4-Year Grant to NW Shoals

MUSCLE SHOALS. -- Northwest-Shoals Community College recently received a Child Care Access Means Parents in School (CCAMPIS) grant of $70,168 each year for four years. The grant is funded by the U.S. Department of Education.

The CCAMPIS program supports the participation of low-income parents in postsecondary education through the provision of campus-based child care services. The goal of the program is to increase access to affordable childcare for low-income students, provide academic support and enrichment opportunities through the NW-SCC Child Development Program located on the Shoals campus.

CCAMPIS eligibility includes students who qualify for the federal Pell Grant, are the parent of one or more children, and currently attend NW-SCC. However, eligibility is not a guarantee.

NW-SCC was the only college in Alabama awarded this 100% federal funding through the U.S. Department of Education in 2017.

Students interested in applying for the CCAMPIS program can contact Jacque Jefferys at 256-331-5245 or email jjefferys@nwscc.edu.

Heffernan

Mrs. Heffernan currently resides in Muscle Shoals. She was born in Village 3 beside Wilson Dam and grew up there. She attended the TVA years before moving to Florence in 2013. Dr. Stubblefield serves on the active staff of Eliza Coffee Medical Center. He is a member of the Medical Association of the State of Alabama and the Lauderdale County Medical Society.

He has held several leadership roles in the AAP and was also the medical director for the Care Network of East Alabama, Inc., an Alabama Medicaid regional care coordination pilot network.

In addition, he has been a tireless advocate for children by writing op-ed pieces, testifying in person for the Senate Democratic Caucus, and conducting media interviews on child health coverage. He accepted the president's gavel at the AL-AAP's 2017 Annual Meeting in Birmingham on September 30, marking the beginning of his two-year term.

"With the help of our strong and diverse Executive Board members from across the state, I plan to build on the Chapter's long-time role in advocating for adequate child health coverage and improved health conditions for Alabama's children," he said.

At home, Stubblefield spends time with his family, wife Jennifer and 15-year-old daughter, Peyton.

veterns information on VA programs, healthcare benefits, claims, counseling, social security, Medicaid, legal services, and more.

"There are many agencies that provide benefits and services to veterans. This is a great opportunity for veterans to learn about all of them in one day," said Clyde Marsh, ADVA Commissioner. "We have assisted thousands of veterans and their families in securing their earned benefits since we began this program."

"The SVB is much-needed as a source of outreach to our community.

We currently have approximately 12,000 veterans, not including dependents, in the Lauderdale/Colbert county area," said Tim Edgill, ADVA District I manager. "This event is a way of showing our support to those who served their country."

For more information about the SVB event, you may contact the Lauderdale County Veterans Service Office at 256-760-5845 or the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs at 334-242-5084.

Job Fair for Area Veterans

MONTGOMERY—Alabama veterans will have the opportunity to shop for benefits and services at the "Supermarket of Veterans Benefits" (SVB) fair planned for Tuesday, November 14 from 9am-1pm at the Florence Coliseum at 702 Veterans Drive in Florence.

The Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs (ADVA) is hosting the SVB fair as part of a statewide outreach campaign to help veterans and their families obtain information on state, federal, and nongovernmental services that are designed specifically for them. The SVB allows ADVA to set up shop in a community center of influence where veterans live, shop and work. The event is free.

The ADVA is partnering with other agencies for a one-stop-shop opportunity for current and former members of the Armed Forces. State and federal VA officials and other service organizations will be on hand to provide

Ruminators at St. John's

TUSCUMBIA-Three members of the popular Shoals musical group, The Wildwood Ruminators, will play a special benefit concert on Thursday, November 9 at 7pm at historic St. John's Episcopal Church at 300 North Dickson Street in Tusculmbia. St. John's was selected as the venue by band member Eddie Martin. It offers a beautiful setting with excellent acoustics for a performance by the Wildwood Trio, made up of Martin, Tony Lee, and Malcolm Singleton. The concert will feature original and folk-inspired tunes. Admission is a $5 donation, payable at the door. Additional voluntary donations will be accepted for church care.

In selecting the site, Martin credited the attention brought to St. John's Church during a Community Asset Mapping event led by the Muscle Shoals National Heritage Area and Philadelphia based Partners for Sacred Places. This is the second St. John's benefit concert performed by the Trio.

In describing the first Wildwood Trio concert, one concert-goer said, "The church resonates with the sound of the instruments and the voices. It was a moving experience and one that I want to repeat!"

St. John's is Alabama's earliest Carpenter's Gothic style church (1852) and is the oldest Episcopal Church in Northwest Alabama. Original stained-glass windows and original pews and other furnishings grace the interior.

and the distance the cars must travel one hour before the competition. The students must then quickly calculate the appropriate chemical reaction.

UNA's team is housed in the Engineering Technology program. They placed third overall with a car powered by electricity, making it environmentally friendly.

According to Dr. Peter Rim, UNA's director and department chair for Engineering Technology, the third-place finish is another impressive victory for the team which is in their first year of participating in the Chem-E-Car Competition.

"We knew, due to extensive practice sessions, the team was prepared to do well," Rim said. "However, to maintain the poise and success the team demonstrated when matched against leading engineering schools like Cornell, Nebraska, Texas A&M, Maryland, Virginia Tech, and Georgia Tech, was remarkable."

