LOLLY POP GHOSTS

Here's what you'll need:

Kleenex Tissues - Round lolly pops - Black Sharpie - Tiny elastics
Thin orange and black ribbon

1. Take the quarter piece of tissue and put it in the center of the full sized tissue. This will help to hide the colour of the lolly pop underneath the tissue. I tried it first with just one layer of Kleenex, but you could definitely see the lolly pop through it. Two layers worked much better to hide the colour.

Put the lolly pop in the middle.

2. Bunch up the tissue over the lolly pop and stretch the elastic over it to hold it all in place. The elastics that I used were small enough that I only had to go around once.

3. Brush tip Sharpie to make the eyes. Since it's tissue, the ink definitely bleeds, so I recommend pressing (briefly) straight on with the tip of the marker for each of the eyes. If they end up being different sizes, go back and adjust them as you need to.

4. Tie ribbon into a bow around their necks, like tying a shoe lace.
