Sleeping Pills

An exhausted looking man dragged himself in to his Doctor's office. "Doctor Kaine, there are dogs all over my neighborhood. They bark all day and all night, and I can't get a wink of sleep."

"I have good news for you Howard," Doctor Kaine said, rummaging through a drawer full of sample medications.

"Here are some new sleeping pills that work like a dream. A few of these and your trouble will be over." "Great," said Howard, "I'll try anything. Let's give it a shot."

A few weeks later Howard, looking worse than ever. "Doc, your plan is no good. I'm more tired than before!" "I don't understand how that could be," said Dr. Kaine, shaking her head. "Those are the strongest pills on the market!"

"That may be true," answered Howard wearily, "but I'm still up all night chasing those dogs and when I finally catch one it's hard getting him to swallow the pill!"

Packaging

Recently, I bought a cartridge for my printer. It came in a box mounted on a card and wrapped in plastic. When I took it apart, I found that the printer cartridge itself was actually quite small, but they made the packaging unnecessarily large to make it harder to steal and to make the customer feel better about the high price.

I pointed this out to my wife and mentioned how my weight gain over the years of our marriage should have the same effect: It made me seem more valuable and also made me harder for other women to steal.

She's still laughing.

Teen Attire

A teen-aged boy with spiked hair, nose ring and baggy clothes was overheard telling a friend, "I don't really like to dress like this, but it keeps my parents from dragging me everywhere with them."

The Apple

When my daughter was three, we watched Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs for the first time. The wicked queen appeared, disguised as an old lady selling apples, and my daughter was spellbound. Then Snow White took a bite of the poisoned apple and fell to the ground unconscious.

As the apple rolled away, my daughter spoke up ... "See, Mom. She doesn't like the skin either."

Hunting Prayer

The Wednesday-night church service coincided with the last day of hunting season.

Our pastor asked who had bagged a deer.

No one raised a hand.

Puzzled, the pastor said, "I don't get it. Last Sunday many of you said you were missing because of hunting season. I had the whole congregation pray for your deer."

One hunter groaned, "Well, it worked. They're all safe."

Housetrained Puppy May Need a Refresher

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: My new Beagle puppy, "Socks," keeps peeing in the same spot on the carpet every day. I thought he was housetrained when I adopted him from the shelter, and I've been careful to take him out each morning. But his third day here he peed on that spot and he's gone there every day since. What can I do? -- Wits' End in Maryland

DEAR WITS' END: This can happen with any dog at just about any age, even if it is well-housebroken. There are a number of reasons why -- from health issues to anxiety.

First, get Socks checked out at the vet to rule out any issues, like a urinary tract infection, that might cause a lapse in housetraining. This is something you should do anytime there's a sudden change in a pet's behavior.

Then you'll need to clean the area thoroughly to remove as much of the pee smell as possible -- not just for your nose, but to stop Socks from identifying the area so easily as a place to pee. If he's peeing on carpet, you will likely need to replace that section as well as the padding underneath.

Next, reintroduce a stricter routine for a while. That doesn't mean punishing Socks for a housetraining mistake; rather, it means a tighter training routine for both of you. If you know the approximate time that he peed on the carpet, put him on a leash at that time and take him outside. Give him lots of praise when he pees outdoors.

If you're not sure when he pees there, or can't be at home at the time, crating Socks during periods you're away may be helpful. Don't keep him in the crate for more than a couple hours at a time.

Send your questions, comments and tips to ask@pawscorner.com.

Hollywood Deco

Fifties furniture is very popular with vintage collectors today, but some earlier Art Deco designs from the 1930s are not in demand. Look at old movies on television to study some of the stranger pieces. The look is sometimes called “Hollywood Deco” because the extravagant rooms with huge round mirrors and sofas were exaggerations of the modern furniture used in average homes.

This unusual round cabinet was made to hold a collection of curios or china. It was sold at a Garth's in Ohio auction for $450.

An unfamiliar cabinet was sold recently at a Garth's auction. It was a flat, round cabinet on a base. When placed against a wall, it showed all of the 51-inch diameter of the cabinet and the glass doors and shelves waiting to display a collection. The plain solid base stretched beyond the rounded sides to give safe support for the top-heavy design. This type of cabinet was made in the 1930s, but most for sale today were made in England, not the U.S. Most have no maker's name and the wood choice suggests it was not expensive when new. Some were oak or even mahogany, but many were made of laminate with grain painting.

A cabinet like this sold at a Midwestern auction in 2016 for $450. A selection of similar round modernist curio cabinets found online had asking prices as high as $2,000, but most of these are in English shops and prices were cut to less than $500.

