The IBEW is growing and you are invited!!

Response to our recent advertisements has been terrific! We have welcomed some new contractors into our family and are continually interviewing new membership prospects.

Our new contractors are not only looking for Qualified Electricians but also more Solar Electricians and Tele-Communication Technicians to staff upcoming projects.

One of the greatest benefits of the Electrical Union is the ability for our members to retire with dignity. Retirement of our well seasoned members provides fantastic opportunities for Electricians of Foreman and General Foreman qualifications. If you are an un-represented "lead" electrician, then we should be talking about your future.

We are also always looking for Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors looking to grow with us. It does not matter if you have just 1 electrician or 1000, we have opportunities for everyone!

The IBEW has been successfully training crews for our contractors since Edison and Tesla were young men. For 125 years our signatory contractors have come to the IBEW to hire the highest quality electricians in the industry. We continue today, working in a mutually beneficial partnership with our contractors to offer the best value in the industry to our valued customers.

Large Teratoma Found Near Heart

DEAR DR. ROACH: I had a CT scan due to broken ribs from a very recent fall. The scan revealed a large teratoma near my heart. I am 69 and was previously unaware of this formation. No suggestion has been given to me regarding further investigation or treatment of the teratoma. I am assuming it may have been present at birth and does not cause any problem. But now I am wondering if it should be monitored. Can a teratoma grow or migrate in the body? Any information on teratoma will be appreciated. — S.S.

ANSWER: A teratoma is a type of tumor of germ cells — the cells that become eggs or sperm. They can occur within the testis or ovary, but also can occur outside the gonads. When they do, they usually are found in the midline of the body. A frequent place is the anterior superior mediastinum, in between the lungs and below the breastbone. Teratomas usually are benign tumors, but some types can act like cancers.

Your tumor is unlikely to have been there since birth. Nobody knows whether the germ cell that became a teratoma properly went into the gonads during development, or whether the cell left the gonad and then became a tumor. It is clear, however, that men with teratoma outside the gonads are at higher risk for developing testicular cancer later on.

Teratomas, being derived from germ cells, are capable of creating any tissue. Teeth and hair are sometimes found inside teratomas.

I am very surprised you haven't been recommended for surgical removal.

Surgery is usually successful at curing teratoma. They certainly can grow, and occasionally become very large. I would certainly recommend seeing an oncologist (cancer specialist). Thoracic (chest) surgeons operate on this area. It may be that the position is difficult, but a surgeon should still evaluate you, in my opinion.

DEAR DR. ROACH: How is it that, at age 67, I'd never heard about the abomination called scabies? Last year, I was rubbing cream onto my aged mother's rash, and now I have this disgusting infestation on my body! Why haven't people been advised of this scourge! — Anon.

ANSWER: Scabies, sometimes just called, "the itch," is caused by the mite Sarcoptes scabiei, and is very common, with an estimated 300 million people infected worldwide. It is transmitted person-to-person by direct contact.

The major symptom of scabies is itching, often very severe and usually much worse at night. Itching begins about six weeks after the first infection, sooner if you have been infected before.

Often, the hardest part is figuring out the diagnosis, because a lot of people don't know about this condition. When the rash is classic in distribution (belt line, under the arms, wrists, genitals and especially in the finger web spaces), most regular doctors and any dermatologist can figure it out.

Permethrin 5 percent cream (Elimite and others) over the entire body for eight to 14 hours is the standard treatment. Many physicians recommend a second treatment in one to two weeks. There is an oral medication as well. Clothing and bedding need to be disinfected, too.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu. To view and order health pamphlets, visit www.rbmamall.com, or write to Good Health, 628 Virginia Drive Orlando, FL 32803.