Institut Teknologi Sepuluh Nopember was sponsored by Chevron. They took home the $2,000 first prize with a pressurized car that used oxygen and was created as the result of a decomposition reaction of hydrogen peroxide and ferric chloride.

The University of California, Irvine, took home second place. They used a fuel source that consisted of hydrogen gas produced using solid magnesium and hydrochloric acid which was then fed into a 20-watt hydrogen fuel cell to power the car.

There were several international teams representing Greece, Hong Kong, India, China, South Korea, Indonesia, Taiwan, Saudi Arabia and Colombia.

family in 1940. She graduated from Sheffield High School in 1942 and worked for a couple of years. Lucille Prince, a Sheffield girl serving in the WAVES, persuaded her to volunteer in 1944. Hughes enlisted in September 1944, but was not ordered to report until November 1944.

She received medical training at Bethesda, Maryland after boot camp. Then she was assigned to duty at the Naval Hospital in Key West, FL and later at the Naval Dispensary in Miami Beach as a practical nurse.

Mrs. Hughes married an old boyfriend, George Hughes after her discharge in 1946. He was a veteran, too, having served in the Army Air Force, and they became the parents of two daughters. She worked for Dr. Loren Gary in his office and assisted him with patients.

She is a member of American Legion Post #31. In 2009 she and her brother Billy Trimble enjoyed an Honor Flight of WWII vets to Washington, DC. After living most of her life in Sheffield, Mrs. Hughes now resides with a daughter in Muscle Shoals.

Parade entries will line up on the Commons near Deshler High School and proceed along Main Street. Line up time is 10:30am. A program with a guest speaker will be held on the Courthouse lawn shortly after the parade. Following the program, Post #31 will hold Open House with free refreshments at the Legion Hall at 110 North Main Street, Tuscumbia. A stair lift is available to those unable to climb steps. # Ask Dr. Webb

Why are so many people afraid of morphine? What are its real benefits as well as its risks?

Dr. Robert Webb

One of the greatest fears patients with life-limiting diseases (such as cancers, heart failure, lung failure) have is 'smothering' to death or dying in pain. Morphine enables people to live more comfortably, and actually live longer, and therefore has become the 'gold standard' treatment for pain and dyspnea [shortness of breath]!

Because all opioids/ narcotics [pain-killing drugs developed from opium or morphine] cause some sedation or sleepiness ('narcosis' means to be sedated), many folks believe that the drug will cause you to die sooner. While sometimes sedation at the end of life is unfortunately necessary to ensure a comfortable death, prior to that point our goal is to relieve pain or dyspnea without causing the sedation.

Since each of us reacts differently to any medicine, achieving that goal is often not easy and may require a 'trial and error' approach regarding dosages. And, because someone with pain usually can't rest well, when finally their pain improves, they naturally sleep more until they are 'caught up!' Once that passes, the sedation is less; and the dose needs to be adjusted to reach that fine line between 'controlling pain' and 'too sedated'.

The most important issue is what's the patient's goal: 'be comfortable even if sleepy'; or, 'be more awake though in pain'? Most patients tell me they would rather be drowsy and pain-free! So, families must guard against imposing their own goal [keeping the patient 'bright-eyed and alert'] on the patient.

No one wants to watch a loved one suffer. Starting morphine at a small dose, given regularly, three times a day, along with extra doses if needed will usually work; then, it should be adjusted up or down depending on response.

A special kind of caring

ASK THE ATTORNEY CAR WRECKS

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

As most of you know, I primarily handle car wreck cases. We only handle accidents with injury and we do see a lot of them. Most of them that we see have common issues. A type of wreck that we see with more frequency than we should are courtesy wrecks. A courtesy wreck occurs when one motorist allows another motorist through a line of traffic as a courtesy and a wreck occurs as a result. Sometimes these wrecks occur when another motorist signals by hand gesture that the roadway is clear. The courts of our State have held that a motorist's hand signal to another motorist to proceed does not absolve the signaled motorist of their duty under Alabama law to ensure that it is safe to travel across an intersection and to yield to oncoming traffic.

Secondly, we see rear-end collisions. Everybody knows or thinks that they know that if a driver hits someone from the rear, it is automatically their fault. I don't think that is true. I think there are circumstances where someone who makes a very abrupt stop unexpectedly could cause an accident. The person who got hit would not have caused it but they may have contributed to it and in Alabama that is enough to lose. Nonetheless, the law is the driver of a vehicle shall leave a distance of at least 20 feet for each 10 miles per hour of speed between the vehicle that he is driving and the vehicle they are following. The interesting point about this particular rule is that if it is broken and a collision results, the law finds negligence as a matter of law. I want each of you to do me a favor and please leave enough distance between the front of your car and the rear of the car in front of you to see the rear tires of the car in front of you. We see people all the time who get hit from the rear and then are slammed into the car in front of them. This secondary blow often causes significant injury.

Third, we see yield sign wrecks where drivers are in a lane that is controlled by a yield sign. The driver's attention is divided between the car in front of them and the traffic they are merging in to. Very frequently the car in front starts to go and then stops. The driver behind them thinks they have gone and it looks clear to merge and they drive right into the back of the car in front of them. This happens all the time where Savannah Highway merges into Mitchell Blvd. to cross O'Neal Bridge. I have had at least half a dozen cases from that one intersection.

