Holiday lighting Nov. 25

The Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce's annual community tree lighting event will take place Saturday, Nov. 25 at the Village Square Train Depot at 6:45 p.m.

Santa Claus will arrive at 6:30 aboard the Elkhart Lake Fire Truck.

Live entertainment is planned. Visitors will be able to enjoy cookies, and can keep warm sippin hot cider and hot chocolate with marshmallows, while gathering around toasty warming fires, manned by the volunteers from the Elkhart Lake Fire Department. Many area restaurants will be open past the ceremony time. Be sure to call for a reservation.

Veterans Day program at schools Nov. 10

The Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah School District will hold a Veterans Day Program on Friday, Nov. 10 at 11 a.m. in the high school gymnasium. The High School Band and Chorus will perform a few selections for this event, which will also include speeches and poetry readings from high school students.

Guest speaker for the program is retired United States Air Force Major Matthew Waage.

Major Waage graduated in 1995 from the United States Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point New York with a Bachelor of Science in Logistics and Marine Transportation. Upon graduation he was commissioned as an Ensign in the United States Naval Reserve. In June 1996, he cross commissioned into the United States Air Force and joined the 128th Air Refueling Wing. After graduation from Pilot Training, Major Waage went on to graduate from SERE (survival, evasion, resistance, and escape) School and CCTS (Crew Combat Training) School where he learned to fly his combat aircraft, the KC-135 Stratotanker.

He has been deployed numerous times, Spain, Germany, Guam and the Middle East are a few of the locations. His last deployment was in 2015 flying combat missions over Afghanistan and Iraq. Major Waage retired from military service in 2016 after 21 years. The school district invites the community to attend and share in this event of honoring all who have served or are currently serving.

A new fall tradition took shape in Elkhart Lake this year, thanks to the presence of the new microbrewery. Decked out in their full lederhosen costumes, the three owners of SwitchGear Brewing, Mark Grasse, Nick Kullmann and Ryan Feldmann raised a glass in Prosit, in honor of Oktoberfest, celebrated in late September at the microbrewery's tap room. Below, the Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce added to the festivities by sending several representatives to join in a ribbon cutting ceremony schedule to coincide with the big day.

By Carol Edler Baumann

A favorite fall nut

It always amazes me that so many people are not familiar with hickory nuts—what they look like, where they grow, or how they taste.

As a child, I spent many an hour under the shade of the large, old hickory nut tree that grew in our backyard.

The hickory nut grows with an outer green shell around it, about the size of a golf ball. As the nut ripens, this outer coating shrivels and turns a dark brown or black, pulling back from the hard white nut underneath. Then, when the frost comes or a strong autumn wind shakes the branches of the tree the nuts fall naturally to the ground.

My mother introduced me to hickory nutting not just in our backyard but also in the country. We would drive along the country roads north of Plymouth until we spotted some hickory trees; then mom would stop the car and we'd check to see if any nuts had fallen and then take our paper bags and begin to gather.

However, we had a memorable encounter near Little Elkhart Lake one year. It never occurred to us that hickory nut gathering other than in our own yard was stealing. After all, the nuts were just there, ready to be picked up and if the farmer who owned the land didn't choose to pick them—well then, they were fair game. A farmer friend always told us to pick as many of the nuts as we wanted.

But one year we must have wandered further along the ridge than usual, for all of a sudden a stranger appeared at the foot of the hill (with a large dog) and asked us what we thought we were doing stealing his hickory nuts.

I never would have expected of my mother but she must have thought that he fully intended to take the nuts we had already gathered. She haughtily tossed and scattered those nuts we had already gathered and puffed, "There! If you want these nuts, you pick them yourself."

Fortunately future hickory nutting wasn't that traumatic and it always provided a pleasant outing to wander on those crisp autumn days. Yes, we were always careful to check with the farmer who owned the land to insure that we were welcome to gather his hickory nuts.

Cracking and picking out the nuts is another story. Mom wrestled with the old-fashioned nutcracker, which consisted of a jaw and lever attached to a wooden mount. The dried shells tended to shatter and fly all over. Picking out the nuts was a painstaking, time-consuming job. Both my brother and I only had patience to do this for about fifteen minutes. Mom finished up while brother Bill and I were busy studying.

