Donna's Day Creative family fun

Late Bloomers Shine in Paper Bag Bouquet

Brown bag it! Or, use any color bag you want as a unique "vase" for a bouquet of fall blooms from your garden or patio pots. The simple idea caught my eye when traveling in Italy last spring. Small brown paper bags, with the top edges rolled down like cuffs on jeans, were cinched around pots of rosemary or other herbs for centerpieces at sidewalk cafes and restaurants. So natural and charming, I thought. The image stuck. This fall, with the last call for blooms still reaching for the sun, why not get kids involved in gathering the beauty and arranging their picks in a casual bouquet made with a lunch bag or recycled small colorful paper gift bag?

Here's the fun:

1. Head outside and make it an adventure with kids to create a natural arrangement with their choices of fall's last cuttings. Even if plants look droopy and lost to the season, poke around and you'll uncover some lovely lurking blooms, pods and interesting greens in between tired summer growth. The final choices that will have staying power, even when the water has evaporated from the bouquet, include lavender, hydrangea, eucalyptus, sedum, roses, pods and herbs.
2. Find a brown paper lunch bag or pull out a gift bag (clip off the top third, including the handle).
3. Choose a recycled plastic food container (cottage cheese, sour cream, cream cheese, etc.) about the size of the base of the bag you'll be using.

4. In a pan of water, soak a chunk of floral foam oasis, the size of the inside of the plastic container. When saturated, set it in the container.
5. Tuck the container in the bottom of the paper bag. Roll down the top edges of the bag to desired size, or fold them inside.
6. Trim stems of the flowers and greens. Insert them into the foam to make a colorful arrangement. Hosts, ferns and other lovely greens look nice coming out from the sides with tall blooms reaching up and out in the center. Fill in the rest of your picks in all directions. Say and learn the names of the flowers and plants as you go. Finally, twist the bouquet around to be sure it is balanced on all sides.

7. Tie string or ribbon around the middle of the bag, cinching it a bit to balance the entire look. Now, the unique backyard arrangement is ready to present at your dinner table.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. Q. Can you tell me when "Good Witch" will be back? It seems like it's been forever! — Betty S., Portland, Oregon

A. Catherine Bell and company will be back for more spooky delights on Oct. 22 at 8/7c, when "Good Witch: Spellbound," a two-hour movie co-starring James Denton and Bailee Madison, premieres on the Hallmark Channel. Season four of the series will premiere early 2018, so this movie should be enough to tide you over until then. I spoke with Catherine recently, and she told me all about the fun Halloween movie.

"Years ago, a man was in love with one of my ancestors. He couldn't be with her, so he left town, but not before he cast a curse on Middleton. Now some of his prophecies are starting to come true. One of his curses was that love would be lost forever because he lost his love. So we got the band together to try to figure out what it all means and how to get the town through this. I find it always comes back to love and friendship and togetherness."

Catherine is thrilled to get back to work with her Hallmark family, telling me: "They truly are like the nicest people ever. Jamie (James Denton) is awesome. The guy has been around for a long time, and he's seen it all. He's a family man. And he's a mountain man. He's got a ranch in Montana. He's not Hollywood, and I love that. He's just a good guy and a lot of fun. And Bailee is just adorable. She's so sweet, so smart, so talented—someone who's grown up in this business and somehow managed to stay grounded and stay humble."

Q. Can you tell me what Michael Emerson is up to? I loved him on "Person of Interest" and "Lost." — Lilly T., via email

A. Michael's latest gig is bit of a mystery ... but I'm sure it soon will all unravel. He plays (as of this writing) an unnamed character on the

Catherine Bell

CW's "Arrow." As his recurring role unfolds, we'll find out what his evil plan — yes, he's playing a villain — is for Green Arrow and friends. I'm betting it will be particularly cerebral and diabolical. Michael also recently had a guest spot on "Claws," the TNT drama about a woman who owns a nail salon with her best friends, and they are caught up with the local drug gang and are trafficking through the shop.