Personal injury attorneys are here to make people responsible for the harm they cause and to prevent harm in the future.

Buckle up, drive safely and as always your referrals are appreciated! 256-764-0112

They Are Leading Us Into Division

A heated gubernatorial race in Virginia was set for November 7 that could be an indicator of what awaits in the midterm elections next year.

The battle between current far left Democrat lieutenant governor, Ralph Northam, and a former Republican National Committee chairman and establishment candidate, Ed Gillespie was a close race a week before election day.

The week before that a reprehensible made for TV/video campaign ad sponsored by the Latino Victory Fund began airing.

At press time it was available at www.youtube.com/watch?v=wVckRJvuBQY

The ad was an in-kind donation, the classification of which is important because it indicates that the ad was coordinated with the Northam campaign which had to approve its content. Otherwise, it would be labeled an independent expenditure under Virginia law.

The ad depicts a middle-aged lone white male with dark sunglasses in an elevated, loud, older model pickup truck with large tires, a prominent Confederate flag, a clearly placed Ed Gillespie campaign sticker on his tailgate, and a Don't Tread On Me license plate. The truck is shown several times from numerous angles aggressively chasing Asian, black, Hispanic, and Muslim kids through a quiet

TIME TO PACK THAT ShoeBox

SHOALS—Hundreds of northwest Alabama residents are on a mission to make a lasting impact on children in need. They are looking beyond their own wish lists and packing shoeboxes for boys and girls around the world. For many of the children, it will be the first gift they have ever received.

Several locations will serve as drop-off sites for the Samaritan's Purse project, Operation Christmas Child - joining nearly 5,000 U.S. locations collecting gift-filled shoeboxes for children in need around the world.

Nov. 13-20 This week our community is focused on making a difference in the lives of children facing difficult circumstances," said Florence/Lauderdale County volunteer Oscar Beck. "There is no joy quite like that of giving. It is an honor to use our resources to let children around the world know they are loved and not forgotten."

During the project's National Collection Week, November 13-20, local residents will transform empty shoeboxes into gifts of hope filled with school supplies, hygiene items, and fun toys. Operation Christmas Child will deliver these shoebox gifts to children affected by war, disease,

All The Wackadoos

Editor:

Politics is a three-ring circus of wackadoos. In the first ring are Democrats. In the second ring are Republicans. The third ring is the ABC TV show, The View with wackadoo ring leaders Whoopi Goldberg and Joy Behar.

Oops...there's a fourth ring of political wackadoos...the Mainstream news medias... not just because they give fake news but also because they exaggerate one sided, biased, dishonest news and hateful, spiteful anti-Trump news coverage to the American people.

Paul Sabatino

It's a Flawed Argument

Dear Sir:

The tragedy in Las Vegas has energized Democrats and some Republicans to call for gun control as a means to prevent further incidents. The only way that politicians can think of to address a problem is too throw taxpayer money at it or pass a law. There is no way to prevent the actions of a mad man who exhibits no symptoms. There have been many opinions expressed about the motive behind the actions of the killer, especially claims by ISIS that he was a soldier of their movement.

There is no evidence of that to date and it is possible that they have simply taken a page from the Democrat playbook stating, "Let no crisis go to waste." That is the motivation behind the rush to blame guns for the tragedy. He used so-called bump stocks to mimic full automatic fire and there is a violent opposition to that gun accessory as a cause of the carnage.

Nothing could be further from the truth as rapid fire caused the weapons to overheat and jam. The size of the crowd and their helpless condition was the cause of the excess loss of life, not the number of rounds fired. There has also been public opinion expressed noting that he could not have acted alone and was not physically able to do so.

That is a flawed argument because excitement often gives rise to almost superman powers and the stockpiling of weapons and ammo took place over the course of four days. The conclusion that this was simply an act of unspeakable evil is inescapable and unpreventable.

Ceremony...

2:30pm. Pre-ceremony music by a brass quintet from the U.S. Army begins at 2pm.

Oakwood Cemetery is located at 3523 N. Jackson Hwy in Sheffield across from Muscle Shoals Sound Studio and Museum.

According to Joel Mize, an organizer of the ceremony, the event will honor all of those who fight for freedom, past, present and future. It also will bring awareness to the local American Revolution veterans and recognize the sacrifices of civilian workers in the Shoals who helped with the construction of Wilson Dam and nearby munitions plants during World War I. A monument honoring the defense workers buried at Oakwood will be unveiled on Memorial Day 2018.

Keynote speaker for the ceremony is Sue Bell Cobb, a retired Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court. Other speakers include representatives of the Sons of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution, American Legion Post 31 of Tuscumbia, Colbert County Historical Landmarks Foundation, Natchez Trace Genealogical Society, Preservation Heritage Inc., Franklin County Archives and local elected officials. Post ceremony music by the Army brass quintet will follow.