I do think it is well worth the turmoil and stress because that delicious taste is worth the efforts. My mom's hickory nut cake was something no words can describe and some toasted, salted hickory nuts on a hot fudge sundae—well, it's worth stealing some nuts if you have to.

LEED Gold addition to the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed First Unitarian Society Meeting House in Madison, Wisconsin.

On Sat., Nov. 4 at the John Michael Kohler Arts Center, Floyd Hamblen will discuss how Taliesin and the School of Architecture at Taliesin carry forward the traditions of Frank Lloyd Wright.

Speakers to talk about Wright

On Saturday, Nov. 4, Wade House and the John Michael Kohler Arts Center will join together to celebrate the 150th birthday of famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright by exploring his architecture through the eyes of a Taliesin Fellow and Kubala Washatko Architect.

The first event in this joint celebration will be a presentation by Floyd Hamblen, Taliesin Fellow, Architect, and Faculty at the School of Architecture at Taliesin. On Saturday, Nov. 4 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at the ARTery at the John Michael Kohler Arts Center, Mr. Hamblen will share insight on Taliesin history and the fellowship. Pulling from a rich history, he will discuss how Taliesin and the School of Architecture at Taliesin carry forward the traditions of Frank Lloyd Wright.

Mr. Hamblen's talk will be followed by a presentation by Tom Kubala, Principal Architect and Co-Founder of The Kubala Washatko Architects, Inc. From 1 to 2:30 p.m., at the Wade House Visitor Center, Mr. Kubala will highlight the Kubala Washatko Architects' 2008 LEED Gold addition to the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed First Unitarian Society Meeting House in Madison, Wisconsin. Built in 1951, the original Meeting House has been hailed as one of the world's most innovative examples of church architecture. Kubala will describe how the firm helped the congregation maintain the integrity of Wright's original design while providing space and modern environmental technology. Mr. Kubala's presentation will be preceded by a complimentary reception featuring microbrews and light hors d'oeuvres, which will begin at 12:30 p.m.

In addition to the Nov. 4 opportunities, the John Michael Kohler Arts Center and Wade House Historic Site have ongoing activities to help guests explore architecture. In the ARTery at JMKAC from Oct. 30 through Nov. 30, guests will be able to explore local architecture through a drawing and model-making project inspired by the visiting architects and titled "Architecture in your Neighborhood." Through May 31, 2018, Wade House will display "Frank Lloyd Wright: A Wisconsin Original," a display which includes The Wright Carriage Exhibit, A Taliesin Album, and a Young Masters Workshop.

In addition to offering shared programming on Saturday, Nov. 4, the John Michael Kohler Arts Center and the Wisconsin Historical Society have collaborated to enrich the member experience of both organizations. On Saturday, Nov. 4, for one day only, members of each organization will enjoy discounts at both organization's shops and cafes. Wisconsin Historical Society (WHS) members can show their WHS membership card at the John Michael Kohler Arts Center to receive a 10 percent discount at both their ARTspace shop locations and a 10 percent discount on a soup, salad or wrap purchase at their ARTcafe. John Michael Kohler Arts Center members can show their card at Wade House to receive free admission and a 10 percent discount at the Wade House gift shop and cafe.

This joint celebration of Frank Lloyd Wright will take place at both the John Michael Kohler Arts Center located at 608 New York Ave. in Sheboygan and Wade House Visitor Center located at W7965 Hwy. 23 in Greenbush.

Admission to the joint programming on Nov. 4 is complimentary. For more information, please visit jmkac.org or wadehouse.org. You may also call the JMKAC at 920-694-4532 or Wade House at 920-526-3271 for additional details.

Distinguished alums feted at Homecoming

Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah School District presented its 1st Annual Distinguished Alumni Award at its Homecoming Game on Friday, Sept. 22. The Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah School District prides itself on being a small district that thinks big.

Both recipients, Ann Buechel Haack, Class of 1979, and Terri (Golbach) Laughlin, Class of 1984, reflect that philosophy within their lives since their graduation from EL-GHS.

Though both of the recipients graduated from EL-GHS, they took very different paths after graduation.

After college, Dr. Buechel Haack returned to the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah community and has shared her passion for education and helping others for the past 33 years.