Q • I love ABC's new series "Blood and Oil." The actor who plays Don Johnson's son in the drama looks familiar. What else has he done? — Eric P., Lancaster, Pennsylvania

A • Scott Michael Foster is the fellow you're thinking of. The 30-year-old actor was a regular cast member on "Greek," spent a season on "Californication" as Becca's boyfriend who Hank couldn't stand, was on "Once Upon a Time," and "Chasing Life." Now he plays Hap Briggs' (Don Johnson) ne'er-do-well son, Wick, on the nighttime sudster. He recently wrapped on the feature film "My Dead Boyfriend," which was directed by Anthony Edwards and also stars Heather Graham, John Corbett and Gina Gershon.

Despite the star power of Don Johnson, Amber Valletta and Chace Crawford, ABC recently announced that it has cut back its original order of "Blood and Oil" from 13 episodes to 10, which could mean that this first season of "Blood and Oil" very well might be its last if there isn't a drastic upturn in its ratings. Look for season one to air its finale in December.

Q • I just found "Mike and Molly" on reruns, and I love the show. Please tell me it has not been canceled. If not, when will it return for a new season? — Tony O. in Florida

A • The hit CBS sitcom starring Melissa McCarthy and Billy Gardell will be back for a sixth season. While the network (as of this writing) has not yet announced a premiere date, it will be toward the end of this year, so keep an eye on your local TV listings. For late-breaking news about this show — and many other shows, movies and celebrities — be sure to follow me on Twitter (twitter.com/Celebrity_Extra).

Q • Can you give me an update on Masterpiece Mystery's "Sherlock"? I can't wait for this series to start back up again! — Diana T., via email

A • While season four of the series doesn't start shooting until spring 2016, we do have a TV special to tide us over. Called "Sherlock: The Abominable Bride," Benedict Cumberbatch and Martin Freeman reprise their roles of Sherlock and Watson, respectively, to bring us this 90-minute movie. It will premiere on Jan. 1, 2016, in both the U.S. and U.K. — a first for this series, as the U.K. usually airs the series first — at 9 p.m. ET, as well as online at pbs.org/masterpiece.

Q • Where has Chris Vance and his series "Transporter" gone? Will TNT air season three? If he is not involved with the series, what is he doing now? — Laura B., via email

A • As of this writing, TNT has not announced whether "Transporter: The Series" will be back for a third season. However, if you need your Chris Vance fix now, he has a recurring role on CBS's "Supergirl" as the villain Non. His first appearance is in episode eight, which airs Dec. 14.

Smiley Face

Q. I have a "Happy Face" mug from the 1970s. Is it worth keeping? — Stephanie, Englewood, Colorado

A. The little happy face on a bright yellow circle has become totally synonymous with the 1970s. The smiley face was first introduced as a morale-building button by a Massachusetts insurance company. It was the right product at the right time and soon was seen everywhere. The image was used on neckties, coffee mugs, toys and fabric prints. Typical values for smiley face items include a deck of playing cards, $10; coasters, set of four, $8; cookie jar, $50-$100; electric wall clock, $20; and ceramic mug made by McCoy, $25.

A good reference for items from this era is "The Collectible '70s: A Price Guide to the Polyester Decade" by Michael Jay Goldberg.

Q. I received a Breitling Navitimer wristwatch from my dad when I graduated from college in 1968. When I took it to be cleaned, the watchman told me it was quite valuable. My big question is how valuable. It is the model 606, with three registers and in a stainless-steel case. — Rob, Camden, Ohio

A. I found your watch referenced in "100 Years of Vintage Watches: A Collector's Identification & Price Guide" by Dean Judy and published by Krause Books. According to Judy, a watchmaker/jeweler and expert, your watch is valued in the $1,000 to $1,800 range. Incidentally, the watch was sold as the "Official Timepiece of the Aircraft Owners' and Pilots' Association."

Q. I have a plastic thimble with "Sew It Up for Nixon & Lodge: Experience Counts." What is it worth? — Sue, Davenport, Iowa

A. Your thimble is from the 1960 campaign and worth about $10, according to Dr. Enoch L. Nappen, a political science professor at New Jersey's Monmouth University and an expert of political campaign materials.