Medicare Minute

"Medicare Advantage Plans Part 2"

A Medicare Advantage Plan (MA) is a type of Medicare health plan offered by a private insurance company that contracts with Medicare to provide you with all your Part A and Part B benefits. If you're enrolled in a Medicare Advantage Plan, most Medicare services are covered through the plan and aren't paid for under Original Medicare. Most Medicare Advantage Plans offer prescription drug coverage. There are six things you will want to consider if looking at a Medicare Advantage Plan. They include the premium, copays, coinsurance, deductibles, providers that take the plan and the drug formulary of the plan. This week we will look at the premium, copays and coinsurance.

The premium of MA plans can vary depending on the type of plan you have and the company offering the plan. Although the premium of the plan should be a part of your decision it shouldn't be the only consideration. For some the MA plan with the lowest premium may fit your needs perfectly but for others it could actually cost you more in the long run if the other five considerations don't match up for you. Also, if you are currently in a MA plan and it is working for you, switching plans solely because of the premium may not be in your best interest.

Copays and coinsurance are also two factors to consider when looking at MA plans. A copay is a set amount you will pay when you receive a service. An example of a copay would be the set amount you pay to your primary care doctor when you see him or her. Coinsurance is a percentage you pay if you receive a specific service. An example of coinsurance would be the percentage you pay for durable medical equipment.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-648-5710), stop by our office at 885 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com. Alabama Health Guidance is an independent insurance agency and is not affiliated with Medicare or any other government agency.

AMERICAN GENIUSES!

In this puzzle grid there is room for the names of eight famous American inventors. Below are hints to get you started. There is a dark frame around one of the columns in the grid. If you correctly name all of the inventors, the letters in the frame, top to bottom, will spell out the name of the man who made radio possible.

1. He had over 1,000 patents.
2. He perfected the sewing machine.
3. Made sailing in calm weather easy.
4. Made a wheat harvesting machine.
5. Invented bifocal eyeglasses.
6. Made a machine for sending messages.
7. Had his ups and downs.
8. Invented a machine to clean cotton.

Landon Rich began complaining about a severe headache on May 18, 2017 and after being taken to the local emergency room, was airlifted to Children's Hospital in Birmingham. He was diagnosed with a brain bleed caused from an Arteriovenous Malformation (AVM). The brain hemorrhage was in the area that controls speech, movement, and vision. Landon has since had surgery to repair the AVM. He is continuing to improve with weekly therapy and has recently returned to school.

Hunter Smith was involved in a knocker ball incident and suffered a traumatic brain injury on April 17, 2017. He was airlifted to Children's Hospital in Birmingham after having multiple strokes and seizures. Hunter has undergone several surgeries to relieve pressure and spent two months in rehab at Children's. He is relearning how to talk and walk and has come a long way.

The event is also held in honor of Rivers Starkey who lost an extensive fight to recover from a traumatic brain injury he suffered in October of 2015.

These families have and will continue to incur mounting medical expenses to help their children recover to their full potential. Friends and family members have come together to organize this financial burden and to support Landon and Hunter. Community support is appreciated and anyone wishing to assist can register for the event, make donations, or purchase t-shirts. For more information, call 256-740-4141, visit the Facebook page at Run for a Reason, or email Runforareason16@gmail.com modest neighborhood into a more urban area, finally running them down in the back of an alley.

Commentary

Division...

The ad portrays Gillespie and everyone in favor of controlled, legal immigration as violent, hate-filled, white Confederate-loving redneck racists, out to kill anyone who doesn't look like them. As the spot draws to a close, we hear, "Is this what Donald Trump and Ed Gillespie mean by the American Dream?"

The irony is that Gillespie is left of center on immigration issues. So he is actually among those opposing walls, voter I.D. laws, etc.

The ad was finally pulled last week only after a Muslim terrorist actually committed a similar act with a rented pick-up in lower Manhattan on Tuesday. The 29 year old purposely drove down a bike path in New York City, killing eight people and wounding twelve.

The ad creators seemingly ignored the June event in Virginia where an illegal alien chased down Muslim teens in his car eventually murdering one with a baseball bat. Because the driver was illegal, the media grossly under-reported that event.

As a means of comparison, let's say the following TV ad ran for a conservative republican candidate:

A black teen male and a Hispanic male are riding through suburbia in a pimped-out older model Chrysler complete with with spinners and gold bling interior, HipHop blaring. The car pulls into a convenience store parking lot and the two pull hoods over their heads, jump out of the car, and run inside with a gun in one hand and their sagging pants held up with the other. They enter the store, and one yells at the white cashier, "Open the drawer, cracker," before knocking him in the head with the gun butt and grabbing the cash. The other screams "Shut-up!," briefly brandishing his gun horizontally as he makes his way past two screaming white women and packs several cartons of cigarettes under one arm. As he runs past the cowering, sobbing women on the way out he shoots one while yelling, "Shut-up b - - ch!"

The final scene shows the car speeding away hip-hop still blaring as the commentator says, "Is this what Obama meant when he said, 'Change is coming to America?'"

That ad wouldn't last an hour on TV... And rightfully so. That scene would play out only in highly-exceptional circumstances. It's doubtful any republican could survive running such an ad because it is not a fair portrayal of average black people in America.

What makes it ANY different from the white truck driver commercial approved by the Northram campaign? It too is not an accurate portrayal of whites.