Ms. Laughlin attended college in New York and remained on the east coast where she shared her talents and passion for art and design through various advertising agencies and as a consultant owning her own business.

She also volunteered her time and talents to help build a summer camp called "The Victory Junction Camp" for children with chronic medical conditions and serious illnesses. Both candidates are great representatives of how students can use their EL-GSD education as a foundation to follow their passions and dreams. Congratulations to Dr. Ann Buechel Haack and Ms. Terri Laughlin on earning this prestigious award.

Presenting the awards were Parker Vollbrecht, FCCLA Vice-President of Service Learning and Community Involvement and Morgan Vollbrecht, Vice-President of Public Relations for the EL-GHS FCCLA chapter. FCCLA stands for Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and is the sponsor of the Distinguished Alumni Award.

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2018 Distinguished Alumni Award and the application can be found on the EL-GSD website.

Christmas Tree effort helps many

Over the last seven years, Grace Lutheran Church, Elkhart Lake has worked together with Charlene's of Elkhart, Off the Rail, All Seasons Restaurant, the National Exchange Bank, and Vintage, to bring a little extra Christmas cheer to families who were hit hard by tough economic times.

The program is called the Christmas Gift Tree and Christmas Gift Tree Plus.

The program has enjoyed overwhelming success over these years. Hundreds of children's Christmas' were brightened through the Christmas Gift Tree and through the Christmas Gift Tree Plus programs, thousands of dollars in gift cards, were distributed to community families in need.

On Saturday, Nov. 18, Grace Lutheran will put up and/or decorate six trees. They will be located at Grace Lutheran, Charlene's, Off the Rail, All Seasons Restaurant, the National Exchange Bank, and Vintage Elkhart Lake.

The process for the community to help out with the Gift Tree is to go to one of the locations and 1) Take a children's ornament off the tree. 2) Purchase an age appropriate gift. 3) Wrap the gift. 4) Securely attach the ornament to the package. 5) Return the gift to Grace Lutheran Church or to the location the ornament was taken. This should be done by Wednesday, Dec. 20 so the contributions can be made available for pick-up.

While many families appreciate the gifts for their children, they also have other needs, such as food and gas. This is where the Christmas Gift Tree Plus program comes in.

Helping with the "Plus" program is also very simple 1) Go to any of the six locations. 2) Take a "Gift Card" ornament from the tree. 3) Purchase a $25 gift card at the business of your choice that will provide either gas or groceries as designated on the "Gift Card" ornament. 4) Securely attach the ornament to the actual gift card. 5) Return the gift card to Grace Lutheran Church, or to the location from which you took the gift card. This should be completed by Sunday, Dec. 17 or Monday, Dec. 18 so they can be distributed, prior to Christmas.

Elkhart Lake has really shown its generosity through both these programs, and stepped forward in 2016 to help a lot of families during these tough economic times.

Thank you in advance for your help and support of these programs.

Fallapalooza draws big crowds

Children's faces lit up with excitement as they found stone arrowheads made in the style used by early Native Americans at Camp Anokijig's recently held annual Fallapalooza Family Day.

What fun. The kids dug in a big sand pile looking for arrowheads that they could use for a craft project. But that was just the beginning. Fallapalooza is one day that Anokijig really struts her stuff. Families had a fantastic time with archery, kids' horse rides, boating, carnival games, crafts, fishing and fun opportunities to win a week of summer camp in 2018.

It was a beautiful day, and to top it all off, Anokijig had an all-you-can-eat brunch buffet. Good food and great fun at a welcoming and beautiful place.

Put it on your calendar for next September, and watch for the notices on Camp's website at www.anokijig.com.

ELGHS presents Rock 'n Roll musical

Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah High School Presents "Rock 'n Roll" the musical by Michael Fingerut and David Cothrell. Hilarious, romantic, action-filled romp back to days of the 50's.

Meet the Herbert Hoover High School kids; There's Corndoggie, who stands up dream girl Betsy Lou on prom night, leaving both completely miserable and alone; funny Manfred and cheerleader Darlene; and poor Duffy and Bumpers, each floundering around looking for that special someone; and Corndoggie's rival for Betsy Lou, superjock troublemaker Forrest Barrett.