Q. I love Kelly Clarkson's new song, "Love So Soft." When will the album be out? — Brandi Y., via email

A. "The Meaning of Life" drops Oct. 27. This is Kelly's first album with Atlantic Records; she just completed her "American Idol" recording contract with RCA Records. Also, look for her next season (season 14) on "The Voice," where she'll occupy one of the spinning chairs as a judge nurturing new musical talent.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You're eager to Ram headfirst into that new project. But before you do, find out why some of your colleagues might not appear to be as gung-ho about it as you are.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) All that dedicated hard work you've been putting in pays off better than you expected. So go ahead, reward yourself with something befitting a beauty-loving Bovine.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) It's a good time to take on that new challenge. And if your self-confidence is sagging, instead of telling yourself why you can't do it, list all the reasons why you can.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) This is one time when you might want to put some distance between you and the job at hand. It will give you a better perspective on what you've done and still need to do.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Resist that occasional lapse into Leonine laziness that sometimes overtakes the Big Cat. Don't cut corners. Do the job right at this time, or you might have to redo it later.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You know how you like to do things. And that's fine. But watch that you don't impose your methods on others. A current financial crunch soon eases.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Someone might try to take advantage of your generosity. But before your sensitivity toward others overwhelms your good sense, check his or her story out carefully.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your strong Scorpion sense of fairness lets you see all sides of a dispute. Continue to remain impartial as you help each person work through his or her particular grievance.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Trust your keen Sagittarian insight to help you see through an offer that might not be all it claims. A closer look could reveal disturbing elements.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) With the Goat exhibiting a more dominant aspect these days, you could find it easier to make your case in front of even the most skeptical audience.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Take things nice and easy as you continue to build up your energy reserves for a big change that's coming with the full Hunter's Moon on Oct. 29.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Recent news from someone you trust could help you make an important decision. Also, be prepared to confront an upcoming change in a personal situation.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can be firm in your own views, but also flexible enough to welcome the views of others.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

The Garden Bug

Depending on your location, fall is a good time for planting trees, as they need time to root and acclimatize before the onset of the freezing temperatures of winter. In the southern United States, however, which do not experience an intense winter, planting can take place during the winter months.

A Sporting View by Mark Vasto

The One Constant Is Change

I don't like Major League Baseball's wild-card game. There, I said it, and it falls trippingly off my tongue.

Baseball has the longest season of all sports in America. For five months — six, if you count spring training — fans watch a story unfold. It's the beauty of the game, this longevity. Storylines play out over this half-year season, a season actually made up of three seasons. We watch the rookies make the team in April, and witness the magical month of May, where every team is on equal ground and at its healthiest. We watch them soldier on through the heat of summer, sweat out the pennant races in September, and we tune in to watch the heroics of October.

After all of that time and concession sales, the three division winners secure a playoff spot and the remaining teams get to fight over the scraps, a wild-card game between the next best two teams. They play a one-game playoff and the winner goes against the top seed. And that's when my record needle scratches.

One game? You just played 162 games in the regular season, and the losing wild card gets to play 163? It makes no sense. I'm not buying into the theory that those teams are just lucky to be there, nor do I like the false equivocation of treating it like it's the seventh game of a series — because it's not. Teams play on a baseball diamond, not a baseball cubic zirconia.

One-game playoffs are like kissing your sister. It showcases nothing. During the regular, ordinary time of the season, teams play three game sets. This is not only done for logistical purposes, it is done in order to let the fans see the depth of the respective teams rosters, and that's why this one-game format fails.

Here's a simple, temporary fix: Have the teams play best out of three, the higher seed getting home-field advantage for all three games. This eliminates the need for a travel day. Scheduling would be a cinch, too. Just lop three games off of spring training. Broadcast game one on a Saturday night, game two in a day game on Sunday. If both teams win a game, it's a double header ... turn on the lights and break the tie.

Right now, baseball has three divisions of five teams each. Baseball is due for expansion. TV ratings are bad, but the league is flush with cash and in the coming years, as football hemorrhages players due to safety concerns, you'll see a lot of talent opting to play baseball. The talent pool will be there. (For the record, I propose a team in Portland, Oregon, and a team in Nashville or Charlotte.) Create another division so you have four divisions of four teams. This once again establishes the thrill of a pennant race, since only division winners get to meet in a five-game series.

Of course, Bob Costas wouldn't approve of this idea, but he's not the boss of me. Even in a pastime, the one constant going forward should be change.

Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in New Jersey.

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting
 By Terry and Kim Kovel

Cricket Tables Never Wobbled

"For sale, typical English cricket table," said the auction ad. But what is a cricket table? Is it used for sports like the English game of cricket? Does it have anything to do with the insect? No. The cricket table was first named and used during the 16th century. The French word "criquet" refers to its stick legs. And the table has three legs so it can be used where the floor is uneven.