Of greatest concern is why we as a society tolerate such outlandish stereotypes that serve only to exacerbate already contentious race relations? It's obvious that there is a well-funded, self-serving, long-term objective by a few to destroy us from the inside with artificially-created animosity.

It would be nice to corner THAT group in a back alley.

BANK CHECK

After being charged for the wrong amount through my bank, I now keep all my receipts for purchases, dinners, bills, etc. until I get my next bank statement. I then check off the amount on my statement while checking off my checkbook register.

I found one month that I was charged twice for the same debit. When I called my bank, they said that they use a third party to post transactions and they ran the debit through twice. They immediately credited my account and let the third party know. This would have cost me at least $40 and could have overdrawn my account. I mark a slash through the receipts as I log them into my checkbook register. This way, I am sure to account for all the spending that I do. I always know to the penny

It feels good to know that with a few minutes, I can protect myself in today's busy world. I now have my daughters doing the same so they can protect their money.

COLD CONVENIENCE

When I wanted a 20-ounce bottle of soda, which cost $1.39 in the cooler section of the checkout line, I couldn't help wondering how much the room temperature cans were. I found that a 12 pack of 12-ounce cans of the exact same soda was on sale for $3. This meant I could have more soda (2 cans) for much less than half the price if I was willing to put them in my fridge and cool them myself!

THE COST OF TRASH

With the high fuel costs and the dump fees rising, our quarterly trash bill was $65 and rising. I discovered that our local waste removal office offered special trash bags for $2 each, which would allow us to dump at their location for the cost of the bag. We have automatic recycling in our county, which we weren't utilizing. We began diligently recycling according to our county's requirements, and with all that trash out of the way, we only have one bag of non-recyclable trash. I drive by the waste removal office at least once a week so I just drop off the bag. No extra gas money has to be used and our trash bill is now $2 per week, which is a great savings on a tight budget.

CUTTING MEAT BUDGET

I have started buying the ground chuck because it's so much cheaper. I then divide it into half pound portions and freeze them. By using half the amount of meat in every dish I cook and increasing either the grains or veggies, my recipes taste just as good and I spend less per serving.

Melissa B.

SAVE ON CHRISTMAS WRAPPING

At Christmas, the more time and money I can save, the better! This one saves both. Several years ago, I made fabric Christmas bags for my immediate family. These are made in the shape and approximate size of pillowcases out of a yard of Christmas fabric. Right now, in south AL, I can get Christmas fabric for $2.50/yard. I add a ribbon around the "hem" of the bags and a pleat at the bottom (optional) and they're done. I rotate the bags every year. They are made from different fabrics, so no one knows which bag is "theirs" until we are ready to open them. This greatly eliminates peeking and poking. I made these when I became disgusted with buying wrapping paper, bows, tags, boxes, etc. year after year, only to throw it all away! If you are sewing-challenged, you could simply buy pillowcases in Christmas colors and add a ribbon! Voila!

STAIN REMOVAL

Try cooking spray to take paint and marker stains off of hard surfaces. Spray on the spot directly and wipe off in a circular motion. Stains come right off.

AN ORGANIZED CHARGER STATION

I have a lot of little electronic devices, and each one has its charger. I use a dorm shower caddy with lots of pockets to store all those little transformers and keep them all in one place. I use Velcro cord keepers on the chords. I label each transformer, so I know which gadget it belongs to. The large center pocket holds a zipper pouch with spare ear buds and other small bits and pieces.

Cost-Of-Living Adjustment Is Coming for Social Security Recipients

B. Grant McNutt
Managing Attorney

The Social Security Administration (SSA) recently announced that it would be passing along a roughly two percent Cost-Of-Living Adjustment (COLA) to about 60 plus million Social Security recipients next year. While two percent may seem a bit modest, it is fortunately the largest such increase in benefits over the last five years. I guess you could say it is better than nothing, which was exactly what the COLA was in 2009, 2010 and 2015. The 2018 figure will be the largest increase since 2011's 3.6% and 2008's 5.8% respectively.

Since 2010 (including 2018's number), the COLA has averaged about 1.2 percent a year. For what it's worth, the preceding decade (2000-2009) averaged about 3.0 percent, slightly less than 1990-1999's 3.1 percent.

The SSA computes its COLA based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) Consumer Price Index (CPI) found at www.bls.gov from the third quarter of 2016 through the third quarter of 2017. The CPI is a measure by the BLS of the monthly changes in the prices paid by consumers on every day products such as food, clothing, furniture and a range of other everyday services.

So what does this new increase amount to in practical terms? Broadly speaking, the average benefit paid to all retired workers will increase from $1,377 to $1,404, or by $27. The average benefit paid to all disabled workers will increase from $1,173 to $1,197, or by $24. Again, these are average figures; there will be some categories of recipients who will gain a little more or a little less than these numbers.

There is a possibility that Medicare premiums will be increased in conjunction with the COLA increase. If that unfortunately happens, that would effectively negate the gain. Hopefully, it will not though as that has not been announced yet.

If you or a loved one have been denied SSA disability benefits or suffer from a severe impairment that is expected to last more than twelve months and that prevents you from doing any of your work (past or present) or is causing developmental delay in your child, please don't hesitate to contact us for a free legal review on the matter.