Q. I have inherited a set of sterling flatware in the Hamilton Court pattern by Reed & Barton. When was it introduced, and is Reed and Barton an important company? — Cynthia, Fort Wayne, Indiana

A. Reed & Barton was established in 1840 and eventually introduced more than 100 silver patterns. Your pattern is from 1964.

Birding BITS BY Cindy Brook

Change of Seasons

I think this is my favorite time of year for bird transition. Out are the loud, whooping calls from the great-crested flycatcher and the buzzy trill of the N. parula. In are soft chips from yellow-rumped and yellow-throated warblers. Soon the gray catbird will be mewing on my fence post. I adore autumn.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

• It was beloved British crime novelist Agatha Christie who made the following sage observation: "It is a curious thought, but it is only when you see people looking ridiculous that you realize just how much you love them."

• If you've ever yelled out a warning in panic — "Stop!", "Run!", "Don't!" — you've used a monosyllabic sentence one that is complete with just a single word. Of course, at the time you probably weren't concerned about the grammatical nature of your utterance.

• When in New Jersey, you'd best mind your manners at the table. In that state, it's illegal to slurp your soup.

• If you're a sky-watcher, you may already know that the center star of the constellation Orion's sword isn't actually a star; it's a nebula — the only one visible from Earth with the naked eye. In fact, the Orion Nebula is so large that if the distance between the Earth and the sun were 1 inch, the relative size of the nebula would be 12 miles.

• If you were to create a rope out of one full head of human hair, that rope would be able to support 12 tons.

• It's a well-worn trope that men refuse to stop and ask for directions when they're lost. That point of view might seem to be supported by the results of a survey conducted by the American Automobile Association, which found that 34 percent of male drivers admit to stopping to ask for directions. However, the same survey found that only 37 percent of women did the same.

• By the time he was 5 years old, 19th-century French composer Camille Saint-Saens was already composing waltzes.

FLASH BACK

POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICK HARPER

1. Who had a hit with "Take Good Care of My Baby" in 1961?
2. Name the song that explores status symbols, keeping up with the Joneses, consumerism and "charcoal burning everywhere."
3. Who wrote and released "Edge of Seventeen"?
4. "Seduce Me Tonight" and "He's a Dream" were both on the soundtrack of which film?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "I got chills, They're multiplying and I'm losing control, 'Cause the power you're supplying, It's electrifying!"

Answers

1. Bobby Vee. The song was covered by Gary Lewis & The Playboys (1965) and Bobby Vinton (1968), though with less success.
2. "Pleasant Valley Sunday," by the Monkees in 1967. Writer Carole King was inspired by a community in New Jersey where she lived.
3. Stevie Nicks, in 1982. She wrote it in response to the death of John Lennon and her beloved uncle in the same week.
4. "Flashdance," in 1983. The album went gold within months and platinum the next year.
5. "You're the One That I Want," sung by John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John in the 1978 film version of the musical "Grease." The musical version is still touring after all these years.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Donna's Day Creative family fun

by Donna Erickson

Get Ready for Winter

"DEAR ELF, I HOPE YOU HAVE A NICE WINTER" is the greeting written with a blue crayon in big cap letters and tucked into the makeshift mailbag tacked to the side of the padlocked door at the base of a gnarly ash tree. For more than 20 years in Minneapolis, young friends of the endearing Lake Harriet tree elf have crouched down by the little wooden door, nimbly unlatched it and left handwritten letters and drawings inside a hollow, carved space of the tree. Returning two or three days later to the path around the city lake, they come to the "elf house" to find a response on a small piece of paper, just to them.

Seasons change, and now eager children have to wait until next spring to open the miniature, magical door again. "I have moved home to my castle," reads the engraved 1-inch sign above the threshold. Even elves close up their summer homes for the winter. Maybe your family has already been scurrying around like busy elves getting ready for the impending arrival of winter — washing windows, raking leaves and storing baseball bats and mitts.