Q.I'd like some information about a pitcher and washbowl made by Edward Clarke. It's marked on the bottom with two touching shields. The words “Edward Clarke, Tunstall, Trade Mark, Stone China” are above the shields and “Stone China” below.

A.Edward Clarke made earthenware and white ironstone at Phoenix Works in Tunstall, England, from about 1865 to 1877. That's when your pitcher and washbowl were made. They probably were part of a commode set that included a soap dish, chamber pot and other items. Before there was indoor plumbing, a commode set or chamber set was kept in the bedroom and emptied each morning.

Q.I came across an old R.C. Allen 10 Key Calculator Model 35 that my dad used for his business. On the front, it says “World Famous 10 Key Calculator, American and Swedish Patents.”

A.Ralph C. Allen founded his company in Grand Rapids, Michigan, in 1932. It also manufactured and distributed cash registers and typewriters. Your calculator was made in 1948 and originally sold for $397. Old calculators are not very useful and not popular collectibles, so they are very hard, if not impossible, to sell.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — “Titanic” producer James Cameron, creator of the original “Terminator” franchise, says he’ll produce a new three-arc “Terminator” film, to be released in July 2019, when the original rights (which he sold after the first three films) revert back to him. Arnold Schwarzenegger and Linda Hamilton (Cameron’s ex-wife) have agreed to return to re-create their original roles. Cameron further commented, “People ask me ‘Will machines ever win against humanity?’” I say, “Look at people on their phones, the machines have already won!”

Jake Gyllenhaal’s latest film, “Stronger,” in which he plays Boston Marathon victim David Gordon Green, has received excellent reviews (Rotten Tomatoes gave it a 95 percent rating, while Metacritic scored it 76 out of 100 from 38 critics). But the film couldn’t find its audience in its first week, taking in only $1.7 million to offset its $30 million cost. Only word of mouth can save it now. Jake will try again with “Wildlife,” opposite Carey Mulligan, and the dark Western comedy “The Sisters Brothers,” with John C. Reilly, Joaquin Phoenix and Riz Ahmed.

Charlize Theron’s film “Atomic Blonde” also cost $30 million but grossed $95 million, while her “The Fate of the Furious” cost $250 million and grossed $1.2 billion. She’s producing her next two films: the action/drama “Gringo,” with David Oyelowo and Joel Edgerton, due March 9; and the comedy/drama “Tully,” written by Diablo Cody and co-starring Ron Livingston, coming April 20.

Are we ever truly “Gone with the Wind”? Take, for instance, Vivian Leigh, who won an Oscar in 1939 for playing Scarlett O’Hara in the classic Civil War film. She was in Hollywood keeping an eye on her partner, Laurence Olivier, while he was at MGM making “Wuthering Heights” with Merle Oberon. She won a second Oscar for playing Blanche Dubois in Tennessee Williams’ “A Streetcar Named Desire” (1951). Vivian Leigh died July 8, 1967, at the age of 53, from tuberculosis, and her grandchildren, who have waited 50 years to auction off her personal effects, at Southerby’s in London, say they did it to ensure her memory lives on.

Some 1,400 bidders from 52 countries came to own a piece of her past. A gold ring, given to her by former husband Laurence Olivier, to whom she was married from 1940-1960, sold for $50,000. The size M 1/2 ring bore the inscription “Laurence Olivier Vivian Eternally.” A personal copy of “Gone with the Wind,” given to her and autographed by the author, Margaret Mitchell, sold for $67,000. An original painting, painted and given to her by Sir Winston Churchill, sold for $855,075. In all, the auction raised more than $3 million to ensure her grandchildren live on ... in style!

DON'T BE SCARED OF THIS ONE! Hidden in the above frame is an old saying. You can find it by reading every other letter as you go around it clockwise. The trick is finding the right first letter.

Answer: Starting with the "H" in the bottom row: "This bark is worse than his bite."

TRY SEWING THIS ONE UP IN FIVE MINUTES! To solve this problem you must replace the letters in our AlphaMath puzzle with the digits 0, 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, so that you have a correct addition expression. The same letters get the same digits. Try to get a higher total than we did.

Our answer: T=8, E=9, A=6, R=1, M=9, O=5, N=2, D=0, (8761 + 959 = 9720.)

CHAIN REACTION! Take the seven letters printed below our diagram and place them in the circles so that eight four-letter words can be read, top to bottom, along the connecting lines. All the words will begin with the letter in the top circle.