Often disability and financial concerns go hand in hand. If you aren't happy with your finances or if you realize that your bills are getting to be more than you can handle, please call us with questions regarding Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, stopping a foreclosure or wage garnishment, avoiding liens, stopping law suits, discharging debt, etc. We can help you!

Descent Inspiration

There is so much happy stuff going on in this picture!

You see, several months ago, my daughter, Lora, read to our two-year old granddaughter, Ruby, the book, "Talkin' About Bessie: The Story of Aviator Elizabeth Coleman", a Coretta Scott King Author Honor Book. Bessie Coleman was the first woman of African-American descent (mother) and Native American descent (father) to achieve a pilot license and an international pilot license in 1921. Well, immediately, Ruby wanted to be a pilot. Ruby stepped on this planet ready to be something - ready to learn! (Six months ago she was ready to be a doctor, because she loved the animated character, Doc McStuffins.)

Well, after reading the book, Ruby's parents created an "airplane" for her. You know, it was a box with the side flaps down and a paper plate bracketed on for the steering. She wore some big clown glasses and any hat in her room as she pretended to "Varoom!" all over the world. But then Ruby got serious. She wanted to be Bessie Coleman. She wanted to be a pilot and dress like one. So it was decided that she would be Bessie for Halloween. Over several weeks her mom and I looked diligently for the pieces of her pilot uniform. Lora found the hat, jacket and goggles at a couple of thrift stores, but I paid $35 for those boots! Meanwhile Lora decided that she would be Katherine Johnson from Hidden Figures and that Solomon, our son-in-law, would be Hank Aaron. I told them that they had the wrong month, that February was Black History Month. But,

on Halloween, they turned out perfect!

It's just the way they roll! Educating people all the time. Ruby took the book with her to trick-or-treat. What a treat! I can just hear her with her two-year old self telling everybody door-to-door that she was Bessie Coleman and who that was. She's been telling me for months. And I won't be surprised if she follows Bessie's footsteps in some way, because people often decide from early experiences who or what they are going to be. That is why this picture makes me so happy - my daughter inspires Ruby. She teaches her all the time. She follows her interests. She supports her ideas. Lora treats Ruby as a capable person. My goodness, Ruby roasted her own marshmallow on a stick over a fire pit, with her goggles down, on Halloween night! (Lord, help'em!) But there's no stopping this child because of her parents' interest, love and care. Don't you love it when you see excited parenting!

Look at the happiness on that face! Happiness preludes confidence. And confidence is the basis of a good life. She's blessed.

ENTERTAINING FOR LESS
We love to go out with friends, but meeting at a restaurant for dinner can be pricey. We now suggest other activities. We go to museums when they have a free admission day, watch school or little league baseball games, and share cheese, crackers, and a bottle of wine in the country. We keep finding more ideas and our friends love it!

AN "ESSENTIALS" BASKET

Most of us have a friend that is struggling financially. If you want to help them without causing embarrassment, give them a "household" basket. Tell them it's just a gift from a friend. Include items that you know that they can use like liquid soap, detergent, and other cleaning supplies. By filling some of those needs, you'll free up some money for other things that they need like food and utilities.

TIRED OF EXPENSIVE RAZOR BLADES?

Want to make your razor blades (and disposable razors) last longer? Dry them off! Blot them with a towel. Like most any other metal, when exposed to moisture and air, razor blades begin to rust. This is a microscopic sized rust that forms on the edge of the blade, making it duller. You can't see it with your eyes, but you can feel it with your chin! Also, for a closer shave, wait until after your shower or bath when your beard is already softened.

Ernie

FIX IT!

Before you call a handyman, check out YouTube and the web for answers. There are so many videos where you can see exactly what skills and tools are needed to fix many household problems. I always check to see if it's a DIY job. For instance, I just replaced the heating element in my water heater. It didn't take any fancy tools or skills. I just needed to see a video that walked me through the process.

A WINTER EMERGENCY KIT

Each winter, I make up an emergency kit for each family member to keep in our cars. We live in the country, and it's always possible that we could have a car breakdown or get caught in a whiteout. Mostly, I use old worn out clothing and blankets. Lost a mitten? The survivor goes into the kit. There's no reason they have to match. Blanket getting frayed around the edges? So what? The purpose isn't to impress anyone. It's to keep warm until help arrives. I also put in some granola bars to snack on and one of those recharger sticks for my phone. That way, if I can get a signal, I don't have to worry about running out of battery when I want to call for help. I hope that we don't need it this winter, but it's better to be prepared!

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

TOUCHING THEIR HEARTS

Dear Dave,
What are some ways to teach pre-teens the value of giving versus getting during the holiday season?
Phil

Dear Phil,
As a parent, one of the best things you can do is be a living, breathing example of the importance of giving and caring about others. There's nothing wrong with having some stuff, but many of today's marketing messages can lead kids to believe it's all about them. And the sad truth is advertising firms are often more aggressive with their teaching than parents are in theirs.

I would encourage you to find giving experiences in which you can participate as a family. Volunteering for a day at a homeless shelter is a wonderful example of giving that requires absolutely no money. Or maybe you could pull out your wallet, and spend the day shopping for groceries and Christmas gifts for families who are financially less fortunate.