Here are more weekend activities you can do together to shift gears into cooler weather and the holidays.

- Make a "be prepared" kit filled with supplies to have on hand if lights go out during a winter storm. Cover a shoebox with paper, and decorate it with safety symbols, using markers and stickers. Fill it with a flashlight, candles and matches, battery-operated clock and radio, and entertainment such as cards or small board games.

- Update your family's wallet photos by replacing old pictures with new school and informal photos. Send copies to proud grandparents, aunts and uncles. It's a good time to take holiday card photos, too.

- Sort through closets and drawers. Put on some music, and have your kids stage an impromptu outerwear "fashion show" to find out which sweaters, jackets and boots still fit and which don't. Donate useable, clean clothing and drop it off together.

- Discuss ways you can volunteer and participate at your child's school. Many children thrive in school when parents get involved.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Nov. 22, 1718, Edward Teach, also known as Blackbeard, is killed off North Carolina's Outer Banks during a battle with a British navy force. Believed to be a native of England, Teach likely began his pirating career in 1713 on the Queen Anne's Revenge.

• On Nov. 20, 1923, the U.S. Patent Office grants Patent No. 1,475,074 to inventor and newspaperman Garrett Morgan for his three-position traffic signal. By having a third position besides just "Stop" and "Go," it better regulated crossing vehicles.

• On Nov. 21, 1916, the Britannic, sister ship to the Titanic, sinks in the Aegean Sea, killing 30 people. In the wake of the Titanic disaster in 1912, the White Star Line made modifications in the construction of the Britannic, but an explosion caused catastrophic damage.

• On Nov. 19, 1969, Brazilian soccer great Pele scores his 1,000th professional goal in a game in Rio de Janeiro. It was a major milestone in a legendary career that included three World Cup championships.

• On Nov. 18, 1978, Peoples Temple founder Jim Jones leads hundreds of his followers in a mass murder-suicide at their commune in a remote part of Guyana. Many of Jones' followers willingly ingested a poison-laced punch, while others were forced to do so at gunpoint. The final death toll at Jonestown that day was 909; a third of those were children.

• On Nov. 16, 1988, in Pakistan, citizens vote in their first open election in more than a decade, choosing as prime minister the populist candidate Benazir Bhutto, daughter of former Pakistani leader Zulfikar Ali Bhutto. She was the first woman leader of a Muslim country in modern history.

• On Nov. 17, 1998, DaimlerChrysler begins trading its shares on the New York Stock Exchange. The company had formed five days earlier, when the American Chrysler Corporation merged with the German conglomerate Daimler-Benz AG.

The Kitchen Diva!
by Angela Shelf Medearis

Hassle-Free
Holiday Cooking

I’ve learned the hard way that the secret to a hassle-free holiday cooking is to plan ahead. For large holiday meals, the freezer is definitely your friend. Almost everything from appetizers and side dishes to desserts can be prepared and frozen ahead of time. Planning ahead for the holidays also saves money, because you can buy your holiday menu items as they go on sale, prepare them and freeze them.
Recently, I spent two hours making pie crusts and baking pies for Thanksgiving. I know that ready-to-bake pie crusts and pre-made pies are readily available at most grocery stores, but during the holidays,
I love everything to be homemade.
I’ve found that by using my food processor, I can make a flaky pie crust that takes only a few minutes to process and can be frozen until needed. Holiday favorites like apple, pecan, sweet potato and pumpkin pie actually taste better when made ahead of time, and they freeze beautifully.
After baking, allow the pies to cool on a rack for five to six hours. Wrap each pie in a single layer of plastic wrap and two layers of heavy-duty aluminum foil. Place them in your freezer. You can stack the single crust pies, if necessary. Allow the pies to thaw out at room temperature at least eight hours before you plan to serve them.
These recipes for Quick and Easy Pie Crusts and Fudgy Pecan Pie are delicious ways to plan ahead for the holidays!