“Preparing To Be Offended”

I must confess to being a bit unprepared for the controversy surrounding the recent Columbus Day holiday. I had not tuned into the news or social media for a while, and thus, was caught flat footed and completely un-offended. It was a bit embarrassing to me to not even have the time to work up so much as even a mild ire over the man who is credited with letting the bulk of the world know about this beautiful land that we now live in. However, I am a fairly quick learner, I think, and am determined not to miss another opportunity to be offended or to help others do so. And so, I have done the requisite research in my quest for offense and here is what I have discovered and determined. October 24 is United Nations day. This presents an excellent opportunity to be offended at the very concept of nations. Why should some places qualify for nationhood when others are only able to qualify as states, cities, towns, or villages? From now on I demand that every place be called a nation, or, if that is not feasible, every place including nations simply be called “places.” October 31 is Halloween. This one is too easy. Any costume, at all, can be taken offense at if a person is creative and determined enough. November 1 is All Saints Day. And why, pray tell, (Yikes! My apologies to all non-believers for the usage of the word “pray” in that idiomatic expression.) should some qualify as saints when others do not? From now on I demand that everyone from the Virgin Mary to Eminem qualify as saints. No sainthood, no serenity! November 4 is the full moon, an exclusionary event that denigrates every other phase of the moon. November 23 is Thanksgiving. One could write a (very angry) novel on this one. Whom did those marauding Pilgrims think they were? I think it is clear that generations of turkeys have gone on to suffer as a result of their actions, and children everywhere have been corrupted by the outdated notions of thankfulness and God. December 12 is Hanukkah. This fine Jewish holiday may be a bit unknown to many Americans, so we will need to encourage people to research it carefully to find out why they are so offended at it. December 25 is, of course, the mack-daddy of all offense as far as holidays are concerned. How dare the very Son of God lower himself to become flesh, be born of a virgin, live in poverty and obscurity, and then die for our sins. We should all begin by focusing on doubts as to whether or not December 25 was the actual day of his birth; this will detract from the fact that the main point is not when he came, but that he came. We can proceed from there to label this most blessed day as racist, sexist, bigoted, homophobic, xenophobic, capitalistic, non-vegan, having too large of a carbon footprint, and being the root cause of one of the world’s greatest evils: fruitcake. There now, we are all properly prepared for the next two months worth of opportunities to be offended. In Matthew 15, Jesus spoke of what defiles a person. After He did so, the disciples came to him and said, “Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?” Nothing he said was wrong, at all. Yet the Pharisees never missed any opportunity to be offended, including this one. Jesus answered, “Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind.” Be very slow to take offense. A person who is easily, often, and needlessly offended is just like the Pharisees; a blind person leading other blind people. People who can see, meaning people with any actual discernment, are very slow to take offense, if at all. One more piece of counsel. Think of the well-known, popular voices of our day. Now ask yourself a question. How often are they offended at something? If the answer is “very regularly,” that person will not be a good guide for you, unless you want to be continually miserable. Society has problems. Coming up with solutions is worth a mountain of gold. Peace making is worth even more than that. Constantly finding reasons to be offended at things is worth nothing at all.

Is There a Cure for Keloids?

DEAR DR. ROACH: Is there a cure for keloids? My husband is 56 and has several keloids on his body, but there is one on his chest that has gotten considerably larger over the years and causes the most problems. He has experienced pain and discomfort, and it also bleeds at times. My husband would prefer not to have surgery. He was born with a keloid on his ear. At a very young age it was operated on, and it returned larger in size. He has tried numerous types of remedies, but none has prevented the keloid from growing or bleeding. -- J.B.

ANSWER: A keloid (from a Greek word meaning "tumor-like") is a complication of scar tissue. In some people, when the skin heals from a cut or a burn, the healing cells keep growing, creating a variably sized, disfiguring, sometimes painful lesion called a keloid. The best treatment in people who are predisposed to keloids is to avoid them by avoiding any unnecessary surgery (including ear and other body piercings). Once a keloid has formed, there are several possible treatments. Unfortunately, the longer a keloid has been there, the harder it is to treat. I have seen great results from silicone gel sheeting. This is particularly effective when used immediately after surgery, but may have some effectiveness on your husband's chest keloid. Another potentially effective treatment is injection of steroids, which help flatten and shrink keloids up to 75 percent of the time. ***

DEAR DR. ROACH: I had a fall on ice and suffered a severe concussion. I was unconscious for several minutes. At the hospital, I had a CT scan, but there was no damage. Two months later, I had an episode where I became disoriented and the room was spinning. I was taken to the hospital, given Antivert without success and kept overnight. A physical therapist came the next day, did some vestibular rehab that helped some, and I continued it at home as needed. The episodes are getting worse, and neither the Antivert nor the exercises are helping. Could this be due to the fall? My ENT says no. -- G.M.