Then Margie, everybody's buddy, counselor, and warden; rock stars Johnny Sapphire and the Gemtones; and the biker gang, Duh Wheels, who end up cornering Corndoggie and his pals in a chase scene that tumbles over into the audience!

The show will run Friday, Nov. 3, 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 4 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 5 2:30 p.m. in the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah High School Ronald Mauk Auditorium.

Tickets are $5 for youth/seniors and $7 for adults. You can purchase these at the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah High School Office. At the door prices are $7 for youth/seniors and $10 for adults.

On Saturdays, Nov. 4 & 11, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wade House historic site in Greenbush will be hosting Hearthside Dinners, a foodways program in which participants will have the opportunity to enjoy a delicious hearth-cooked meal, prepared with their own hands, in the historic Wade House stagecoach hotel.

Wade House hosts Hearthside Dinners

On Saturdays, Nov. 4 & 11, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wade House historic site in Greenbush will be hosting Hearthside Dinners, a foodways program in which participants will have the opportunity to enjoy a delicious hearth-cooked meal, prepared with their own hands, in the historic Wade House stagecoach hotel.

Hearthside Dinner guests will experience a link to culinary history by helping to prepare 19th-century dishes on a wood-burning stove and over an open-hearth fire just as Mrs. Wade did more than 150 years ago. A close gathering of up to 20 guests will be guided by costumed staff as they learn about historic food preparation, ingredients and historic cooking tools.

Authentic recipes from late-19th-century cookbooks will be referenced as guests chop and stir, season and roast, preparing their midday meal. When the dinner preparation chores are complete, guests receive a guided tour through the stately stagecoach hotel and learn about the respite, which it offered to weary travelers along the plank road between Sheboygan and Fond du Lac in the 1850s and 1860s.

Once dinner is prepared, participants gather family style in the lovely Wade House dining room for a wonderful sit-down meal with lively conversation. The menu will feature a delectably abundant feast of squash soup, pork loin roast, red cabbage with apples, mashed turnips, glazed carrots, cranberry muffins, bread pudding, cider cake, apple cider and coffee. This satisfying encounter with central Wisconsin's past concludes with everyone pitching in to clear the table, wash dishes (19th-century style) and sweep the hearth.

Hearthside Dinners are $55 per person, and reservations are required. If you have any questions about the program or would like to reserve your spot at the table, please call 920-526-3271. Private Hearthside Dinners for groups of 10 to 20 may also be arranged.

The Wade House historic site is one of 12 Wisconsin Historical Society historic sites and museums. For more information, please call 920-526-3271 or visit www.wadehouse.org.

Elkhart Lake Village Report

What's a First Responder you ask?

If you don't know what a First Responder is, we are glad. It means that you have been healthy and lucky. We hope to never meet you in an emergency situation! That being said, we want you to know who we are just in case. We are Emergency Medical Responders and Emergency Medical Technicians.

We are also accountants, engineers, bartenders, police officers, truck drivers and students. We are volunteers, with more than 70 years of experience between us. Together we answered more than 300 calls in Elkhart Lake and the Town of Rhine in the past couple of years.

Our role is to bridge the gap of time between calling for an ambulance and its arrival. Sometimes that is six minutes and other times that may be 15 minutes, depending on the status of the ambulance and your location. If you're bleeding or struggling to breathe, that can feel like a lifetime. We respond from wherever we are when your call comes in. Luckily our employers allow us to leave when we are needed. We show up morning, noon or night to your home, your workplace, the side of the road, a restaurant, or the golf course, and have trained to deal with everything from cuts and broken bones, car accidents, childbirth, to full cardiac arrest.

First Responders do all these things to help others, but we are helped also. We get the satisfaction of being able to do something in a situation that makes many people feel helpless. We go to sleep at night knowing we are needed. If you are looking for something different, a way to give as good as you get, consider joining our ranks. It's not easy, it's not for everyone, but it might be for you.

The Emergency Medical Responder class is offered through LTC. If you want more information or have questions any of our members would be happy to talk with you. If you know this isn't for you but still want to support our efforts, we are always accepting cash donations. You can mail your donations to the Village of Elkhart Lake, PO Box 143, Elkhart Lake, WI 53020.