QUICK & EASY PIE CRUSTS
(Makes two 9-inch pies)
3 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1½ cups butter-flavored shortening sticks, chilled and cut into cubes

1/4 cup ice-cold water, plus 1 tablespoon 1 tablespoon white vinegar
1 egg
1. In the bowl of a food processor, blend the flour and salt. Add shortening, a few cubes at a time, pulsing 3 or 4 times to combine after each addition. In a small bowl, combine water, vinegar and egg. Slowly add the water mixture to the flour mixture, a tablespoon at a time, pulsing 2 or 3 crust is like a wonderful pecan pie.
You may want to double the recipe and freeze one for the holidays.
3 eggs
3 tablespoons butter, softened
1¼ cups light corn syrup
1/2 cup sugar
1/3 cup baking cocoa, sifted
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons vanilla extract
1 cup chopped pecans
1 (9 inch) unbaked pie shell Whipped cream, optional times after each addition until some of the dough forms into a ball.

2. Scrape the dough out on to a lightly floured cutting board. You should be able to gently press any remaining pieces of the dough into a ball. Handle the dough as little as possible or it will become tough. Divide dough into two equal parts. Gently flatten into round disk shapes and wrap them in plastic wrap.
3. If using the dough immediately, chill at least 30 minutes in the refrigerator. Chilling allows the dough to relax, become more elastic, absorb any remaining liquids, and will ensure that the crust will be flaky.
To freeze: Wrap dough in plastic wrap and then in two layers of aluminum foil. When ready to use, thaw dough completely in the refrigerator before rolling out on a lightly floured surface.
FUDGY PECAN PIE
This pie is the best of both worlds:
The center is similar to a pecan brownie, and the filling and the flaky

Crispy Spiced Duckling

It tastes as good cold as it does hot, which is why so many of us bring it to tailgate parties and picnics as an alternative to chicken. A spicy dry rub of red pepper, fennel, cloves and ginger flavors the duck quarters overnight, then they're roasted to crisp perfection.

- 2 medium green onions
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1 teaspoon fennel seeds, crushed
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1 (4 1/2-pound) duckling, fresh or frozen (thawed)
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons honey

1. Day ahead: Cut green onions into 2-inch-long pieces; crush with side of knife. In small bowl, mix salt, crushed red pepper, fennel seeds, cloves and ginger.

2. Remove giblets and neck from duckling; refrigerate to use in soup another day. Cut duckling into quarters; trim excess fat and skin. Rinse duckling with running cold water; pat dry with paper towels.

3. Rub duckling quarters with green-onion pieces; discard green onions. Then, rub duckling with spice mixture. Place duckling in large bowl; cover; refrigerate overnight.

4. About 2 1/2 hours before serving or early in day: Place duckling quarters, skin-side up, on rack in 15 1/2-by-10 1/2-inch roasting pan. Roast in 350 F. oven 2 hours.

5. About 15 minutes before duckling is done, brush with soy sauce, then honey; continue roasting until duckling is golden and tender. Serve duckling hot with Plantain Chips. (To serve duckling cold, cover and refrigerate duckling.) Serves 4.

Detroit is drunken idiots. It was no surprise to me. I performed with Kenny Rogers for one year as his opening act, and I got to visit every major American city and notice the audience, and Detroit was one of the worst.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — In September, a U.S. District Court judge ruled that Warner/Chappell Music had never acquired a valid copyright for the song “Happy Birthday.” The melody was composed in 1893 by schoolteacher Patty Smith Hill and her sister Mildred. In 1935, the Summy Company registered a copyright for the lyrics. In 1988, the copyright, which was supposed to last until 2030, was bought by Warner/Chappell for an estimated $5 million. Movie companies and TV shows using the song had to pay from $700 to $5,000 for its use. To date it’s amassed an estimated $50 million. Almost every talk- and magazine show sang the song after the ruling because they didn’t have to pay a royalty.