ANSWER: You clearly have vertigo, but whether it is due to the fall isn't clear. Certainly, people with postconcussion syndrome get dizziness and vertigo, but in most cases I have seen, it starts soon after the trauma: Two months is longer than I have seen. Headaches also are common in postconcussion syndrome, but their absence doesn't mean your vertigo is NOT due to the fall.

Meclizine (Antivert) is an antihistamine commonly used for vertigo; however, prolonged use (more than a few days) prevents the brain from adapting to the changes in the balance system that caused the vertigo. Thus, it's concerning that you may still be taking it. I have seen many people taking meclizine long term and having persistent vertigo. Vestibular rehab is the best treatment we have for vertigo. If it's not working, it may be time to re-evaluate and make sure there isn't another cause for the vertigo. ***

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was German dramatist, poet, philosopher and statesman Johann Wolfgang von Goethe who made the following sage observation: "Too many parents make life hard for their children by trying, too zealously, to make it easy for them."

* At one time in Ireland, a traditional Halloween activity was predicting future romance. It was one of the few times of the year when young men and women could mingle, and fortune-telling games to predict who they would marry were popular.

* Those who are experiencing money-related relationship issues might be interested to note the results of a survey conducted by TD Ameritrade. When asked who manages the household budget, 87 percent of women said they did, while 81 percent of men claimed that responsibility.

* Until Alfred Hitchcock's iconic psychological horror film "Psycho" premiered in 1960, no American film had ever shown a toilet being flushed.

* Buick is one of the oldest automobile brands in the world, so you might expect that the company's founder did pretty well for himself. Unfortunately for David Dunbar Buick, who incorporated the company in 1903, that wasn't the case. In less than a year, the company was sold. Buick stayed on as a manager and worked on engine development, but only for two more years. When he left his namesake company in 1906, he sold his one remaining share of Buick for $100,000. That was a rather hefty sum at the time, but he lost it all in a series of unsuccessful ventures. At the time of his death in early 1929, he was virtually penniless.

* It's been reported that a shaved guinea pig bears a remarkable resemblance to a tiny hippopotamus. ***

In a large skillet, cook ground meat over medium-high heat until no longer pink. Transfer the meat to a bowl. Drain excess grease from skillet, but do not clean.

Add the olive oil to the skillet. Add the onion, green pepper, garlic, parsley and jalapeño peppers (if using) and cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until onions are soft and fragrant (about 5 minutes). Remove from heat and add the chili powder, cumin, sugar, oregano, salt, pepper and cayenne pepper. Stir until combined.

If cooking the chili stovetop, add the cooked meat back to the skillet. If using a slow cooker, add meat-veggie mixture to the slow cooker. Add the tomato juice, diced tomatoes, tomato sauce, kidney beans and pinto beans to either the skillet or slow cooker, depending on which you are using. On stovetop, bring to a boil, dial back to medium-low and simmer for 2 hours. In slow cooker, cook on low for 7 to 8 hours. Serve warm with cheese and sour cream.

Add to your autumn wardrobe

FAMILY FEATURES

When fall comes on quick and brings cool weather with it, you can't afford to be caught with an unprepared wardrobe. With every season change, there comes an opportunity to make sure your closet reflects your unique style.

With crisp air settling in and beautiful leaves scattered on the ground, it's about more than just a long-sleeve shirt or a football jersey – stay warm from head to toe without sacrificing a look worthy of showing off. For this fall's fashion must-haves, turn to comfortable clothing that holds up against chilly weather with these stylish options.

Amber Waves

by Dave T. Phipps

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good time to speak out on a difficult situation. You're known for your honesty, so people will listen and, perhaps, begin to make long-needed changes.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The Bovine's sharp business sense alerts you to question the positions of those trying to push the Bull into a deal. Demand to see proof of what they profess.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your quick thinking helps you get out of a troubling situation that suddenly was thrust upon you. Later on, you can expect to learn more about why it happened.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might feel you've dotted all your i's and crossed all your t's regarding that upcoming deal. But there might be some facts you've ignored. Check again.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Time for the Lion to be more physically active. It will help shake off any lingering Leonine lethargy and restore your energy levels, so you'll be prepared for what lies ahead.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Helping those in need at this time is laudable. But don't ignore your own needs, especially where it concerns your health. A medical checkup is a wise move.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Good news: Your outspoken views about a controversial on-the-job situation could find unexpectedly strong support from a most unlikely workplace faction.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might have to draw on your reservoir of spiritual strength to help someone special through a difficult time. Your loving attitude makes all the difference.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your proven leadership qualities make you the perfect person to take on an important workplace task.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although some compromise might need to be reached regarding your stand on an important issue, you'll still be able to get the most crucial points across.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A chance to make a career change carries both positive and uncertain possibilities. Best advice: Check it out thoroughly and don't be rushed into a decision.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You're still a staunch supporter of one side of an important issue. But be prepared to deal with new information that could cause you to question your current stand.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're perceptive and quick to act when you sense that someone needs help. You are an always-dependable friend.