Sheboygan Symphony hosts November concert

The beauty of the strings and a spotlight on the classics of Brahms and Dvořák will make the November concert memorable and enriching. Music Director, Kevin McMahon announced, "Even more interesting is the fact that composers Johannes Brahms and Antonin Dvořák were friends, and Brahms gave a hand upward to the young Dvořák. The Sheboygan Symphony Orchestra's concert will feature some of the greatest hits of these two composers, as well as a few musical works to honor Veteran's Day. In addition, to add to the excitement, there will be three pieces of music that are surprises, one of them a work by Johannes Brahms."

The concert is Saturday, Nov. 11, 2017 at 7:30 p.m. at the Stefanie H. Weill Center for the Performing Arts.

Ticket prices are $39, $35, $30 and $15 for students. Please call the Weill Center Office at (920) 208-3243. Tickets are also available in the box office two hours prior to concert.

The Interludes Pre-Concert talk begins at 6:30 p.m. It is a free event for concert ticket holders. Space is limited, and an R.S.V.P is required. For more information contact us at business@sheboygansymphony.org or call 920-452-1985.

Violinist, Chee-Yun, and Cellist, Christopher Rex, will conduct a Master Class on Friday, Nov. 10 at 4 p.m. at the John Michael Kohler Arts Center. All string musicians, teachers and students in the Sheboygan area are invited to attend. The workshop is open to the public, including both musicians and non-musicians. Observers are always welcome.

McMahon stated, "We will open with the Slavonic Dance, Op. 46 No. 1, one of the best and liveliest of the Slavonic Dances that Dvořák wrote. Next the great artistry of violinist Chee-Yun and cellist Christopher Rex, along with the SSO, will share Brahms' final work written for orchestra, the Double Concerto."

Since her first public performance at age 8 in her native Seoul, violinist Chee-Yun has enraptured audiences on five continents with her flawless technique, dazzling tone and compelling artistry. She has performed regularly with the Philadelphia Orchestra, the London Philharmonic, and the Toronto, Pittsburgh, Atlanta and National symphony orchestras. Her orchestral highlights include a concert with the Seoul Philharmonic that was broadcast on national television and her tours of the US with the San Francisco Symphony and Japan with the NHK Symphony. Chee-Yun plays the 1669 Francesco Rugeri violin, which she has owned since 1991 and currently resides in Dallas, TX where she is an Artist-in-Residence and Professor of Violin at Southern Methodist University.

Christopher Rex joined the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra as Principal Cello in 1979. He took up the cello at age eight. Following his studies at the Curtis Institute of Music and The Juilliard School, he was a member of the Philadelphia Orchestra for seven seasons. Rex's solo appearances with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra have included Shostakovich Concerto No. 1, Tchaikovsky Rococo Variations, Strauss' Don Quixote, the Victor Herbert Concerto #2, and the cello concertos of Elgar, Schumann, Dvořák, Saint-Saens, Hindemith, Prokofiev, and most recently Samuel Barber. In addition, Rex is in his 15th Season serving as artistic director of the Madison Chamber Music Festival,

McMahon added, "The program will be rounded out with Dvořák Symphony No. 9, "From the New World", a symphony that is popular and well-loved. The New World Symphony was last heard performed in concert with the Sheboygan Symphony eleven years ago."

Off the Rail pumpkin offers hurricane relief

While attending the annual Spring Garden Expo in Madison, Jim Benson became intrigued at growing a giant pumpkin. He joined the Giant Pumpkin Growers Association where he obtained the seeds.

He planted three plants on his brother-in-law, Tom Karras's farm. Without going into too many details on the perils of pumpkin growing, Benson had a lot of fun doing it. "It is something you do just for the joy of it," he said. "The best part of growing one is sharing it with others, family and friends."

Jim says he has such thankfulness to Steve Sutcliffe and G.J. Twohig who helped move the pumpkin and hauling it to the gravel pit for helping weigh it. He is also grateful for Daniel and Kelly Sadiq who offered to display the pumpkin at Off the Rail.

They are holding a "guess the weight raffle" for $2.00 a guess, with 50% of the proceeds designated to help with hurricane relief in Puerto Rico.

The deadline to make an entry is November 6. Off The Rail is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 7 a.m.-3 p.m., and Sunday from 8 a.m.-2 p.m. Off the Rail is closed on Wednesdays.