But hold on ... Warner/Chappell is appealing the ruling, and in eight months it could be overturned. This verdict could trigger a meaningful review for production companies that own other copyrights on registrations made decades ago, before recordkeeping was computerized. Stay tuned, there’s a lot riding on this.

CBS has a black eye today. The network has refused to run ads for the Robert Redford/Cate Blanchard film “Truth.” Redford plays Dan Rather, who was fired by CBS for the “60 Minutes II” story that questioned President George W. Bush’s Vietnam War-era commitment to serve in the Texas Air National Guard based on fake documents. CBS would “Rather” it just go away to the tune of $1 million in ad revenue.

THE OLD MILL FLEA MARKET in the Historic Centreville Mill, 3 Bridal Avenue, West Warwick: Open 8AM-4PM every Saturday & Sunday. Free admission. Quality Vendors wanted. Antiques, collectibles, architectural, garage memorabilia & much, much more. Contact Andy, 226-3377.

I think one of my favorite things to do is just lock myself up in a small room and listen to music and watch films for a day. Also I just like seeing my friends. We have pizza parties which means I get four friends round, we eat a pizza and we’re really lazy and we play PlayStation.

– Daniel Radcliffe

famous for?” He asserts “Playboy” is trying to be more like Maxim, GQ and Esquire. At least we’ll finally learn if the claim that men only buy “Playboy” for the stories is true.

Laverne Cox, the first Emmy-nominated transgender actress, will play Frank-N-Furter in the two-hour Fox TV reboot of “The Rocky Horror Picture Show.” The role created, both on stage and in the film, by Tim Curry has always been played men. “Rocky Horror” airs later in 2016, following the Jan. 31 live reboot of “Grease.” Laverne Cox also will appear in the CBS pilot “Doubt” as a transgender attorney, a role especially created for her.

Now that Daniel Craig is stepping down as 007, he’ll leave his James Bond image and signature martini behind. Craig will head off-Broadway to star in “Othello,” with David Oyelowo. But the Bond persona will be hard to forget as audiences watch this violent Shakespeare play and are “shaken not stirred”!

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your ruling planet, Mars, allows you to assume a sense of command that can help you turn a chaotic workplace situation into one that’s orderly, productive and, yes, even friendly.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Getting a relationship that’s been stuck in a rut up and running again depends on how far you want to run with it. Be honest with yourself as you consider which decision to make.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be wary of rumors that seem to be coming from everywhere this week. Waiting for the facts before you act means never having to say you’re sorry you followed the wrong lead.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A difficult personal matter might prompt you to turn to a trusted friend to help you sort through a maze of emotional conflicts. The weekend should bring some welcome news.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Some of the new people coming into the Lion’s life could play pivotal roles in future personal and professional matters. Meanwhile, an old friend might have an important message.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A delay in getting things moving on schedule can be a blessing in disguise. Use this extra time to do more research so you can buttress any of the weaker points with solid facts.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might need to get involved in a personal matter before it becomes a serious problem. Also, be wary of someone offering to mediate, unless you can be sure of his or her motives.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Taking sides in a workplace or domestic dispute could prolong the problem. Stay out and stay cool. Then you can be friends with both parties when things settle down.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A friendship has the potential to become something more, and with this week’s aspects favoring romance, you might feel that this possibility is worth exploring.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The new job you want might require you to relocate. If so, keep an open mind and weigh all the positives and negatives before making your decision.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A new relationship seems to be everything you could have hoped for. Congratulations. Meanwhile, it’s not too early to get some feedback on that new project you’re working on.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might have decided to get out of the fast-moving current and just float around hither and yon for a while. But you might find that the new opportunity is too tempting to turn down.

BORN THIS WEEK: You believe in bringing out the best in people with kind deeds, loving words and recognition of their “special” selves.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.