This cricket table has the expected triangular top and three legs. It was made in England in the 19th century. The 25 1/2-inch high table sold for $1,170.

Remember your geometry — three points determine a plane, so all three legs of any length will touch the floor at the same time, while a four-legged table might wobble. Most antique cricket tables have triangular or round tops. Some have shelves halfway down the legs. It was a country furniture idea, and tables can be found that are made of sycamore, ash, oak, elm, cherry or walnut woods. A few have three drop leaves.

In 2016, Thomaston Auctions sold an elaborate oak cricket table with sausage-turned legs and a T-stretcher for $1,170.

Q. I have a Hummel boy doll but can't find one that looks like it online. It's 11 1/2 inches high and made of rubber with painted eyes and molded hair. His head, arms and legs are in very good condition. There is a mark on the back with a bee inside a V. Can you tell me anything about its age and value?

A. Your doll is from the 1970 Series, which was made from 1953 until about 1959. He is called Peterle and is marked with the "full bee" trademark used by the W. Goebel Porcelain Co. of Germany from 1950 until 1959. The dolls were sold dressed in cloth outfits, some with small accessories like a goose, stein or travel pack. It appears your doll's clothing is a combination of pieces from other Hummel dolls and doesn't have any accessories. Dolls like yours sell for $25 to $50.

Q. How much is the book "My Turn at Bat, The Story of My Life" by Ted Williams as told to John Underwood worth? I have a copy autographed by Ted Williams.

A. This book was first published in 1969, when Ted Williams was manager of the Washington Senators. It recently has been republished with new pictures. A copy of the 1969 edition autographed by Ted Williams sold at auction this year for $132.

TIP: Leather that crumbles to red powder has "red rot." It is caused by absorption of sulfur dioxide and cannot be stopped.

COUCH THEATER DVD PREVIEWS
 BY AMY ANDERSON

Baby Driver (R) — "Baby Driver" is both a love story and a crime story, with a sweet soundtrack. Baby (Ansel Elgort) drives the getaway car for Doc (Kevin Spacey), but not necessarily by choice. He is exceptional behind the wheel, with a focus driven by his personal playlist — Baby is never without his iPod, earbuds and sunglasses. When he falls for angelic waitress Deborah (Lily James), the one last heist Doc planned takes a screeching turn, and nothing will ever be the same. The characters — a lunatic criminal named Bats (Jamie Foxx), a suave Bonnie and Clyde couple (Jon Hamm and Eiza Gonzalez) — are memorable. The integration of music in this film is infectious and delightful. It is a refreshingly fun ride, enormously entertaining from the witty dialogue to the exhilarating car chases.

Ansel Elgort stars in "Baby Driver"

The Pilgrimage (NR) — It is the 13th century, and an envoy from the Vatican, Geraldus (Stanley Weber), commands the inhabitants of a remote Irish monastery to escort their relic to Rome. The relic is seen as a powerful tool to turn the tide in the Crusades. A small group of monks is chosen to accompany it, including wide-eyed novice Diarmuid (Tom Holland, in a decidedly non-Spidey-like role) and a mute with a terribly violent past (in a praiseworthy performance by Jon Bernthal). They must cross an unfriendly landscape filled with both desolate natural dangers and the remnants of a war-infested past. Richard Armitage plays the leader of a band of Norman soldiers who join the monks in order to protect the relic and ensure success of their journey, which is fraught with peril from the inside out.

The House (R) — When you bet the farm, it doesn't always work out, and that's where you'll find "The House" — not a total loss, but certainly no big payoff. Scott and Kate Johansen (Will Ferrell and Amy Poehler) get ready to send their daughter off to college, and discover that they have no money. Their neighbor Frank (Jason Mantzoukas) comes up with a cockamamie scheme to turn the Johansens' house into an under-the-radar casino to earn the money on the quick. Things happen; some of them are funny. But in the end it comes off as a bawdy slew of not-quite-as-funny-as-planned skits.

Wish Upon (PG-13) — Joey King and Ryan Phillippe play daughter and father in this mystical horror thriller by director John Leonetti, of "Annabelle" fame. Single dad Jonathan gives Clare a music box, which grants her seven wishes. But, as the saying goes, you must be careful what you wish for, because everything comes at a price. It's meant to be serious and scary, but it's camp, plain and simple. You might be wishing for the end sooner than you think.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen. Special thanks and gratitude in your honor for my favor.