Make sure your kids are involved physically, mentally, and emotionally in the entire giving process. Let them experience the grateful, and sometimes ungrateful, responses that go along with giving. With a little thought and planning, you can create some incredible teaching and family bonding experiences that will change everyone's lives forever!

TRUST IS TRUST

Dear Dave,
I have a medical condition, and I finally got an appointment with a specialist I'd like to see. The office requires credit card, debit card, or bank account information be kept on file. Having this kind of information out there with them makes me uncomfortable, but I really want to see this doctor. What should I do?
Chelsey

Dear Chelsey,
If you're uncomfortable with this practice having your financial information, then you should also be uncomfortable with any medical opinions they would render. If you don't feel they're trustworthy enough to professionally handle something like a debit card or bank account number, then they're not trustworthy enough to treat you — period.

I hope that wasn't unclear.

The Left-Handed Prayer

"Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of his disciples said to Him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples'" (Luke 11:1). Praying rarely comes easy to anyone. Throughout my ministry questions like: "How do I pray?" "How often should I pray?" "For what should I pray?" have been common questions from numerous Christians.

The Bible lays out some guidelines to prayer, such as: they are to be addressed to the Father (Luke 11:2); they are to be "in the name of Jesus" (Ephesians 5:20), etc. But the basic definition of prayer is simply talking to God. The effectiveness of prayer is not determined by how much "flowery" language is used and certainly not by its length (cf. Matthew 6:7, 8). Rather, the Lord gauges prayer based on the condition of the heart. One of the most powerful prayers of the New Testament came from the humble heart of a tax collector who prayed, "God, be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13).

So, there is no hard and set way that any given prayer is to be offered. But if you struggle with what to pray about, let me pass along a little story I heard many years ago that offers one possibility. A young Christian asked an older Christian about some things he should pray for.

The older Christian answered, "When you pray, hold up your left hand." Then he went on to explain, "Your thumb is the closest to your body, so let that remind you to pray for those that are close to you. Your parents, your children, your friends all need your prayers for various things in their lives."

"Next on your hand is the index finger, which is often used for pointing. Let that remind you to pray for those that instruct you. Regardless of where you are in life, there will always be a need to learn from others."

"The middle finger is the tallest on your hand which should remind you to pray for those in high places. The Bible teaches that we are to pray for 'kings and all who are in authority' (1 Timothy 2:1, 2)."

"The next finger is the 'ring finger' which scientists inform is the weakest on the hand. Therefore, we should remember to pray for those who are weak and struggling."

"Finally, we come to the little finger which reminds us to pray for ourselves. And that really needs no explanation."

Maybe this left-handed prayer will help get you on the right track in your prayer life!

News & Tips on the Shoals Market

Are you ready for Jack Frost?

One challenge that we face every year at this time is making sure that all of our vacant listings are properly winterized. An empty home with a busted pipe can be a disaster.

We recommend that a certified plumber go out to the home and make sure all of the water is turned off and that all plumbing is properly drained and ready for winter. We also recommend that the heat be set at a temperature that would at least keep the home warm in really cold weather, usually anywhere from 60-68 degrees.

It's not just the vacant homes though, winterization is something for everyone to think about. Any homeowner should make sure their home is properly bundled up for Winter.

Start with the heating system:
Heating System Checklist

- Test Run:
Turn the thermostat to heat mode and set it to 80 degrees just for testing. You should hear the furnace turn on and warm air should blow within a few minutes. If it's running OK, turn the thermostat back to its normal setting

- Seasonal Maintenance:
Call a certified professional to do routine maintenance on your unit and check everything out.

- Replace the Air Filter
- Fuel:
If you have a propane or oil furnace, make sure to have your fuel storage tank topped off and ready to go.

- Heating Vents:
Clear obstacles to heating vents so air can freely flow.

- Check for Carbon Monoxide Leaks:
This silent killer can easily be detected with either an inexpensive test badge or battery operated alarm.

- Chimney and Fireplace
Check that the chimney is clear of any nests from birds, squirrels or other animals.

- Check flue damper operation. Make sure it opens and closes fully, and that it is able to be locked in the open or closed position.

Plumbing
• Insulate Exposed Piping
• Cover Exterior Faucets
Doors and Windows
Be Sure your doors and windows are properly caulked and sealed to prevent any unwanted air flowing. You don't want to heat the neighborhood.

Gutters and Downspouts
Check for and clear any debris.
This is just a very quick and simple checklist to get you started on making sure your home is winter ready. As with anything, if you are unsure about how to handle a situation, call a licensed and certified professional. Good luck! -mr

No Environment for Depression

Editor:

President Trump's decision to ban transgenders in the US Armed Forces is almost certain to be an issue for the next National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). General Mattis delayed implementing this policy until a study that was already underway is completed.

No doubt the LGBTQ activists are planning to use this funding bill to force the president to back down on this ban. All it will take is for the three key Rhinos, John McCain, Susan Collins, and Lisa Murkowski to threaten to vote against the bill to kill the ban.

Any respect that we military professionals have for McCain's performance as a POW is overshadowed by his willingness to help destroy the effectiveness of our military.

Colonel Phillip Wright, (USA Ret.) Executive Director of Chaplain alliance for Religious Liberty, lists the findings of past studies:

- Transgenders experience depression at nine times the normal rate. A whopping 4 in 10 transgenders attempt suicide in the lives. Anyone who served in the military, including being away from family for long periods of time and watching fellow soldiers killed and injured, understands the LAST thing you should do with someone who is prone to depression his hand them a firearm and stick them in that this environment.