Q: Please give me some scoop on “The X-Files.” The wait is killing me! — Valerie B., Toledo, Ohio

A: You and me both, Valerie. Well, we learned some more info about the upcoming 11th season of the what’s-old-is-new-again hit alien/sci-fi series, which premieres on Fox in January. First of all, remember that episode from the first go-round that creeped out everyone, “Home”? (Look it up if you don’t, because I can’t stomach rehashing it here.) Well, the actress who played the under-the-bed mom in that episode will be featured as four different characters (two of which are male) in an episode this next season. Also, as I mentioned before, this 10-episode season will consist of eight stand-alone mysteries and two mythology installments. We will get an episode that deals with the backstory of the Cigarette Smoking Man (played by William B. Davis), as well as one that delves into the life of Mitch Pileggi’s Skinner, who also will be featured more heavily this season. The question on everyone minds is where is William — Mulder (David Duchovny) and Scully’s (Gillian Anderson) son — and does he have plans to destroy mankind? The truth is out there ... come January.

Q: I’ve been waiting and waiting for news about “Psych.” I heard a while ago that they were bringing it back, but since then, crickets. — Elly W., via email

A: The cast of “Psych” will be back — for a reunion holiday movie. As series star Dule Hill announced via video at the New York Comic Con, the much-anticipated movie will premiere Dec. 7 on USA Network. “Psych: The Movie” reunites the cast of the original series, and also welcomes aboard newcomer John Cena. Fans at Comic Con got to preview the first 20 minutes of the movie at the “Psych” panel, and they were not disappointed by the tease.

Q: I’ve been binge-watching “Girlfriends’ Guide to

Lifetime

Will Kemp

Divorce” on Netflix, and I love the actor who plays badass pastry chef Scott. Can you tell me more about him and where else I can see him? — Gina T., via email

A: Forty-year-old British actor Will Kemp had his breakout role in “Van Helsing,” with Hugh Jackman and Kate Beckinsale back in 2004, and has been working steadily ever since. The actor, who also is a dancer, co-starred in “Step Up 2: The Streets” and Lifetime’s “Petals on the Wind,” both roles showcasing his classical dancing training. Will also played Henry Stuart, Lord Darnley in the CW’s historical-fiction series “Reign,” which wrapped up its fourth and final season this summer.

Next up, he stars with my favorite kickass actress Maggie Q (have you seen her in “Designated Survivor”?) in the feature film “Slumber,” a supernatural thriller. The film centers on a sleep doctor (played by Maggie) who tries to protect a family from a demon that feeds on people in their nightmares. Catch it in theaters starting Dec. 1.

* If your razor has seen better days, try running it over a pair of jeans. The material can sharpen and realign the blades to get a little more life out of your razor.

* Use a small, lidded plastic container to store the following items in your vehicle through the cold winter months: flashlight, portable USB battery pack (charged, with charging cable for your device), blanket(s), road flares, first aid kit, ice scraper, sand or other traction-creating material, bottles of water and some snacks, a weatherproof poncho/jacket and a pair of walking shoes with socks.

* The National Sleep Foundation says that exercise can contribute to better sleep. Work out at least 4-5 hours before you expect to hit the hay, though, be-cause exercise can keep the heart rate elevated and give you energy for hours after you are done. After-noon workouts are the best, but morning sessions are great, too.

* "For a successful morning, prep breakfast and cloth-ing, and go over your to-do list the night before. Have your kids do the same. Since we started doing this, mornings are so much easier to bear, and we all get to sleep in a little longer too!" -- N.L. in Ohio

* Hand-held heat. Fill an old sock (no holes) with uncooked rice and knot at open end. Pop in the mi-crowave for no more than 2 minutes for a long-lasting heater-upper.

* "Prevent outdoor padlocks from freezing up by cov-ering the keyhole with a small piece of duct tape, and then put the whole lock in a sandwich-size baggie to seal." -- G.O. in New York
