SOCIAL MEDIA

hat does this mean for you.

The buyers today search the internet for homes, they are on social media and know how to find what they are looking for. Today's buyers use their smart phones for everything and know how to search exactly what they are looking for no matter what it is. Technology is the key to doing business in today's world.

A lot of buyers search homes online for many months before actually emailing an agent and letting their guard down. Is your home on the social media platforms, all of them? Is your agent giving you the exposure you need to get the buyer to click on the detailed view because your home fits their needs.

If you have any questions on social media and todays buyers, please shoot me a text, email or call, I will explain the strategy I think works