- Estimates are that taxpayers could be forced to cough up $3.7 BILLION for military "sex change" series surgeries. These surgeries can cost up to $110,000 and can take years to heal. Many transgenders will flock to the US military - not because they care about defending our nation, but because they want this "free" surgery.

- Since surgeries must be followed up with near-constant hormone therapy, "transgender" troops will effectively be non-deployable. This will create enormous morale problems in the military as "transgenders" will effectively be treated as a separate class who can't be bothered to fight.

It is highly likely that the new study will support these findings. If the transgenders win on this issue, the military will waste millions of man-hours on transgender training on such subject as "male pregnancy."

All who care about the security of this nation should urge your Senators and Representatives in congress to do what is best for the nation on this issue.

Our Misguided Allegiances

To the editor:

Most of America will recall Hillary Clinton during her 2016 Presidential Campaign labeling working class conservatives as deplorables. We have witnessed these deplorables among us voluntarily responding with their fishing boats at their own expense to save thousands from the flood waters of Texas and Florida in recent weeks.

It is all too easy for many in the media and the left to label these good ol' boys rednecks and hillbillies. Yet, when the chips were down, they responded en masse. Do you recall seeing any report of any help coming from the Bill and Hillary Clinton Foundation? Do you think that flood victims could use the $1.9 billion given to Iran by Barack Obama?

The response and the lack of response to disasters such as Hurricane Harvey is concrete proof of this nation's misguided allegiance. This matter transcends political parties and has become an issue of humanity and common decency.

Agreeing That Families Suffer

Editor:

Many consider this a very divisive time in politics in our country. We have seen family, friends, coworkers, neighbors, church members and others disagreeing on so many things in the current political climate.

One issue is the effect of Alzheimer's disease on families in our community. Currently, there are over 90,000 Alabamians affected by Alzheimer's disease and over 303,000 unpaid caregivers providing care to their loved ones throughout this disease process.

This is an issue that continues to need increased support for research funding, support services, and public policy efforts focused on finding a cure and assisting families dealing with this devastating disease.

We now have two candidates running for Senate in our great state, Roy Moore and Doug Jones. Before the election in December, we ask that both candidates consider how important this issue is to our country and our state.

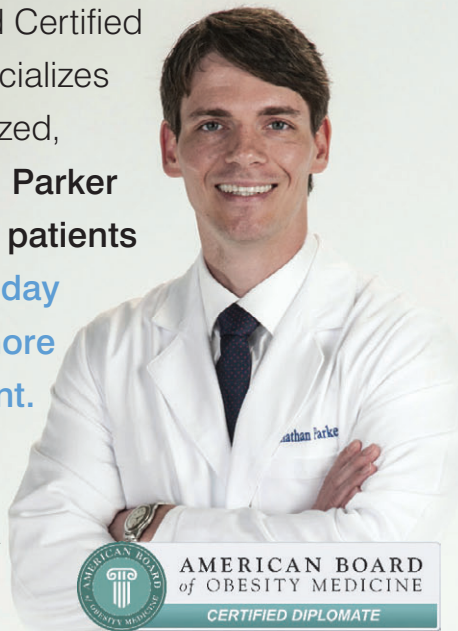

As voters in Alabama, please contact your candidate and make it known how important this issue is to you and your family. Ask what plans Roy Moore and Doug Jones have to combat Alzheimer's disease in Alabama.

The Enemy In Our Midst

Calling things as they are. Some things Americans have been weaned from. The idea is to present immoral and corrupt and perverse activity in a softer and less demeaning tone. A drunk is viewed as an excessive consumer of intoxicating beverages. A drug addict is said to be an abuser of a controlled substance. A pervert and pedophile is viewed as having different lifestyles. A killer and murderer is described as having homicidal tendencies. Stealing is appropriating another's property. Lying liars are told they are stretching the truth. Sin is pictured as having made a mistake or "I didn't mean it" or "it's not that bad", and everybody does it. Words like felony, larceny, misdemeanor, infraction, perpetrator, suspect, motive, and violator and abuser are designed to make our society more comfortable with the irrational behavior of natural-born sinners. Sadly today many churches and speakers tend to make their audiences comfortable with their immoral behavior. Guess who's the influencing invisible enemy behind those messages? See 1Peter 5:8. Are you comfortable with your sin and adjusting to it?

When is the last time you heard a message on the fires of hell and where the damned and unsaved are going to reside? The devil is a murderer and a liar and a master deceiver and is the author of sin. Every person on this planet is under the influence of someone or something. Think about it, just who is controlling you? You might say, "I am." Get another pilot. Your plane is fixing to land where there is no airfield. Hebrews 9:27 "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." Acts 17:31 "Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead." One day you will die and live somewhere for eternity. The enemy, the devil wants you to burn with him forever. Grow a spine and get saved and get in church before it's too late and you lose the most important things in this world, your soul and the souls of your family. Jesus paid it all, all to Him we owe, sin hath left a crimson stain, He can wash it white as snow. The devil is the invisible enemy in our midst.
