
Passed away on September 16, 2017
Her life was touched by many and we are so thankful for all the birthdays we spent with her.

On June 21, 2017, Vera turned 90 years old. Vera was visited by her brother, Dwight Ragsdale, Lisa, Brian, Caylin, Ashley, Valerie, Glenn, Truman and Ruby. She had a blessed day. She heard from her two sisters, Vonnice and Vaudie, by phone.

It was a good birthday!!
(Delayed birthday wish because picture was lost)
